BRUMFIELD PRESIDENT.

Thomas Malony First Vice-President, William Ritchie Second Vice-President, W. K. Clark Secretary and Treasurer—The Meeting Largely Attended.

A meeting of the Central Democratic Club of Clallam county, was held in the city council room last Saturday evening, at which were present 107 Democrats, true and loyal to the cause.

The records of the club having been lost, it was deemed necessary to have all the old members and others who wanted to become such, sign their names to the roll, and 107 men, from all parts of the county, responded.

Donald McInnes, as president of the club, called the meeting to order, with W. Brumfield as secretary. No minutes of the previous meeting were read, having been lost with the roll, so the president annouced that it was the intention of the meeting to elect officers for the ensuing year, whereupon, nominations for the president was declared in order. Mr. Thomas Malony immediately arose to his feet and placed the name of W. Brumfield before the club as his nominee for that office, which nomination was vociferously seconded by a dozen others. Mr. Ed. Crockett placed Donald McInnes in nomination for the same office and was seconded by Jack McGregor. Vote by ballot was then taken, the result of which showed that out of 105 members, 103 had voted, giving Mr. Brumfield a majority of five. The ballot stood forty-nine for Mr. McInnes and fifty-four for Mr. Brumfield.

Mr. McInnes immediately vacated the chair, having appointed two members to escort Mr. Brumfield to that position, Mr. McInnes in leaving said ,that he was glad to be succeeded by so true a Democrat as Mr. Brumfield.

The new president then announced that nominations for first and second vice-presidents be heard. Lewis Levy nominated Thomas Malony for first place and Donald McInnes proposed William Ritchie. G. W. Meagher then moved to suspend the rules of a majority to elect, and the candidate receiving the largest vote be elected to first place and the other to second. This motion was amended by another, which was that both gentlemen be elected by acclamation and that the candidates draw for first place. This motion was seconded and when put to vote was carried. Mr. James Myers prepared the slips, which, when passed to Mr. Ritchie, resulted in that gentleman drawing second place.

The president then called for nominations for secretary and treasurer. Mr. Frank Fisher proposed the name of W. K. Clark and was seconded by a score, in fact at this point, the meeting began to partake of the nature of a love feast and Mr. Clark was enthusiastically greeted. The motion was then made and seconded that the nominations be closed, and that Mr. Clark be made secretary and treasurer by acclamation, which, when put to the club, was carried by a unanimous voice.

The subject of establishing branch organizations in the different precincts throughout the county, was discussed and upon motion made and seconded, the officers with the executive committee were instructed to further this plan and to invite the co operation of all Democrats in the county.

A committee of three, Messrs. Troy, McInnes and Bryan were appointed to submit to the club at its next meeting (Saturday) the names of ten members, from which the club will select an executive committee of five to act for it during the approaching campaign.

The meeting then adjourned until next Saturday.

The Democratic majority of the ways and means committee, by formal action, adopted the Springer policy, and decided to attack the McKinley high tariff by various separate bills.

Clallam Bay News.

CLALLAM BAY, Feb. 4—[Special.]—A deputy United States marshal made his appearance in Clallam Bay on the 1st, and arrested R. M. Blair, who is charged with a shortage in his accounts while postmaster at Sterling, Kansas.

Both officer and prisoner went up Sound on the Hermosa on the 2nd.

J. D. Thagard, of this place, left on Friday last for Coupeville, Island county, to attend the Coella murder trial, in which he is an important witness. This case was transferred from Port Townsend owing to the difficulty of securing a jury there,

The trial of a civil suit brought by B. H. Burgess against R. M. Blair to recover the sum of $55, was called by Justice Rowan last Saturday. Mr. Blair will present a petition to the county commissioners to be appointed justice of the peace.

The schooner American Girl is loading a lumber cargo at the mill wharf for Portland.

The barkentine Joe Griffith with a lumber cargo from Port Hadlock for San Francisco, dropped anchor here on Saturday. A lady passenger on board suffered so much from sea sickness that she was put ashore here and will go up Sound, and thence by rail to Frisco. The Joe Griffith went to sea Monday morning.

Settlers west of the bay will petition the board of county commissioners to divide our road district. it is too large for all practical purposes,

A lodge of Odd Fellows has been organized here with about fifty charter members. A delegation of the fraternity from Port Angeles is expected down to install the officers and enjoy a banquet some time within the next two weeks.

A new postoffice has been applied for at Andrew's place on the Hoko river twelve miles southwest of the bay. He will also establish a store. The people in that section are now organizing a movement to improve the trail so that a pack train can be used.

The Ocean View hotel, lately destroyed by fire will be rebuilt in the near future.

The tanning extract factory will resume operations March 1st.

The people of Pysht have stolen a march on Clallam by building a new trail to Beaver five miles east of the old one, swinging travel away off from us. Folks here are wondering what has become of Burlingame's county road from Clallam Bay to Quillayute, and as it seems to have been lost, strayed or stolen, will not the county commissioners offer a suitable reward for it's return?

Amicably Settled.

