WEISSENFELS SPEAKS AT CHAMBER

Twenty-one people filled the small dining room at the Vagabond for the regular meeting of the Forks Chamber of Commerce on Oct. 16.

Guests introduced by Warren Paul were John Jones, manager of the general merchandise section of the new grocery store; Jim Good, manager of the grocery department; and Bill Brown, installer of the refrigeration equipment.

Hollie Gromseth introduced his son Tom Gromseth, agent for New York Life, and Bruce Coppenhaber of Prudential Life Insurance Co. Also present was Commissioner Caulkins.

Correspondence from the Clallam County Board of County Commissioners to Roger Allin, Supt. of the Olympic National Park in Port Angeles, was read as follows:

"The Board of Clallam County Commissioners wish to go on record as opposing the environmental statements on the master plan and wilderness area proposals for Olympic National Park.

"We feel the plan would provide poor timber management, no access to the recreational areas which would be only available to 1% of the population, and it would not allow proper coverage of fire protection and also lack in all logging which the community depends on for their economy."

The Chamber will also support this stand.

The Chamber will also write a letter to the editor of the Seattle Times objecting to their description of the Town of Forks in a recent news article on oil exploration here.

Guest speaker was Gary Weissenfels, Diversified Occupations teacher at Forks High School. Twenty-eight seniors are enrolled in the Diversified Occupations program and Weissenfels explained it as one in which on-the-job training is provided for students by businesses in the community.

The Chamber meets each Tuesday at 12 noon at the Vagabond and adjourns promptly at 1:00. All are welcome.

'NOLO CONTENDERE'

by Gary W. Osgood

Such was the plea of Spiro Agnew: "No contest." And such was the verdict of last Friday's football game -- no contest.

The Raymond Gulls, 16/Forks Spartans, 6 final score is no reflection of the total dominance of the game, both offensively and defensively, by a big, tough flock of Gulls that came to Forks to play basic rock 'em, sock 'em football.

Fullback Ken Buchanan ran right through the middle of the Spartans' defensive line, seemingly at will, picking up the six to eight yards on first down that made it a snap for his running mate, Greg Ford, to make the first down on a subsequent run. Indeed, the Gulls were successful on seven third down conversion attempts while the Spartans succeeded only twice.

A defensive end who puns on a big pass rush in the traditional manner of a quarterback. Just ask Kenny Olson. The Spartan quarterback was sacked eight times by this reporter's count. The Gull ends were in the Spartan backfield all night, which played a big part in the 23 yards (net) rushing effort by the Spartans.

All this is to say that the Spartan offensive effort was colorless. To be sure, their first score of the game came in the middle of the first quarter when the Spartans had the ball on the Gull 40 with third down and long yardage. Quarterback Olson lofted a lengthy pass which was destined for the waiting hands of his favorite receiver, Dave Oros, who had beaten his man and Forks was on the board. The crowd took this to be a harbinger of things to come; but it was not to be.

How ironic it was that the Gull defensive unit would score that team's first points. After the Spartans' defensive unit put up a successful goal-line stand on its own two yard line, the offense could not move the ball. After possibly moving back to field a bad center snap, punter Dave Oros stepped on the back end zone line and that resulted in a safety, giving the Gulls two points.

After the Spartan free kick the Gulls successfully marched 45 yards on the ground for their first touchdown.

Early in the third quarter, the Spartans were forced to punt. The Gull who fielded the ball ran 55 yards to score another 6 for the visitors. The conversion added one more. With 4:00 left in the quarter, Mark Henry made a key 4th down tackle to halt yet another Gull Drive. Later, a fumble, perhaps due to the wind and driving rain, ended another Gull offensive effort.

The fourth quarter saw no scoring, but a number of fumbles. The return off a blocked punt by Dave Oros highlighted the quarter.

This Friday Montana invades Spartan Stadium, and coach Ralph Hill's team will be out to start another winning streak. Everyone should plan to attend because this will be the last home game of the season.

UNUSUAL ACCIDENT IN FORKS

by Barbara Larocm

An unusual three-car accident occurred in downtown Forks, Monday, October 15. In spite of the damage to the vehicles, however, no injuries were sustained.

Damages to the vehicles were: Mr. Hurdless' pickup, $350.; Ms. Payne, $550. The Golden car was a total loss.

The accident is still under investigation by the Town Marshall's office and no further details could be given at this time.

Peninsula College news

On Thursday, October 18, Peninsula College will sponsor an exhibition and sale of original graphic art by contemporary and old master artists. The exhibition, arranged by the Ferdinand Ruxon Galleries of Baltimore, Maryland will be on display from 1:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in the Student Center Gallery.

Included in the exhibition will be over 1,000 original etchings, lithographs, and woodcut by artists such as Picasso, Chagall, Miro, Dalí, Goya, Renoir, Kollwitz, and many others including contemporary American, European, and Japanese printmakers. Prices start at $5.00 with the majority priced under $100.00.

