The Central Club 189 Strong.

"DEMOCRAT" ENDORSED.

The Central County Club Meets—Executive Committee Selected — Colonel James Hamilton Lewis Invited to Angeles—His Name Cheered—Resolution Endorsing "The Democrat,"

The Central Democratic Club of Clallam County, met again in the Council Chamber Saturday evening, pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by W. W. Brumfield, president. John W. Troy and Donald McInness, the committee appointed to select ten names from which the club was to select an executive committee, of five, reported fourteen names, as advices had been received from the State Secretary that each County Club should have seven members. The following are the names reported: Stephen Land, George W. Meagher, Lewis Levy, Ed. Metcalfe, J. H. Myers, H. B. Willson, D. W. Bryan, W. B. Gould, Charles O'Neil, Daniel Campbell, H. B. Crockett, W. H. Carey, Malcom McGill, Ed. Connell. It was moved and carried that these draw to see who would serve on the committee. Those successful were: H. B. Willson, Charles O'Neill, W. H. Carey, Malcom McGill, D. W. Bryan, H. B. Crockett and Ed. Connell; these with W. Brumfield, Thos Malony, Wm. Ritchie and W. K. Clark completed the executive committee. The officers of the club are exofficio officers of the executive committee.

Among other matters done by the club was the odoption of a motion authorizing the president and Secretary to extend to Colonel James Hamilton Lewis, an invitation in behalf of the club, to come and address the citizens of Port Angeles on the political issues of the day. Colonel Lewis' name was enthusiasticaly cheered when mentioned.

A resolution was adopted, unanimously, expressing confidence in and endorsing THE DEMOCRAT, as a reliable and first class democrat newspaper, and declaring it to be the official journal of the Clallam County Democracy.

Before the meeting adjourned it was announced by Secretary Clark that ONE HUNDRED and EIGHTY NINE had signed the roll and become members of the club.

The meeting then adjourned, subject to call of the president and secretary.

Yellow Jack.

Captain Yarker, of the steamer Buffoon, which arrived in New York on the 4th., from Brazilian ports, says that the health of Santos and other sea ports is terrible, and that it is impossible to estimate the number of deaths from Yellow fever.

People drop down in the streets, where they lie until death ends their suffering. The cemeteries are crowded, and fields are being used for the burial of the dead.

The entire coast of that section is perfectly demoralized. The captain states that it is a frequent sight in the streets of Santos and Bahia, to see a dozen dead or dying men and women lying in the roads in one square.

A Daring Diver.

M. F. Chalk, a diver of Duluth, Minn., has taken the contract to find the wreck of the Pewabic and raise it. This vessel went down twenty-fiye years ago in 120 feet of water. Four other attempts have been made, each resulting in the death of the diver who attempted it. The pressure of the water being so great that life was squeezed out.

By his contract Diver Chalk will receive $10,000; a guarantee of his life insurance in case he dies, payment of all expenses of the experiment, and in case he succeeds in bringing up the wreck, will receive half the cargo, valued at $195,000.

The diver will use a helmet that will stand a pressure of 450 pounds to the inch and besides the usual rubber dress, a wrought iron dress of special steel devices over the joints of the arms and legs to nulify some of the water pressure.

An Eight-Year-Old Kidnaped.

Ward Waterbury, the eight-year-old son of Charles P. Waterbury, a wealthy farmer of Pound Ridge, Westchester county, N. Y., was kidnaped Monday morning while on his way to school. On the evening of the same day his father received a note, which demanded that $6,000 in cash be taken to a certain bridge at a certain time and delivered to his son's captors for his ransom or he would never see his offspring again. The sheriff was notified, who took immediate steps to watch the bridge. The New York police have also been employed upon the case.

Modus Virendi for '92.

At the cabinet meeting of the 2d., the larger part of the time was occupied by the Bering sea matters, and considerable progress was made in disposing of the preliminaries of the case. In consideration of the fact that it is impossible to conclude an agreement upon the subject before the season for taking seals begins, Mr. Blaine was requested to arrange an extension of the modus virendi in force last year to serve for the season of 1892? and give the necessary notices to the fleets before they sail, which arrangement will be made within a few days.

LIGHT SENTENCES.

Results of the Trial of the Assailants of the Baltimore's Sailors.