The Chilian government has notified the United States of its regret over the assault upon the sailors of the Baltimore. The replies to the letter regarding the Matta note of December 21st, and the recall of Minister Egan are entirely satisfactory. The United States will leave the matter of reparation to the sufferers by the riot, to Chili to settle according to her sense of justice, and when a salute is given the United States' flag, the incident will be deemed closed by this government.

Italy Again.

The Italian government has sent to Washington City a list of the families entitled to compensation for the loss of relatives in the New Orleans lynching. Secretary Blaine promised to submit the matter to Congress, expecting favorable action from that body.

The largest number of bereaved families are residents of Scicily, some of whom were left destitute, being in the habit of receiving assistance from their relatives who were lynched.

The amount of compensation is left with the United States government.

THE NEWS.

The sealers are busy outfitting for the next cruise in northern waters, in every port on the coast.

A large run of salmon is predicted by old fishermen for the coming season, and many more small vessels will engage in the business than have been employed heretofore.

Charley Mitchell has issued a challenge to John L. Sullivan to meet him in a 12-foot ring. It is probable that the fight will take place before the California athletic club. Mr. Mitchell is prepared to put up $5,000 as an outside issue.

THE ROAD QUESTION.

The Citizens of Beaver Meet and Take Action.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED

"The Democrat's" Endeavors Heartily Endorsed—The Resolutions and Communication as Adopted by the Citizens—Amount Received for the Bonds.

The citizens of Clallam county are not through with the county road question yet. The matter is still being agitated throughout the county. In this matter the citizens of Beaver are not behind time. They are alive to their interests as taxpayers and sovereign citizens of Clallam county as will be seen by the resolutions, given herewith, adopted by an enthusiastic mass meeting. As elsewhere in the county the position of THE DEMOCRAT is considered favorably at that place. The following is the account of the proceedings of the meeting referred to, as they were certified to THE DEMOCRAT by the officers of the meeting:

BEAVER, WASH., 1892.

At a mass meeting of the citizens of Beaver precinct, Clallam county, held at Beaver on Saturday, January 23rd, 1892, presided over by E. F. Corliss, F. O. Lamoreux, secretary, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

RESOLVED, That in view of the many damaging reports current regarding the management and expenditure of the proceeds of the Clallam county road bonds. M. V. B. Lamoreux and A. A. Richardson be and are hereby appointed a committee of two, and instructed to communicate with the Port Angeles DEMOCRAT, requesting that journal to furnish said citizens, at the earliest practicable moment, through its columns, the following information relative to the present status of the western division of said road.

First. What was the original amount of net cash received by Clallam county from the sale of the whole of said bonds?

Second. What was the amount appropriated by the county commissioners for expenditure upon said western division?

Third. How much of said latter amount has been expended and upon what pretexts?

Fourth. What is the full text and conditions of the contract between the authorities of Clallam county and Mr. Burlingame as effecting said western division?

Fifth. A litteral copy of the bond of Mr. Burlingame, or, failing that, the amount, conditions, names and financial standing of the obligors of said bond.

Sixth. Any other reliable information obtainable regarding the prosecution and management of the work upon such western division.

On motion adjourned to meet at same place on Saturday, February 13th, 1892.

ELY. F. CORLISS, Pres.

F. O. LAMOREUX, Sec.

Messrs. Lamoreux and Richardson, the committee oppointed to conduct the correspondence, at once addressed the following communication to THE DEMOCRAT:

BEAVER, Jan. 23, 1892.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT,

Dear Sir: We inclose you a copy of resolutions adopted at a meeting of citizens, interested in the completion of the western division of our county road, held here to-day. We are aware of the magnitude of the request we are making of you, but, believing as we do, that THE DEMOCRAT management has the best interests of the people at heart we trust that you will give the matter such attention as your valuable time will permit, and through your excellent journal will give the burden bearers of our county the benefit of the information asked, and, in which, every citizen must feel an abiding interest. The people here, as eleswhere along the lines of the proposed road, are keenly alive to the necessity existing for means of communication with the outside world, and upon receipt of reliable information regarding the present condition the work etc., upon the division more directly affecting us, desire to take such other and further action as may be necessary and proper under the circumstances developed.

A. A. RICHARDSON,
M. V. B. LAMOREUX.

THE DEMOCRAT, being heartily in sympathy with the taxpayers, and alive to its duty as a newspaper, proceeded to investigate, through the proper channels (the county offices), for the information desired, and finds the following to be the state of the affairs in question:

First. The county received $81,000 for $90,000 bonds. The Rollins Investment Company, to whom the bonds were sold, offered to take the bonds at par and asked 10 per cent. commission for making the sale; or, in other words, they offered 90 per cent. for them. This bid was accepted On investigation the company found that the county's indebtedness was such that the $100,000 added would raise it to more than the constitutional limit of 5 per cent. of the assessed valuation of the county, so it would only take $60,000 of the bonds, paying therefore $81,000 cash.

Second. Of this amount $28,350, or 35 per cent., was placed to the credit of the western division.

