HELLO THERE—I'm a blacktail deer. Just a fawn, mind 'ya, but I have been around these parts long enough to see what's happening in the world of pollution. I rest on the hillside above me here each day and watch while passers-by deposit their litter along the roadway. Cans, bottles and I don't know what all. Well, just keep it up and us blacktails will be high-tailing it on out of here. See 'ya around.

PRIMARY SCHOOL DEDICATED

Some very special guests attended the dedication, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Winsor. Mr. Winsor was the principal of Forks Elementary School for many years and retired last year.

The new Forks Primary School building was dedicated Saturday at 2:00 p.m. Approximately 120 people attended the ceremony. The dedication was held in the middle pod of the three pod designed building, the architect for the building was Charles Rueger Jr.

The bids for the building were accepted December 19, 1969, Enger Construction was the contractor. The mechanical contractor was Lentz Co., of Bremerton. Sentinel Electric of Bellevue, was the electrical contractor. The school was only 8 months to completion.
 To begin the dedication ceremony, the flag salute was given by Mark Corbin, the invocation by Pastor Howard Stockman. The staff of the new school was introduced by Joe Newbry, principal. The guests were introduced by John Hitchcock. The presentation of the building was given by Charles Rueger Jr., the architect. The official response was given by Jon Erickson, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Quillayute Valley School system.

 The dedication was given by Norman Westling, Superintendent of Public Instruction representative.
 Westling, in extolling the praises of the new building compared the schools of today with the schools of yesteryear. He said, "With the new concepts of education this building lends itself perfectly to this idea. It is very important for children to feel at home in their school atmosphere."
 Westling also commended the people of the area for their interest in the schooling of their children and the faculty for their interest in the students of today, the leaders of tomorrow.
 A tour of the building and refreshments followed the dedication.

112. The driver was Joe Camper, 22, of Port Angeles, driving a 1965 Volkswagen. He was westbound and failed to negotiate a curve to the right, spun around, hitting a telephone pole and coming to rest at a 90 degree angle to the road. There were no injuries.
 Also, on the 17th, at the LaPush junction, Robert Tillotson, 18, of Forks, driving a 1964 Mercury sedan, escaped serious injury when his northbound vehicle, went into a broadside skid, crossing the southbound lane, shearing off the mercury-vapor light at the LaPush turn-off, the vehicle came to rest at a 90 degree angle to the ditch. # EDITORIAL . . .

The inequities in our present welfare system have come under fire by several groups of late. Those who feel they aren't being paid enough and those who are tired of paying. At the annual convention of Washington Newspaper Publishers' Association convention held at Yakima, September 12, Governor Evans included in his speech the following statement. He said, "How about public assistance? Here's an area where everyone likes to jump aboard, and everybody's got a simple example of some chiseler down the block who is on public assistance that should not be, and sure, when we have as many thousands of people as we have who are drawing public assistance, there's always room for cheating: just as there is always room for cheating and we probably have just as good an example of someone cheating on their income tax or someone consistently flaunting the law when they are out on the highway." The governor went on to say that he felt the majority of people on public assistance do not really like to receive aid but just why they continue to do so, he did not say.

Governor Evans said, the state pays about $70 per month to the aged and about $190 to a family of four, the average size family receiving aid to dependent children.

We know of families that have been on welfare for generations. We know of those who continue to have children, just to increase their monthly allotment. We know of those who should not receive it, but we also know of some who should.

We have a family in our town, a young family, that had healthy children, until one day the young girl was taken to the hospital, she underwent surgery that saved her life, but the hospital bills and drug bills began to mount. The father works in the woods, he earns enough to care for his family, but occasionally the woods are closed, the bills continue to come in. The family must buy medicine for the child if she is to live. They received aid for awhile, then the help stopped. The father, a proud man says, "Let them keep their money, we don't need it". Although with the woods closed, it is sometimes very difficult financially for him to write the check for $143.00 each month to pay for the medicine. The young girl is in a special school for the blind in Vancouver, Washington, but the medicine still must be sent each month, it is all that keeps their daughter alive.

