JURY IN THE WATTS-HANSEN CASE FAILS OF AN AGREEMENT

After two hours in the jury room, the jury in the case of the State vs. John C. Hansen for assault in the third degree, on complaint of Mrs. Agnes Watts, at 11:20 o'clock last night, reported to the court that it was unable to agree and was discharged.

The case was given to the jury about 9:30 Monday evening after argument by the counsel which was listened to by an interested audience that filled the court room.

During the afternoon the State rested its case and the defense introduced as witnesses the two principals, John C. Hansen and Julius I. Kirschberg and their wives, they being the only witnesses. The testimony was concluded at the supper hour, and the court recessed until 7:30, when the argument was begun. In addition to the witnesses named, the defense introduced in evidence copies of the Watts publication of dates June 1, 2, and 4 last, containing the defamatory matter which prompted the visit of Messrs. Hansen and Kirschberg and their wives to the Watts home.

It is reported that the jury stood ten to two for acquittal.

Although no court action had been taken in the matter at noon today, it is deemed probable that the case against Kirschberg, which was to follow the Hansen trial, will not be heard at this term, owing to the fact that not a sufficient number of eligible jurors remain from which to secure a jury.

LIBERTY FIRES WILL BE LIGHTED

A patriotic demonstration with a big "Liberty Fire," will close Liberty Day in Port Angeles tomorrow evening.

All over the United States in every hamlet and town these "liberty fires" are to burn, under the supervision of women's organizations. The women in Port Angeles have been just a bit slow but arrangements are all complete now and the Boy Scouts will have a fine big brush pile ready to kindle on the court house grounds on Lincoln street opposite the Evening News office.

Bring your torchlights and fireworks and every man, woman and child be on hand at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening when the torch is applied that will blazon Port Angeles and proclaim that its women are willing to assist in keeping the fires of freedom burning.

Under the inspiration of Mrs. William G. McAdoo, wife of the secretary of the treasury and daughter of President Wilson, the women of the United States will take charge of a demonstration in every city, town and hamlet in the country, the principal feature of which will be the kindling of "liberty fires," in the reflected light of which patriotic men and women will bring forcibly to the attention of the citizens who assemble around them the grave crisis and duty which confronts them.

Many centuries ago, when the liberties of Greece were threatened, it was the custom of its citizens to kindle liberty fires as signals betokening danger and to arouse united action. Every schoolboy recalls that at the dawn of the foundation of this republic, and even before, both the primitive red man and the Pilgrim fathers were accustomed to use these identical signals with which to arouse, assemble and inspire their colonies to united action for a given purpose.

CANNING THE KAISER

Marching Through Georgia brought up to 1919 by A. W. Smith, Forks, Washington, September, 17, 1917.

I

Bring the good old bugle, boys,
We'll sing another song;
Sing it with a spirit that will start the world along;
Sing it as we used to sing it
Full two million strong
While we are canning the Kaiser.

Chorus

Hurrah! Hurrah! We bring the Jubilee!
Hurrah! Hurrah! the flag that makes you free!
So we sang the chorus up and down
through Germany,
While we were canning the Kaiser.

II

How the Frenchmen shouted when they saw our noble band;
How the British cheered the boys
The day they saw them land;
How the Bel-gi-ans rejoiced for home
and native land,
While we were canning the Kaiser.

III

Yes, and there were Germans, too,
Who wept with joyful tears
When they saw the tyrant crushed
Whom they had feared for years;
Hardly could they be restrained from breaking forth in cheers
While we were canning the Kaiser.

IV

Pershing's dashing Khaki boys
Will never reach our lan(d);
So the saucy Kaiser said
He though he was so grand;
But we crossed two million men,
And never lost a man,
While we were canning the Kaiser.

V

So we made a thoroughfare
For Freedom and her train;
All around this great big world
All tyrants put to shame;
Treason fled before us for Resistance
was in vain,
While we were canning the Kaiser.

JUDGE GRAVES MAKES APPEAL FOR LIBERTY BONDS

Judge Carrol Graves, of Seattle, made a splendid patriotic talk at Saturday night's mass meeting in the opera house, held in the interest of the Liberty Bond drive, which is to be vigorously pushed all over the United States this week. Judge Graves dwelt at some length on the good and safe investment the United States bonds are, in pressing upon the audience the fact that Uncle Sam was not asking us to give our money, but simply to loan it at a good rate of interest backed by the best security in the world. Another fact the speaker would have us remember is that money is going to shorten the war and it behooves us all to be as generous with our loans as our incomes will possibly allow, for nothing worth while in this world is obtainable without a sacrifice.

T. F. Trumbull, chairman of the meeting, spoke briefly at the close of Judge Graves' address, driving home more strongly the facts set forth by the Judge and reminding the audience that while it should be the patriotic duty of every American citizen to invest as much as he could in Liberty Bonds at the urgent request of our President and the government, that if we still held back it would then become necessary for the government to demand our money in the way of taxes, and then we would receive no interest at all. The United States is at war and we must pay the price with blood and money if democracy is to win over autocracy. Every citizen who buys a Liberty Bond contributes toward victory.

Verne Samuelson, Scout Leader and the Boy Scouts then took the platform and gave the scout oath. Scout Bingham recited the clever war poem, "Over Here, and Postmaster Stocking presented the boys with the war service emblems, after reading the official communication from President Wilson.

The audience showed its appreciation and approval of the work done by the Boy Scouts and their enthusiastic and inspiring Leader by loud hand clapping as each boy received his emblem, which signifies that he is one of Uncle Sam's helpers, and in the first Liberty Loan drive sold individually ten or more Liberty Bonds The Boy Scout yells, given with all the "pep" of Young America, and led by their Assistant Scout Leader Oscar Nelson, closed the program.

EIGHT ARRESTED FOR CONSPIRING TO KILL PRESIDENT

The method of murdering the President is unannounced. Four of the men were bound over to the grand jury.

ORGANIZE CHILDREN FOR THE RED CROSS

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 23.—Belgium and France are to be more to American school children this winter than the places geography tells about. The amusing little French and Belgian children, with their peculiar dresses, caps and shoes will be brothers and sisters.

From the great sum of spending money which American children receive, a fund is to be raised for the boys and girls of Belgium and France whose fathers have fallen in battle.