Judge of Crimes Foster, passed sentence in the Baltimore assult case, at Valparaiso, February 4th.

Carlos Arena, alias James, is sentenced to 540 days imprisonment for wounding William Trunbull, of the Baltimore, who died of his injuries; 300 days for disorder, 60 days for carrying a knife and 20 days for giving an assumed name. This makes a total of 920 days.

Jose Rhumada is sentenced to 320 days' imprisonment for injuring Mr. Turnbull.

Frederic Roderiguez is sentenced to 13 days' imprisonment for wounding the boatswain's mate, Charles W. Riggin, another of the American seamen, and for public disorder and carrying a knife.

It is held by Judge Foster that the evidence does not show that Rodriguez killed Riggin. On the contrary, it is claimed that Riggins' death was caused by a shot which was fired by some unknown person.

Gomez and Rodriguez, under the Chilian penal laws, must pay the families of Turnbull and Riggin damages. The damages are recovered by civil suit.

THE NEWS.

Two Chilian newspapers were destroyed by mobs, on account of being opposed to the present government.

The new cable to the Bahamas from Jupiter, Fla., was opened for business on the 4th. The rate charged is 35 cents per word.

The house committee on immigration further discussed the subject of Chinese immigration, but came to no conclusion.

Mr. Stedman, the English champion, signed articles at Bradford to wrestle Duncan C. Ross, champion of America best three falls out of five. The match will be for the championship of the world, and 200 pounds, and will take place at Bradford.

Antonio Lalla a Sicilian, seriously cut the throat of Mrs. Rose Campagna, in San Francisco on the 4th. Antonio Lalla frequently boasted of having to leave New Orleans because he had killed "a big man." It is believed that he was concerned in the murder of Chief Hennesey, of that city.

After a honeymoon of a week, Mrs. Olia Da Silva Young returned to her mother with the cry: "I have married a madman." It is thought that Mr. Young is an opium fiend. He is the son of Jesse Young, late Lord Mayor of London.

Judge Knowles, in the United States ciruit court of Helena, Mont., decided that a prisoner, who was before him charged with selling a bottle of beer to a Crow Indian, had not been guilty of a breach of the law, against selling spirituous liquor or wine to Indians. The decision is that beer does not come within the meaning of the statute.

John L. Sullivan got drunk in Denver, and leaving the theater at which he was playing, visited the Tabor Grand, where Stuart Robson was performing. Mr. Sullivan fought his way upon the stage and in the midst of a scene seized Mr. Robert's hand and exclaimed: "Shake with honest hearts and willing hands." Mr. Sullivan was applauded and started to make a speech, but was ejected by the stagehands.

Governor Thayer, of Nebraska, has at last made known his intentions regarding the result, of the supreme court of the United States, which reversed the decision of the supreme court of Nebraska. Governor Thayer stated that he was anxious to turn the office over to Governor Boyd, and would do so when his attorney informed him there was nothing else to be done.

A deputy sheriff of Detroit, Mich., saw evidences of a conspiracy among eight prisoners in the county jail to escape. Being unable to discover their methods, he resorted to confinement in the "dark holes" of the jail to force a confession. Six of the suspected prisoners were manacled to rings in their cells, so their arms were stretched above their heads, and were allowed to remain in this position over night. In the morn- all made a full confession.

OUR STREET GRADING.

The Good Work Began, Goes on Apace.

FRANCIS STREET GRADED

Work Soon to be Commenced on Lincoln From First to Fifth, Fifth From Lincoln to Oak, and From Albert to Oak, Oak From Fifth to Sixth, and Sixth From Oak to Cherry.

The bright sunshine of the past week has opened the bud of energy and progress, and has warmed the hearts of the city council to such an extent that some substantial and necessary work upon street grading has been commenced and more is soon to follow. At no time during the winter has the ground been frozen, save a thin crust immediately upon the surface, so there is no icy soil to impede the progress of the improvements now under consideration

The work of grading Francis street from Front to Caroline, which was commenced on the 2nd, and completed in one week, has transformed a very muddy highway into a good street, over which teams will have no difficully in drawing heavy loads to and from the Colony mill and Hansen's shipyard. A force of ten men with teams and scrapers, under the direction of Street Commissioner Tillman, accomplished this task in a manner very satisfactory to those who will use it, and in fact, all persons living in that part of the East End will derive great benefit from the new street.

