Our contribution to the space program.

There is still one place on our crowded planet where you can have a little bit of heaven. The Volkswagen Station Wagon. In fact it has about twice as much of that precious commodity as the average station wagon. With all this space it can accommodate as many as 9 earliffs!

With the massive sliding door, it can accommodate the most outrageous objects. With a special suspension system (and a lot of cushy upholstery), it can accommodate the most fragile housewife.

Of course even with all these assets, our space vehicle still can't leave the ground. But then what do you expect for $XXXXX? The not a?

VOTE "YES" FOR FIRE PROTECTION

The Forks Volunteer Fire Department urges the passage of the $85,000.00 fire truck bond issue which will be on the November ballot. The total cost of a new fire truck is $42,000, and the fire department already had $7,000 to apply to the cost.

This diesel truck has a 1,000 gallon water tank which pumps 1,250 gallons per minute and comes complete with all the accessories. The old fire truck will go to Beaver which will update their protection, and everyone will avoid and increase in insurance coverage.

On a $20,000.00 home, the individual would pay only $3.50 per year for 4 years.

PROCLAMATION

Forks Mayor Earl Kennedy today officially designated Halloween, which falls on Sunday, October 31, as "Trick-or-Treat" Day for the children of Forks.

In a proclamation signed today, Mayor Kennedy called upon Forks children to confine their "trick-or-treat" visits to homes in their immediate neighborhoods.

He also urged that youngsters be accompanied by their parents, that they make their visits for candy and other treats between the period of 3:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. that day, and that householders offer wrapped or sealed treats only.

ments plus his jabber as usual. The record was set April 17-27, 1970, by John Burrows of Ipswich, England, by continuously broadcasting for 11 days and 3 hours, (267 hours) according to 1971-72 Guinness World Book of Records.

Pat and KVAC are trying to raise money for the Forks Community Center. KVAC is giving away a radio AM/FM stereo console as first prize, and an 8-foot Stille fiberglass boat, plus the Forks State Bank is giving a $50.00 savings bond as third prize.

Bob Giger, superintendent of Clearwater Honor Camp, was the main speaker. He gave a short history of the institutions within the state; among them: Walla Walla prison; the reformatory at Monroe; the corrective institute at Shelton, which is the most modern in the state; and the treatment center for women at Purdy.

The next Chamber meeting will be November 17.

The goal for this year was set for $85,330.00, and in the Forks area for $5000. Funds were collected, audited and administered locally among 19 organizations in Clallam County. "Tomorrow's leaders need your help today," said McGee (referring to the youth groups receiving help from UGN), and stressed one man's concern for another. Carol Lunsford, campaign chairman for the Forks area, announced the drive is now underway. Max Klinkenborg is co-chairman.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Dr. David Asmusen and Dr. David Steenblock, two applicants considering practice at the new clinic in Forks, were introduced at the Chamber of Commerce meeting held at the Vagabond October 20.

Marshal Dave Huson reported on the upcoming ski program and announced several children were in need of financial help. The Chamber voted to sponsor busing for 2 children, and Veri Poole donated $20 for one more child.

President of the Clallam County United Good Neighbors, John McGee, together with Mary Ann Hendricks, secretary of the UGN, explained the organization. A short film "The United Way" was shown.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor,

Have you heard? Forks Junior High School has a football team. There are approximately 35 outstanding young men on this team. They have been practicing hard since the first of September as their record shows (they're undefeated). However, I have yet to hear or read anything about this most successful of the Forks teams, either on K/VAC or in your paper. I feel a few column inches or five minutes air time recounting the efforts of this team would be well spent.

Thank you,
Bruce K. Dunlap

Editor,

One could safely bet $10.00 against 2 bits, that granted a winter of normal weather U.S. 101 at a spot between Jefferson Shake Mill and Nolan Creek will, before spring, go sliding off into the Hoh River. Less than three years ago, there was only a trickle along that slide, and the main river was maybe half a mile away. Along the other side of the gravel beds there and even behind a little island that for some reason has persisted since 100 years ago, or so say the trees growing upon it. That channel is still there but fast being obliterated by recurrent floods. Now, old times among us know the Hoh and its blue clay slides, and we have seen things happen suddenly and dramatically -- real slides along clay banks where the river chews away the soluble clay and the overburden toboggans into the river wast thunder of soil and debris and general messiness. Talk about silting and roily waters. Until you have seen the Hoh rampaging, you have seen nothing in the line of turmoil, and mud deposits in every hesitating back water eddy and overflow.

