FORKS CITY COUNCIL
 The Town Council convened August 9, 1971, at 7:30 p. m. in City Hall. The first order dealt with parking on Bogachiel Way from Merle Schoeneman's driveway to main street on the north side. Marshal Huson had been studying the situation and advised that no parking signs be posted on the north side of Bogachiel Way, from Merle Schoeneman's driveway east to main street. The Council approved the proposed action.
 The following building permits were approved by the Council:
 Ernie Nielsen, home, $30,000, builder, Walker Construction; Wilmer Ulin, addition, $2,000; and Vay Archibald, re-roof.
 The Council approved an application for a water meter for Don Rhyne. They also approved, with reservation, two water meters for Wilmer Robbins.
 Marshal Huson relayed to the Council, the many complaints his office has received regarding motorcycles, motor bikes, and mini-bikes, and their obvious loud unmuffled exhaust. Marshal Huson said there was nothing he could do at this time. He also said that people who make these complaints are never willing to sign a complaint. The Council said that ordinance #40 of the City Code would cover the situation pretty well.

 If you have a complaint about your town, take it to the Council. They can help you, your neighbor can't. Next regular Town Council meeting, will be held August 23. Plan to attend.
Post office receives "Pride in Excellence" certificate
 Forks Post Office received a "Pride in Excellence" certificate in recognition of the exceptional manner in which the postal facility is maintained.
 In a letter received from D. Spigal, Superintendent of Mails, it stated, "My sincere congratulations and good wishes to you (postmaster) and your employees who made this presentation possible."

BOOZE BURGLARS BAGGED

Two 15-year-old juveniles were picked up for 5 counts of burglary and 1 count of auto theft. Burglaries were committed in Danielson and Mansfield Additions in Forks. A considerable quantity of whiskey, beer and wine were recovered.
 The juveniles have been released to their parents pending hearing before juvenile court.

RECLAMATION FOR ALL ALUMINUM CONTAINERS

Concurrent with the announcement that Olympia Beer is now available in all-aluminum cans, Tom A. Carr, manager, of the Olympic Distributing Co., distributors of Olympia Beer in Clallam and Jefferson Counties recently reported that his firm has established a reclamation for all aluminum containers.
 In making the announcement, Tom stated that all aluminum containers, regardless of brand, will be redeemable for 10¢ a pound at the company's location, 109 W. Front in Port Angeles, Monday, Thursday, Friday, from 9 a. m. to 12 noon, Saturday by appointment.
 "We firmly believe that recycling is the ultimate answer to the threatening environmental problem of litter and solid waste," Carr stated. "In addition to aluminum containers being ideally suited for this process, we believe our new reclamation program will provide sufficient incentive to people to see to the container's return."
 Mr. Carr also points out that reclamation and recycling programs for all-aluminum containers are being put into operation by all Olympia Beer distributors throughout the State of Washington.

SOLEDUCK REPORT

Tranquility and quietness are the catchwords of Soleduck's Klahanie and Klahowya Campgrounds. Each offers an opportunity to elude noise, traffic, neighbors, and time schedules. Use of Klahowya Campground is subject to either a daily use permit or the Golden Eagle Passport while Klahanie has no charge. A visitor is virtually assured of a moss-carpeted, hemlock-canopied hideaway in either campground.
 Plant species found on the Soleduck are greatly diversified; ranging in height from the inch high Canadian Dogwood to the towering 250 feet of Sitka Spruce and Douglas fir. At this time, many species have ripe fruit, and flowers of others are in bloom. Personal observation of the blossoms, listening to the different sounds of the forest, examination of the majestic trees, smelling the fragrance of the firs, and a sample of the taste of a few berries is very gratifying. If one desires to derive a great deal of enjoyment from an outing, one of the appealing ways is to use your endowed senses - SENSUOUS participation in a forest environment.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor,

For awhile, the public is going to lean backwards over environmental problems, real or fancied.

Now it seems the State Forestry Department (D, N, R.) policies, just as they are becoming the soundest ever, are becoming the subject of scrutiny, largely in regard to burning of wastage.

Just now, I am going back to the old days of selective logging, when some ripe trees were cut and a seed tree left standing.