The work of improvement started on Francis street will not end there, but will be as vigorously prosecuted as the weather will permit. The following is a summary of grading now under the consideration of the council and upon which work will be commenced as soon as possible.

Lincoln street will be graded from First to Fifth streets, Fifth street from Lincoln to Oak and from Oak to Albert streets. Oak street will be graded from Fifth to Sixth, and Sixth from Oak to Cherry. This grading will give work to many who need it badly and will increase the value of property located along the new streets and will not be unnecessarily delayed.

Incubated Chickens.

Mr. Fred Edwards has embarked upon a new enterprise in the East End, and so far has met only encouraging success.

Mr. Edwards has two incubators at work, each containing 150 eggs. One represents a rather new idea in incubation, sand being employed to take the part of a hen, and in the other incubator hot water nourishes the little chickens into life, or rather nourishes the egg into a little chicken.

Mr. Edwards intends to ship his product to Seattle, and is quite enthusiastic upon the subject of incubation, having now a new feature which he intends to introduce, being a hot air incubator, and claims for it many advantages over the agencies now used.

The Good Templars.

Friday evening the Good Templars' exercises consisted of an installation of officers, which ceremony was witnessed by a large number of the friends of the cause.

The newly installed officers are: Cheif Templar, W. Rex; Vice Templar, Dollie Tolford; S. J. Templar, F. Tolford; Secretary, Roy McClinton; Fin. Secretary, J. Fowler; Treasurer, George Young; Chaplain, Edith Cook; Marshal, E. Rushworth; Guard, C. F. Lawrence; Sentinel, Ray McClinton; P. C. T., Lena Wilcox.

The exercises comprised an agreeable rendition of musical selections and recitations.

A Colonist Gone.

Mr. A. Goldwater, a highly respected citizen of Port Angeles died suddenly of heart desease Saturday at noon.

Mr. Goldwater came to Port Angeles as a colonist in December, 1888, bringing with him his family, and immediately opened a tailoring business at which he was fairly prosperous, accumulating a very comfortable fortune. He invested his money judiciously and leaves his family, consisting of his wife and three children, in good circumstances.

Mr. Goldwater was born in Germany fifty-four years ago, and remained with his parents until 17 years of age, when he cast his fortunes in London, living there about ten years. From London he went to Australia, and was shipwrecked on the way, loosing all that he had accumulated in London.

In Melbourne he went to work to retrieve his lost fortune, and after eight years was partially successfull, when the roving spirit again took possession of him and he took a trip around the world and visited his old home in Germany. He then returned to America after a short stay with his childhood friends, and settled in Salt Lake City, where he engaged in tailoring. From the latter place he went to Montana, and from there to Chicago, where he married the woman who is now his widow, and with her left Chicago and came to Port Angeles as a colonist in 1888.

Mr. Goldwater was a member of the I. O. O. F., which society conducted the funeral ceremonies last Wednesday, when the body was interred at the city burial ground on the reserve.

On Earth no More.

Mrs. Lida E. Plummer, wife of S. J. Plummer, died at her home on the reserve February 5th, of rheumatism of the heart.

Mrs. Plummer was born in Boston, December 18th, 1847, and moved from there to Wisconsin, where she was married. The husband, who survives her, in 1878. Mr. and Mrs. Plummer sought a home on Puget Sound and located first in Fairhaven, and about January 1st, 1891, came to Port Angeles. Mrs. Plummer's ill health dates back to about one week before Christmas she was confined to her bed two weeks before death closed her earthly pilgrimage.

The funeral occured last Saturday at 3 o'clock, when the remains were laid to rest in the burial ground, followed by a large number of sympathizing friends and neighbors.

Clallam Bay News.

CLALLAM BAY, Feb. 10—[Special.]—Clallam county spruce is about to be introduced into the lumber market of San Francisco. A cargo of 340,000 feet, the first cargo ever shipped from the Sound left Clallam Bay last Sunday, on the schooner American Girl. The entire cargoe of this class of lumber has never been attempted before and it was through the efforts of I. N. Bigelow that a cargo of spruce was sold in San Francisco. The order is exclusively inch boards, and will be used in the box factories and plaining mills of San Francisco. There is abundance of this timber in the county and its manufacture into lumber will prove a profitable industry.

