EASTERN STAR NEWS

On January 17, 1972, Mt. Olympus Lodge #253 O. E. S., meeting was opened by Barbra Hoffman, Worthy Matron, with a poem dedicated to the Past Matrons and Patrons. She was assisted by Thomas Braithwaite. The chapter room was decorated with mums and a backboard with a gavel and motto "Past Matrons and Patrons". The Worshipful Master of Lodge #298 F. A. M., Marvin Goldman, was introduced. The Sunshine report was given by Francis Nagel and the Rainbow report was given by Signey Udd. She announced that the Rainbow Installation of officers will be January 30. The birthday cake drawing for December and January was held and won by Elizabeth Warnock and Arthur Maxfield. A skit was presented and poems read to honor the Past Matrons and Patrons. Those in attendance were: Francis Maxfield, Elizabeth Warnock, Betty Geist, Francis Nagel, Anita Ellis, Margaret Braithwaite, and Holly Swalling. Men in attendance: Albert Nagel, Thomas Braithwaite, Henry Geist, and Sander Swalling. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Irene Jackson and Mrs. Anita Ellis.

Lisa Baker to be installed

Lisa Baker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Baker, will be installed as Worthy Advisor of the Forks Rainbow Assembly #140 at 2:30 p. m.,

Sunday, January 30th, at the IOOF HALL. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mobile home "tie-down" stressed

A potent reminder of the importance of mobile home "tie-downs" struck Washington State last week with terrifyingly graphic results.

Mobile homes were a favorite target of the 150-mile-per-hour winds that "picked up 60-foot, two-bedroom mobile homes" like tumbleweeds as they swept across several eastern Washington communities.

Although not ordinarily a high-wind area, Washington has been the victim of gusts in excess of 100 miles per hour twice in the past ten months. These occasions have served as warnings for many Northwest residents to take some precautions against such whims of nature.

Mobile home "tie-downs" are basically anchorage systems, designed to secure your travel home against extensive wind damage.

Rainfall through January 23, 1972, 13.22 inches.

NUMBER 23

AFTER THE STORM---White is the snow as it covers farmland north of Forks along the cool waters of the Soleduck. Branches of maple trees hold the fresh fallen snow on this early January morn. Yesterday saw yellow leaves and green grasses, but then that was yesterday before the snow clouds gathered. As for now, we will go along with old man winter and accept it as it is... the way it is after the storm. ---Lorraine Archibald

THE DAY THE RAIN CAME---This is just one of the many houses surrounded by water last week when it rained. It is located on E Street S.E. in back of the bowling alley and is occupied by Mrs. Arthur Hamby.

CHAMBER DINNER-DANCE SLATED

The annual Fourth of July workers' dinner-dance sponsored by the Forks Chamber of Commerce will be held Friday, January 28, at the Sportsman's Club. This occasion is the Chamber's way of saying "thank you" to people who gave up their Fourth of July so others could enjoy theirs.

A get-acquainted hour will begin at 7 p. m., dinner at 8, followed by dancing to Wally and the Creations.

Sheriff Harley Bishop spoke January 19 at a well attended Chamber meeting at the Vagabond, explaining the department and its duties. To hire a person as an officer, certain qualifications have to be met, such as credit, attitude, recommendation from former employer, health and no criminal record. Then, if hired, they are put on one year probation. The age varies from 19 to 35, and the department expects the officer to be a gentleman in any situation. "We are faced with some serious crimes today," said Bishop, and added that criminal cases tripled during 1971 and the drug problem also has increased. Through the new program TIP (turn in a pusher), the department hopes to lower drug problems. At present, drugs do a $500 million dollar business in the state of Washington per year.

Bishop favors utilization of the county and Forks jail as well as cooperation between the departments. He approves of more work release programs in connection with correction centers.

Marshal Dave Huson presented to the businessmen some suggestions as far as accepting checks and emphasized the importance of speed in turning them over to law enforcement. The marshal's office requests that only personalized checks be accepted, the person's driver's license number be written on the checks and that no counter checks be accepted.

President Verl Poole introduced Bart Erwin of the city attorneys office and the new officers for 1972. Vice president is Carol Lunsford; secretary, Mary Ann Bullock; and treasurer, Ingrid Lingvall.

Next meeting will be February 16.

HARRISON DAVIS

Player of the week

(This award is presented each week to the player who shows the most hustle and determination during the two previous ball games.)

"He runs the offense." "I play best on defense, because I work most at defense." Contradictory, especially when coming from the same basketball player. Not really. Not at least for Harrison Davis.

The 5-7, 165 pound sophomore picked up the scoring slack Friday night with 20 "biggies" against Sequim, then turned floor general Saturday night, as he constantly turned in the great play.

Playing almost the entire second half with four fouls, Davis repeatedly hustled after loose balls, found open teammates with perfect scoring passes, scored ten points himself, and was savage on defense.