Near here, on the Upper Hoh, there is still an old seed tree standing. In its vicinity are logs with only the first cut removed. A number of bushy spruce trees are in the open; many straggly ones, crowded about with alders, and vine-maple abounds.

In other areas stand a second growth of hemlock so crowded that if allowed to remain, would take years to evolve into anything useable. In the survival effort, such trees keep getting taller and skinnier til a heavy snow may result in a complete lean-down, or shall we say snow-down; or perhaps a few stout ones will survive.

It is desirable that trees growing stand close enough together to shade out lower limbs and produce a tall smooth trunk, but far enough apart to enable the individuals to gain substance if they are to be peelers or make straight and strong lumber. Trees that stand too close together may keep up the battle of the survival of the fittest for many decades.

Under management, they are generally thinned and de-limbed.

Most state lands go through a salvaging process before burning, after the main cutting.

If, however, there is insufficient debris on the ground, a dense seeding of undesirable sorts will remain in the soil, producing hemlock thickets, and vegetation crowding out replanting efforts. In re-seeding by air, much seed will fall on barren places such as logs and brush piles.

Therefore, it is desirable to burn as cleanly as possible and plant seedlings at such intervals as will permit them to compete just enough so that they will stretch up straight and tall and clean stemmed in the effort to reach the sunlight, without crowding.

Personally, I would like to see belts of unflamable varieties to keep fire from tearing through the pitchy sorts, but perhaps chemicals will solve that. I hope all roads will be kept open with adequate signs posted so that no one will need to be trapped by fire. When I say, "kept open", I mean that those responsible for keeping down fires, can have egress to all parts, I am not in favor of having the woods full of confused recreationalists in areas and times of fire hazard!

Since fire has jumped the fire line many times, I dream of the day when a preliminary burning will be done along the area that will get the fullest blast of heat and wind so that the fire will be less apt to leap out of bounds to create problems in all directions.

I have just read the editorial in the July 27th Port Angeles paper--there is a lot of slash to be burned, else it could be done after Labor Day weekend when the bulk of tourists disappears to return to schools and get out of the rain; the risk of fire sprouting up again, after being assumed out, is lesser.

Actually, I do pretend to be an expert on slash fire, more or less, especially when the sod is dry and a certain wind will coax the fire right out of the ground where it has carefully concealed itself for as much as weeks. Yes, fire and smoke are terrible things, but huge piles of pitchy limbs, dry, dry moss left unburned and unwatched are as menacing as anything that the mind can conjure up by way of dragons.

Positive it seems, the average person passing through cannot get the picture, and can only be expected to re-act in one way--the way he is presently being taught, or may I suggest, brainwashed.

As for myself, I have a weakness for rosy sunrises and sunsets, long to ride the ferry and gaze out on the incredible color-action resultant.

This is to enjoy in September after the rains have taken away some of the menace and there is already a hint of frost in the air.

I love to see the long roseate sunbeams sifting through the trees. This is romance! It is a song! It is a deep breath of something long gone in the past revived over the mixture of feelings about ugh, smog, ugh, smoke!

Maybe its just a hangover about rangers and other heroic figures! You know, something you just naturally take along with you through the years because they go together!

Toaster Cakes are Really Muffins

Take a bran muffin batter. Bake it into a shape that will go into a toaster for reheating and what do you have? A bran muffin toaster cake, known simply as a toaster cake. These popular quick-to-heat specialty bakery products come in three varieties. In addition to the bran toaster cakes, the makers of Thomas' English muffins also bake corn and orange toaster cakes, available either on the bakery shelves of the supermarket or in the frozen food bins. Orange toaster cakes are shown here served with a fruit salad and balls of seasoned cream cheese ready for spreading on the hot toaster cakes. If you make the cheese balls ahead, be sure to let them soften at room temperature for easy spreading. Nut Cheese Balls: Cut 2 (3-ounce) packages cream cheese into 12 cubes. Shape into 12 balls. Roll in 1/2 cup chopped nuts. Chill. Ginger Cheese Balls: Stir together 2 (3-ounce) packages softened cream cheese and 2 tablespoons finely chopped crystallized ginger. Shape into 12 balls. Chill.