Through its one-day exhibition and sale program, the Gallery serves as an extension to art education programs by providing students and other interested groups with an opportunity to view and purchase a variety of fine graphics.

VETERANS DAY 1973

Veterans Day this year will honor more than 29 million Americans, the most in the nation's history, according to W. R. Phillips, director of the Veterans Administration regional office in Seattle. The State of Washington's veteran population has risen to a record 555,000. More than half of the 42.5 million who served from the American Revolution through Vietnam are alive

PSALMS 104:10 --- He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills. ... photo by Lonnie Archibald today, the VA says. The oldest in this group are the less than 2,000 veterans of the Spanish-American War with an average age of 89. Veterans of World War II represent the largest group, about 14 million. The current Vietnam Era has produced 6.6 million veterans.

Once known as Armistice Day, the event commemorated the end of World War I on Nov. 11, 1918. Following World War II, sentiment grew for the day to be a tribute to veterans of all wars. A Congressional resolution by Rep. Edwin K. Rees of Kansas was passed and signed into law in 1954.

That same year, President Eisenhower created the Veterans Day National Committee which coordinates the national ceremony and the observance within each state. "Peace with Honor" was chosen by the committee as the official Veterans Day theme and has been in use continuously since 1954.

National observance of Veterans Day was changed by Congress in 1968 to the fourth Monday in October.

Nurse Practitioners honored

A reception honoring the nurse practitioners and the Forks Hospital Staff was held last Sunday afternoon, Oct. 14, in St. Anne's Mission Social Hall.

The table was centered by a beautiful floral arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums from Lep-pell's, flanked by yellow candles in crystal candleabra on a yellow and white lace tablecloth.

Refreshments of cookies, coffee, tea and punch were served by the members of the Forks Hospital Auxiliary. Kate Jaspers greeted the guests at the door, and punch was served by Karen Kallman. Tea was poured by Bernice Alexander and Diane Reddel, and coffee by Dorothy Burr. Other hostesses for the day were Martha Lewis, Georgia Frazier, and JoAnn Gillie. Mrs. Gillie was chairman of the planning committee with Diane Reddel, Kate Campbell, Martha Lewis and Dorothy Burr.

To gamble, incorporate first

Jack Nelson, Director of the Department of Motor Vehicles, has a reminder for those organizations who wish to conduct bingo, raffles, or amusement games, under the new gambling laws. Such charitable non-profit organizations must be registered with the Secretary of State's office before filing for a gambling license.

William Bjork, Gambling Director, stated that funds paid to the Gambling Commission for a license are not refundable if the applicant does not qualify. "Small charitable and non-profit groups wishing to raise funds through gambling, can still afford to lose the license fees when they do not make proper application," Bjork said.

To legally conduct gambling for charitable purposes, an organization must first be incorporated as a non-profit or charitable organization. Some of these people, who might otherwise qualify, have been making application, including filing fees, before they are properly incorporated.

Groups considering gambling for these purposes are advised to contact the Secretary of State first and learn about incorporation. That office will provide a pamphlet explaining the process of incorporation.

As of October 1, the following licenses have been issued by the Gambling Commission: 530 for bingo, 294 for raffles, 89 for amusement games, and 39 for agricultural fairs.

No Host Dinner

A no host dinner for Gold Star parents will be held Wednesday, October 24 at 1 p.m. at the Vagabond Cafe. All VFW Auxiliary members are welcome.

Peninsula Telephone issues new phone books

Telephone subscribers in Forks, Beaver, Clallam Bay-Seton, Neah Bay and Clearwater will be receiving new telephone directories soon, according to Peninsula Telephone Company General Manager, Jon Erickson. Directories will be mailed to all subscribers who have their director prior to November 1, 1973.

The cover photograph on the new directory was taken by Peninsula Telephone Company employee, Lonnie Archibald. The photograph is a scene of Second Beach, near LaPush. Archibald is well known locally for his scenic photography of the Olympic Peninsula.

Peninsula Telephone Company subscribers who have not received a directory by November 1, or who need additional copies of the directory, should contact the company's commercial office in Forks at 374-6212.

Little League

Scores in last week's Little League action were: Giants 42-Stockers 21; Packers 13-Reds 9. Championship games will be received Sunday, Oct. 21, at 1:00 and 3:00 p.m. In Sequim, the first game between the Forks Giants and Sequim Eagles will decide the 3rd place winner, and at 3:00 the Forks Packers and Sequim Lions will battle it out for league championship.

If you're looking for an exciting afternoon of football, travel to Sequim Sunday and support the Little League teams.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Fellow Publisher: This is a personal appeal for help on a project in which the Forum can perform a major public service...

Maybe you are now aware, but the federal bureaucrats have come up with a terrifying new idea--to lock up Olympic National Park into a vast Wilderness Area...

The Wilderness Plan and the Master Plan for Olympic National Park are available on request from both the Park headquarters in Port Angeles...

General public apathy can result in passage of this program to the detriment of the entire Peninsula.

I am writing and publishing a series in our two weeklies in Seattle, and would recommend that you consider strong editorial expressions...