Whenever a school anywhere in America has given a fund equal to twenty-five cents for each pupil, or when the children themselves have made articles worth that, the school will be made an auxiliary of the Red Cross and membership buttons given to the pupils.

The assistance given the Red Cross by school children throughout the United States, last year, prompted the War Council to undertake the organization of American children for Red Cross service.

GERMAN AUTOCRACY IN WAR

In respect to German's international conduct, the facts of history will speak for themselves. Having adopted the view that might makes right, and that Germany was entitled to anything in the world that she could grasp and hold, the German autocracy proceeded to make ready for Germany's future of expansion and domination. We have repeatedly expressed the opinion that the imperial policies of Germany's rivals have in many instances been pursued by indefensible methods. But British imperialism, whatever its mistakes or its misdeeds, is always subject to the redeeming and chastening power of the British democracy. If the British jingoes took the Boer republics, let it be remembered that the British liberals, by way of restitution, gave back those republics to the Boers and gave them the whole of South Africa to boot. The policies for German imperial aggrandizement as worked out by the Kaiser and the military, naval and commercial magnates who form the ruling autocratic clique, having been very different from those that characterize the British Empire during a corresponding period of time. Great Britian has not, in fact, been a menace to liberty whether within British realms or in other countries. No small state in Europe has had any reason to be afraid of Great Britian or France.

Not only, moreover, have the aims of the German autocracy been a menace to the world, but Germany's methods in her conduct of this war, and in her relations to other peoples, have fully deserved President Wilson's unsparing denunciation. He is not, in this answer to the Pope, dwelling upon matters of detail. Otherwise he might have laid the Armenian massacres at Germany's door. It was Germany's assault upon Belgium that overcame the reluctance of the British liberals to enter the war. It was the resumption of submarine atrocities on a great scale that turned the tide of sentiment in this country and forced a declaration of war from a pacifist Administration and a pacifist Democratic Congress. The intrigues and unworthy deeds of German diplomacy in neutral countries have continued to form a part of this general program of heinous misconduct that has made Germany's war methods increasingly abhorrent to the public opinion of all mankind.—American Review of Reviews.

A RIGHTFUL PEACE.

America, says President Wilson, will not make a peace that is not based on a rightful settlement of the principles for which the Nation is fighting. The only end of the war is a complete victory for the nations representing democratic ideals over the nations adhering to the German doctrine of force. A German success would mean not only the prevention of the spirit of democracy but possibly might include the suppression of that already existing.

The President voices the ideals and the determination of the American people. There must be no compromise with the things that the German Imperial Governments stands for and has practiced. Germany sought to impose her "kultur" on the world; the result is going to be that the American ideals of liberty and right and justice will prevail throughout the world, even in Germany.

OUR GOVERNMENT IS NOT SO SLOW

The prevailing idea that Uncle Sam works rather slowly is not borne out by the task which he has accomplished at American Lake where in just about sixty days he has built the fourth largest city in the State of Washington, officially known as Camp Lewis. The new city will have a population of 56,500 as the Government has decided to place that many soldiers at this cantonment. Work on the cantonment was commeced in July and finished Spetember 1st; then came orders for more buildings as it had in the meantime been decided to increase the population at the camp from 50,000 to 56,500. The new work is now under way and will shortly be completed.

"WITH THE WORLD FOR AN HONEST WORLD WE FIGHT."

Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, outlines cause of America and interior, shows cause of America and her allies:

"America speaks for the world in fighting Germany. Mark on a map those countries which are Germany's allies and you will mark but four, running from the Baltic through Austria and Bulgaria to Turkey. All the other nations the whole globe around are in arms against her or are unable to move. There is deep meaning in this. We fight with the world for an honest world in which nations keep their word, for a world in which nations do not live by swagger or by threat, for a world in which men think of the ways in which they can conquer the common cruelties of nature instead of inventing more horrible cruelties to inflict upon the spirit and body of a man, for a world in which the ambition or the philosophy of a few shall not make miserable all mankind, for a world in which the man is held more precious than the machine, the system, or the state."

CANNING KAISER CALLS FOR COAL

The prices which the President put upon coal offered no encouragement to the producers; and the output of the mines fell off lamentably. Canning the Kaiser calls for coal. The only fields available for large production—now that those of Northern France are in the hands of the Hun—are those of Wales and of the United States, we of course, having by far the larger supply to draw upon. Yet this country and our dependent allies are at this very moment facing a real famine in fuel.

LIBERTY LOAN MUST SUCCEED

How vital to the success of our country in this war, how absolutely necessary to the success and the safety and the well-being of our soldiers and sailors who are offering their lives to their country is the success of the Liberty Loan is well expressed in the following extracts from the speech of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo made before the American Bankers' Association at Atlantic City:

"It is upon the Treasury of the United States that every demand in time of war focuses, because everything goes back to the gold pile.

"Every dollar that is paid to a soldier, every pair of shoes he puts on his feet, every piece of clothing he wears, every gun he carries, every cartridge he fires, every 18-inch shell that is hurled from the monster guns of our battleships, and every shovelful of coal that is consumed in their boilers—everything that touches this war and involves a Government expenditure—depends upon the money in the United States Treasury.

"The problem of the American Treasury is the problem of the American people; it is the problem of keeping the Treasury supplied with the means to carry forward the great business of the Nation under the direction of the Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, your President, whose glorious stand for America's honor and America's rights, justice, civilization, and democracy have made him one of the greatest of the world's outstanding figures.

"The problem is twofold: To supply essential credits to the allied government, because it is vital to our cause that their strength and credit shall be sustained; and, secondly, to meet our own requirements."

State Grain Inspector Sweeney reports that the total wheat crop of Washington this year is but 27,000,000 bushels. The crop is far short of that of recent years, 1915 yielding 55,000,000 bushels and 1916 45,000,000. There is all the more need for Washington people to observe at least their share of wheatless days during the coming twelve month.

The State of Washington has just received from the federal government the sum of $49,455.34 as its share of the sales from the national forest reserves for the year. The Olympic reserve is credited with having made the heaviest returns, the amount being $9,955.57.

Dealers estimate that more than a million bushels of wheat were sold in Walla Walla county last week.

Lewis County bank deposits show a gain of $820,000 over the deposits of a year ago.