Here's a new wrinkle on how to look great when you get where you're going: Unpack the clothes you expect to wear first and hang them on the shower curtain rod over the bathtub. Then turn on the hot water and let the steam rise. Wrinkles will fall out after a half hour and natural fabrics will dry quickly and smoothly.

For traveling with a freer mind, the small premium for complete insurance on your luggage, clothes and personal possessions is a great investment.

New Seat Belts Control Auto Ignition System

A new type of auto seat belt—especially for the six out of 10 American motorists who do not use this safety aid now—has been developed.

The device, called the "Auto-Safe" interlock belt, utilizes electronically wired belts. Unless they are buckled properly, the car's engine cannot be started.

The working parts of the device, developed by Irvin Industries of Greenwich, Conn., consist of pressure switches in each buckle and a special sensing switch in the driver's buckle. The sensing switch works only if the belt is around the driver and its mercury connector is at the proper angle.

Small sensors inside the seat cushions are also activated when a passenger sits down. If the seat belts in all occupied positions are not fastened, the ignition will not start.

A dashboard light and audio signal are activated if a seat belt is unfastened after the car is started, and these remain activated until the belt is refastened.

The National Safety Council revealed that between 8,000 and 10,000 lives could have been saved last year if people wore their seat belts, and that from 2,700 to 3,000 lives were saved during 1969 because auto occupants involved in accidents were wearing seat belts.

MRS. J. E. MERRITT
A couple of weeks ago the Smithville ladies gave a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Dale Dawkins; the surprise lying in the fact that Mrs. Dawkins' birthday was on a Tuesday, and the party was given the preceding Wednesday.

Present were Mrs. A. M. Nordman, Mrs. Keith Shirley, Mrs. Jim Nodell, Mrs. Ernest Thiele, Mmes. N. C., Gerald and Wes Gooding, and the honor guest, Mrs. Dawkins, who received a number of nice gifts. Mrs. Elsie Brown was away at the time, but sent a gift.

District #1, Washington Chapter, National Association of Postmasters of the United States, met at Lake Olette Saturday, July 31, and hiked to Cape Alava to see the Indian diggings.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Eramo of Fairfield, California, left on Tuesday of last week after a visit with their cousins, Mmes. L. R. Eaton of Sappho, L. E. Pooler of Hoko Camp and Maynard Lucken of Beaver and their husbands.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sharpes and their families attended the picnic of Imitoto #7498 VFW, at old Fort Townsend on Sunday, August 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox, Irwin Thrush and Daisy Klahn, all of Fletcher-Wittenborn Post 9106 VFW, and Auxiliary, attended the meeting of Clyde Rhodfer Post #1024 VFW in Port Angeles last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Thrush, Daisy Klahn, Leta

Klahn and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sharpes and family all attended the picnic of Post #1024, Port Angeles at the John Wagner camp "Little Pines", last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Nordman and children Lynn and Eric, of Willmette, Illinois, arrived Saturday at Sea-Tac Airport where they were met by Arnold's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Nordman. The family visited Arnold's brother and sister, Arvid Nordman and Mrs. Henry Werner and their families in Seattle, arriving home that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hum returned home Saturday from a 10-day trip to Cali, Colombia, S. A.

They left on Wednesday, on Braniff Airlines. They flew from Sea-Tac Airport to Dallas, Texas and to Miami, Florida, where, because a late start from Sea-Tac (fog) they spent the night. The next day they arrived at Cali, for the Pan-American-University of Washington crew race was held on Monday, with the University coming in second. Mr. Hum's nephew, Cliff Hum, was stroke.

The Hums visited a small Indian village, named "Sylvia", the town of Bugga, staying there most of the time, as it was closer to the lake (Cali) than the town of Cali, where most of the games were played. They spent two nights in Cali and one in Bogata, where they caught the plane for the return trip to Sea-Tac, which they made in 14 hours.

In and Around Town

Don't you people think that Forks is one of the most wonderful places in which to live? I can't help thinking about other places when the weather gets hot like this, where people don't have the possibility of taking a drive down to LaPush or Kalaloch to cool off, and if that is too far, there is always Paul's grocery store.