Headings will be held in Aberdeen in late October, and Nov. 2-5 in Port Angeles. There are also deadlines for submitting written comments or requesting oral testimony.

I maintain a year-round home at Lake Crescent (since 1934) and am concerned about losing it if this program passes.

Thanks for listening, Jim Flattery, THE BEACON HILL NEWS, THE SOUTH DISTRICT JOURNAL, Seattle, Washington

LETTER TO THE EDITOR: I wonder how many people felt like my family did last Friday night at the football game?

Let's call our school board members and see what could be done to improve the situation. If money can be raised for land uniforms it sure wouldn't be that hard to get some fund going for this project.

REPUBLICAN CLUB WELCOMES CANDIDATES

by Barbara Larcom The Republican Club held their meeting Monday, October 15, at 8:00 o'clock p.m. at the Beaver School.

Among the guests present were Paul Berg, Republican candidate for County Assessor, his wife, Mr. Les Lancaster, Democratic County Assessor, his wife, and Mary Jane Ballard, Democratic candidate for County Clerk.

The Republican Club Chairman called the meeting to order, giving the floor first to Mr. Paul Berg.

Mr. Berg is a native of Twin Falls, Idaho, having attended the University of Idaho with a degree in Civil Engineering.

Mr. Berg has five children two sons are studying engineering and communications, a senior in high school, still at the family home.

Mr. Leo Lancaster, the present County Assessor, and Democratic candidate, was born and raised in Kansas. He came to this area 25 years ago and became interested in property value in Clallam County.

The Lancaster's have seven children; three who are college graduates. Mr. Lancaster, having spent many years in the agricultural field, has been active in all phases of agriculture and acted on the Advisory Committee in the State of Washington.

Mr. Lancaster stated that Clallam County is changing and growing very rapidly. The ratio for assessment last year is 45, 80% of true value; this year it is 40, 80% of true value.

Mr. Berg felt that the assessment of property is a very important part of the county's revenue. He stated that the assessment should be done in a fair and equitable manner.

Mr. Berg stated that the assessment should be done in a fair and equitable manner. He stated that the assessment should be done in a fair and equitable manner.

Mr. Berg and Mr. Lancaster both made statements as to their feelings about how they would deal with the office of County Assessor.

Paul Berg feels that the office is due to clerical errors--record keeping, etc. He would improve efficiency in the office by modernizing bookkeeping techniques, and being more up-to-date on appraisals, with possible cut-back to the staff.

Another thing Berg mentioned, was there would be no use of county-owned vehicles to drive to and from work.

Mr. Lancaster, associated with Clallam County since 1971, feels he is aware of the problems in the county, and is capable to serve and accomplish because of this awareness.

Lancaster, a part of the "Open Space Program", helpful tax-wise to farmers and "timber people", feels reorganization of assessments is necessary.

SHEARER-PETERSON WED

Linda Ann Shearer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Shearer, became the bride of Stanley Oscar Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Peterson. The bride was given by her father in a double-ring ceremony, Aug. 25, 1978, at 7 p.m. in the Assembly of God Church in Forks, with Rev. Art Mortin performing the ceremony.

The bride looked lovely in an antique Ivory satin gown with ivory lace overbodice and ivory pleated and edged with lace and attached to a pearl train which was worn by her grandmother Shearer. Her bouquet was a colonial nosegay of orange roses, white chrysanthemums and baby's breath.

The maid of honor, Miss Ruth Stohl, and bridesmaid and sister of the bride, Mrs. Dan Payne, wore matching gowns of peach crepe with Ivory lace overbodice and ivory pleated hats with peach ribbon streamers. They carried small nosegays similar to the bride's bouquet.

The men of the bride were dressed in a gown of powder blue crepe. The groom's mother wore a lime green chiffon gown. Both mothers wore bouquets of yellow roses.

In attendance to the groom were Gary Simmons, Best Man, and Larry Peterson, brother of the groom. Acting as Ushers and Candlelighters were Jerry Dormator and Dan Shearer, brother of the bride.

The men of the bride party wore black formal tuxedos with yellow rose boutonnieres. Eldon Officer, Jr., cousin of the groom sang "If and the Lord's Prayer" and was accompanied by organist Mrs. Art Mortin.

The sanctuary of the church was beautifully decorated with candleabra of white tapers, baskets of orange gladioli and white shasta daisies.

A reception followed the ceremony in the lower auditorium of the church. The table was decorated with silver candleabra with orange tapers and a basket arrangement of orange gladioli and shasta daisies. The three-tiered cake was decorated with orange roses and topped with white satin balls.

Attending the guest book was cousin of the bride, Miss Janet Thomas. Misses Kathy Rooks and Kayal Barr were in charge of the gifts.

WHAT'S A "TORCHY PEDEN"?

Business firm? Save time--omit return address, write "city" instead of South Bend. Forget to mail letters until on way home--deplete letters in Plymouth collection box. Postal employees can't find South Bend streets in Plymouth (letters say "city") sends them to dead letter branch.