Workmen are laying the foundations of a sawmill and box factory here, to be built by the Bigelow Lumber company. The mill will be 50x150 feet in size, two stories in height and will have a cutting capacity of 50,000 feet of lumber per day. The box factory will be in a building adjoining the mill, 30x100 feet in size. With the present sawmill in operation these industries will give employment to 200 men.

A logging railway two miles in length is talked of.

The Odd Fellows here propose to erect a handsome two story building at once.

Two hundred barrels of tanning extract have been shipped to San Francisco this week.

MISSING LINKS.

The increasing wealth of the various nations is somewhat remarkable. During the last ten years the Bank of France has more than doubled its reserves. The Bank of Germany in 1881 held about $140,000,000. In 1889 it held $180,000,000.

One of the men who helped save the life of the czarowitz of Russia last year, has become so demoralized by good fortune that he has been summoned several times into court. The brave but weak Japanese receives an annual pension of $1,000 from the Russian government, and a small sum yearly from the mikado.

Many kinds of grass seed are used to make flour for bread and mush of an excellent quality. Along the rivers in Colorado and Arizona grass seeds are collected in large quantities and supply a much valued winter food for the Indians. They are ground into flour, mixed with water into dough and cakes of the latter are baked in the hot sand.

Aconite seems to be the favorite poison of physicians who seek to take their lives. The death by this means of Dr. Douglas in Kansas City, will recall to the memory of newspaper readers the fact that within the last six months there have been four or five cases reported of medical men who have committed suicide by the use of the same drug.

A sort of turnip is used by the Indians of Tennessee for a curious purpose—namely, to cure dogs of the habit of eating eggs. This root has a very hot and bitting flavor, and a small portion of it is put into an egg, which is placed in the dog's way. After swallowing it hastily and without consideration the animal will never touch another egg.

If one may judge from the number of bills introduced in congress on the subject, the idea of electing the President and vice-president and the United States senators by direct vote of the people, is growing in popularity. —Colfax Commioner

VINDICATION, NEEDLESS.

THE DEMOCRAT and its editor will not attempt a defense against the narrow minded, indecent and ignorant attacks that have found their way into the daily Tribune during the past week. It needs no defense from such an attack from such an outfit. That they are lies and their authors liars is too evident to require proof.

The people of Clallam county, who are the judges, require no proof. They are intelligent enough to form their own conclusions without the assistance or advice of a tramp editor, who has spent a whole miserable lifetime roving the country from Maine to the far West, seeking a community that would tolerate his idiotic and indecent scab journalism. Nor will they need the counsel or angry slurs of one who has tried and failed at nearly every avocation in life. One who, as a preacher, as a farmer and as a journalist has been a miserable and disgusting fraud—one who has yet to learn "that honesty is the best policy." Against such specimens as these THE DEMOCRAT needs no defense.

The lifetime of the editor of THE DEMOCRAT has been spent among and with the people of Clallam county. They are familiar with his history, his character and his every action. His whole history, with that of his family is bare and subject to careful inspection. Not an action, a motive or a principle has he attempted to conceal, nor is there one that could be concealed had the attempt been made.

He is willing to stand or fall, with his fellows, on his record as made amongst them.

FOR SHAME!

"Lillies that fester smell far worse than weeds."—Shakespeare.

When a man who once stood in a pulpit and preached the gospel of Christianity to a congregation who believed in his sincerity so far forgets himself as to dip his pen in falsehoods with which to blacken the pages of an alleged newspaper, he should be reminded of the fact that as a preceptor of journalism he is impotent, and is a disgrace to the cloth which he once imagined he honored. As an instructor in the art of mud-slinging, the ex-emminent divine may be considered a success; but THE DEMOCRAT refuses to attend his lectures.

"Fool of a Democrat" is an expression burdened with refinement, and one which any journalist might be proud of having originated, but it really sounds more like an echo from a gang of hobos. Scurrilous epithets are not arguments.

THE SITUATION.

James G. Blaine has withdrawn from the race for the Republican presidential nomination. This makes the renomination of President Harrison certain, and is as has been predicted by THE DEMOCRAT. This is more evidence that reciprocity is the small end of the McKinley bill. The bourbons will make the platform, which will be the McKinley tariff.