Third. There has been expended and charged to the western division $10,416.21. Of this $8,425 went to the Burlingame Contract Company, presumably for work; $1,950 to the county surveyor, the viewers and their assistants; and $41.21 exchange on the original receipt, on interest and expenses in connection with the handling of the money.

The following are the principal provision of the contract:

Fourth. For, and in consideration of the premises the Burlingame Contract Company agrees "to do all of the clearing of the right-of-way, swamping, grubbing, grading, puncheoning, culverts and bridging and all other work required and necessary in the construction of a complete and finished wagon road according to the plans and specifications now on file in the office of the county surveyor of Clallam county, Washington, which are made a part of this agreement, and conforming to the acceptance of the county commissioners, and fully complete the same for occupancy on or before the 15th day of October, 1892, and for the work embraced in this agreement the said party of the second part hereby agrees to pay to the party of the first part the following:

"For the western division the sum of $1,785 for each mile constructed."

"Estimates shall be made during the progress of the work on or about the 10th day of each month and 90 per cent. of the amount of said estimate shall be paid on or about the first day of the following month. The amount of said payments to be determined by the county commissioners on the recommendations of the county surveyor." * * * When all work is completed a final estimate shall be made when the balance shall be paid, if the work is up to the specifications, when the contractor shall receipt in full and furnish proof that all claims of laborers have been paid in full.

"The contractor shall accept all changes which the commissioners shall see fit to make when said change shall not increase the cost of the road.

"All work will be at the risk of the contractor until finished and accepted by the county commissioners.

"On order of the commissioners, the contractor shall make good, without charge, any work which the commissioners may consider defective.

All work shall be prosecuted and completed under the direction of the county surveyor and his legally authorized deputies.

The county commissioners shall have power to limit the amount of work done on the divisions in which there is not funds to complete the work.

Fifth. The bond of the Burlingame Co., which is apparently regularly executed is conditioned that if the company shall pay for all laborers, pay for all material furnished and keep his part of the contract it shall be void. The bond is in the sum of $30,000 and binds each and all severally. The sureties and the amounts they swear to be worth are as follows:

G. S. Smith, $2,000; Ralph Metcalfe, $2,000; J. M. Fuller, $3,000; J. W. Clark $2,500; J. M. Morrison, $2,000; J. P. Hodgins, $5,000; J. J. Van Volkenburgh, $1,000; Frederick Motet, $5,000; E. M. Hunt, $7,500; John Frasier, $6,000. The business standing of all these men THE DEMOCRAT was unable to learn, however, enough was learned to presume that they were worth the money.

Sixth. The best evidence with reference to the prosecution and management of the work upon the western division can be obtained by a careful examination of the work done and compare that with the amount expended. No work will be done on it until spring.

"Do you think you can support me, Walter?" she asked, an hour after he had proposed.

"Yes, if you'll get on the other knee" he said.

She—If you could only ask papa and mamma, I'm sure everything could be arranged satisfactorily.

He—When is the best time, dearest?

She—Well, the Junta generally feels the best just after dinner.—Puck.

Notice to Democrats.

The Central Democratic club of Clallam county will meet at the Council room on Saturday evening Feb. 6th at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of transacting such business as may come before it. All persons wishing to join said club are invited to attend.

W. K. CLARK, Secretary. W. BRUMFIELD, President.

HOWELLS' CIRCUS.

Howells' little circus passed off Tuesday evening according to the pre-arranged program. Mr. Howells said "we had fixed up our program and I was not going to be switched off by Mr. Nichols, Mr. Weir or anyone else." He wasn't "switched." He held the meeting down by stubbornly refusing to put motions or to recognize any save those whom he desired, contrary to all usage or parliamentary law. If Howells had the brains necessary he would make a good Tom Reed. He has the "Czar's" disposition alright. A great number of those present, in righteous indignation, showed a disposition to protest, but they were choked off. H. K. Nichols, Allen Weir and Judge McClinton made speeches intended for oil on the troubled waters. The party lash was sounded and resounded with all the vigor of the partisan speakers. This sufficed only to quiet those who were disposed to object to Howells' performance. The latter relented not in carrying out the program of the ring caucus. Insult was offered to the visitors who had come to assist by council and voice in the organization of the league. To friends, Mr. Nichols said that he was not wanted. He felt that he had been ill-treated and intentionally insulted by the arrogant chairman of the Republican meeting and was not backward in saying so. It is said that Mr. Weir felt even worse over the treatment received. However, it is meet that Republicans who attempt to defend Reed's "billion dollar congress" should have a taste of Reed's autocratic rulings.

THE CLUB.

The Central Democratic Club of Clallam county was reorganized last Saturday evening. There was s good attendance which showed an active interest in the cause of good government. The officers chosen are satisfactory to the whole party. Mr. W. Brumfield, the president, is one of the best men our city. His name is a synonim for honesty, integrity and public worth. Mr. Thomas Malony and Mr. William Ritchie, the vice-presidents; are of our prominent business men. Both are substantial men and staunch Democrats. W. K. Clark, the secretary and tresurer is our faithful and efficient county clark. He is well known all over Clallam county as one of the best public officials the county ever had. His selection by the club was a wise one. All things considered, the party is to be congratulated on the successful reorganization and the prospects for future good work of this club.