GERMAN FOOD EXPERTS AND DIPLOMATS ALIKE

It is to avoid a condition such as has been experienced by Germany that the department of agriculture has suggested "save the sow" as both a slogan and a working plan for those who wish to prevent the threatened meat shortage.

When the lack of meats and fats became felt by the central powers, German food economy experts advised that the hogs be killed, assuming the feed and labor required to raise swine could profitably be diverted to other uses. Only a short time elapsed before the meat and fat situation became worse than before, and the food experts were forced to make a complete switch of policy and lay down stringent rules for the protection of what hogs remained.

Hogs furnish meat more quickly and more cheaply than any other stock, a shortage can therefore be met most readily by intensive swine production. As breeding stocks are now being depleted throughout the United States and the situation will become very serious if the country continues to be drained of its meats, the department of agriculture is suggesting that swine production be increased.

WHY GERMAN SAILORS MUTINY

When the whole truth becomes known it will be found that revulsion against submarine service was at the bottom of the mutiny in the German navy. Reliable news reports from Holland say that already several seamen have been shot for refusing to perform U-boat duty.

It is hideous, nerve-racking, mind-wrecking service, and knowledge of its horrors evidently have permeated the whole German navy. Month after month, and year upon year, the men have seen their comrades tolled off for almost certain death, wreckage or insanity. They have brooded upon it. Every sentiment of humanity has revolted against its atrocities.

Those sailors who have chosen death before a firing squad rather than permit themselves to be sent out to fiendish piracy are true martyrs to Christianity and humanity. We venture the ardent hope that in the better, happier years to come, when a travaling world has shaken off the incubus of Prussian terrorism, their heroism will be held in grateful remembrance, and that somewhere a fitting monument will be reared to their chivalric memory. —Spokane Spokesman Review.

The way in which the railroads of the country have been able to make their facilities take care of the sudden increase of business brought on by the war is shown in a report just made by the Western lines to the General Railroad's War Board. Loading more goods into cars, putting more cars into trains and getting the trains over the road faster have enabled them to take care of an increase in traffic of over a fifth nothwithstanding the fact that they have not been able to get new cars or engines.

Men in hospital units are developing their sense of direction. They are making maps, estimating distance and studying various methods to prevent being lost. Getting lost on a battlefield is a serious matter and the training is expected to prevent it.

British Premier, in Optimistic Speech Declares Peace Iimpossible Till Pottsdam War Spirit Is Shattered

By United Press.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Premier Lloyd George, in a speech today, firmly declared Great Britian's determination to fight to a knockout. The premier was extremely optimistic in his address.

He stated that America's man power was the world's best fighting material, and said that peace would be impossible until the shrine of the war spirit at Pottsdam was shattered and its priesthood dispersed.

The premier declared that America's participation at the coming Paris conference would be of inestimable advantage. The premier spoke at the inauguration of a nation-wide economy campaign. The coming Paris conference would be the most important inter-allied meeting ever held, and thereat decision would be made determining the ultimate issue of the war.

TRYING TO LOCATE A HISTORIC FLAG

CAMP LEWIS, TACOMA, Oct. 22.—Military authorities here today are endeavoring to locate a historic flag snatched from the hands of Allie Bailey, of Sacramento, who was given the banner for heroism while a battlefield nurse in the Civil War.

She has appealed to Major General Greene for aid. "I am so lonesome without the companion of my youth," she wrote. "Everything I ever loved is gone now. I know that I am a back number myself, but that flag is our flag which should never be a back number."

The aged nurse turned out with her battered flag to see Sacramento boys leave. As the train pulled out, one of the soldiers to be grabbed it from her.

WASHINGTON BIDS FAREWELL TO HER FIRST SOLDIERS

Forty Thousand People Join In Sunday Demonstration at Camp Murray to Departing Infantrymen

Special to The Evening News.

CAMP MURRAY, Oct. 21.—Citizens of the state to the number of 40,000 gathered here today and joined in the demonstration of farewell to the Second Washington Regiment National Guard, now in the federal service as the One Hundred and Sixty-first Regiment of United States Infantry. Governor Lister, United States Senators W. L. Jones and Miles Poindexter, Congressmen from the state and other notables helped make up the throng and spoke parting words to the soldiers of the state who are leaving soon for Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C., whence it is expected that they will be sent shortly to France.

The scenes throughout the day around the camp were inspiring and affecting, mingling as they did all the emotions of parents, wives, brothers, brothers and sisters of the men who make up the departing regiment.

The lanes of traffic to and from the Sound Cities and the camp were congested with traffic all day long, automobiles forming an unbroken procession moving at a slow pace along the highways.

Following addresses of farewell and Godspeed to the men by Governor Lister and U. S. Senator W. L. Jones, the regiment marched in review and received the plaudits of the assembled multitude.

This regiment is the oldest of the state's troops now in the service and probably will be the first to see active service on the battle front in France. The date of leaving will not be announced.

FRENCH SUCCESS IN AIR AROUSES BRITISH DEMAND

By United Press.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The unusual success of the French in bringing down and destroying German Zeppelins has given a powerful impetus to the demand that England immediately assume aerial offensive operations. The British are unable to understand why the French can successfully defeat the German airmen, while London with her apparently perfect air defenses fails to stand the enemy raids.

Rivalry between the army and navy aerial squadrons is declared in some quarters to be largely responsible for the condition prevailing.

FOOD ADMINISTRATION PLANS HOME CANVASS

A house-to-house canvass of of the 22,000,000 families in the United States and the enrollment of every man and woman in the nation in a mighty food conservation army, will be conducted by the food administration from October 21 to 28.

'On the success of this canvass," says Herbert Hoover, food administrator, "will largely depend the issue of the war. 'Food will win the war' is the battle cry."

Nearly 2,000,000 women have taken the pledge to furnish the food our allies and armies require. The small amount each individual is asked to save through substitution and avoidance of waste when multiplied by millions become an effective total.

The foods that must be saved are wheat, beef, pork, dairy products and sugar; those that should be used generously are fish, poultry, fruit, vegetables and all cereals except wheat.

BOTTLED RUSSIAN FLEET ELUDES ITS GERMAN CAPTORS

Break Away From Blockade Behind Moon Island, in Gulf of Riga, and Makes Escape

By United Press.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The small Russian fleet has successfully eluded the German vessels hemming them in and have made their escape from behind Moon Island, in the Gulf of Riga. The Germans believed that they had the Russian ships successfully trapped.