If the Democrats show good judgment and do not quarrel their victory is assured. The fight on the tariff is won. The people of the United States are sick and tired of overtaxation. This was clearly shown by their victories of 1889, 1890 and 1891. The Democratic platform must be strong and emphatic on this issue. New England and the great West will see that it is, too. Then a presidential candidate must be selected who is known to be a tariff reformer. This, also will be done. If the East does not offer a candidate that can read his title clear on this question, the president will be a western man. John G. Carlisle or Isaac P. Gray would be sure winners on such a platform.

THEY ARE MAD.

The Tribune and Mr. Howells both admit that they and their gang of office-seekers had put up a job on the Republicans of this county; that they wilfully disregarded the established rules of parliamentary law to carry out their schemes in running the Republican club meeting on the 2d inst. Neither do they attempt to defend their action. The only answer they make is an untruthful personal attack on the newspapers and men who, in simple language, told what they admit to be the truth.

Amusing and ridiculous is the spectacle they present. They ran the convention to suit themselves, and have ever since shown that they are angry with everybody, themselves included. Like Uriah Heep's, their mean souls gripe them in their sleep.

IF the, self-styled, editor of the dodger, issued daily by the Tribune job lot company, had sense enough to realize that common, everyday lying is not journalism, and can not injure anyone but the falsifier, the people of Clallam county would have more confidence in his publications. But, as a prominent citizen of the Dungeness country said the other day, the Tribune is making Democrats every day by its frantic efforts to stand in with the county commissioners, and by its persistent misrepresentations.

THE daily rag announces the fact that its whereabouts is to be identified by a sign.

'Tis well, Ulcer, let Johnson & Bork paint a sign also to accompany the dodger, that it may be distinguished from nothing. A bottle of cologne should also accompany each dodger. For, goodness gracious! Of late it stinks to heaven, and makes the angels believe the earth itself is rotten.

PORT ANGELES needs a cemetery. The old grave yard on the Reservation is a disgrace to the city. It is an outrage on public decency, and a shame to one's moral senses to see those who have departed interred in theis graveyard. It should not be longer tolerated. Influence should be brought to bear to have a ten-acre lot in the western part of the Reservation set apart for that purpose. The City Council should take this matter in hand, and appoint a committee to see what can be done.

THE mad ravings of the organ of the First National Bank and the Republican ring show conclusively that those who are now running the Republican machine of this city, and who are trying to take in the whole county, for revenue only, will bear the closest kind of watching. The people of this county are watching them, as they will realize 'ere this fall's campaign is over.

THE Central Democratic Club had another enthusiastic and harmonious meeting Saturday evening. An executive committee of seven enthusiastic and able Democrats were chosen. This completed the admirable organization of the largest and most promising political club ever organized in Clallam County. By undivided and harmonous action the Democrats will win in Clallam County in the comming campaign. The ring that is making such desperate efforts to control the county must be downed.

THE DEMOCRAT does not care who runs the Republican party, but it claims the right to criticise anyone's public actions.

DON'T forget the Hotel bonus Get the Hotel under way. The railroad will start next month. Get both of these started at once and public confidence in Port Angeles will increase.

One thousand dollars given to the hotel bonus, is $1,000 given to a brick yard bonus; $1,000 to a sash and door factory bonus, $1.000 to a stone quarry bonus. All these will be started by the Hotel Company if the hotel is started.

COLONEL JAMES HAMILTON LEWIS' name was cheered enthusiastically at the Democratic Club Saturday evening. Colonel Lewis would get an immense vote in Clallam County should the Democratic state convention show good judgement enough to nominate him for governor.

AUDITOR BAKER and Deputy Auditor Hoole deserve credit for refusing to issue a warrant on the general road fund to make up the deficiency due the Burlingame ContractCompany,for work done on the middle division, as the County Commissioners wished them to do. Mr. Burlingame can afford to wait for his money as well as the road fund can. He earned it easy enough.

THE good work still goes on. The middle division of the county road has been accepted by the County Commissioners, and The Burlingame Contract Company has received its pay therefore.

MONDAY's meeting was a step in the right direction. The people of the county are over assessed. They should protest in no uncertain manner

THE PRESS.