Mrs. Ernie Barker returned August 3 after attending a big family reunion in Tenino. She met with her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Thorne, at Discovery Bay and drove with them and another cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hubbard (whom she hadn't seen since childhood), to Port Townsend, where they took in all scenic places. The family picnic was held at DeSchutes River Park at Tenino with approximately 65 relatives attending. On the way back home, Emily spent some time with the Thomes in Discovery Bay.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Hage in LaPush over the weekend of July 30 were their daughter, Mrs. Christie Aguiluz, from Bremerton and their granddaughter, Robin. Arriving on their motorcycles to visit the Hages were their other daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kalmbach, and niece, Mr. and Mrs. David Corey, from Seattle.

It sure is nice to see our county commissioner D. J. Caultkins up and around. He came home July 30, after spending 18 days in Olympic Memorial Hospital in Port Angeles and 6 weeks at Doctors' Hospital in Seattle. He is doing just fine.

The Bud Howards are back home after a two-week trip which took them through west Yellowstone and Montana. In Billings, they visited Margie's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, and in Polson, Bud's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Numally. They enjoyed horseback riding and the good weather, and also experienced a tremor which ended their vacation with a bang and made them pack up real quick and head back to Forks.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jake Woody during the last week of July were her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Rene and 2 children, from Stockton, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Carol Lunsford and family are back home after a 10-day's vacation to California where they visited relatives in Bakersfield, San Francisco and Hanford, rode elephants in Safari-land, and did some sightseeing before returning by way of the coast.

Mrs. Ruth Smith has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Herman Wingert, in Renton for a few days.

The Gordon Otos' have had lots of company during the last couple of weeks. Betty's second cousin, Elizabeth Fuller of New York City, spent a week with the Otos'. Also visiting were 2 former classmates of Betty's; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mattson and family from Finn Hill, Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burk and all their little Marchbank's from Washougal, Washington. Visiting now are Betty's brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Smith and family from Campbell, California.

Visiting the Vester Sextons are their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vester Sexton, Jr. and baby Jason Lee, from Arcata, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Star Klein and son from New York visited the Gary Thomas' for a few days. The Kleins drove out to the West Coast by way of Canada, camping along the way, and went back by way of Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Cecilia Junter and son, David, from Shelton visited her daughter, Mrs. Jeanette Keen, over the weekend.

PFC Bill Claussen is stationed at Geinhausen, Germany. And isn't it a small world? He ran into Mike Howell. Bill had been home in Forks earlier on a 25-day leave. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Claussen.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy Black, Sr. for a few weeks are their grandson, Mike Mobley, from Plano, Texas and his friend Mike Crowell. They are going to do some fishing in LaPush before returning home. Mike will be attending the A & M College in Texas.

The Quileute Rebelettes played in the Elwha tournaments at Lincoln Park in Port Angeles, and Terr Penn received another all-star trophy.

Mrs. Frank Horton and daughter, Jill, returned August 7 after a 2-week trip to LaJunta, Colorado, where they visited friends and relatives. While there, they attended a performance by the Koshary-Indians (a group of Boy Scouts who performed original Indian dances).

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lingvall for a few days was Mrs. Solveig Iversen from Seattle.

Miss Virjeanne James engaged

Mr. and Mrs. William A. James, Sr. of Forks announce the engagement of their daughter, Virjeanne, to F. N. Daniel Ray Tucker, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Tucker of Port Angeles.

Miss James graduated from Forks High School in 1970 and is presently attending Mr. Lee's Beauty School in Seattle. Mr. Tucker is a 1968 graduate of Port Angeles High School. He is now stationed on the U. S. S. Tombigbee in the Pacific. An early spring wedding is planned.

WARM WEATHER & TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS

A sudden increase in traffic deaths and the mid-summer hot spell hit the State of Washington at approximately the same time, according to the Washington Traffic Safety Commission.

The traffic death toll for July was 83, bringing the year's count to 485. Last year the number of deaths through July totaled 486. The July, 1970 count was 86.

Commission Director Cliff

E. Aden stated the number of traffic deaths registered during the last 15 days of July almost doubled the number killed during the first half of the month. Thirty died between July 1 and July 15, compared with 53 the last 15 days.