NOMINATE LEWIS.

The Democrats of this state would do well to nominate James Hamilton Lewis for governor. There are many reasons why he should be nominated. He is decidedly our most available man on account of his great personal popularity and large acquaintance. Besides he is one of our ablest, most brilliant and truly honest men. Were he governor there would be no speculation as to his position on every question. He would be standing out as positive as the most positive for the rights of the people. Had he been governor last winter, our state would not longer wink at Pinkertonism; nor would the granger of Eastern Washington be crushed and gasping under the leaden heel of the Northern Pacific railroad.

We have lots of men that would make good governors, but none are so especially adapted to the position as the brilliant Colonel. What pride the young men of the state would take in supporting this brainy young statesman! Let us nominate Colonel James Hamilton Lewis, Washington's greatest orator.

THE SPEECH.

Mr. Weir was very positive in his assertion that the McKinley bill would be attacked by "peacemeal." He said he was not afraid of being contradicted. He thought the Democrats were afraid to come out and risk their position on a general tariff bill. Oh, innocent soul! If Mr. Weir had known that there were a few men in his audience who read and think for themselves, he would probably have let this matter go without comment. This thing has been so thouroughly explained by THE DEMOCRAT that it is unnecessary to repeat, that this policy was adopted by the most radical of Democratic tariff reformers as the only policy that offered them any hope of accomplishing anything this session, on account of the protected barons in the Senate and a president who owes his job to "protected fat." This policy was first suggested by the St. Louis Republic about fifteen months ago. The Republic is known to be one of most enthusiastic of our reform journals. Mr. Weir cannot fool an Angeles audience.

THE wedge with which the reputed daily dodger tried to split the Democracy of Clallam county in its issue of the 1st. bounced out of the log 'ere it entered, and left not a scar upon its smooth surface. The hammer was too light and the party too firm, but there is one poor deluded individual in town, upon whom this truth will never dawn. We have a map of this!

THE DEMOCRAT today publishes the road contract with the Burlingame Contract company. It shows what this company has agreed to do, and what the commissioners are expected to demand and require. Have the commissioners thus far made the Burlingame Company do its whole duty? The contract specifically says that all work shall be at the risk of the contract company. In spite of this the county removed fallen timber at the expense of the people. This was not right. The people have rights in this matter. They have a right to see that the county's interests are looked out for. But it appears that the commissioners do not feel bound to respect anyone's rights except Burlingame's.

ONE of the most important propositions ever made to the citizens of Port Angeles is that of the Hotel Angeles. It promises much for our city. A $100,000 building built of Angeles brick, stone, mortar and lumber, means a great deal, especially when we consider that we have not facilities now suitable for the manufacture of so much of these materials. The hotel built, and more like structures will follow It is, much of it, foreign capital, too. Let us not delay, but raise this bonus at once. Mr. Ogilvy is ready and waiting for the bonus to be raised when he will commence the construction.

THE following from the Atlanta [Georgia] Journal, one of the principal journals of the south, is a fair expression of the patriotism of that section:

"If the occasion should offer, not only would the sons of men who followed Lee fall into rank with the sons of those who followed Grant, but the veterans themselves of those heroic armies would stand shoulder to shoulder and be equally ardent in a common cause.

The danger of collision with a foreign power has come near enough to send a thrill to every patriotic heart and to show that the bonds which hold us together as a people are stronger than we may have thought. It is a wholesome revelation and one which, in any event, will cause us hereafter to understand each other better.

We are one people, with one contry, one flag, and one destiny. In the hour of our contry's need the only possible contention between the North and South would be as to which should serve her most efficiently, which should contribute most to the vindication of her cause."

No part of Allen Weir's decidedly weak attempt Tuesday night was weaker than his half-hearted defense of Tom Reed's "billion dollar Congress". His defense of the looting of the treasury would be weak had he confined himself to the truth. But this he did not do. He claimed that when the Republicans got entire control of the country in 1889 they found a surplus of $100,000,000 and more. This is true. He said that the Democrats claimed that this hording of money in the national treasury was dangerous. This is true. He said that they were demanding that it be spent and distributed among the people. This is NOT true. The Democracy claimed that the collection of this surplus was dangerous policy, and that the laws providing for its collection were opposed to all the principles of good government. They asked that these laws be amended so that the revenue of the nation would meet the expenses, only, of an economically administered government. The Democrats could never favor a wholesale looting of the treasury. Mr. Weir's argument throughout, was one of mistatements as to the Democratic position.

SENATOR DAVID B. HILL will probably have the New York delegation to the Chicago convention. This is disappointing to many western Democrats, who regard Grover Cleveland as the greatest American statesman. However, it is not probable that Mr. Hill can be nominated. It is more likely that the candidate will be a western man, although Senator Gorman will make a great fight if it appears impossible to nominate Mr. Hill.