Why the state will not help a family like this one and yet will support the known welfare offender is very difficult to understand. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent trying to train the illiterate for new jobs, jobs they invariably do not hold for any time at all. Perhaps the guaranteed annual wage isn't so bad after all, I wonder where you apply?

Wolverines lost the Rose Bowl game to Southern California, 10-3.

Schembechler has recovered from the heart attack that struck him last December, and he is back along with a host of last year's stars.

Primary among those are quarterback Don Moorhead and running backs Glen Doughty and Bill Taylor.

Moorhead, 195-pound senior, set a school record for season total offense by throwing for 1,281 yards and running for 625 last season.

Doughty, 195 junior, rushed for 732 yards but must recover from knee surgery. Taylor, 200 and another junior, was on all-conference selection last season; he led Michigan's rushers with 864 yards and a 6.1 average.

Seven starters return on defense, with only the secondary really hurt by graduation. One of those losses, All-American Tom Curtis, appears to have been adequately replaced by Jim Betts, a 6-4, 185 ex-quarterback.

This is the second of Washington's three nonconference home games that open the season. A week from Saturday, the Huskies will host Navy. Their conference opener is October 10, also at home, against California.

TO POST OR NOT TO POST?

With the big game hunting season fastly approaching, the rancher finds himself faced with a big problem which occurs year after year during the fall season when the sportsmen take to the outdoors in search of the ever popular game animals of our great Northwest. A problem indeed, as many excellent hunting areas lie close by or on privately owned land such as farms, stump ranches, etc., year after year, cattle, sheep, goats, etc., fall victim to or are wounded by hunters who we would not truly classify as sportsmen, but perhaps as vandals. Whichever classification we place upon the persons responsible for this vandalism has no real significance when it comes time for the property owner to make his decision to post or not to post.

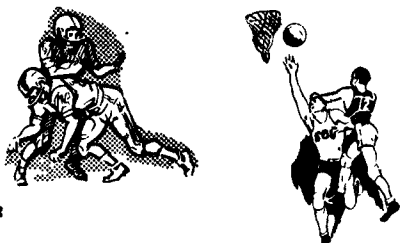

The land is posted in an attempt to protect livestock and property from vandals. So what happens? The sportsmen takes note of the "no trespassing; no hunting" sign and moves on in search of new hunting grounds. The vandal, however, will many times ignore the warnings and trespass. I saw a bumper sticker once which read, "when guns are outlawed, only outlaws will carry guns". The same principle applies here. It takes only a small minority of vandals to destroy the hunting rights of the majority of sportsmen. And so again this year the question reaches the minds of land owners. To post or not to post?

Hit Bainbridge Sunday, the first stop for the Olympic Traveling League this season. Claude Clark rode over with me and there we joined the other members of Clark's Vagabond team, Darrell, D.J., and Duke. Didn't do too shabby, either, as we won forty out of a possible sixty points.

Sunset Lanes team, consisting of Dick Streeter, Dick Suchodolski, Carl Simmons, Bob Seigle, and Al Whitehead won and lost.

Darrell took both Hi 10 and Hi 30 for the bunch, hitting a 228-626 the first shift, and a 218-610 the second three games. Grandpa Jarvis threw a 222-582 and D.J. had a 221.

Mother, bless her heart, stayed home and ran the bowling alley. Been married twenty-eight years this Saturday and she's just as lovely as she was the day we were hitched. Happy anniversary, Hon.

Tuesday Afternoon gals started out pretty good, Ruth Hutton had a 190, and Billie Crist a 188-506. Cris Pitt converted the 6-7-10 split.

Kaye Kelso won all the marbles in the Sunset League as she banged out a very professional-like 247-670. Yikes! Duke hit a 226 and Dick Stroupe picked off the 7-9 and ten free games in the process.