Honorable Mentions: Mike Brandeberry, John Soderlind, Ken Olsen.

(The Westco Sports Network's Player-of-the-Week receives one free dinner at Clark's Vagabond Restaurant).

WEST END

DEMOS TO MEET

The West End Democratic Club will meet at the V. J. W. Hall February 3 at 8 p. m. Under discussion will be the propositions of the State Democratic platform.

Resolutions to be presented at the Clallam County Convention are to be made at the precinct caucus in March.

The following is a preamble to the platform adopted at the 1970 Washington State Democratic Convention: "We reaffirm the philosophy of the Democratic party that it is the human being, not property, which is important and that all citizens have the right to employment, education, excellent health care, a quality environment, a decent standard of living and peace at home and abroad."

See you at the meeting. It's open to the public, so everyone is welcome.

Available at the Forks Memorial Library each week that the Legislature meets is a Legislative Report which lists house or origin of bills, who introduced them and an analysis of the bills.

The first report lists the names and phone numbers of all State Legislators as well as the House and Senate Committees. It also explains the "roll free" service and how one can be informed on certain bills.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

NOTE: Letters to the editor, in order to appear in print, MUST be signed by the writer. If not signed, they will not be accepted.

Editor,

The weekly Orange Legislative Report suggests that letters to your legislators would be in order about extending the sales tax to gasoline. It is estimated this would bring in $35.9 million for the state, $3 million for county and local purposes. This would add greatly to every citizen's taxes.

This additional tax is to finance the Job Now-Washington Future program. This is another executive request bill originating with the economic planners and sent down to the governor who is "requested" to get it passed. This would tie Washington State into the Federal Regional Economic Development Program, (Public Law 89-134).

This would mean that the economic development of the state will be under a federal appointee, appointed by the President.

This tax would become a permanent part of Washington tax structure.

Every citizen would pay more taxes for something that might be carried out better and with less expense by the people of the state and the legislators and state officials they have elected. In many instances Regional Planning government by appointed instead of elected officials has not worked to the advantage of the people of the state.

We really do not need more taxes.

We really do not need more federal control of our state.

Here is a basic recipe for play dough: 1 cup salt, 2 1/2 cups flour, 1 cup water, 1 tablespoon cooking oil, food coloring. Stir ingredients together with spoon. Then knead to workable consistency. Knead in food coloring or add it to water.

E MINOR REVIEW
By Pat McBride

Q. What is the purpose for this question and answer column to appear in the paper weekly?

A. Because of radio, tape decks, stereos, and the advent of local neighborhood backyard bands, an overwhelming interest in music and the artists has developed in almost every person with ears. Therefore, this column will keep music listeners informed with what's going on in the music field.

Q. How are number one songs selected?

A. Number one songs are selected in various ways. Awards, etc. However, most familiar to pop, country, and soul music is a magazine called Billboard. Billboard tabulates record sales across the country, and the record with the most sales is the record that is number one.

Q. Who is considered the number one group in America today?

A. No one, and that's a problem. There are no superstars to set trends, styles, etc. Thus, no one knows what is good and what is bad. (At least in the record industry).

Q. Will the Beatles ever get back together again?

A. If memory serves me right, technically the Beatles are not legally separated.

Q. What is the #1 money-making music?

A. Country; I did not say country-western. I said country. This, of course, encompasses many pop and rock artists, also.

Have a question on music, the artists, the industry? Send emergency message call for Mr. Roe Nash.

We don't put this on just any old car.

Before our used cars get the guarantee sign, they get the third degree.

Commonly known as our 16-point inspection.

It's so complete, it covers parts of the car you rarely hear about. (Have you ever heard of the Toe-in?)

If it survives all our poking around, we present it with a sign that reads "The dealer guarantees 100% to repair or replace the engine, transmission, rear axle, front axle assemblies, brake system, electrical system for 30 days or 1000 miles, whichever comes first."

It's a momentous occasion.

Girl Scout

At the leaders' meeting January 18 the leaders decided that each individual troop learn their own Thinking Day program. Thinking Day is February 22 and Girl Scouts all over the world celebrate this day in honor of both Lord and Lady Baden Powell's (founders of the Scout movement) birthdays. Also remembered on this day is Juliet Gordon Low, the American woman who brought the idea to the United States. Girl Scouts all over the country conduct a "penny-march" and the pennies collected go to the Juliet Low fund. To learn more about Girl Scouts in other nations and to encourage friendship among girls of all nations was part of her goal.

March is the month of the Girl Scout cookie sale and the cookies will sell for $1.25 per package. This year the cookies are made by the American Biscuit Company with three kinds of cookies; thin mint patties, sugared shortbread and peanut butter patties.