Have letter slot in front door with faithful dog wagging inside. blame letter carrier for losing tax refund check (hidden by Fido under rug behind sofa).

These examples do not constitute an appeal for sympathy--only understanding. Unfortunately they are neither infrequent or exaggerated. Quite the contrary, they are part of every Postal Service working day.

Your sincere cooperation is needed to help achieve our mutual goal of fast efficient, and reliable mail service. (Article from "Memo to Mailmen") Oct. 1978

BLUEBIRDS

The first Bluebird meeting was held at our leader's house, Mrs. Keimig, on October 10, 1978. One of the first things we did was to choose a name for our group which is "Nesna Na" meaning the young birds.

Our group has five members. They are Vickie Leavitt, Juanita Keimig, Mary Rawlins, Crista Benz and Karl Starik.

Group assistants are Mrs. Renz, Mrs. Rawlins and Mrs. Starik. We talked about our next activity, started project, checked banner, quilt sign and talk sign. For our uniforms we chose blue slacks, white blouses and red scarves.

We made pictures on paper bags to put in bluebird boots. For the month of October, Crista has scrapbook, Karl has news, Mary has treats and Vickie has cleanup.

Thank you Mr. Jerry King for being our sponsor. We really like Bluebirds. by Karl Starik, reporter

SOCIAL SCENE

A reception was held Oct. 6th in the fellowship hall of the Assembly of God Church in honor of Ed and Peggy Beebe's 25th Wedding Anniversary.

by Barbara Larcom Forty years ago were you, or maybe your "Uncle Elmer", one of the young boys racing bicycles around the "Olympic Loop"?

Perhaps some of our readers remember a man active in boosting Washington, named A. P. Carroll. He came to our state 43 years ago, at the age of 40, from the Midwest. He arrived here a sick man in 1935, fell ill love with the Puget Sound Country, and through the clean, fresh outdoors regained his health.

Because of his love for the area, his enthusiasm was boundless in trying to make the Pacific Northwest an even better place, visually and recreationally. He became a "one man Chamber of Commerce", organizing the Puget Sounder, Inc. and the Olympians, Inc.

The groups accomplished a great deal on a "shoe string" budget to "perk up" the Peninsula--from entertaining tourists with trips to state scenic attractions and festivals by boat and bus, to planting thousands of rhododendrons over a two-year period as a "beautification project."

The picture seen here was taken many years ago in front of the Anchor's in Forks where Mr. Carroll and his group brought Torchy Peden, a bicycle-racing champion, to the Pacific Northwest.

This group of bicyclists was to ride around the Olympic Loop in 6 days--to see if a 6 day race was feasible there. After a great buildup with publicity, however, it was decided that bicycles and logging trucks didn't mix.

Mr. Carroll sent this picture to the Forum and comments, "There was a race conducted at Forks, and I recall that at one boy was thoroughly disappointed because he could not get into the picture, and he wanted to go for it. But some body conceived the idea of giving him a 'judge's' position, and that solved it very nicely."

We hope when some of you see this picture, it'll bring back some memories. Maybe you'll even see yourself, or recall the young boy Mr. Carroll speaks of!

The Circuit Breaker . . .

... provides the same protection as a fuse. When a wiring circuit is OVERLOADED, the circuit breaker automatically trips open, shutting off the flow of electricity.

No electricity will flow through that circuit breaker until you have reset the circuit breaker properly. (Remember to remove the cause of the trouble first!)

To reset a circuit breaker, follow these easy steps:

- Remove the cause of the problem.
If the panel has overheated, wait a few minutes for it to cool.
Push the circuit breaker beyond "off" to the "reset" position.
Return the circuit breaker to "on".

Remember, the circuit breaker is a PROTECTIVE device. Be sure to find the cause of the problem before you reset it.

Merritt services to be held
Commitment services will be held at the Forks Cemetery at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 27, for John E. Merritt, 86, a former resident of Tyee. The Rev. Ted Ringsmuth of the Forks Congregational Church will officiate. Mr. Merritt passed away at a Shelton Convalescent Center on October 14 after a lengthy period of failing health.
John Edwin Merritt was born in South Dakota on October 17, 1886, the son of John and Edith Merritt. At an early age he came with his family to Lakeview, Washington and later to the head of Lake Chelan, where he resided until early manhood.
On May 19, 1925, he was married to Sybil I. Lobdell at Shelton, Washington. He moved his family to Tyee, Wash. in Dec., 1928, where he resided until November, 1972 when he moved to Forks. After the death of his wife in June, 1973, he moved to Shelton to be near his step-daughter and son-in-law, Mildred and Herb Welch.
He was a member of the Forks Prairie Grange.
He worked for Hoedel-Donovan Logging Co. (later Rayonier, Inc.) until his retirement. After his retirement he busied himself repairing bicycles, picking cones, mowing lawns and a myriad of projects until ill health forced him into retirement. He always had some new project that held his interest and many of his tools showed some innovation of his own design. During the depression years his home was often filled with teenagers playing cards, making candy, cakes, etc. and in later years neighborhood boys would use his shop and tools to repair their bicycles.
Mr. Merritt is survived by a step-daughter, Mrs. Herbert Welch, Shelton, Wash.; two step-sons, Kenneth R. Lobdell, Priest River, Idaho, and Harold G. Lobdell, Fresno, Calif.; seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Bonnie Faust, Castle Rock, Washington, a brother, Ward Merritt, Portland, Oregon, and several nieces and a nephew. He was preceded in death by his wife and a son, and two step-sons. Memorials may be made to a favorite charity.