A WRONG, serious and dangerous, was righted by the supreme court of the United States on 1st inst., when it decided that James E. Boyd was a citizen of the United States and entitled to his seat as governor of Nebraska, to which he was elected. It is much desired that this will have a wholesome effect on Republicans who would cheat the people of their victory by stealing states, as they have done in three instances since the last election.

IN speaking of "the west" the New York World truely says:

It controls the actions of Congress as well as of National Committees. May it not determine also the decisions of National Conventions?

No one can reach an intelligent understanding of the National political situation who does not understand the political sentiment of "the West."

The World's question can readily be answered in the affirmative. The west will name the condidate for president. Whether it is Carlisle, Palmer, Gray or Boies matters little, the chances are that he will be a western man.

THE battery of two great Republican guns sent to Port Angeles to organize, will be about as effectual in defending that party's bulwarks against the attack of the Democracy next fall as the two other guns now the way to fortify this coast, sent for that purpose by the present administration, would be if England should attack them.

THE organization of the Republican club suits the ring to perfec tion. E. C. Burlingame seconded Mr. Hatch's nomination for president of the club and introduced him when he was elected. It is also said that he claims the credit of having secured Mr. Hatch's election. How does this sound?

THE county commissioners evidently did not expect to have such a wind storm as that of December 7th, when they signed the contract with the Burlingame Co. They would have looked out for "Burley's" interest better had they been weather prophets.

GEORGE C. HATCH said he never saw a Democrat until he was fifteen years old. For de law sakes! George, whar was you born'd at?

MAYBE, George Hatch's eyes were not opened until he was fifteen years old.

THE TRIBUNE need not worry its little self. Falshoods, no matter where they originate—even if in the Tribune itself or with its would-be editor—cannot harm anybody except the deceptive tongue or indecent journal that gives them publicity.

THE citizens of Beaver show commedable public spirit in their action on the county road question.

The report comes from Pineville, Ky., that another factional war has developed in Bell county, and the first engagement of the factions resulted in the death of three men, the body of one having been allowed to remain where it fell for four days, and when removed for burial was discovered to have been nearly devoured by hogs.

Which goes to show that it is even dangerous for a man to be lying around dead in Bell county, Ky., and if anyone should inquire about it, it is safe to state that Bell is one of the very few Republican counties in Kentucky.

Christian Union.

From a sermon by Rev. C. E. Chase.

For, explains Paul, "Ye are are all one in Christ Jesus." Wherever there is union there is a common center. As in nature, so in Christianity, all forces hold to a common point, and in Christianity that point is Christ. There can be no hope of union, perfect union, at least, while church, or creed, or dogma stands in the way of Him around whom, when once discovered as the full and sufficient Saviour, all men may gather and forget their petty differences. When the "brightness of the Father's glory" appears no other lights are seen, and our distinguishing features are all lost in the larger light of devotion to the Saviour, when, instead of an incident in our lives, it is life itself to serve Him.

IN THE COURTS.

Grindings of the Superior Court During the Week—New Cases—Probate Notes.

The McLaughlin vs. Dyke, the most important case tried in the Superior Court during the present term was called Friday, last. The plaintiff's evidence was closed Saturday afternoon. Her evidence went to prove the allegations of her complaint. The general trend showed that the plaintiff and defendant had kept company together about seven months; that they become engaged to be married; that she, the plaintiff, had finally made her clothes for the wedding, that the time for the wedding to take place drew nigh, when the defendant, Dyke, told her he could not marry her giving no reason for his refusal. Her attorney asked $10,000 damages. This was all contradicted by the evidence of the defendant. They denied that there was an engagement. Mr. Dyke admitted keeping company with Miss McLaughlin, but claimed it was only to have a good time. They introduced evidence to show that Miss McLaughlin kept company with others during the time mentioned, and that she was a flirt. The evidence was very conflicting. The jury apparently found it so, as when the case was given to them Monday evening, it took the jurors nearly 18 hours to find a verdict which was finally rendered for $50 and costs. The jury was discharged Tuesday at noon.

DEATH of MRS. HARVEY.

Mrs. Libbie Harvey, the wife of D. G. Harvey, died last night at ten o'clock. Mrs. Harvry leaves a husband and two children to mourn her loss, in Port Angeles, a sister in Santa Fe, New Mexico. The remainder of her near relatives are living in Carlisle, Ohio. She was a worthy member of the Eastern Star society, organized in this city last July.

The funeral occurs to-day at three o'clock, at the city cemetry.

Mr. Harvey has the deepest sympathy of a host of friends.

It's hard to believe in these days of careless financiering that in transactions covering a period of seven years and an amount of $13,000,000 there should have been but one error of $10, and that one found, to have been made up. Nevertheless that is the record of the East River bridge as reported by experts who have gone over the accounts.

The vital statistics of Massachusetts for 1890 are a sufficient answer to the people who talk so foolishly about "the decadence of Massachusetts" The number of births exceeded the deaths by 14,249, a ratio which has never been exceeded since the registration began, except in 1859 and 1889. The number of marriages in 1890 was 20,838, which was larger than in any previous year.