Brownies will sell door-to-door in their own neighborhoods, Junior Scouts door-to-door in residential areas and from pre-arranged sites at local businesses, and Cadettes and Senior Scouts will sell at metropolitan areas which have been cleared through the metro clearance coordinator. Remember to always use the buddy-system.

Mrs. Paul Hingvall, 374-6302

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Monell returned January 3 after a 2 1/2 week's vacation in Connecticut where they visited Bruce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Monell of Norwich. Over New Year's, Bruce's brother Robert and his fiancée, Pat, from Chicago joined them. The Monells also visited relatives in Maine, "played in the snow" and saw many interesting places, such as the Mystic Seaport in Mystic, Conn. and Nisquamet (a big tourist attraction) on Rhode Island. On their way home they were met by friends in Seattle and drove to Bellingham, where they had dinner with Sue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin White.

John Boury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boury, celebrated his first birthday January 13 with a party for his aunts and cousins. Cake, ice cream and cool-aid were served after he opened his gifts. The angle food cake was centered with a candle which Grandpa Johnson had on his first birthday and has been used by all 13 grandchildren. Helping John celebrate were: Elaine Hum and children Rickie, Ronnie, Roger, Robert, DeAnn, Deborah; DiAnne Johnson and children Adina and Larr; John's sister and brothers, Theresa, Allen and Richard.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Penn are back home after spending 2 weeks in California where they visited Earl's niece, Terry Ward in Corona Park, and Pat's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Outlaw in Huntington Beach.

WHAT'S COOKING IN DINAH MAXFIELD'S KITCHEN
By Ingrid Lingvall

Bacon and eggs seem to be a favorite dish among many people. I've tried a bacon and egg pie. It's one Dinah's favorite recipes and it's delicious and so easy to make.

Ingredients: Pie dough, enough for a single pie shell, 1/2 cup of milk, diced bacon, 8 eggs, salt and pepper, parsley to garnish. Prepare pie dough and transfer to pie pan. Break the eggs into the unbaked pie shell, add bacon, milk, salt and pepper, stir lightly with a fork. Sprinkle parsley over the mixture. Bake at 350 degrees until set. Dinah Maxfield was born in Timaru, New Zealand, and attended school in Pleasant Point, Taupl and Dunroon. She worked as a housemaid, cooked for sheep shearers and managed a tea room. In 1961 she met Dudley at Burnham military camp, was married and moved to the States in 1967 to make her home in Forks.

Her interests are many such as physical ed., ceramics, Cub Scouts, housework, gardening and is active in Search and Rescue and as a Girl Scout leader. In her "spare" time she holds a fulltime job at the Forks Motel, a job she likes very much. Dinah lives with her husband and five children (2 girls and 3 boys) in the Campbell Addition.

TRANSFUSION NEEDED

By Mike Westman

Is there a doctor in the house? If so, the Forks basketball team is in dire need of a transfusion. A transfusion of wins. The latest cardiac arrest, a 65-68 defeat administered by the Sequim Wolves Friday night, has even the Red Cross worried.

And, it became painfully obvious that the Wolves, allowing the pesky Spartans to stay close for the home fans right up to the end, rose up to win going away. In fact, at the foul line was where the Wolves were especially charitous. Sequim converted only 13-35 free throws, and missed six one-and-one situations in the fourth quarter.

Should have turned the tide toward the Spartans, you say! Not so. Those deadly mistakes---turnovers, ball handling miscues, and personal fouls did the Spartans in again. Offensively the Spartans showed flashes of brilliance, as they consistently hit the open man; and moving without the ball to get free for easy, open shots.

But, defensively there were gapping wounds. In fact, these defensive lapses caused Forks to die slowly. Harrison Davis, carrying much of the offensive load, wound up with 20 points. Ken Olsen added 11, all in the second half, and Mike Brandeberry 10.

Jody Millet was nigh for the Wolves and the game with 22, 18 coming after intermission. Mark Kanunski and Jim Major also scored in double figures, collecting 14 and 13 points respectively.

While the patient shows moments of life, a complete transfusion has been ordered. Is there a doctor in the house?

PRINCE OF PEACE

On January 22 the junior high youth group went to Port Angeles for a swimming party and attended the junior high basketball games at Roosevelt.

For worship service on January 23 a lay person, Bob Whipple from Concrete, Washington, gave God's message. Members also met with him on Sunday evening and discussed the Charismatic movement.

The women's group postponed their meeting because of the storm and will meet at 7 p.m., January 31.

The men's group will meet January 31 at 7:30 p.m. at the play room in the school for volley ball.

The title for Pastor Stockman's sermon for Sunday is "Noble Yet Humble" taken from Philipians 1:27-2:4.