"The tide land laws are so defective," said one of the commissioners recently, "that it would not surprise me to see the whole matter held in abeyance until after the next session of the legislature." One of the strongest reasons for an extra session is the defective tide land legislation of the last legislature, as well as other matters. — Washington Standard.

NEWS AND COMMENT.

Captain James Monahan, of Canarsie, N. Y., has declared his intention of crossing the Atlantic in a boat sixteen feet long and two feet wide, which he will build himself.

What a valuable anxiliary the valiant captain's boat would be in defending Puget Sound against an attacking fleet of an enemy.

At Fresno, Cal., a gang of youthful theives have been captured, whose operations were very extensive and included pillaging expeditions to school houses, farm houses, stables and cellars, and driving away buggies. Their custom was to drive a team until exhausted, abandon it, then steal another. Two boys were captured, aged 13 and 9 years.

These ambitious kids were evidently training to become members of another "billion dollar Congress."

The kaiser proposes to combat social ism by a religious creed which is to be instilled into the minds of the young with their school education.

They will likely be taught that all good, virtue and qualities divine eminates from William's throne.

Miss Lydia Thompson says that in Kentucky she has noticed that the people speak better English than they do in the East. Their voices are softer and sweeter with no suspicion of a nasal twang.

This fact is probably attributable to that great voice renovater, the common beverage in the land of the "kurnels" which, though it may, when abused thicken the tongue and unsteady the gait, but destroys the sweetness of voice, never—when invited to "take something?"

In a letter addressed to Hon. J. S. Clarkson, chairman of the National Republican committee under date of February 6th, 1892, Mr. Blaine positively declines to accept the nomination for the presidency, or to allow his name to go before the convention, as a presidential candidate.

Heigho! 'Tis but the echo of the sigh of relief which whistled through Benjamin whiskers when the glad tidings were poured in tuneful melody into his listening, eager ear. Then another echo said: In Minneapolis with my henchmen all around me, then all will be well, and the White House may yet again be the home of Harrison—but it won't.

The following is clipped from the Tribune:

"The Tribune may be a little 'rag,' but it will succeed in wiping out considerable debris from the Republican party as it ambles along from day to day.

As a wiper the rag is certainly a success, but increase its utility. Ulcer, in this kind office, by leaving off the ink.

Won at Last.

The Nebraska gubernatorial strife is now ended. Governor Thayer sending the following message to governor Boyd.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
LINCOLN, NEB., FEB. 7.

To Governor James E. Boyd, Omaha, Neb. Sir: When I commenced proceedings one year ago to test your title to the office of governor, I did so in the full belief that there was great doubt in the public mind as to your citizenship and eligibility. I then took occasion to publicly say as soon as your citizenship was established by the court I would gladly surrender the office to you. The contest was not one of personal strife, nor to satisfy any ambition of my own, but to comply with and uphold the constitution of the state.

Now that the public has announced that the highest tribunal has declared under the constitution and law of our country and state your right to the office, I cheerfully yield the office of governor to you, without waiting the mandate of the court.

As I am about to leave the state on Monday, to be absent some weeks, it would be most convenient for me to turn over the office to you at 2 o'clock of that day, if it is your pleasure to accept the same at that time. Very respectfully,

JOHN M. THAYER.

The Wetback Cleared.

The steel barge, C. W. Wetmore, Captain Joseph B. Hastings, arrived in the harbor yesterday morning at 3 o'clock, much to the disappointment of many who were anxious to see this much-talked-of vessel, who had watched the straits during the afternoon of the previous day, it being reported that she would reach Port Angeles at noon of the 10th. The Wetmore cleared from San Francisco for a coastwise trip, which made it necessary for her to clear foreign at Port Angeles. She cleared at 6 o'clock yesterday for Victoria, where she will go on the dry dock, her bottom being foul.

The Wetmore has a deep, sonorous whistle, which, when turned loose in the harbor, disturbed the slumbers of Mr. Bickford, the collector, who recognized that the continued calling was for him, and many other citizens were awakened who promptly dressed at this unseasonable hour and hied themselves to the dock to pay their respects to the Wetmore. The sight of a big hull of a vessel without spars, sails or masts was rather an odd picture, and suggested the idea of an immense leviathian with a piece of drift-wood upon his back. The Wetmore will probably go to Seattle to load coal for San Francisco when she leaves Victoria.