THE REPUBLICAN CIRCUS.

Howells as Clown Takes the Cake—Other Amusements.

The Republicans of the city turned out en masse last Tuesday night to reorganize the Republican Club of Clallam County.

Mr. Howells called the meeting to order as chairman, and stated that its object was to revive the old organization. From a suggestion of Mr. Nichols, state organizer of Republican clubs, to the effect that all Democrats be excluded from the hall, Mr. Howells immediately accepted that position, and quite a wrangle ensued, in which, several motions were made at the same time, none of which Mr. Howells would put. N. R. Smith took the floor and demanded recognition unless the previous questions were acted upon. Whereupon Mr. Howells said, in a tone of impatience, from the chair, that Mr. Smith might have the floor as long as he wanted it, provided, he would let the chair know when he was through. Mr. Smith moved that Mr. Nichol's suggestion as to organization be adopted. Chairman Howells ignored the motion and kept up his speech that was sandwiched between every motion. The question was repeatedly called for. Finally Mr. Smith asked if his motion was not going to be put. Mr. Howells replied that no question would be put to the house until the roll had been signed, as long as he presided. Messrs. Murphy, William Peterson, W. R. Hoole and several others then stood upon the track and entered into the race for recognition. Mr. Murphy had a good lead for a furlong, when Mr. Hoole shot past him at the quarter post, and finished so far in the lead that the other contestants might be said to not have been in it.

Mr. Nichols made an address upon the subject of organization, seeing that there were two powerful factions of the g. o. p. in this section, tried to close the breach by vigorously applying the party lash. He said the Republican Club of Clallam county was like a ship which had been tied up at the dock for a long time; it had a foul bottom, as none of the members disputed this simile, it may now be considered as a fact, as but few would think of accrediting any other kind of a bottom to a Republican organization.

The faint flicker of the daily dodger was barely perceptable in the southeast corner of the stage, as the greater brilliancy of Messrs. Howells, Weir, Nichols and others so dimmed its light, that it was only discerned with effort.

Mr. Nichols continued his remarks (he and Mr. Howell alternating their harangues) in such a vein, as to disturb the slumbers of a pecaceful dog, who perhaps, thinking that the nightmare of his dreams needed exercise, chased around through the aisles, much to the delight of one faction present. Mr. Nichols felt called upon to recognize the endeavors of the dog for a place in his attention, and remarked that as the dog was black and all Republicans were black, he would make a good Republican.

Judge McClinton made a few remarks, in which, he weilded the party lash with a powerful tongue, and said that he was willing for the Democrats to be present at the meeting, or the Republicans might get off the track, which implies that the Democrats have performed the good office of trying to keep the Republicans upon the rails of sincerety, honesty and prosperity. The Judge declined to accept any office in the club.

The Hon. Allen Weir was introduced by Mr. Nichols, and began his address by reference to the state organizer's devotion to the cause, stating, that he had declined the appointment to an office of renumeration, so great was his love for his party, prefering to work without pay that the interest of the party might be advanced.

Mr. Weir said that he was satisfied to be a Republican, and could not be a Democrat if he wanted to, and hoped the Democrats were equally well satisfied with themselves, which goes without saying.

His remarks upon the tariff were such as to imply that while it benefited this section, it certainly was not so well adapted to the rest of the country. He thinks the McKinley bill the best possible tariff schedule. He also stated that the Democrats had never championed any beneficial reform in our laws, forgetting that the Democrats had inaugerated the movement for a tariff for revenue only, and that the Republicans have tried to save themselves from complete annihilation by their reciprocity bills, whose benign effects are commensurate with their resemblance to free trade.

He endorsed the magnificent manner in which the "billion dollar Congress" disbursed the nations treasury, and holds the Democrats responsible for the present condition of our navy, but instead of placing the credit where it belongs, of having given the navy the splendid start which it has, he unflinchingly enuraped the Republican party with this mantle of honor. The defficency of coast defenses is also, according to Mr. Weir, a Democratic responsibility. He said nothing about the present administration's ordering an unconquerable battery of two guns to be sent to Puget Sound, which would hardly protect the country from a smuggling craft of ten tons.

Mr. Weir said: "The Democrats were afraid to introduce any bill opposed to the McKinley law." He claimed that an attack on the McKinley bill by peacemeal would be made. He stated that he made this assertion without fear of contradiction. He thought this cowadlv.

He claimed not all the virtues for the Republican party known to man, but "near it," and promised that they will inaugurate good, clean government.

Heigho; it will be the first time since the days of Lincoln.

Mr. Weir closed his remarks, and the chair had Mr. Carrigan to read the constit ution and by-laws of the club which were adopted as read. One feature was the striking out of the article referring to fees, and later the new chairman called for nominations for a treasurer, which seemed rather inconsistant as there is to be no boodle, so what is the treasurer to treaure unless it will be defeat next fall? in which case he would have the assistance of 178 members, who were present. So it would have been appropriate to have elected them all treasurers.