"CLOSE, BUT NO CIGAR"
By Mike Westman
'Twas Coach Jerry Cash's birthday. The team presented him with a card. The band played a birthday salute. The crowd chanted "Happy Birthday," and then the basketball kids almost gift-wrapped the best present of all--the first victory of this season. Almost, but not quite. A half-court, driving lay-up with :12 left by Wendell Brookopp gave the Quilcene Rangers a 51-57 win, although two free throws by Jim Doss actually iced the game in the last three seconds. The Spartans played well enough to win, and deserved better. Fate decided not, and not it was to be. As a result, the Spartans' losing string hit 13, while Quilcene evened its record at 7-7.

Cash agreed, then went on to say, "when he (Davis) fouled out, it hurt us. I substituted Maxwell and Jaime, a couple of good ball handlers at the end, because I was sure Quilcene would have to foul."

However, three costly turnovers eliminated the necessity to foul for the Rangers, and also eliminated the Spartan victory hopes.

The Forks' mentor also had enormous praise for Mike Brandeberry and John Soderlund, who did a yeoman's job on the boards.

Brandeberry, playing with savage abandon, grabbed off 10 rebounds and pocketed 13 points, all in the first half. Soderlund claimed 12 boards against the r ller Rangers. On the whole, Forks outrebounded Quilcene 41-31.

Kenny Olsen again paced the Spartan scoring parade with 16, but also added seven assists. Davis had ten, while John Dahlgren added nine.

Doss was high for the game with 20. Gary Olson contributed 17, while Brookopp added eight, including the two that really counted.

Well, sports fans--we're definitely glowing closer. Unfortunately, so is the end of the season.

SPARTANS TAKE TWO FROM ROOSEVELT

The Forks Junior High won two of three weekend basketball contests from Roosevelt in Port Angeles. The Spartans' ninth grade team won 64-57

PAGE 9---FORKS FORUM, THURSDAY, JANUARY 27, 1972 Sequim, and a 64-32 runaway past Quilcene.

The double triumph extended the J.V. winning streak to three. They are winners of 5 of 6 and have an overall mark of 8-5.

This reporter has been extremely impressed with the play of Randy Cabe, John Leppell, and Larry Woody.

TIMBER BIDDING ERRATIC

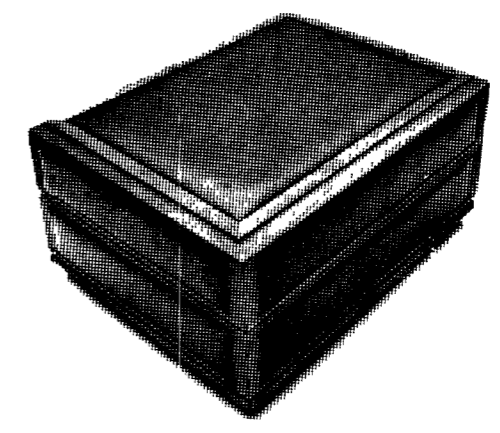

State timber in the amount of 362,765,000 board feet was sold for $16,344,310.00 during calendar year 1971 in the Forks district, reported E.C. Gockerell, North Olympic Field Supervisor for the Department of Natural Resources.

The 49 sales were bid up from an average of $28.51 per M bd. ft. to $45.06 per M. This compares with $48.86 per M. bd. ft. bid for timber sold in 1970. It is way down from the record high of $72.22 per M. bd. ft. received during 1969.

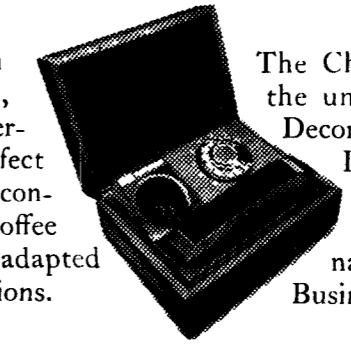

"It has been a peculiar year," said Gockerell. "Bidding has been erratic all year attesting to our local and national economic uncertainties as well as those world wide."

E MINOR REVIEW

By Pat McElride

Q. How many voices are in the Mormon Tabernacle Choir?
 A. 375 at Christmas.
 Q. I understand James Brown, who is considered the No. 1 soul artist, has built quite an organization to help people in ghettos.
 A. This is true. Brown employs over 80 people at a payroll of around 1 million dollars per year. His motto has been, "Be cool, stay in school."