Jerry Beebe and Mary Kennedy for the Powder Puffs, Jerry with a 184 and Mary a 500.

Kathy Hamby topped the Hoot Owls with her 188-496. Barb Kelso had a 205, Hi 10 on the Women's Thursday Nite League and Reta O'Keefe a 198-549.

Gordon McCoy and Claude Clark tied at 225, Al Whitehead had a 212-586, and Darrell rolled a 223-649, He's sure going to be tough this year.

Jerry Beebe again in Friday Mixed with a 179-494, and Paula Lyda a 177-496. George Richardson hit a 237-582 and Fred Jarvis a 222. Carl Simmons picked off the 6-7 split.

At Saturday Nite Monte Carlo, Randy Clark missed the TV shot, but picked off a $15 shot later on.

Darrell again with a 236-627 in Forks Prairie League and Bob West a 224. "Hoss" Caulkins had a 564 series.

Beat the Pros finals will be held Saturday and Sunday, October 3 and 4. Check with Darrell to find out if you're qualified.

BPAA Summer Singles Finals will be at Port Townsend this weekend. Some way to spend an anniversary!

Bowlers of the week: Barb Kelso 205, Reta O'Keefe 549, and Kaye Kelso 247-670.

for the Giants as Jim Leppell led the defensive charge with 9 tackles.

Millsap got his first of two touchdowns on the second play of the game as he rambled 47 yards to score. Steve Burge added the extra point with an off tackle slant.

Kreider came back early in the second quarter with a six-yard run to add six points to the Giant's score. With reserves playing, the Giants had to wait until the fourth quarter to add the icing to the cake. After driving 45 yards in 8 plays the Giants sent Randy Millsap into the end zone from eight yards away to score 6 points. Bruce Kreider scored the point after touchdown, to bring the final score to 20 to 0.

The Giants next scheduled game is Sunday the 27th, when they will do battle with the Port Townsend Colts in Forks. Game time is set for 2:00 p. m.

Packers Roll To Victory

The Forks Little League Packers grabbed off their first victory of the year playing strong defense and scoring in the first, third, and twice in fourth quarters to beat the Sequim Lions, 27 to 0.

Defense led by Ken Gaydeski, Funt Blankenship, and a very tough nose guard by the name of Fryberg, never gave Sequim a chance to get momentum enough for a serious threat.

Larry Went Fishing

LARRY WENT FISHING--Larry Thomas is pictured with the 32-pound king salmon caught in the Quillayute. The salmon measured 40 inches in length. Larry said, "It took 20 minutes to land the fish." Larry had the day off, really.

Steve Tovey again having a fine evening scored the first two touchdowns for the Packers. The first came in the first quarter with 3:30 left to play. Tovey plunged through the right guard to make the score 6 to 0. Don Perry scored the point after touchdown on a reverse around left end.

Tovey came back in the third quarter on a power sweep and rambled 20 yards to make the score, 13 to 0. Mitch Lamb added the fourteenth point with a quarterback sneak behind blocks by Rick Garman and Bill Russell.

Randy Crossgrove lit up the scoreboard for the Packers in the fourth quarter with a double reverse, 15 yards and a touchdown. Runt Blankenship made the score 20 to 0 with the point after touchdown.

The Packer's final touchdown came late in the fourth quarter with Mitch Lamb going 20 yards on a quarterback roll-out. The try for the point after touchdown failed, leaving the final score, Packers, 27; Lions, 0.

HUSKIES HOST MICHIGAN

A Michigan football team invades Husky Stadium for the second straight week this Saturday when the University of Michigan meets Washington. Game time is 1:30 p.m.

Michigan's Wolverines have been rated one of the nation's strongest teams. They are defending champions of the Big 10 Conference and were rated eighth in the Associated Press pre season poll.