OFFICIAL NOTICE: The following three proposed constitutional amendments are to be submitted to the voters at the state general election to be held on November 6, 1973. Ballot titles and explanations were prepared by the office of the Attorney General. This is a legal publication as required by law from the office of A. Ludlow Kramer, Secretary of State.

House Joint Resolution Proposed Constitutional Amendment
Ballot Title: Shall a graduated net income tax be authorized, except levies for school operations be prohibited, and some excise taxes limited?
The Law as it now exists: The state constitution now effectively prohibits the imposition of a tax on or measured by net income. It does not, however, prohibit the imposition of a sales or use tax on food or on prescription drugs, or the imposition of a property tax on general sales or use tax on a business and occupation tax.
The constitution presently allows special property tax levies for the operation and maintenance of various taxing districts including school districts by voter approval, and it does not expressly require the state to guarantee full funding of basic education.
Effect of HJR 37 if approved into Law: The proposed constitutional amendment would remove the existing prohibition against a net income tax and would permit the legislature to impose such a tax so long as— (a) The highest tax rate on individuals does not exceed 8%; (b) The rate schedule for individuals is graduated and contains at least six rates with equal differences of at least .35%; (c) The rate for corporations does not exceed 12%; (d) These limits could be exceeded only by a majority vote of both the legislature and the people following an automatic referendum.
Under the first implementing legislative act, the maximum rates could not exceed 6.7% on individuals and 10% on corporations and any amendment to this initial act changing the definition of taxable income or any income tax rate would be subject to referendum.
The proposed amendment would also permit direct payments to individuals for relief from state and local taxes as complete coordination with the federal internal revenue code. On the other hand twelve months after a net income tax has gone into effect and so long as it remains in effect, it would prohibit the following:
1. Sales or use taxes on food and prescription drugs.
2. Any combined state and local sales tax in excess of 5.3%.
3. Any further school district special property tax levies for operation and maintenance.
4. A business and occupation tax rate in excess of one-quarter of one percent for those businesses subject to the net income tax law and which are in effect.
5. Application of the property tax to business inventories after December 31, 1979.

HJR 22
House Joint Resolution Proposed Constitutional Amendment
Ballot Title: May the legislature authorize urban development or redevelopment financing from property taxes attributable to increased valuations resulting from such projects?
The Law as it now exists: The state constitution presently requires all taxes upon real estate to be uniform within the territorial limits of the taxing district which imposes the tax. Accordingly, any increase in the property tax rate (i.e., in assessed valuations) attributable to an urban development or redevelopment project can be levied by the city or other taxing district sponsoring the project only at that taxing district's ordinary statutory millage rate. This has the effect of requiring the city or other taxing district sponsoring an urban development or redevelopment project to share the potential increase in revenue from that project with all of the other overlapping taxing districts in which the project is also located.
Effect of HJR 22 if approved into Law: This proposed constitutional amendment would also require the requirement that an excess levy proposition for any purpose be approved by at least one percent of long-term excess levies to fund general obligation bonds. This amendment would change the formula for validation of the election to so to provide the same two alternative methods of validation as now exist with respect to excess levies voted on an annual basis for current expenses of a taxing district.

HJR 40
House Joint Resolution Proposed Constitutional Amendment
Ballot Title: Shall the validation formula approved in 1972 for excess levy elections also be applied to bonds payable from such levies?
The Law as it now exists: The state constitution currently restricts the aggregate of all property tax levies to one percent of the true and fair value of the property unless the voters of a taxing district have authorized levies in excess of this limit. Excess levies may be authorized by the voters on either an annual basis for current expenses or on a long-term basis to fund general obligation bonds.
By their approval of Amendment 59 to the constitution at the November, 1972, general election, the voters changed the preceding restrictions of the constitution upon voter approval of annual excess levies so as to provide that such an election would be valid either— (1) If the total number of all votes cast on the proposition is not less than forty percent of the number cast at the district's last preceding general election, or (2) If, where the total number of votes on the proposition is less than forty percent of the number cast at the district's last preceding general election, the total number of "yes" votes is, nevertheless, equal to at least three-fifths of forty percent (i.e., 24%) of the number of votes cast at that election.
The voters did not, however, by their approval of this 1972 constitutional amendment authorize the use of the second of these two alternative methods of validation of an excess levy election where the election is held to authorize the issuance of general obligation bonds and the funding of such bonds by long-term excess levies, nor did they change the preceding requirement of the constitution that neither an annual excess levy for current expenses nor a long-term excess levy to fund general obligation bonds would be deemed to have been authorized unless approved by at least 60% of the election voting on the proposition.
Effect of HJR 40 if approved into Law: This proposed constitutional amendment would also require the requirement that an excess levy proposition for any purpose be approved by at least one percent of long-term excess levies to fund general obligation bonds. This amendment would change the formula for validation of the election to so to provide the same two alternative methods of validation as now exist with respect to excess levies voted on an annual basis for current expenses of a taxing district.