Q. Who wrote "Dry Bones"? Is it available on record?
 A. "Dry Bones", a biblical spiritual, has no real author, or is not accredited so. Roy Ringwald, an arranger for Fred Warring, has put together an arrangement. I believe it is available through Robert Shaw.
 Q. Why is there so little good music on the local radio station?
 A. What do you mean by "good"? Good to you might be rotten to someone else. There's a little insight, however, station programming attempts to satisfy everyone's taste in music. If you're content. It's not being satisfied, make a suggestion. It won't.
 Q. Who wrote "Pevane" and I don't mean "Pavane for a Dead Princess"? Where can I get a recording of same?
 A. I believe you might try Warehouse of Music in Seattle. In 1987 Gabriel Faure composed it for orchestra with optional chorus. This can be found on Scriabin label. Another transcription is for 2 guitars on RCA label.
 Q. Is Leroy Anderson still around? What are his latest compositions?
 A. The last I heard of Leroy, he was an employee for Mills Music Publishing Co. One of his latest compositions was "Golden Locks" in 1958, a Broadway play. He also wrote such famous compositions as "Siegh Rite" and "Fiddle Fiddle".
 Q. When and where was Kotelbey born? Is he still living? What are his latest compositions?
 A. Albert W. Kotelbey was born in England, 1880. I don't think he's living, (but not sure). Famous composition, "In a Monastery Garden". He composed this under the name Anton "Lofori" ski. Incidentally, he was once the president of Columbia Gramophone Co.

NEW BANK PRESIDENT

The Board of Directors of Forks State Bank, following the annual shareholders meeting elected Mr. Thomas H. Mansfield president of the bank. Mr. Mansfield has been a director of the bank since 1966 and is well known in the community. Among his other activities, he served as County Commissioner for several years.

Also elected to the Board of Directors was Dr. E. T. Leibold, a long time resident and civic leader of the West End of Clallam County. Dr. Leibold has been a shareholder of Forks State Bank for some twenty years.

In a letter to shareholders of Forks State Bank at their annual meeting, held at Forks State Bank January 19, 1972, Mr. R. O. (Oscar) Wahlgren asked not to be again considered for presidency of the bank for the ensuing year. As stated in his letter, this was brought about by failing health.

Mr. Wahlgren had served in this capacity since the bank's inception in 1944 and has been an inspiration in development of the town of Forks and the surrounding area. Mr. Wahlgren was retained on the Board of Directors for 1972.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

NOTE: Letters to the editor, in order to appear in print, MUST be signed by the writer. If not signed, they will not be accepted.

These last few days I've been missing the log trucks on the highways. Actually, that wasn't very well put; I've been missing them and they me somehow for three years. What I mean is I miss seeing them on the road. That isn't quite right either, but it is weird to be driving with all senses alert, all nerves keyed and all muscles toned for the usual action and there isn't any. I haven't dodged a log truck for three days now and I'm about to come unglued. I now know how a World Series player feels when the game is rained out.

HIGHWAY MILE POSTS

Confused motorists are likely candidates for accidents on Washington State's Interstate freeways, so the Washington State Highways Department is doing all it can to help vehicle drivers avoid making mistakes, by posting highway mileage signs that are larger and easier to see at any time of day or night. Exit signs and highway mile post marker signs (showing white numbers on green reflectorized background) are located along the shoulder of the outside lanes of freeways to help motorists anticipate when to safely move over into the correct highway lane to get off the freeway---without causing accidents.

The mileage signs (showing mileage numbers) are posted every mile on all Interstate highways, state highways and most county roadways in Washington state. Motorists driving north from Vancouver on Interstate Highway 5, for example, can tell with a glance at mile post signs how far they have traveled. The numbers on the mile post signs help motorists anticipate getting off the freeway when their maps show they have a mile or two remaining to reach an interchange ramp that will carry them toward Longview---or any other city located near the Interstate 5 freeway.

Washington State's Interstate highways have been in compliance with Federal Highway Administration regulations which require numbers on Interstate 5 begin with 0, 00 at the south terminus in Vancouver, Washington, and end at 276, 56 miles at the Canadian border in Blaine; and, numbers on Interstate Highway 90 begin with 0, 00 at the junction with Interstate 5 in Seattle, and end at 299, 97 miles at the Idaho border east of Spokane. This south-to-north numbering applies to Interstate Highway 405 which runs along the east shore of Lake Washington; Interstate Highway 82 between Ellensburg and Yakima, and future connections between Yakima, the Tri-Cities, and the Oregon border; and Interstate Highway 205, a new alternate route running along the east edge of Vancouver.

The mile post signs are of particular importance to Washington State patrolmen and other emergency crews who use the post numbers to fix and identify more accurately the location of highway accidents and trouble spots. Motorists can also use the nearest mile post marker (if known) to direct ambulance operators, tow truck operators, and others to their location on the freeway to offer aid and assistance.

Revised mile post signs on all two lane highways in Washington state will be 10 inches wide by 36 inches tall for three digit numbers, and shorter for two digit and one digit numbers. Existing mile post marker signs are 3 1/2 inches by 18 inches on non-freeways and 5 inches by 24 inches on freeways.

SPARTANS THUMPED AGAIN!

By Mike Westman
It was a bad night all around. The principal of Forks High School confiscated this sportscaster's soda pop, (ah!), and substituted water. The Peninsula Community College Junior Varsity confiscated victory from the Forks Spartans, (ah!), and selfishly substituted a 71-64 defeat.