Now everyone of us who buys a gallon of gasoline is a payer or road taxes and that, in essence, means all of us. When winter comes and its becomes apparent that the road will go naturally, the State Department of Highways will be activated and ten times as much of taxpayer money will be required to encourage the river to return to and remain in its old channel of three years ago from which it is blocked by a jam that a chain saw and bulldozer could easily permanently clear away.

Come on now, folks. What could be more silly than the present neglect, what more wasteful of our money? Lena Fletcher

UGN DRIVE UNDERWAY

"If you don't do it, it won't get done". This remains the theme of the United Good Neighbors Fund for the 1972 campaign. The goals for this year are the challenging figures of $85,000.00 for the county and $5,000 for the Forks area.

Campaign chairman for the Forks area is Carol Lunsford. Mr. Lunsford has selected division chairmen and solicitors who are already busy collecting in their areas. Welcome these people as they come and give generously to the United Fund.

An Investment in the United Fund is an investment in your own future because of the many ways the Clallam County United Good Neighbors work. Some of these ways are: Altruistic Club, Good Neighbor Relief, American Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Camp David Junior, Camp Fire Girls, Clallam Bay-Selku Recreation, Children's Home of Washington, Forks Community Council, Diversified Industries, Henson-Millington Memorial, Municipal Swimming Pool, Salvation Army, Sequim Recreation, Totem Girl Scouts, Children's Orthopedic Hospital, United Service Organization and Clallam County Y.M.C.A.

This year when the solicitor comes to your door, show them that you care and share with other by giving. Remember, "If you don't do it, it won't get done."

JEFFERSON-JACKSON DINNER

State Senator Martin Durkan was the main speaker at the Jefferson-Jackson dinner held at Harrington's Sky Room October 22.

"The Democrats will have a positive program for the coming year," said Durkan, and suggested a decrease in taxes by bringing new industries and businesses into the state. He favors a decreased property tax and an increase of exemptions. "People are being driven out of their homes because of the high property tax," he added.

"I am opposed to hiring more state employees, but not opposed to schools and higher education. It is time we take stock," said Durkan, "and we have to have a government which is responsible to its people's needs."

Other speakers at the dinner were State Treasurer Robert O'Brien, and Clark County Auditor Don Bonker, candidate for Secretary of State. Bonker spoke on electoral reform, thus "opening the door to more participation among the voters."

The 175 persons attending the dinner were greeted by Dick Fisch, county chairman for the central committee. Fisch expressed his thanks to those responsible for getting the dinner underway.

State Senator and Mrs. Gordon Sandison and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Savage were introduced. County assessor Frank Feeley introduced the county officials and the person who was "running the courthouse," his mother. Special honor was given to Clallam County treasurer, Robert Clark, for his election as president of the Washington State Association of County Officials.

TYEE-SAPPHO-BEAVER NEWS

MRS. J. E. MERRITT

Friends of Miss Hazel Elder will be sorry to learn of the accident which she suffered recently. She was alone in her home at Redfield, Kansas, on Saturday, October 9, when she fell, breaking her leg, two inches below the hip. She was able to get to the phone and call a neighbor, who called a doctor. Miss Elder was taken to the Fort Scott Hospital. A pin was put in her leg, and latest reports are that she is getting along very nicely. She will have to remain in the hospital for about three weeks, and then will be taken to some place where she can receive further care, probably a nursing home.

Miss Elder and her brother, the late Guy Elder lived at Tyee for some twenty years, about 10 years of which she was employed as bookkeeper for the M. R. Smith mill. The Elders moved to Port Angeles 10 or 12 years ago, and then to Redfield.

high honors, received her license October 2, and is now employed at Seattle General Hospital, formerly known as Maynard Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eaton with Pamela Janeen and Alan, visited over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Eaton, returning Monday to their home in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Nordman visited their son and daughter, Arvid Nordman and Mrs. Henry Werner and their families in Seattle, Sunday, returning home that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Beckett with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beckett and children, Ronnie and Carlene of Renton visited Saturday and Sunday at the Dale Dawkins home. The three men went hunting, but unfortunately bagged no deer. The younger Mr. and Mrs. Beckett and children returned home Sunday night, the elder Becketts remaining until Monday for a longer visit with Mrs. Beckett's brother and sister-in-law.

BOGACHIEL GARDEN CLUB NEWS

Speaker at the October meeting of the Bogachiel Garden Club was Mrs. Fred Rosmond of Forks who spoke on the use of native plants for landscaping in the home garden.

A wide variety of native plants including ferns, ground covers, trees, vines and wild flowers may be used effectively in the home garden. Those interested in pursuing the subject in more detail will find that the local library has several helpful reference books.