"Good weather the last three weeks of July brought more Washingtonians out onto the highways. However, motorists apparently failed to adjust their driving to the sudden increase in traffic and good weather. "These needless, heartbreaking tragedies were a result of careless driving. It is the responsibility of every motorist to eliminate these errors. We can and must do a better job on the highway."

Speed and failure to grant the right-of-way were the leading driver failures contributing to July's fatal collisions. Traveling at excessive speed or too fast for conditions contributed to 22 fatal collisions. Failure to yield the right-of-way resulted in 18 mishaps. Improper passing, crossing over the center line and disregarding traffic signs or signals led to 15 fatal crashes.

Thirty-seven persons killed were drivers, 36 were passengers, 4 were pedestrians, 3 were riding bicycles, two were driving motorcycles and one person fell from a moving vehicle.

Roads to be closed on wildlife recreation areas

The State Game Department announced that certain roads on all large Wildlife Recreation Areas, commonly used in the past by 4-wheel drive and all terrain vehicles, will be closed this fall hunting season to private usage.

The decision was made in an effort to provide more areas for quality hunting and to prevent unnecessary damage to the environment.

Closed roads will be adequately posted at their entrance, and further information will be available at the Wildlife Recreation Area Headquarters.

Hunters are cautioned that if they choose to hunt within an area where no vehicular traffic is allowed, they should be prepared to remove harvested big game without the use of motorized vehicles. Within the closed areas vehicles will not be allowed to be used to pack big game out.

Conner proposes state acquire Port Townsend ferry

Representative Paul Conner has urged that the State Toll Bridge Authority acquire the privately-operated Port Townsend to Keystone (Whidbey Island) ferry route.

In a letter to Governor Daniel J. Evans, chairman of the toll bridge authority, the 24th District legislator said the Olympic Ferries may soon go out of business because of severe financial losses.

"This is to appeal to the Toll Bridge Authority to add this route to the state ferry system," Conner said. "It seems unfair that a private company should be forced to continually take severe losses on a route that properly should be part of the state system."

H. J. Carroll, Olympic Ferries Secretary-treasurer, said the company will go out of business in the event that the State Utilities and Transportation Commission denies a request for elimination of its run from October 16 to April 15 of next year.

"If the schedule change is not approved," Carroll said, "we will be forced to surrender our certificate at the end of the summer season, September 7."

A spokesman for the Utilities and Transportation Commission estimated that Olympic Ferries lost some $45,000 last year, and commented, "I can't understand how they could operate for six months out of the year and make money either."

In applying to the Utilities and Transportation Commission for the October-April run cancellation, Carroll suggested that the commission contact the Toll Bridge Authority "to see if the state can offer better service" than the proposed schedule will afford.

Blackberry pie time again. We've got company. Mother's sister and her two boys are up from California, Doug and his wife and son will be home on leave today or tomorrow, and we are hoping Judy and our granddaughter will make it over from Seattle. How's that for a houseful, Grandma?

Leta Rondeau missed the T. V. shot at Saturday Nite Monte Carlo, but turned right around and picked up the fourth Jackpot shot for a fistful of cash, $61 to be exact. Betty Duncan, Ken Sorrell and Chuck Hamby had the other chances, but of course, missed.

About time for the league secretaries to start checking on their groups to see if everyone will be back bowling this year. Have been asked by Jean Bumgarner to post this notice. Anyone interested in bowling the Thursday Afternoon Beginners please contact her after six o'clock in the evenings.

Would probably make it a lot easier if you team captains would checkout your teams and then contact your secretary.

By the way, I goofed on Sam Bugge's address, he's in the Veterans Hospital in Seattle. Sorry, Sam.

If anything goes wrong with your new set within one year from the day you buy it, and it's RCA's fault, RCA will pay your repairman to fix it—both parts and labor. You can use any service shop in which you have confidence—you don't have to pick from some special authorized list. Just present your warranty registration card to the service repairman and RCA pays his repair bill.

If your set is a portable, you take it in for service. For larger sets, your serviceman will come to your home.

If your picture tube becomes defective within two years it will be exchanged for a reliable rebuilt tube; in the first year RCA pays installation, in the second year you do.