Of course, they had help. In fact, although they stayed relatively close until the closing seconds, and indeed held the lead on several occasions, the Spartans failed to generate consistency at either end of the floor. Again.

Turnovers, mental mistakes, and horrendous free throw shooting foiled the Spartan attack repeatedly. Again.

Failing to get back on defense, Forks was constantly being burned on the fast break, as Peninsula wriggled someone free for an easy lay-up. The absence of John Soderlind in the middle certainly did not further the Spartan cause.

As a result Mike Brandeberry was forced to battle the boards with very little help, and quickly got into foul difficulty.

Mike fouled out midway through the third stanza, and was followed to the sidelines on fouls by John Dahlgren and Cyrus Thornton, who tried valiantly but without much success to win the battle of the backboards.

Even with these odds---Spartans committing 28 fouls to Peninsula's 19; Forks hitting only 12-26 free throws, while the JV's converted 23-40---the Spartans had a golden opportunity with :38 left to tie the game, when Jim Jaime, who with Harrison Davis were all over the floor, stole a stray pass at mid-court, and dashed down the floor. Unfortunately his shot bounced too hard off the backboard, and a foul on the rebound action killed the Spartan chances. Two field goals, one on a tip-in on a missed free throw, and a foul shot closed out the scoring, as Peninsula eased to the seven-point winning spread.

A four-point play moments earlier had brought Forks to within two. A 25' Davis bomb tingled the cords, while on the rebound action, a Peninsula man was caught pushing Larry Woody, who converted both free throws.

Unfortunately, it was as close as the Spartans were to get.

Woody and Mitch Pressed into service off the JV squad because of the manpower shortages played more than respectively.

Davis led the Spartan scoring parade with 21, while Ken Olsen threw in 18.

Mike Simmons was high for Peninsula with 21. Gary Rasmussen added 16, and Gary Röllinger 15.

So, the Spartans will seek a win tomorrow night against North Mason and Saturday night when they entertain Kalama. Again.

Oh, and by the way. If anyone knows why it's legitimate to have a glass of water in Forks High School gym, when pop is forbidden, call the rest home for retired sportscasters.

SMV EMBLEMS REQUIRED

Under the federal government's Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970, slow moving vehicles (SMV) driven by employe-operators must be equipped with the yellow-orange, red-bordered SMV emblem.

Andy Kruswyk, Jr. Washington State University's extension agent in Clallam County, said Washington state is one of 30 states now having laws regulating the use of the SMV emblem, in addition to the federal law. An SMV is defined as one allowed to use highways but designed to travel no faster than 25 miles per hour.

"The National Safety Council continues to urge all owners and operators of SMV's to attach the 14 inch by 16 inch SMV emblem to the rear of such vehicles before traveling on the highway. The size, colors and display requirements for the SMV emblem are spelled out in the American Society of Agricultural Engineers Standards. He said,

Statistics from the National Safety Council show that more than half the collisions involving farm SMV's happened to operators who has intended to travel less than one mile on the highway, Kruswyk said.

The Council also notes that the result of SMV emblem usage in the last few years has been a reduction in rear-end collisions with farm machinery and other low speed vehicles on the nation's roads.

The two local sources of these SMV emblems are Baker Equipment Company and the Clallam Co-op in Sequim. These could prove to be a good investment.

A steady customer became indignant at receiving a typewritten letter, many years ago, from Montgomery Ward & Co., one of the first American firms to use typewriters. The customer wrote: "Misters, you don't need print letters for me. I ain't got no college education but I ken read riting as good as any."

WAHLGREN CHOSEN AS LEGISLATIVE INTERN

Richard Wahlgren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Wahlgren of Forks, was one of ten University of Washington students selected to participate in a legislative internship program during the special session of the Forty Second Legislature. The University of Washington students were chosen on the basis of their high academic record and demonstrated leadership abilities. Wahlgren was previously chosen by the University of Washington political science and speech departments to study in Washington D. C. in a similar program.

Wahlgren is currently working in coordination with Representative Paul Conner (Clallam, Jefferson, Mason) and Representative Jim Gilleland (King, Snohomish). His work includes attending House of Representatives' sessions and committee meetings, and writing and researching material related to legislative issues. Wahlgren's primary interests concern ecological, economic, highway safety, and consumer protection issues effecting the Olympic Peninsula area.

After graduating this June from the University of Washington, Wahlgren plans to attend law school in Washington D. C. and work for Senator Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts.

TYEE-SAPPHO-BEAVER NEWS

MRS. J. E. MERRITT

My apologies for not having had any Beaver-Sappho-Tyee news in the Forum for the past three weeks. First there was illness, then plumbing troubles, and finally, last week the blizzard and continued cold weather, most everything happening at the first of the week when it was time to take my copy down to the Forum office. Let us hope THIS month does not have as many problems as did last month.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Konopaski arrived home on Thursday night, January 6, from San Francisco, where they spent the holidays with their son, Dr. Ron Konopaski and family. They left Beaver on Sunday, December 12, in stormy weather, and found quite a lot of snow on the highways south of Medford, Oregon (in the mountains) but they were well sanded, so the Konopaskis did not have to use chains. Returning, the highways were all clear. They drove to Seattle on the way home as Ed had an appointment with his doctor.