Last Friday (the 12th) not much happened at school... because there just wasn't any school! But we went back Monday which was "clash day" and the beginning of sign competition. Tuesday was "back in the 50's day" (greases), followed by "gnub day", snake dance, car caravan... all leading up to the homecoming game. The Driver's Education class is underway and the kids are driving day and night. The Drill team is ready so be at the homecoming game tomorrow night to see them march for the first time this year.

Forks Speechcombers Toastmistress Club

Mrs. Peg Pimke gave an enlightening talk as she spoke on "Talking to a Picture" at Speechcombers Toastmistress Club Tuesday evening at the Olympic Theatre. The picture was done by Mrs. Elizabeth Barlow, a well-known artist on the Olympic Peninsula. Ms. Pimke suggested that by looking at an inspirational picture you may shed some frustrations of the day. Other speakers presenting topics were Mrs. Estene Fletcher, "Speak Up" and Mrs. Alice Simon, "A Pleasant Surprise". Members presiding during the evening were Mrs. Betty Blatner as Topicmistress, Mrs. Georgia Fraker as Toastmistress, and Evaluator was Mrs. Ann Gagnon. Mrs. Mary Johnson gave the closing thought. Mrs. Simon was welcomed back after a long absence. She is one of the women originally interested in forming the club. Guests present were Mrs. Lorraine Berg and Mrs. Gloria Lindsay.

NEW BRANCH OFFICE IN FORKS

First Federal Savings and Loan of Hoquiam has received approval from the Federal Home Loan Bank to establish a branch office in Forks, according to Clarence Hamre, President of the Association. The office, scheduled for completion in mid-December, will be located at 222 Forks Avenue North, the current site of Sackert's Department Store. In making the announcement, Hamre said, "Our research has shown a definite need in the Greater Forks area for a savings and loan association. We are extremely pleased about receiving the go-ahead, and are delighted to be of service to our new neighbors." He went on to say, "This is the first branch office in our 58 year history and marks a milestone for us. Our philosophy has always been to provide customers with the best, most convenient service possible, both in savings and in lending. During the past four years, we have seen the largest growth in our history, and we are now looking forward to working with Clallam County residents in addition to our friends in The Harbor." The interior of First Federal Savings' new Forks office will have wood paneling throughout, complemented by bright green carpeting. The furniture will be restored pieces from an earlier First Federal office. There will be two teller stations, with an area for free parking behind the building. As of June 30, 1978, assets of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Hoquiam were $15,218,894, with savings deposits of $10,395,101. Both are all-time records.

WILDERNESS STUDY AREAS

Three areas on the Olympic National Forest appear in the list of new wilderness study areas made public today by the Chief of the Forest Service in Washington, DC. They are identified by Wynne Maule, Supervisor of the Olympic National Forest headquartered in Olympia as the Mildred Lakes Area, 14,041 acres; Quilicoe Area, 45,000; and the Brothers Area, 13,227 acres.

These three areas were selected through extensive public involvement from a list of 12 undeveloped areas on the Olympic National Forest. Actual studies including public hearings, Maule said, will not be taken for several years. In the interim, no action will be taken which would preclude their eventual classification as formal wilderness areas through congressional action.

Future management of undeveloped areas not identified as wilderness study areas will be determined through land use planning currently in progress. Wilderness is one of the alternatives that will be considered in developing land use plans and no action will be taken in these areas until the land use plan is completed and an environmental statement is filed.

Lumberjacks & Jills

The Lumberjacks and Jills had two squares in attendance at their last dance. They will be dancing again on Saturday, Oct. 20, at 8:30 p.m. at St. Anne's Mission. Russ Holt of Sequim will be the caller.

Pre-School PTA

Forks Pre-school PTA met Oct. 9 with President Anne Melcher calling the meeting to order.

New business on the agenda included the Traveling Santa. Santa will be making his visits in this area Dec. 18 and 19, so be thinking which night you want him to visit you. More details will follow later.

A new idea from the Poles Control Center is "Mr. Yuk". His unhappy green face is a sticker you adhere to all poisonous containers so the children will know its something that doesn't taste good. These are on order and should be here soon.

Mr. Joe Newbery, principal of the Primary school, stressed the need for aides in the class rooms. With such an overload of students, the help would be most appreciative.

If you would like to help, simply go to his office and sign up and you will be assigned to a teacher.