The escape of the Russian ships is considered the first complete victory of the Russian revolutionists.. The escape is believed to be due either to the fact that the Russians strategetically outguessed their enemies, or that the German sailors manning the blockade fleet intentionally committed errors giving the Russians a clear path to safety. In any event the Germans have failed in their primary objective, the annihilation of the inferior Russian fleet.

NEXT WEDNESDAY IS LIBERTY DAY

Special to The Evening News.

OLYMPIA, Oct. 22.—Governor Lister has proclaimed October 24 as Liberty Day in this state, not as a holiday, but as an occasion for all citizens to devote themselves to patriotic service for the state and nation in purchasing and promoting the sale of Liberty Bonds. The governor says:

"The President of the United States has, by proclamation designated Wednesday, October 24, 1917, as Liberty Day. Since the beginning of the present month a campaign for the sale of the second Liberty Loan has been in progress and on Liberty Day it is the intention and purpose to bring the efforts for successfully placing the loan to a climax with an over-subscription that will be even more emphatic answer to the enemy than was the 50 per cent over-subscription to the first Liberty Loan.

Urged to Buy Bonds.

"I most earnestly urge that on that day every citizen devote their most energetic efforts to patriotic service, purchasing one or more Liberty Bonds if such purchase has not already been made and encouraging the purchase of such bonds by others.

"I further recommend and urge that on Liberty Day, as suggested by the President, patriotic meetings be held in every community in the state under the immediate direction of the State Central Liberty Loan Committee and that at such meetings renewed pledges of fealty and support to the government in its struggle for the preservation of democracy and the overthrow of autocracy, be given."

No Time to Be Sitting By

By GEORGE ADE.

A house was burning. The neighbors were trying to save the building. One man sat on the fence. "Help us," one asked. "They don't need me; the others are energetic and the fire will be put out without me turning a hand."

A ship was sinking. "Keep the pumps going and I will land you safely," was the captain's assurance. All save one sprang to the pumps. This one sat and smoked his pipe. "Do you want to drown?" asked a shipmate. "I won't drown," was the cool reply. "I know you've got to keep the pumps going whether I help or not."

Once a great republic, in real need of the loyal assistance of every citizen, called for subscriptions to a bond issue of enormous dimensions. One kind of man said, "I don't believe I'll subscribe. The country is full of fellows who are patriotic; they'll take care of my part of the subscription, rather than see the enterprise flatten out and fail."

Don't perch on the fence when your neighbor's house is burning.

Don't sit on a coil of rope when the ship is sinking.

$450 WILL REPAIR DAMAGE AT CITY LIGHT PLANT

City Electrician Del Church has made a careful survey of the damage at the city sub station and says it will probably cost from $400 to $450 to replace the apparatus damaged. The core of the big transformer that was grounded has been lifted and both secondary coils are burned out completely. The work will have to be done at the factory, possibly necessitating the sending of the coils to Schnectady, New York, and will probably require 60 to 90 days' time.

This however, will not interfere with light or power service here as the remaining two transformers are carrying the load safely and no interruption is looked for.

REPORT OF APPEAL EXEMPTION BOARD ON LOCAL CLAIMANTS

The local exemption board is daily expecting instructions from the adjutant general as to the last 15 per cent of Clallam county's quota of select service men. All they know now is that the men are expected to be sent to Camp Lewis sometimes between the 2nd and 5th of November. Notice of the exact date is expected in time to give the men the usual five days' warning of the date of mobilization in Port Angeles.

The board will probably send 20 men, although 17 is the exact number required, but to make allowance for any who may be discharged they will send the extra men.

W. L. Ingram, who was registered here, but later went to Billings, Montana, and notice sent him to appear to accompany the men sent to Camp Lewis September 19th, and who was not heard from, called on the local board today. All mail sent him had been returned, substantiating his claim of not having received any notice from the local board. The board has asked permission of the district board to reopen his case, and though in the eyes of the law he is a deserter, it is quite certain he will not be prosecuted as such but will be sent to the camp.

Howard Croy, formerly linotype operator in the Herald office, and who was included in the draft of September 19th, has been granted release until January 1st, 1918. Mr. Croy is with his father, who is dangerously ill at the family home at Sapulpa Oklahoma.

Byron G. Brock, who has been in Alaska some time, has returned and registered here on the 15th.

The Local Exemption Board has received notice of action by the District Board at Seattle on appeals from the decision of the Local Board in the following cases:

Henry L. Hansen, Dungeness, discharged, married.

David W. Craig, Sequim, discharged, married.

Harry N. Bunnell, Port Williams, discharged, married.

Robert I. Polhamus, city, discharged, married.

Alfred A. Koenig, Forks, discharged, industrial grounds unknown here.

John Bucher, city, discharged, industrial grounds, unknown here.

Guy MacNamarra, Elwha, farmer.

Notice has also been received by the Local Board of the denial of appeals and claims in the following cases:

Ralph Peter Schutz, Beaver.

Byron C. Noble, Sequim, industrial.

Alfred Rustivk, city, alien with first papers.

L. W. Soper, Sequim, industrial.

Joe Cascarano, registered in this county, and working at American Lake, has applied to the camp commander to be allowed to join the regimental band at the camp and has been accepted. He was forwarded to the camp at the request of the commandant, making 106 of Clallam's quota sent to the camp. Just how many will be returned is not yet apparent, but it is expected at this writing that all those examined by the local board will ultimately be needed to complete the required number from this county. A number of those in line are now anxious to get into training.

The local board has consistently certified up for service all married men without children dependents, some thirty altogether. Most of these appealed and had their cases reviewed by the District Board at Seattle. Four-fifths of those appealing were discharged by the District Board, which was very satisfactory to the Local Board if that was in conformity with a general rule to apply to the action of all local boards throughout the state. But what the local board cannot understand is why the District Board has seen fit to discharge some and not all, and, as in the cases at issue, particularly so where those held seemingly have more real claim for discharge than those discharged, having in a number of cases in addition to a wife, somewhat dependent parents, or industrial claims. Two of these, Hansen and Craig, were dicharged upon recommendation of the Local Board.