While in San Francisco they had the pleasure of visiting their son's beautiful new dental office, which he had just moved into a short while before.

People who attended Beaver school in the late "Thirties" will probably remember Mr. and Mrs. E. R. (Dick) Sharnbroch. He was the Beaver school principal from 1937 to 1939, and he and Mrs. Sharnbroch had a little daughter, Barbara (Bobbie) who used to be in all Ron Konopaski's school pictures, although she was still too young at the time to attend school.

Mr. Sharnbroch died of a heart attack several years back, while he was postmaster at Wrangell, Alaska. After that his wife, Marge, was postmaster there until a few years ago, when she came to Seattle and was working in the Bellevue post office. The Konopaskis saw her occasionally while Ron had a drug store in Bellevue (before he went to the University of Washington to study dentistry) and they always got a long letter from her at Christmas. The first of last October she was appointed postmaster at Couvville, and the K's congratulated her, on the Christmas card they sent her, but they had not heard from her in return. While they were in San Francisco they received a letter from Bobbie saying that Mrs. Sharnbroch and her sister had both been killed in an automobile accident in the Mount Vernon area on November 7. It was quite a shock to the Konopaskis, as it is to all who knew the Sharnbrochs. As Harriett remarked, it seems so sad, as Marge was so active and had so much to live for.

Ben Leavitt of Tyee entered Doctors' Hospital on Thursday, January 13, and underwent surgery on his visit the following day. Your correspondent has been unable to contact Mrs. Leavitt since to inquire as to the particulars.

Ida Eaton and Mary Johnson, postmasters at Sappho and Beaver, respectively, left on Tuesday, January 18, to attend the Mid-winter Conference of the Washington Postmasters, held at the Hyatt House, Sea-Tac, on Wednesday and Thursday, January 19th and 20th. They were accompanied by Alra Kellie, the LaPush postmaster, and returned home Thursday night. On Thursday, January 13, Mrs. Eaton and Mrs. Johnson went to Port Angeles and attended classes on managing their post office budgets.

Wednesday, January 19, was Mr. A. M. Nordman's nineteenth birthday and on Thursday he and Mrs. Nordman had dinner at Hagwood's--formerly Denny's Restaurant, the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Henry and Laura Werner, who, with their small son, Aaron, had come out from Seattle to visit the Nordmans that afternoon. They returned home that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Humm attended the National Lumbermen's Convention in New York from Friday, January 21 to Sunday, January 23. They also spent some time sightseeing around the town, and on Sunday Elaine took in the play,

"Fiddler on the Roof", at the Little Broadway Theatre. That night they went to Philadelphia, where they spent two nights at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Huffer, business acquaintances whom they had met at the convention. On Tuesday they flew to Reno, Nevada, where they stayed two days, and met Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cowan of Beaver, and flew back to Seattle on Thursday of last week, arriving home around 1 a. m., Friday. Mrs. Humm's birthday was Monday, January 31. Mrs. Gooding's birthday was on Tuesday, January 25. All the club members were present, the first time in a long time. They were: Aagot and Myrtle Gooding, Emma Nordman, Alice Shirley, Wilma Thiele, Nancy Dawkins and the two honor guests, Mickey Gooding and Sandi Nodell, who each received a number of nice gifts. Ice cream, birthday cake and coffee were served.

LUNCHEON SLATED

A Christian women's luncheon will be held Friday, February 4, at 12:30 at the Wagabond.

Sharon Morlin from Seattle will be guest speaker, and special music will be provided by Sally Millici. The program will also include Marilee Garbrick, owner of the Yarn Basket, featuring knitting.

A luncheon will be served and everyone is invited to attend.

NEWCOMERS CLUB

The Newcomers Club will hold an evening coffee hour Wednesday, February 9 at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Carma Shaw, Peterson Road.

VICTORY, WHERE ARE YOU?

By Mike Westman

The Forks Spartans' travelling show is still looking for a victory after 14 opportunities.

In fact, after the latest setback, there is a general feeling among some that the basketball team is sliding downstream faster than a single scull in the Snoqualmie.

Much to the delight of their 100 or so (were there that many?) hometown rooters, the Port Townsend Redskins ambushed the Spartans, 70-45.

Forks was simply outclassed. Not that the Spartans didn't try; quite the opposite. Unfortunately, it was much the same as "Custer's Last Stand," and they were the soldiers.

The 'Skins, a la Sonny Sixkiller, put away their arrows, and picked up basketballs, but the outcome was the same: Mass murder.