In short, the warranty covers every set defect. It doesn't cover installation, antenna systems, adjustment of customer controls or foreign use.

- Mastercrafted Spanish style cabinetry plus 100% Solid State AccuColor.
- XL-100—RCA 100% Solid State AccuColor® chassis delivers 26,500 volts for picture power with top-level performance and dependability.
- AccuBrite picture tube—RCA's finest—features radiant phosphors surrounded by a black matrix for bright, sparkling color.
- AccuMatic color monitor (ACM) automatically holds your color settings within a normal preference range. It's fiddle-free color.
- Automatic Fine Tuning locks in the best signal on both VHF and UHF electronically. No tuning meters or other complicated controls.
- Plug-in AccuCircuit modules simplify service. Should an AccuCircuit failure occur, serviceman simply locates the faulty board and snaps in a replacement.
- Instant-Pic brings picture and sound on immediately.

KNOW YOUR SAFETY HELMETS

Some safety helmets, designed and sold for use by sports car enthusiasts and motorcyclists, do not provide adequate protection for the user, according to Clifford E. Aden, director of the Washington Traffic Safety Commission.

"We have been notified by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) that it has received reports indicating certain helmets are so fragile that they shatter on the slightest impact. The hazard is particularly great for users who purchase a safety helmet which performs well at first, but then may unpredictably develop serious faults and offer no protection in the event of a highway crash.

Helmet users should know of what material his headgear is made and should use only paints and cleaning solvents which are certified by the manufacturer as compatible with the material. Using the wrong paint or solvent can damage and weaken the helmet.

"Purchasers will obtain an extra measure of safety by buying only those helmets which carry a label-certification that the product has met the Z90.1-1966 standard. This is a self-imposed standard set by the industry's American National Standards Institute.

The NHTSA is conducting a testing program to identify those helmets which may not provide adequate protection. In addition, a federal standard on protective headgear is being readied for adoption.

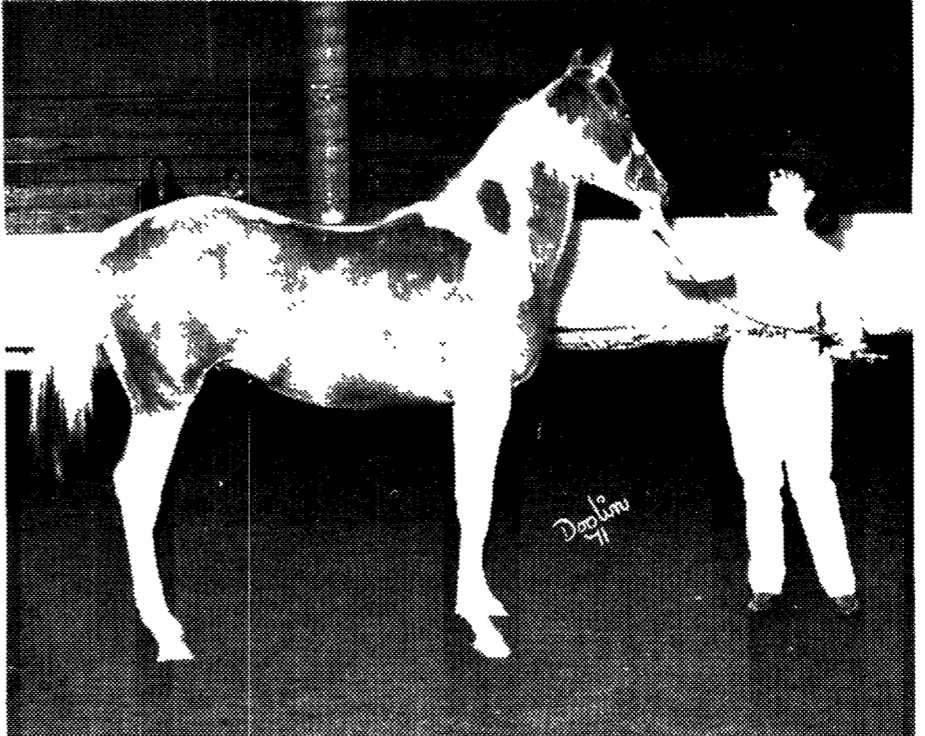

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Approximately 30 youngsters attended the Girl Scout Day Camp at Klahanie Campground and enjoyed a week of hiking, outdoor cooking, first aid and safety, art and crafts and overnight camping. It was an unfortunate incident regarding the drinking water, which was no fault of the camp director, Jean Thomas, who did a tremendous job organizing the camp. And like everything else, it couldn't have gone over so well if it wasn't for the help of all the wonderful volunteers.