EXPECT MILLION FROM RED CROSS CHRISTMAS SEALS

By GEORGE MARTIN
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—An army of Red Cross soldiers four hundred million strong has been mobilized at strategic points throughout the United States.

Within a very short time these four hundred million little fighters will be embattled against the enemy. Each fighter is less than an inch high and so thin you could press one of them between your thumb and forefinger and never know it was there.

But how they can fight!

They have put billions of the enemy to rout in the last nine years saving thousands of American lives.

These soldiers are commonly known as Red Cross Christmas seals. They are sold for stickers on Christma mail and packages. All cash realized from their sale goes to fight the white plague in America.

Already burdened with colossal duties in the greatest military war in history, the Red Cross is taking time and effort to continue the fight between these little red men and tuberculosis.

Well over a million dollars, it is estimated, will be realized from the sale of this year's 400,000,000 stamps. It will all go to stamp out this enemy of America's public health.

The Red Cross seals' Battle of Christmas is confined to the holidays, but it yields funds enough to carry on the fight the year 'round.

Between 1908 and 1917 the total receipts from the stamps was considerably more than $4,000,000.

Because of the constantly growing popularity of the seals, last year's order for 335,000,000 stamps was increased this year to 400,000,000.

The first shipments, which have just been made, went to the Philippines, Hawaii and the Canal Zone.

$7,000,000 TUNNEL FOR COLORADO RAILROAD

By United Press.

DENVER, Oct. 22.—Construction of a $7,000,000 tunnel under James Peak—a dream of years of railroad construction engineers—probably will be realized in the near future, if plans to secure investment of $5,000,000, of eastern capital, negotiations for which are now under way in New York, are consummated.

The tunnel will shorten by 200 miles the present route of the Denver and Salt Lake railroad—the "Moffat Road." Two millions of capital toward the seven millions required to construct the tunnel, rehabilitate the road and remove the receivership under which it is now being operated and place it on a paying basis, is assured by Colorado bondholders, provided the required additional five millions is secured.

WASHINGTON STATE CROPS LESS THIS YEAR

The summary of the October crop just issued by the national government shows that the state of Washington produced less wheat, oats, barley, hay, potatoes and apples than last year. It is estimated the shortage in wheat this year is about 8 million bushels; 3 million bushels less oats; 2 million bushels less barley. The difference in the crops of hay, potatoes and apples over last year is insignificant, and when the full reports are available it will probably turn out that there is no decrease in these crops this year over last year's yields.

With the greatly increased acreage of potatoes, this season's crop is a surprising disappointment to the growers in this state, the yield per acre being unusually light.

The potato yield of the United States, however, is almost double that of last year, being 453 million bushels. In fact all yields except hay are above last year's in the United States. Hay is some 15 million tons less than last year.

CRESCENT BOXBOARD CO. LETS CONTRACTS FOR CONSTRUCTION

C. J. Bastedo, resident manager of the Crescent Boxboard Company, let a contract last evening to H. D. Stewart, a Seattle contractor, his bid being the lowest on the driving of piling and concrete foundations for the first unit of the company's plant. The contract calls for foundations for buildings 270x340 feet, and are to be completed within the next 45 to 60 days at the outside.

Immediately upon completion of the foundation the erection of the buildings will begin. These will be of heavy mill construction and one story high and it is planned to have them ready for the installation of machinery by January 1st.

A large amount of machinery is now here, some is on the way, more at the factories awaiting shipment and the smaller machinery is yet to be built, but Mr. Bastedo says all of it will be here as fast as it can be installed.

As soon as the first unit is completed work will begin on the second unit, which will have a ground area of 240x450 feet.

Engineer McHenry, on the staff of L. S. Rosener, San Francisco, is here in charge of the work. Mr. Rosener is now working on five constructive jobs for the Crescent allied companies and the plant here, while it will be an immense affair, is not the largest of the five.

The company now has in operation a $750,000 plant at Los Angeles; a $1,500,000 plant at Antioch, California, and a $350,000 plant at Sumner, Washington.

The Crescent Boxboard Company and allied concerns employ their own consulting engineer, who has a staff of 45 men, which handles all the construction work. Contrary to usual procedure, they have adopted the one-story system for all their plants, finding it much better suited to their purposes than the higher buildings usually constructed for pulp and paper mills.

Here is tangible evidence that the upbuilding of the city as a manufacturing center is really beginning to assume more than newspaper talk. It is but the starter, though a mighty good one, and will be followed in due time by other plants already arranged for and will without doubt induce other big interests to look this way favorably and before some of our people wake up this city will have a payroll that will astonish the old-timers, who have long dreamed of a prosperous and populous city in this most favored location. The sun is showing over the horizon of their hopes.

BOY SCOUTS START FOUNDATION FOR LODGE

Early Wednesday morning nine Boy Scouts, under the leadership of Oscar Nelson, left for the upper Elwha to start work on a cabin. The Scouts, who were Robert Hoare, Raymond Wallitner, Frank Hickok, Howard Gognon, Frederic Taylor, Stewart White, Robin Bingham, Helmer Hauge and Edson Brown, were taken as far as the covered bridge in automobiles by Miss Gertrude Hickok and Leonard Cosser. The trip to the bridge was a sort of a race between the two autos in which Leonard took the lead but Miss Hickok soon passed him; then a packsack fell off her machine causing her to drop behind but she soon gained the lead and kept it.

Leonard punctured a hind tire just above the Elwha dam and Miss Hickok who was returning home took the rest of the bunch to the bridge and Leonard returned home on his rim. From the bridge it took an hour and a half to walk three miles up one of the most beautiful trails in the country. The boys built the foundation for their cabin and a few other minor things. They rolled into their blankets Wednesday night at 7:30 and Frank Hickok talked an hour and thirty minutes by Bob Hoare's Ingersoll Yankee.

They all returned last evening expecting to go out again Saturday. —FREDERIC TAYLOR.

Day of Prayer For Triumph of American Arms

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—President Wilson today proclaimed Sunday, Oct. 28, a day of prayer for the triumph of American arms.

DR. DECHMANN DECLARED TO BE NOT GUILTY

Dr. Louis Dechman, of Lake Crescent, was last night acquitted by a jury of the charge of attempted blackmail of Millionaire W. M. Thompson, also of Lake Crescent, and formerly of Lincoln, Nebraska.