Mrs. Warren Paul spoke briefly on ways to preserve foliage for decorative display. These include ironing, air drying and burying in desiccant. One of the most effective methods which leaves plants flexible is the immersion of plants in equal parts of glycerine and water. The time of immersion is governed by the rapidity of absorption.

SOCIAL SCENE

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Harley Withrow with Mrs. Leona Kallman and Mrs. Eleanor Thornton co-hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Burr and their son Alan returned home Monday evening from Winslow, on Bainbridge Island, where they spent the weekend with their daughter, Bonnie.

Bonnie is employed at the International Child Care Center at 1426 South Jackson Street in Seattle, where she is

CASH CASHES IN

Coach Jerry Cash made the trip down the Bogachiel River Sunday and what a trip it was. The Number 4 Mepps sank slowly to the bottom of the secret hole where Jerry knew the lunkers were lying. The hit was felt, the hook was set and after 25 minutes of fight, Cash landed a 40-pound, 6 ounce female chinook measuring 43 inches. So it was a fine day indeed, the Cash cashed in.

$500 BOUNTY

A $500, 00 bounty has been offered by the National Wildlife Federation for information leading to the conviction of anyone shooting a bald eagle anywhere in the United States. This program results from the hunters and true sportsmen across the States who are tired of taking the blame for the criminal acts of others towards the slaughtering of the big birds. Like in all other outdoor activities, the sportsman often suffers due to the acts of poachers or criminals.

'WORDS EYE VIEW'

By Don Squire

Island hopping for the last time this year, the Spartans made the journey to Vashon to play the Pirates homecoming game: October 22 and lost.

The home fans were still entering the stadium when the Pirates struck early. With the football game less than two minutes old, the Pirates tallied for the first score, after receiving the opening kick. Setting up for the point after touchdown, the kick attempt was blocked by Ray Maxwell of the Spartans and the Blue and Gold found themselves trailing 6-0.

The first time the Spartans had their hands on the football, it looked like they were going to bounce back. Harrison David received the kick after touchdown on the 25 and handed the ball off on a reverse to Jeff Wittenborn who sprinted down field to the opponent's 19-yard line. First down from the Pirate 19 and Jeff opened the offense with the running game, but the Spartans came up short of the first down by a foot and Vashon took over on their ten.

Running from the 5 after an illegal procedure penalty, Vashon began moving the ball down the field and it looked like the Pirates were going to score again but Jeff Wittenborn came up with a big interception. On the turnover, however, the Spartans were unable to move the ball as the quarter ended.

Vashon scored again in the second quarter after grinding out the yardage on the ground, and when the horn sounded ending the half, Vashon had the lead 13-0.

The Spartans, who have been a second-half ball team offensively this season, scored in the 4th quarter after marching 70 yards. After John Dahlgren bullied his way to the

When the teams met again, the Port Townsend Savages came back with a touchdown and extra point with 1:18 left in the third quarter. The score was then 22-22.

It looked as if the game would end in a tie, but the Babes drove the ball to the 18-inch line with 13 seconds left in the game, and Rusty Roberts went through to put the Babes ahead 23-22 and another Forks Babes victory.

PACKERS 20 — GIANTS 0

The Forks Packers and the Forks Giants clashed Saturday night, October 23, on the home field, and the Packers ran over the Giants.

The first Packer touchdown was made by Lee Olson, and Hill's extra point kick was good to make the score 8-0.

During the second quarter, Davis made a touchdown, and Hill's extra point kick was no good.

After halftime, the Packers came back again to score with 35 seconds left in the third quarter, and the extra point kick was no good.

Both teams failed to score for the entire fourth quarter, and the Packers stomped the Giants 20-0.

One sad note: Delton Beebe of the Forks Giants was injured early in the game and taken to the hospital where it was confirmed he had a broken wrist.

FISHING

CLOSURES END

Emergency sport fishing closures to protect pink (humpy) salmon in several Washington streams will end at midnight Sunday, October 24, the Department of Fisheries announced.

The Dosewallips, Dungeness, Elwah, Snoqualmie and Stillaguamish rivers and Morse creek were closed to all salmon angling. The Nisqually, Puyallup, Skagit, Tolt and Snohomish rivers were closed to taking of pinks.

The Skagit was reopened last month, and the rest will reopen Monday, October 25. Fisheries Director Thor C. Tollefson said pinks have finished spawning in most of these streams now. The emergency closures and a helping hand from nature put more pinks on the spawning grounds than originally expected, he said.

While stressing that the escapement of pinks was not as great as could be desired, Tollefson said the situation was considerably better than previously feared. Given a break in the weather this winter, Puget Sound pink stocks may be on their way back from a period of critically low abundance, he said.