The Gracious Call.

From a sermon by Rev. C. E. Chase.

The very first words, "Ho everyone," are the signal at which all eyes should look, all ears should listen for the gospel promise and the gracious call. That great event, which occurred not in a corner, all eyes are invited to see, all ears hear and all hearts feel. What are God's ways of calling attention to his providence? "The Lord gave the word: great was the company of them that published it." The heavens declare the glory of God, and all motion is but the pulsation of His power. The song of harvest is, "Ho everyone, behold the hand that giveth the earth her increase, maketh the wilderness rejoice and the solitary place to blossom as the rose." The day's glory, the radiance of the starry night, speak of the brightness of the Father's glory. Even the mind of man; what does it more when at its best, than say, behold in me the offspring of imperial thought? The flower's voice is, ho everyone, behold Him who will make heart whiter than the lily petal, sweeter than rose perfume. The bird's song—sweet offering to the spring time glee—is but a call to him who knows each feather in the sparrow's wing, and without whose notice not one falls. May every sun and star, may eqery world and every atom, still cry, Ho evreyone behold the Infinite spirit 'whose presence bright all space doth occupy, all motion guide" and from whom every perfect beon is given.

A Side Play.

The county commissioners wanted to give Burlingame a warrant on the general road fund to make up the amount due him for work on the middle division of the county road, there not being a sufficient amount to the credit of that division to settle his account in full They argued that this could be refunded to the general road fund as soon as the balance of the bonds were sold. The Auditor refused to do this unless the county attorney would file with him his written opinion showing it to be legal. This his attorneyship refused to do. So the commissioners, who were so desirous of saving Burlingame a little bother, were compelled to issue a warrant on the division fund, Mr. B. running the risk instead of the districts.

The Woman With a Letter.

The other day as I found old Mary, the candy woman, down at the Inman piers, she pulled out a letter which she had received a day or two before and said:

"This is from my boy Tom, who is in Rochester. I can't read writing very well myself, none of the people at the house are much better. I'd like you just to tell me what's in it."

It was badly written and worse spelled, and as I looked it over to get the "hang" of it she asked:

"Now, then, has Tom had any fights with the Indians?"

"No, of course not. There are no Indians around Rochester."

"Poor boy! What a disappointment it has been for him! He was always talking about fighting Indians and taking scalps. He once dreamed of a bloody fracas with Sitting Bull and jumped out of the open window on to the roof of the shed. Ah! The poor lad! Does he speak about killing buffalo or hunting grizzly bears?"

"He couldn't, you know. There's nothing of the sort around Rochester."

"Alas! alas! And poor Tom had a club and a pistol, and he did nothing but talk of killing big game and living in a tent on the prairies! Well, I suppose he changed his mind. Is he sailing out of Rochester?"

"No, ma'am. He says he is working in a stable."

"Poor Tom! He was always saying that if he couldn't be a great hunter he wanted to be a sailor and go to Chiny. He brought one o' them haythen Chinese home once and fed him full o' dinner in order to learn all about Chiny. Does he say he incloses any money to me?"

"No. He says he is only working for his board."

"Poor boy! "Just think of it! However, he is a very hearty eater, and them as boards him has no cheap job of it. On the very day he went away he told me to look out for a check of $50 before Christmas, but I suppose it wasn't handy. Does he say he misses his old mother?"

"Well, not in so many words. He says he'd like to see you."

"Ah! the boy! Of course he misses! Didn't I let him lie abed every morning till 9 o'clock and wasn't his breakfast all ready when he got up? And every blessed day wasn't I saying to him that he would make a scollar and a big man of himself if he would only do it? He hates to own up, but he misses me badly. And now, sir, will you write a letter for me?"

I replied that I would. And I went in and got a sheet of paper and an envelope and sat down beside her again and she said:

"Tell him to let Indians alone. Nobody ever comes to any good meddling with Indians."

"Yes"

"And to let grizzly bears and buffalos alone, I never saw any, but I know they is dangerous."

"Yes"

"And if he goes out on the prairies to look out for prairie fires, which I'm told sweep along like the dust in the street."

"I've got that down,

"Anything else?"