The defense closed its testimony early in the afternoon and after argument by counsel, the case was given to the jury, following instructions by the court, at about 6 o'clock. After being out a sufficient time to organize and take a ballot, the jury returned a verdict of acquittal. The controlling opinion with the jurors seemed to be that the evidence presented did not sufficiently identify Dechmann with the plot by which Frank M. Richards attempted to blackmail Thompson and on which charge Richards was convicted by a jury a year ago.

Following the former trial, Richards was sentenced to a term of from one to five years in the penitentiary, and contrary to statements that have been printed, it now appears that Richards must serve his term. It has been stated that Governor Lister had determined to pardon Richards, but to the contrary, Sheriff Bishop received on the 6th of the present month formal telegraphic notice from Governor Lister that he had decided that ce could not extend executive clemency to Richards.

The latter, who has been at liberty under a bond of $2,500, was present at the Dechman trial just closed, and appeared as one of the witnesses. The acquittal of Dechman doubtless ends the famous blackmail litigation.

C. R. POLLOCK BUYS INTEREST IN COMMISSION COMPANY

Mr. Pollock considered several propositions in different cities but finally decided to take up this business and remain in Angeles. W. H. Bush will remain president and manager of the company, Mr. Pollock will be vice president and E. J. Walton, secretary and treasurer.

CHAIRMAN BRAINERD HERE IN INTERESTS OF FOOD PLEDGE CAMPAIGN

Erastus Brainerd, of Seattle, member of the state council of defense and head of the national food administration for Western Washington, is in the city today in the interests of the food conservation campaign. Mr. Brainerd is to have a meeting with the local county council of defense sometime during the day to forward plans for making the coming drive for the food pledge campaign a success.

The Hoover program contemplates a drive of one week to secure the signatures of the women of the land to the Hoover pledge to conserve in all ways possible the food supply, and the dates for the "Hoover week" originally were set for October 21 to 28. These dates, by direction of President Wilson, have been pushed forward for one week, in order that the work might not conflict with the winding up of the Liberty Loan drive. As a consequence, the week of October 28 to November 4 will be devoted to the purpose.

Mr. Brainerd states that the allotment of signatures for the State of Washington is 244,000 and that of this total Clallam county is down on the list for 1,500.

It is important that the women of the country get the right idea of the Hoover movement and become imbued with the necessity for full co-operation in the work that is under way throughout the state and nation. Clallam county, always doing her share in patriotic work, may be depended upon to do it in this campaign if the people are aroused.

U. S. LINER ANTILLES SUNK BY SUBMARINE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.—The transport reported sunk with the loss of 67 lives in the dispatches of yesterday aft rnoon, proved to be the American army transport Antilles, homeward bound under convoy.

The Antilles was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine while crossing the war zone in European waters. About seventy men are missing and are probably lost.

Officers Saved.

All the army and navy officers aboard and the ship's master were among the 167 survivors. The missing are members of the crew, three civilian engine rs, some enlisted men of the navy and seventeen of thirty-three soldiers returning home for various reasons.

Neither the submarine nor the torpedo was seen and the transport, hit squarely amidships, sank in five minutes.

Following is the announcement made by Secretary Daniels:

Struck Engine Room.

"The torpedo which struck the Antilles was not seen, nor was the submarine which fired it. The torpedo hit abreast of the engine room bulkhead and the ship sank within five minutes. One hundred and sixty-seven persons out of about 237 on board the Antilles were saved. About seventy men are missing.

"All the naval officers and officers of the army who were aboard at the time were saved, as were the officers of the ship, with the exeception of the following: Walker, third engineer officer; Boyle, junior engineer officer, and O'Rourke, juntor engineer officer.

"There were about thirty-three of the army enlisted personnel on board, of which seventeen were saved. The names of the missing of the army enlisted personnel and of the merchant crew of the ship cannot be given until the muster roll in France of those on board has been consulted. As soon as the department is in receipt of further details concerning the casualties they will be made public immediately."

GREAT TRACK MEET AT CAMP LEWIS ON LIBERTY DAY

By United Press.

CAMP LEWIS, Oct. 22.—October 24th, Liberty Loan Day, will be observed here with the biggest track meet in the history of the coast.

Six hundred and seventy-five athletes—former students at a score of colleges and a few ex-pupils in the good old school of experience—will compete. Each unit in camp will enter its own track team and try for the camp championship.

Included in the thousands of men here are some of the best athletes on the coast. Many are college men.

The try-outs and preliminaries will be held in the morning and the semi-final and finals in the afternoon.

A determined effort is being made to induce th government to build a post road from Tacoma to the camp. The traffic from the city to the camp is very heavy.

With a percentage of 1,000 after three games, the 364th regiment is claiming the camp baseball championship.

Y. M. C. A. secretaries today are the pride of the camp. Dolled up in their fine new green uniforms, they are classed as sure-enough lady killers by the soldiers.

TELEGRAPH FLASHES

PETROGRAD, Oct. 19.—The operations of the German fleet in the Baltic are forcing the Russian evacuation of the Reval naval base, declares the newspaper Nove Vrema today. The evacuation began on Tuesday, according to the newspaper report.

It is evident that the German fleet is threatening an extensive naval program in the Gulf of Finland. The evacuation of the Reval naval base, located only two hundred miles from Petrograd, would indicate that the war fleet of the Teutons is menacing Russia to a greater extent than was at first deemed possible.

That two German topedo boats were sunk in the Moon Sound mine fields is officially stated.

Premier Kerensky returned today from grand headquarters, recovered fom his recent attack of influenza, and presided at the cabinet meeting.

A special evacuation committee has been named including among its members M. Tretyakoff, president of the Economic Council; M. Palachinsky, president of the National Defense Committee, and Minister of Public Welfare Kiskin.

Official reports state that the German fleet is composed of ten dreadnaughts, ten cruisers, fifty destroyers and eight or ten submarines.

DENVER, Oct. 19.—Federal authorities have received orders to investigate an alleged plot to poison thousands of cattle and sheep by placing anthrax germs in the Pathfinder Dam reservoir near Casper, Wyoming. WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 19.—The second Liberty Loan is developing great momentum, according to the treasury officials today.