Port Townsend controlled the game from the start, although a second-half press, and a cold (freezing?) spell which saw the Spartans go almost six-and-a-half minutes without a field goal, actually settled the contest.

Offensively, the Redskins appeared awesome. Led by Reed Gunstone, Paul Stroeder, and Keith Harper, the 'Skins ran the Spartans off the floor in the second half. A 23-8 edge in the third period decided the outcome, after the Spartans had been able to remain fairly close in the first half.

Coach Jerry Cash was extremely impressed with Port Townsend, calling it, "by far the best club we'd faced all year."

"They're a good club... well balanced. Of course, the boards kill us, although they played well defensively.

"The cold spell didn't help us, and they shot the eyes out of the basket. They could be tough in the state tournament if they continue to shoot that well.

"Fouls hurt us... especially when our big men got in foul trouble trying to stop Stroeder. And of course, when we had to sag back inside, that left the middle open."

Gunstone, hitting most of his field goals from the 10-15 foot range in the key, led the way with 20 points, 11 of which were in that decisive third quarter. Stroeder added 16, while Harper 10, along with a half-dozen assists.

Keith also put the big "D" on Kenny Olsen. Hounded by Harper all evening, Olsen still managed 12 points, but most were of the 20' variety, and much of the time while Ken was closely guarded. Ron Diimmel, coming off the bench, added 11, all in the final stanza.

Coach Cash also had words of praise for Ray Maxwell, who showed more desire and hustle.

The Spartans jumped off to a 5-2 lead, but Townsend refused to panic, and took the lead they never relinquished at 9-8. Stroeder, using his superior height to good advantage, helped the 'Skins to a ten-point bulge at the half, and the rest of the Braves took over from there. Port Townsend shot a very respectable .448

(30-67) from the field, while the Spartans blasted away at a .371 clip (16-43).

The victory was Port Townsend's sixth without a loss in Olympic A play, and virtually assured them of a post-season trip to Tacoma. Forks is now 0-6 in league encounters.

Oh, well. The Spartans must again regroup, pick up their swords, and seek out another dragon to slay.

Oh, victory. Where are you?

The Way The Ball Bounces

By Mike Westman

The most maligned individual in any team sport is the referee. To the home fans he's the villain of the piece. He's the guy who calls more infractions against the home team than against the visitors.

He's the guy responsible for the 45-44 loss... or the 950-12 loss, too, for that matter.

He's the guy whose L.O. and ancestry are suspect and who shouldn't have any part in a basketball game or any other game, either, for that matter.

He's the no account bum! He should be ridden out of town on a rail!

He's all the bad things partisan fans can imagine of him in the heat of the game. He should be punished... the more severe the punishment the better! Even "Kill the Ref!"

He's the man fans love to hate! But who is he, really?

A time-worn adage says, "It matters not whether you win or lose but how you play the game." It may give solace to some amateur athlete but you won't find many coaches quoting it to their players. To the coach, regardless of sport or status, it does matter whether you win or lose. To some coaches it doesn't matter how you play the game---just win! Enter the referee.... that's his concern... how you play the game!

He's the man hired to see that the game is played according to the rules. He's the man who must penalize those who don't abide by them and, in the performance of his job, take a lot of abuse.

But who is he, really? Let's consider some facts. First of all, the referee is a skilled professional who couldn't care less who wins the game. Professional is the key word.

Pen. Tel. to invest in new equipment

Maurice R. Hull, president of Peninsula Telephone and Telegraph Company, Forks, has announced the corporation plans to invest $335,000 in new equipment during 1972. The company operates exchanges in Forks, Beaver, Neah Bay, Clallam Bay and Clearwater, serving 3,300 telephones.

Hull estimates that in 1972 the company will add approximately 320 new telephones. Included in the company's 1972 construction program is the addition of 178,500 in ce.

central office equipment, $62,000 in aerial and buried cable, $45,000 in station apparatus and connections, and $50,000 in vehicles, work equipment and miscellaneous equipment. The largest single addition will be the construction of a new microwave radio system between Neah Bay and Clallam Bay. The new microwave system will require an investment in excess of $40,000. Other new equipment additions will bolster existing plant to keep pace with normal subscriber growth and enable the company to continue service improvement projects.

"In 1971," said Hull, "we installed a net of 265 new telephones in our five exchange areas. This represents an increase of 8.81% compared with a 8.9% in 1970 and 9.5% in 1969."

The exchange areas and their station increase in 1971 are as follows: Forks, 160; Beaver, 8; Neah Bay 26; Clallam Bay 30; and Clearwater 21.

In 1971 over $230,000 was expended for new plant facilities. Largest projects in 1971 were additions to central office switching equipment, toll facilities and cable plant.

If present growth projections prove valid, the company expects to invest in excess of $1,000,000 during the 1972-1973-1974 time frame on new equipment to serve its customers.