They blasted Washington 45-7 last season in Ann Arbor, and went on to win a trip to the Rose Bowl with a shocking 24-12 upset of Ohio State in the season finale.

With their coach, Bo Schembechler, in the hospital, the

MEDITATION

By Rev. Ted Ringsmuth

WOULD YOU WANT TO LIVE IN A COMMUNITY OR A NATION WITHOUT A CHURCH?

When the Church is strong everything we hold dear is assured. When the Church is weak, everything we hold as precious is in jeopardy.

Most people take the Church for granted. Many people who give the Church no support just expect it to be there and be available for baptizing children, marrying and burying. This is really too bad. If the Churches in any community were given full support they could do a great deal more to make our world a better place.

No person can grasp the true value and meaning of the Church unless he enters whole-heartedly into its life and work. To be sure not every Church suits everybody. That is why we have different denominations. We do not want to be the same. We can have unity of spirit without uniformity of worship and belief. We can work together so that the total environment of our community will make for mature and wholesome growth in our children and young people.

You need the Church! The Church needs you!

TRAIL RIDERS NEWS

Many Forks area residents, this past year, have renewed their interest in horses.

The Trail Riders, a local riding club, has had several rides this summer. The rides are conducted at a different place each time and each has had at least one highlight. On a ride on the Upper Hoh, at a river crossing a horse and rider took an unscheduled swim. A ride to the Olympic Shelter "scared" up a bear, the trail ride on the Lower Hoh, starting at Clayton Graves' was very interesting, watching a fellow rider with a cast on his leg, try to keep it dry!

Newcomers to Forks, Alan Sharon Clarke are the owners of a registered paint mare, Nina Manchada, and her six-month-old colt, Dollars Dandybob. Young "Dandy" has been shown five times this summer and has been undefeated. His latest victory was a futurity in Salem, Oregon.

Harry Lefler's quarterhorse mare, Tinky-Eight, came off a long pasture rest and showed by Doreen Planes placed second. Jumana Dee, owned by Glenn King and shown by Barbara King, took third in the same class.

The Stablehounds 4-H Club from Port Angeles held an open horse show last weekend. Jumana Dee, shown by Barbara King, took third place in the Half-Arab class. Betty Munson, showing Ibn Salym, placed second in the all Arabian class. Linda Stanley, a newcomer to Forks, rode her horse Misty to a fourth place finish in the Western Pleasure class.

In the costume class, Barbara King, rode Marilyn Snodgrass' horse Lucky. She brought home a blue ribbon and trophy.

The costume worn in the event was loaned to Barbara by Ella Paul. The side-saddle was lent to Mrs. King by Irwin King.

took a third place in the Arabian class. In the Half-Arabian Class, U-Rill, owned and shown by Doreen Planes placed second. Jumana Dee, owned by Glenn King and shown by Barbara King, took third in the same class.

The Washington Rein Riders 4-H horse club, has had trail rides and shows this summer. Blue ribbons went to Sue Mansfield, and her horse, Maud S; Sanford Windle and his horse, Samson; Karen Gaydeski and her horse, Pepper; Rocky Colfelt and his horse, J.D.; Jane Roberts and her horse, Wickery; Darla Gaydeski and her horse, Little Red; and Gale Lingvall and her horse, Shorty, received a blue and red ribbon.

The Clallam County Fair open horse show had representatives from Forks. Betty Munson, showing Ibn Salym,

Also visiting the Smiths and Klahns was a nephew, Vernon Green of Fortuna, California. Mr. Green was on his way north for a moose hunt. The two men, Vernon and Francis, were born and raised in this area, but had not seen each other for about 20 years. While here the Romeo family went on a camping trip with Archie Smith. He took them, via motorboat, across Lake Ozette to the Allan Beach trail. They hiked into the ocean beach and spent the night.

Incidentally, we heard that moose hunt Vernon made up north was highly successful, and that he is now going to try for a deer and a bear.