Although only a third of five billion dollars has been subscribed to date, the nation can reach the goal set if the acceleration continues at the present pace. The officials believe the number of subscribers will be surprisingly large, and efforts are being made to secure as many subscribers as possible.

The city of Detroit, within eighty per cent of its allotted quota, is leading the nation.

The pro-German efforts to hamstring the loan movement is dwindling under the threat of prosecution by the government.

The soldiers alone have bought $19,800,000 worth of the bonds.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—It is estimated that Germany is spending not less than twenty million dollars in a campaign destined to sway public opinion in the neutral countries. The propaganda work is said to be continuing on an unprecedented scale.

The agents of Germany have bought many newspapers and are maintaining hundreds of representatives to keep peace talk going in the different countries, it has been authoritatively learned.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 19.—It is learned today that an entire Austrian regiment, including its officers and carrying their own arms, has surrendered to the Rumanians.

The regiment is composed of Mohammedan Serbs, and their commander declared that they surrendered voluntarily so they could enlist in the Jugoslav legion now being formed.

PARIS Oct. 19.—According to confidential embassy reports, giving out here today giant German submarines are engaged on the high seas in robbing food ships of their cargoes and then sinking the vessels without leaving any trace.

SPOKANE, Oct. 19.—Political sharps figured here today that the draft, coast shipyards and Eastern factories have taken so many men from Spokane, women voters will control affairs at the November city election.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.—American aviators flew over the German lines in France today and showered fourteen thousand Liberty Loan Posters on the enemy.

Simultaneously, flyers from the American training camps raided many American cities, dropping paper bombs containing Liberty Loan advertising matter.

The posters dropped within the German lines showed Uncle Sam in fighting attitude with endless lines of troops and bayonets behind him in the background.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Provost Marshal General Crowder today announced the new method for choosing men for the army draft. A questionaire will be sent to every registered man not already in service on a fixed date. All registrants will be required to return the sheet within seven days The men then will be classified according to economic worth in five classes. Class 1, probably to be composed of sound single men, without dependents, will be first called; Class 2 next, and so on. The work of the local boards will be greatly simplified by the new method.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Twenty-seven persons were killed and fifty-three others injured in the air raid conducted by enemy planes last night over the eastern and northeastern counties and a part of London, according to announcement made by Lord French, of the home defense. A number of houses and business premises were damaged by the dropping bombs. A half dozen airships participated in the raid.

GRAND RAPIDS, Oct. 20.—Four robbers blew the safe of the Farmers State bank at Alto last night and secured $15,000, following which raid they traveled twenty miles and robbed the Farmers State bank at Middleville, where they secured another $22,000. At the last place the robbers overlooked a bag containing $5,000 in their hurry to get away.

DENVER, Colorado, Oct. 20.—Lieut. William R. Russell, former chief of the wireless division of the Seventh N. Y. Infantry, now in reserve, has perfected what he believes is the solution of the submarine problem. The device consists of a small mica tube containing a radioactive substance which projects electrical radiations and by reflected rays reveals a submarine. Lieut. Russell has submitted his invention to Washington authorities for a test.

HE WONDERED WHERE THE ENCYCLOPEDIAS GOT OPINION OF THE WEST

By United Press.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Oct. 22.—It's perfectly safe to walk down the street of a western town without a brace of revolvers hanging at your hips. Bandits are few—probably not as numerous as in Chicago. Gambling dens and wild, all-night, booze-soaked dance halls are few and far between.

If you don't believe this ask John C. Albott, of Portland.

Albott read in a prospectus of the Encyclopedia Britannica that Concord stagecoaches were still in use in the West.

Defying the w. k. authority, Albott imediately wrote the encyclopedia publishers that "Easterners should revise their opinions about the West."

"You have people in New York state who are more ignorant and primitive than those in any part of the West," he continued. "We do not have dead ones walking around these parts like you have in New York."

Albott opines that the publishers probably secured their opinion of the West from the movies.

WOMEN FRATERNITES ALL HELPING HOOVER

By United Press.

EUGENE, Oregon, Oct. 22.—Every one of the nine women's fraternities in the University of Oregon is doing its bit in the Hoover food saving campaign.

University girls are becoming accustomed to meatless and wheatless days, scant supplies of butter and a restricted allowance of sugar. Kappa Alpha Thets was the first house to sign a food conservation pledge. This sorority has one wheatless and one meatless day each week and plans are now made to limit the consumption of sugar and bacon.

The Gamma Phi Beta house has three wheatless and one meatless day each week. Regulations in the other houses vary.

Miss Lilian Tingle, head of the department of household arts, is preparing a list of substitutes which may be used in the place of foods needed in Europe.

PLENTY OF GAME PROMISED HUNTERS

By United Press.

PETOSKEY, Michigan, Oct. 22.—Hunters are making ready for the opening of the annual deer shooting season in northern Michigan. County Clerk Madlem is also making ready anticipating a grand rush for deer hunting licenses.

The cover land has been inspected by timber lookers, state game wardens, guides, etc., and they report the deer about as plentiful as ever in large covers.

Fox hunting promises to be revived by many hunters this season. The absence of heavy forest fires allowed the foxes to breed in great numbers and as a result the trapping and shooting is expected to be good.

GOVERNMENT TO SELL MORE ALASKA SPRUCE

PORTLAND, Oregon, Oct. 22.—A block of spruce timber containing 6,790,000 feet, board measure, of spruce and 60,000 feet of hemlock lying along the north shore of Heceta Island on the Tongass National Forest, Alaska, will be sold for not less than $2.25 per M feet for spruce, and 50 cents per M for hemlock, according to an announcement from District Forester Geo. H. Cecil, of Portland, Oregon.

The spruce is said to be of unusually good quality for the region and will cut out a fairly large percentage of lumber suitable for airplane stock. The tract embraces about 334 acres.

There are a number of sawmills in Alaska cutting airplane spruce from stumpage purchased from the government. Only a small percentage of the lumber from any spruce tract is suitable for aircraft construction, because of the specially high grade of lumber required.

Although there are more than 20,000,000 acres of government land included in the Tongass and Chugach National Forests in Alaska, the receipts from the sale and use of forest resources are considerably in excess of the cost of administration. Because of the unusual demand for airplane material, the spruce forests of Alaska are attracting more attention than ever before.