Main speaker for the evening was Mr. Ron Corbell who is with the Teacher Corps. The Teacher Corps, established by Congress in 1965, is a nationwide effort to give children from low income families better educational opportunities and to improve the quality of teacher education programs for both certified teachers and inexperienced teacher interns. The Teacher Corps has been in Forks for two years, primarily for the educational needs of the Indian children at LaPush and Hoh River. There are six interns here, working in kindergarten thru 6th grade.

In addition to working in the classroom, the interns were involved with many community activities including 4-H, at LaPush and Hoh River, coaching of Little League basketball, heading tests for the pre-schoolers of Forks and LaPush plus the entire kindergarten class; Red Cross swim lessons during August, and many more. It was a most informative and enjoyable evening.

Remember mothers, there will be no Pre-school October 22.

any application for such a hardship must be received by the Public Disclosure Commission by December 15, 1978, for any elected official required to file a disclosure report in January of 1979.

Hardship Exemptions

The Public Disclosure Commission has designated December 15, 1978, as the deadline for filing hardship exemption requests from elected officials in the State of Washington, under Initiative 276.

The original authors of Initiative 276 devoted an entire section of the act to provide for suspension or modification of the reporting requirements, after a hearing of the Public Disclosure Commission, for elected officials if the Commission finds that complete disclosure would be an unreasonable hardship on those individuals.

"Several such exemptions have already been granted by the commission in connection with the financial affairs statement required of candidates during the 1978 campaigns," Public Disclosure Administrator Anne Bradley said.