People who have turned in paper work incompleting are urged to complete it before August 14 and return it to Mrs. Gary Thomas.

On August 18, Dan Lupsun will be at the home of Mrs. Paul Lingvall teaching Indian basket weaving to interested Girl Scout leaders. The time will be announced at a later date.

DOLLARS DANDYBOB WINS

DOLLARS DANDYBOB, a registered Paint yearling colt from Forks, came home with the honors July 10 and 11. The chestnut and white won first in his halter class and reserve grand champion junior stallion at McMinnville, Oregon, Saturday. The All-Paint Horse Show was attended by horses from Washington, Oregon and Idaho. Dandy is owned by Al and Sharon Clarke of Forks.

Wranglers News

The Forks Wranglers met July 15 at the home of Betty Munson.

It was decided to hold a cookies sale on July 24 to raise money for an arena. The sale was very successful and we wish to thank all those who bought cookies.

A lengthy business meeting was held. We decided to ride the Bogachiel Trail on July 25. We also welcomed two new members to our group.

The next meeting will be held August 19 at 6:30 p.m. It will be a potluck dinner at Ron and Pam Ford's.

Census bureau to take survey here week of August 16

Local representative of the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce, will visit a number of households in this area the week of August 16 to obtain information on employment here. John E. Tharaldson, Director of the Census Bureau office in Seattle, in making the announcement, said the households are among the 50,000 across the country that have been scientifically selected to represent a cross section of the American people.

The survey, which the Bureau conducts each month for the U.S. Department of Labor, provides a continuing measure of employment and unemployment for the Nation. For example, on a seasonally adjusted basis, the overall unemployment rate dropped from 6.2 percent in May to 5.6 percent in June. Total employment fell one-half million to 78.4 million, the same level as in March.

Information supplied by individuals participating in the survey is confidential by law and results are used only to compile statistical totals in which no individual or households can be identified.

Interviewers who will visit households in this area include: Mrs. Marian B. Downing, Rt. 3, Box 224, Port Angeles, Washington and Mrs. Marjorie C. Lyon, 21624 84th W., Edmonds, Washington.

THE GOLDEN EAGLE PROGRAM

The Golden Eagle is a wallet-size card providing year-long access to designated Federal recreation areas throughout the nation where entrance fees are charged under the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act. The annual permit, or "Golden Eagle Passport," sells for $10. When signed by the owner, it is valid from January 1, 1971 to December 31, 1971.

The Golden Eagle Passport admits the purchaser and all persons accompanying him in one private noncommercial vehicle to designated recreation areas and permits use of most day use facilities and services.

The Golden Eagle Passport can be purchased at some entrances to Federal recreation areas, at offices of the Federal agencies honoring the passport, and at county offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service throughout the nation. Many department stores and sporting goods stores also offer the Eagle.

In addition to the Golden Eagle, fees are also charged for special facilities and services, including well developed campgrounds, guide service, etc. Here in the Olympic National Park we find the following fees for this season. $1.00 per day in the following: Dosewallips Campground, Graves Creek Campground, Staircase Campground, Altaire Campground, and Elwah Campground. $2.00 per day in the following: Fairholm Campground, Heart

O'the Hills Campground, Hoh Campground, Kalaloch Campground, Mora Campground, and Soleduck Campground.
 REVENUE USE

The revenues in the Land and Water Conservation Fund are earmarked by law for outdoor recreation. As appropriated by Congress, revenues from sales of $10 Golden Eagle Passports, short-term permits, and other fees, plus other income to the fund, are used to purchase certain federal recreation areas; or are apportioned to the states, and through the states to local communities, where they are matched by state or local funds to provide near-to-home outdoor recreation.