LOOKING FOR UNWRITTEN LAW IN MILITARY CODE

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 23.—Lawyer sharps in the war department are looking for an "unwritten law" in the strict military code. Here is their problem. In Texas an ex-soldier was arrested on his way home from camp wearing the uniform. The law prohibiting this is strictly enforced. The offender showed he had no other clothes. He would either be arrested, he said, for wearing the uniform or for the lack of uniform or other clothing. The sheriff went beyond the law and permitted the uniform but he is asking the war department to legalize his action as cases of this kind are becoming more and more frequent.

GIRLS URGED TO TAKE UP TYPEWRITERS IN DEFENSE OF COUNTRY

BY GEORGE MARTIN

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 23.—Dr. Anna Howard Shaw today urged America's girls to take up typewriters in defense of their country.

"A vital need of the government at the present time is for stenographers and typewriters," said Dr. Shaw, "and the Women's Committee of the Council of National Defense has circularized the state divisions asking them to spread the idea among the girls and young women."

These jobs pay from $900 to $1,200 a year to start and are open to girls from 18 to 20, with good chances for advancement. Examinations are held throughout the country by civil service commissioners every Tuesday. All needed information can be obtained at your local postoffice. Dr. Shaw's circular says:

"The Commission urges, on the ground of patriotism, that women who are trained in stenography or typewriting, or both, enter open competitive examinations at once, and that those who have not such training immediately undergo instruction in exactly the same spirit that has moved them to attend classes in first-aid nursing, that is. the spirit of helpfulness."

CLAIM CZARINE MADE AWAY WITH CROWN JEWELS

By United Press.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—(By mail)—People here in touch with Russian affairs declare there is great likelihood of the Czarine being put on trial as an enemy of the nation. One of the chief accusations against the former empress is that she made away with the crown-jewels and other treasure, which is the property of the nation. Investigation has proved that the jewels of the imperial crown and a series of priceless tapestries in the Hermitage and the Winter Palace are imitations, the originals having been exported so that they might be preserved for the Roman dynasty in case of a revolution.

SONGS OF THE SAMMIES

By United Press.

AMERICAN FIELD HEADQUARTERS, FRANCE, Sept. 27.—(By mail)—Pretty soon a Kansas boy will be wearing corporal's stripes, within four months after he enlisted, because he calmly picked up a sputtering hand grenade and tossed it into an empty training-trench.

The Sammy from Kansas was practising grenade throwing when his hand struck a protruding root in the trench and knocked the deadly iron egg from his grasp. With three seconds to spare he picked up the bomb and threw it twenty yards.

FIRST WINTER WEATHER SWEEPS MIDDLE NORTHWEST

By United Press.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 23—The first winter weather of the season swept the Middle Northwest today. The temperature had dropped to 8 degrees above zero, and snow is falling steadily. Potatoes and other vegetables are declared to be freezing in large quantities because of the lack of freight cars. Thousands of bushels of potatoes wholly unprotected are stacked along the railroads. Coal dealers are filling orders with the greatest difficulty.

STRANGE ORGANIZATION FORMS IN SWITZERLAND

By United Press.

BERNE, Oct. 5—(By mail)—One of the strangest organizations on record is forming in Switzerland—an association of military deserters designed to protect their "interests."

Military deserters from belligerent nations surrounding Switzerland overrun the country. Their presence constitutes a growing embarrassment to the government and proposals have been advanced to round them up in an internment camp.

Alarmed by such reports, the deserters have been inserting advertisements in Swiss newspapers, calling upon all comrade slackers to "form an international organization." The organization committee consists of Germans, Austrians and Bulgarians.

CARD SOCIAL AND DANCE

The Red Cross entertainment committee has completed arrangements for a card social and dance at the opera house Friday evening of this week and the general public is invited to attend. These monthly entertainments of the Red Cross are necessary to keep the treasury from becoming depleted, for it takes lots of money to buy yarn and the other necessary materials to furnish the number of garments for the soldiers which have been apportioned to the local chapter. The committee does not feel that it should be necessary for them to get out and sell tickets for these entertainments as every person should feel it his or her duty and privilege to give this assistance. Card playing will begin promptly at 8:15 and last for two hours, after which there will be two hours of dancing. Price of admission to all will be 25 cents. Plan to be there.

TO SHORTEN THE WAR.

The effect in shortening the war of a heavy oversubscription to the Second Issue of Liberty Loan Bonds can hardly be overestimated.

However brave a front Germany may endeavor to present to the outside world and to her own people, the truth is that she is facing fearful odds and is in dire straits. The embargo placed by President Wilson on American shipments to neutrals struck Germany a body blow, and shipments to her from South American countries are going to be stopped or greatly curtailed through our influence and our control over coal supplies needed by their navies and industries. Germany's efforts for peace are dictated largely by fear of America and America's power. The German people are crying for peace, and the time has come or is shortly coming when the German Imperial government must needs listen to the German people. They are being fed now on hopes of victory and stories of dissensions among the American people and a lack of support of our Government by our peple.

No more convincing argument could be made to the people of Germany of the hopelessness of victory being obtained by continued fighting than a great oversubscription to the Liberty Loan, demonstrating not only the tremendous power of America but the fact that the American people are whole-heartedly in favor of prosecuting the war with vigor and willing to finance our Government to the limit.

Every purchase of a Liberty Loan Bond not only supplies the sinews of war but it shoots a fact into the German mind—the fact that the American people are behind the American Army and behind the American President, and that there is no end to this war except the achievement of the ends that America is fighting for. Every purchaser of a Liberty Loan Bond does something to end the war, does something to shorten the war.

The Puget Sound Bridge & Dredging Company, of Seattle, is behind a project to reclaim several thousand acres of land in Little Willow Valley. The estimated cost of the project is $175,000.

"WON'T WORK" PLACARDED

By United Press.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 22.—"Ordered from city; a loiterer, won't work."

"Ordered from city; a bum, won't work."

"Ordered from city; a panhandler; won't work."

These phrases, printed on cardboard, hereafter will adorn the backs of those who partake of the city's hospitality without working. Municipal Judge Yeatman and Prosecutor Morrisey are creators of the method for driving undesirables from the Queen City. It's planned to make future offenders march through the streets with the tags fastened to their backs.

Grease the cup in which you measure molasses, and every drop of molasses will come out.