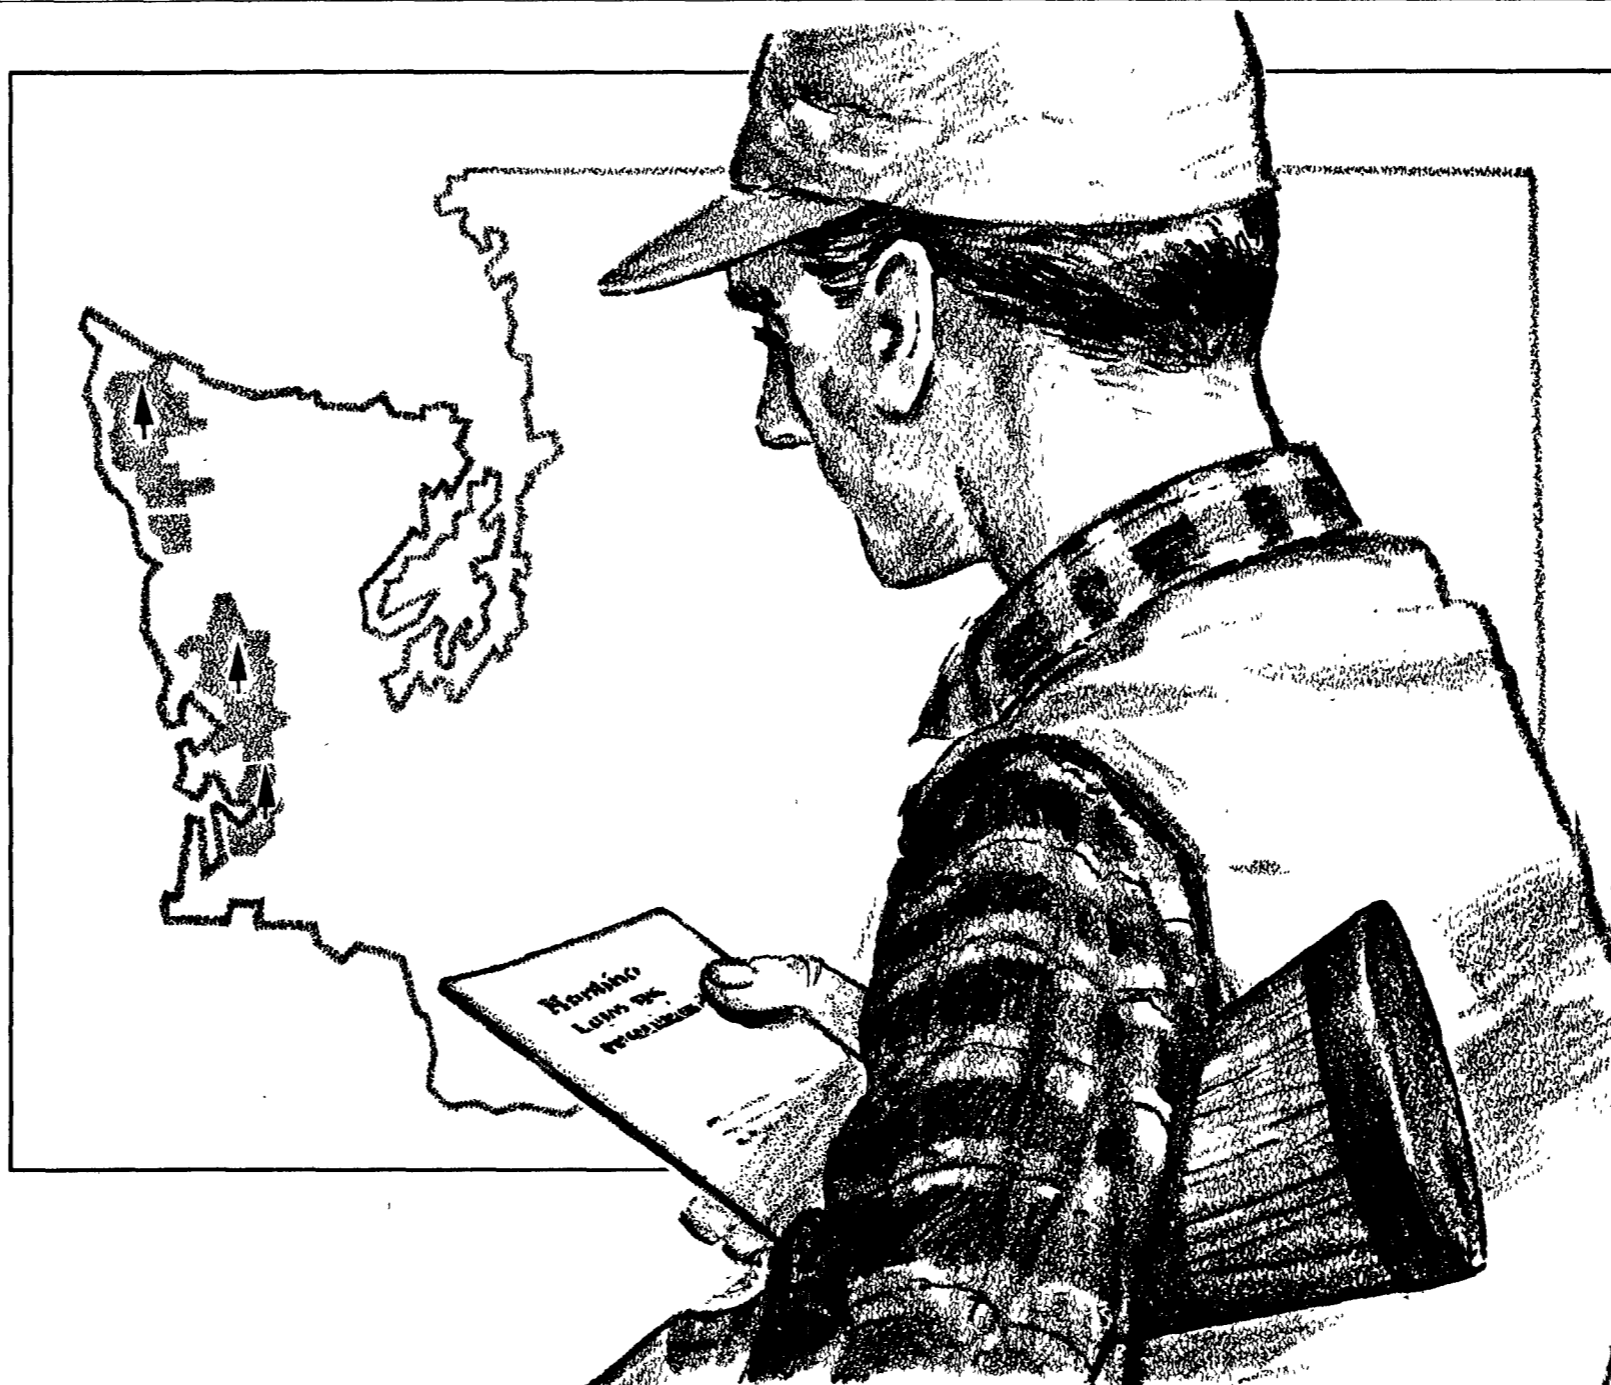

According to the rules adopted by the commission, she continued, any application for such a hardship must be received by the Public Disclosure Commission by December 15, 1978, for any elected official required to file a disclosure report in January of 1979.

welcome hunters!

ITT Rayonier invites you to try our tree farms

Trees aren't the only crop that well-managed forest lands provide—on tree farms, you'll find deer, elk and other wildlife. So, besides growing trees for products, providing payrolls, and paying taxes, tree farms furnish outdoor recreation at its best.

ITT Rayonier's South Harbor Tree Farm in Pacific County, Grays Harbor Tree Farm in Grays Harbor and Jefferson Counties, and Clallam Tree Farm in Clallam and Jefferson Counties total some 370,000 acres of forest land. Nearly all of it will be open to sportsmen during the 1978 hunting season.

Stop by any ITT Rayonier office. Master maps will be on display showing in detail tree farm roads, rivers and streams. Gate locations and controlled access areas also will be shown.

Closed areas will be few. Some roads must be closed or travel restricted because of logging or other operational reasons. These danger areas will be marked by signs in the field and on master maps. For the protection of all hunters, we ask that such areas be avoided.

Pocket-size hunting maps also are available free at all ITT Rayonier offices. If you can't stop by, drop us a line and we'll mail you one.