Bob Swerin (3rd from left), president of Forks Lions Club, presents a $2,500 check for the furnishing of a hospital room to Ray Peterson (2nd from left), acting hospital board chairman in Dr. Baker's absence. Others in the picture, left to right, James Scarlett, hospital commissioner; Frank Horton, Lions Club treasurer; Carol Lunsford, Lions Club secretary; and Willard Perry, hospital administrator.

Dr. David Asmussen, 27, and Dr. David Steenblock, 28, visited the Forks area last week. According to Willard Perry, administrator of the Forks Community Hospital, the two doctors will occupy one office in the new clinic. They are presently practicing at Seattle General Hospital three days a week and at their office between Burien and Des Moines the rest of the week. Dr. Steenblock is married and has two girls. His hobbies are fishing, electronics and reading. Dr. Asmussen is interested in skiing. Both are taking flying lessons.

report details state of nation's forests

A report on the state of the nation's forests, issued by American Forest Institute, says the United States still has three quarters of the woodlands it did when Columbus landed.

And, the report states, those woodlands are growing more wood than is being cut off them; in the past 15 years their harvest has yielded 197 billion cubic feet of timber and their growth has amounted to 246 billion cubic feet of wood--- a net increase of 49 billion cubic feet.

The Institute is a non-profit organization which provides public information on our for-government owns 142 million acres. The other 303 million acres are owned by about four million individuals, small landholders for the most part.

Although the commercial forests today are producing enough wood to meet the nation's needs, the Institute says, more acreage must be better managed if the demands of an expanding population are to be met in the future.

"The best answer," the report states, "is to grow more wood, faster, on the same land base.

"Industry has shown how this can be done. For example, the forest products industry owns only 13 percent of the commercial forest but its lands provide the raw material for more than one third of the products we use."

The reason, according to the Institute, is industry's application of intensive management to its lands. Such management includes thinning of crowded stands of trees, breeding of disease- and insect resistant tree strains, replanting immediately after harvesting, fertilizing and protecting stands from fire.

This type of care provides not only for growing wood to harvest but, in the stages between planting and harvesting, provides wildlife habitat, scenic beauty, watershed protection and recreation.

A copy of "Forests USA," which also deals with demands on forests for paper and housing and the merits of recycling, can be obtained free by writing: American Forest Institute,

We leave out the water hoses and water pump, too. Still fewer parts to break down and leave you stranded.

We leave out the drive shaft. You know, the long bulky thing that transfers power from the engine up front to the drive wheels in back. (Always losing a little power along the way.)

Instead, we put the engine in back, right over the drive wheels. Where it'll put its power right to work moving the car.

Our learning program is in progress with three teacher directors. An attempt is being made to use each teacher in areas where they excel or have special interest.

In the morning a language arts program and a reading program is in progress. Mrs. Meisner is our reading specialist and takes care of the total reading program. This gives us all more time to give individual help where necessary in the part of the program we are pursuing.

In the afternoon we share the teaching of arithmetic. Social studies and science are coordinated with the arithmetic program. Mrs. O'Sullivan is teaching science and Mrs. Palmer is teaching social studies. Later in the afternoon we work on a combination of health and physical education. The last part of the day is dedicated to art, music and trying to get everyone to take home his or her coat, lunch pail and other things that collect around the rooms.

We've had a field trip already this year; an interesting and enjoyable trip to the FORKS FORUM office.

Visiting the Jon Ericksons over the weekend were Jon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Erickson of Federal Way, on their way to Arizona, where they will be spending the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Warren returned October 18 after spending 4 days in Reno, Nevada. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim Griffin and son (she is the former June Gunnell). While there, they also took in the Jimmy Rodgers show and had a "taste" of the first snow of the year. This was the Warren's first "plane ride" and Joyce hasn't made up her mind yet as to how she likes it.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fuhrman and Mr. and Mrs. Verlain Sackett went deer hunting around Loomis in Eastern Washington. They had a variety of weather, even snow, but the deer must have gone "south", so they had to settle for apple picking. Service stations to collect diesel fuel tax tion will have the opportunity to cut down on paperwork and simplify their record keeping starting January 1, 1972.

State Representative Paul H. Conner, chairman of the interim legislative committee on vehicle regulation held a hearing in Olympia on Friday to consider suggested amendments to the proposed regulations.

Conner authored the legislation during the 1971 session and stated that some 7,000 diesel trucks and service stations would be affected. If they can comply with the new rules, truck owners will merely have to qualify and will not have to file any more tax reports.

Bonded service station operators will collect the diesel fuel tax, at 9¢ a gallon this amounts to $9 million a year gross revenue to the state, when they make the sale.

Those wishing refunds for off-highway use may periodically claim refunds.