Nominations were called for president after 178 had signed the roll, which was counted into a pledge, Mr. Peterson nominated George C. Hatch and Mr. Burlingame seconded his nomination. Mr. Byrnes nominated N. R. Smith. Nominations were then on motion declared closed, and a vote by ballot was taken which resulted in the election of Mr Hatch, the vote standing, Hatch, 102; Smith, 58. The chair appointed Messrs. Burlingame and Peterson to escort the gentleman to his position upon the stage. Mr. Hatch made a few remarks, to supplement those of Mr. Peterson, given when his nomination was made, Said Mr. Hatch; "I was not only born in a Republican state, and rocked in a Republican cradle, but was born of Republican parents, and until I was 15 years old I never saw a Democrat."

Horace White and H. K. Bickford received the nomination for secretary, Mr. White withdrew and moved that Mr. Bickford be elected by acclamation, which was carried. James Meagher and Louis Williams were elected vice presidents by acclamation, and the office of treasurer was confirred upon John D. Hickok in the same manner. The meeting then adjourned.

The Victorian Wrecked.

The fate which has long threatened the Victorian restaurant was accomplished last Friday night at 9:30 o'clock when the debris, which has for a long time been a menace to its safety started down the hill and completely demolished the building.

Mr. J. J. Russell and family occupied the rooms upstairs, and were preparing to retire for the night, when the avalanche decended with such force as to mash in the south side of the building. This let the floor of the second story down, and the occupants found themselves in the dinning room below where all was confusion, as dishes, lamps, tables and chairs were broken and mingled with the logs, rubbish and earth from the hillside. There being fire in the kitchen stove made it particularly dangerous for the family, as this caught some of the more inflamable articles and a fire immediately started, which for a time threatened to close the only avenue of escape. The alarm of fire was sounded, the department responding with alacrity and a promptness which would have done credit to any city of the coast, and got the flames under control. The inmates of the house were taken out and were given quarters for the night by Mr. Fisher.

Mr. Russell received a cut on the wrist caused by jumping through a window, and for several days Mrs. Russell was quite ill with nervous prostration.

The old building is too badly damaged to be repaired and the Victorian restaurant will be moved into the house of John Bell, opposite the City hotel.

AT GETTYSBURG.

GETTYSBURG, Jan. 31.—[Special] The steam schooner Lucy Lowe is in the harbor unloading twenty thousand feet of lumber and seventeen thousand shingles for R. N. Getty, to be used in the construction of the new hotel, upon which work will be commenced immediately.

Thirty-five tons of hay was also discharged for Peter Mohndick, whose logging camp will begin work in a few days. Settlers are arriving at this point every day seeking locations on the township which was surveyed last summer, and still there are many good claims yet to be had.

THE ARIZONA KICKER.

Why the Mayor Wears White Shirts and Lace Shoes.

WE'VE GOT TO DO IT.—We understand that some of the boys feel a bit sore at us because, as mayor of thistown, we are trying to dignify the office by wearing white shirts and exchanging long-legged boots for lace shoes. We replaced the sawdust spittoons in our room in the Town Hall with regular crockery affairs, and Hank Steiffer, Joe Glynn and others are going around saying that we've no further use for the crowd.

While we wish it distinctly understood that as a man we don't feel above any of the boys, as mayor of a hustling western town, certain things are expected of us and must be carried out. We've got to keep our hair cut, use passable good grammer and present a decent appearance to strangers. No one need be surprised if we are not at the next dogfight, or if we issue an order that our official room is not headquarters for the gang. We expected the boys would feel hurt, but we believe our policy will win their approval in the end. Over at the Kicker office anyone who visits us as the editor can spit all over the fixtures and elevate their feet clear to the ceiling, but when we are in the mayor's office we shall insist on all callers using the regular spittoons and at least keeping their heels off our desk. Strangers are dropping in every day, and we want them to see a difference between our office and the barrooms around town.

IT MUST BE STOPPED.—Tuesday morning some one brought word to Coroner Johnson that there was a dead Indian about a mile out of town on the Gulch Trail. That official got a jury and went out and nosed around for half a day before he could render a verdict that the Indian was old Bill Price, and that the cause of his death was unknown.

We want to say to the coroner right here and now, that such nonsense must be stopped, and that the Kicker will oppose the payment of his fees in all such cases. When told that it was an Indian there was no need to go out. What is it to the people of this county whether an Indian lives or dies? The coroner not only knew old Bill as well as he does his own brother, but he probably sold him the last drink of whiskey he ever had, and we have no doubt that it knocked him over. It was simply a put-up job to make the county expense for fees, and if this little game is worked again Mr. Johnson will hear something drop. As a county we have no money to waste on dead Indians. In future, where one is found along the road, let the case be reported to us as mayor and we will hire some one to go out and plant the body.

***

HE STILL TIRES US.—The last straw that broke the camel's back in the case of our contemporary down the street was when we were elected mayor by an overwhelming majority. He never could forgive us for being the first to introduce a paper-cutter and red card-board and genuine printer's ink into this section, and when we exposed the actual figures of his 2,000 circulation (432) he tried to shoot us. But our election was the finishing blow. During the campaign he charged us publicly with being:

A thief,	A convict,
A bigamist,	An incendiary,
A slanderer,	A liar,
A swindler,	A bunco man,
An assassin,	A murderer.

He also managed somehow to raise the sum of $7 in cash and wager it against our election. His charges all fell to the ground, and he lost his cash money.

We were warned that he ment to shoot us, but knowing that he couldn't hit Pike's Peak with a shotgun, we haven't worried any. Last evening as we sat in our sanctum writing the red-hot editorial on the Chilian question, to be found on the second page, our esteemed contemporary came up the alley and shot at us six times through the window. Actual measurement proved that we were only eight feet from him, and yet his best shot only cut the buckle off our vest back. We heard him crying as he went away after emptying his revolver. Poor old man! We pity him and yet he makes us tired and some day when we are out of sorts we shall probably kill him and pay all the expenses of a first-class funeral.

***

TO THE PROFESSION. — Several theatrical troupes which hit this town last fall negelected to leave complimentary tickets at the Kicker office. We made it as warm as possible for them and none of them took in enough cash to pay the bill-posting. We now desire to announce that we own the only hall where a show can be given. As mayor we have the granting or refusing of licenses. As editor of the Kicker we can make it very pleasent or very lonely for any troupe which refuses to come down. We state this matter very plainly because we want it plainly understood. After the mayor (which is ourself) has granted a license, advance agents should call upon the editor of the Kicker (which is ourself again) and leave at least six tickets. He can then call upon the owner of Kicker Hall (which is ourself some more), and arrange terms, date, etc. In this way everything can be arranged to the mutual satisfaction of all parties.

EXPLANATORY. — Readers will miss one of our most attractive departments this week—that headed: "Cowboy Capers." Mr. John R. Bangs, late of New York City, was the accomplished editor of that department on a salary of $4 a week and found.

Last week he borrowed our mule for a ride into the country and he hasn't returned yet. The mule was sent back, but Mr. Bangs still tarries. It seems that some of Col. Long's cowboys caught him, and not liking his free and easy style with the pen, they pulled him up to a limb. Being very busy with other matters, they let him hang too long and were obliged to bury him.

Mr. Bangs was a fluent writer and will be sadly missed. We had intended to raise him to $4.50 next week, and also to lend him a white shirt and introduce him into society. We expect a Boston man on to take his place next week, and the department will be made even more interesting, if possible.—M. Quad in the New York World.

SECOND SIGHT.

About five miles from Platte city, Mo., lives W. D. House, a farmer, who has a daughter with a wonderful gift. The girl is about fifteen years old, and for several years she has been considered by the simple country folks around the neighborhood to be "odd." She has a dreamy appearance and is slow of speech, but her pecularity is that she has the power known as second sight. She can read letters without breaking the seal, and on several occasions has done this with letters when collusion was impossible She can also take a book, hold it closed in her hand, and read from any designated page.

Dr. Porter, one of the oldest physicians of this county, says that the girl has an extraordinary power which he has thoroughly tested. He wrote a letter in his office, sealed it, took it in his pocket to the house, and called the girl. She came to him and shook hands. And as she did so she said: "Doctor, you have a letter for me, and you wrote it." She then held his hand and read the letter which was still in his pocket. To make a further test he brought a medical book to the house, one which he knew she had never seen. He gave her the book, and told her to read on a certain page, on which there appeared a number of long, technical words. She read the page accurately with the exception of the hard words, which she said she could not pronounce. — Philadelphia Press.

Cut This Out.

Dr. Leslie Keeley's prescription for the prevailing disease of influenza, has attracted much attention, and for the benefit of humanity can not be too widely published.

The following interview with Dr. Keeley in the Chicago Post explains his prescription at length:

"'No person need die of grippe; not only that, but no one need be sick enough from grippe to have to go to bed or quit his usual occupation,' said Dr. Leslie E. Keeley at the Auditorium to-day. 'Asafoetida in doses of sixteen grains, administered four times a day, will completely break up the worst case of grippe in any stage of its development, Not only will the asafoetida cure the grippe in its primary form, but it will break up many of the complications arising from it. It is as absolute a specific for grippe as quinine is for ague.

"'I do not claim any particular credit as a discovery in this case. My opinion as to the value of asafoetida as a cure is based on three years' experience with it for that purpose. When the grippe first came westward three years ago we had our share of it at Dwight. There was a great deal of it, in fact, and it became necessary to find a prompt remedy for it. I began the use of asafoetida for my patients. I found the most satisfactory results. Not in a single case have I been disappointed in the action of the medicine. In all the attacks of grippe among our people at Dwight we did not lose a case. I am satisfied that asafoetida taken in good-sized doses and continuously is a specific for the grippe and its complications.'"

"I've always heard that you were of a generous disposition, John," said the maiden, as her lover almost hugged the breath out of her; "But I can hardly believe it."