"Well, sir, you may put it down softly like that if he is working for his board to eat as much as ever he can, and that his dear mother hopes he will continue on the road to richness and greatness. No more at present. The weather is fine. New York looks just the same. and I shall expect another letter from you very soon. Your own loving mother, Mary (her mark) Blake."

A group of well know politicians were trying to solve the important problem: Who was the greatest lawyer in Illinois? No harmonious decision seemed possible until one of the disputants observed: "Here comes Tom Merritt; he's the oracle—let's leave it to him. Tom, we want to know who is the greatest lawyer in Illinois?"

"D-o-d-do you leave it to me?" stuttered Merritt, with becoming gravity.

"Yes."

"Want me to d-d-decide it?"

"That's it."

"Wuh-wuw-well then, I am."

There was a chorus of derisive guffaws, and some one remarked:

"You can't prove that, Tom."

"D-d-don't need to prove it," retorted Tom, sternly; "I adm-m-mit it."—Chicago Mail.

One Was Enough.

A man while fishing suddenly fell into the water. A fellow-fisherman of benevolent aspect promptly helped him out, laid him on his back and then began to scratch his head in a puzzled way. "What's the matter?" asked the bystanders, "Why don't you revive him?"

"There are 16 rules to revive drowned persons" said the benevolent man, "and I know 'em all: but I can't call to mind which comes first."

At this point the rescued man opened his eyes and said faintly: "Is there anything about giving brandy in the rules?"

"Yes"

"Then never mind the other 15."

A temperance lecturer once threw upon the screen the microorganisms in a drop of water, to the astonishment of his audience. Then, on the slide, he put a minute portion of whiskey. Instantly it put a quietus on all that swarming life. About to make his point, a voice from the rear shouted out. "I'll never take another drink of water without a drop of whiskey in it."—Argonaut.

IT WAS ONLY A BLIND.

But It Gave a Fashionable Lady Reason to Blush.

A very popular but blind Count lives in Champs Elysees. Being witty and musical, his society was much sought after. He left Paris three months ago, and on his return called on a fashionable marchioness, who was preparing to go to a fancy ball. She begged to be excused, but as he had an important message to deliver he was shown in, and being of course blind, he was asked to take a seat in her boudoir. Gossip ensued, and during all the time the Marchioness, assisted by her maid, executed the mysteries of her toilet.

Being ready to descend to her carriage the count stated that he had been absent in London, and had undergone a successful operation for cataract and could now see as well the Marchioness. The latter shrieked and jumped into her carriage without even an au revoir to her unwelcome visitor.

The largest animal known to exist in the world at the present time is the rorqual, which averages 100 feet in length: the smallest is the monad, which is only 1-12,000 of an inch in length.

Of late naturalists have been making some investigations among devil fish, and among other curious things they have found that at the time of birth that terrible creature is not larger than a flea.

The United States purchased Alaska in 1867 for a moneyed consideration, which amounted to less than 19-20 of a cent per acre.

A florist makes the assertion that a blue rose is among the impossibilities, but, while an explanation of this curious fact may be equally impossible, he fails to mention a very interesting law which governs the coloring of all flowers. A knowledge of this law would save many flower-growers hours of unavailing and foolish hope. The law is simply this: The three colors, red, blue and yellow, never all appear in the same species of flowers; any two may exist, but never the third. Thus we have the red and yellow roses, but no blue; red and blue verbenas, but no yellow; yellow and blue in the various members of the viola family (as pansies for instance), but no red; red and yellow gladoli, but no blue; and so on through the list,

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with an act passed by the Legislature of the State of Washington, March 20th, 1890, entitled, "An Act to establish a uniform standards of weights and measures in this state, and to provide for a state sealer and inspector of the same." The law provides that

"The county auditor of each county shall be the sealer of weights and measures of that county, and shall have the care and custody of the County Standards."

"SECTION 5. The several county sealers shall try and prove all weights and measures, scales and beams, when requested so to do, and when the same are found or made to conform to the legal standards, they shall seal and mark such weights and measures with a seal to be kept by them for that purpose."

"Sec. 6 The state and county sealers of weights and measures in this state shall charge for testing or sealing any beam or scale the sum of fifty cents: PROVIDED, That no charge shall be made for testing or sealing weights for counter, gold or apothecary scales, and for each and every weight or measure ten cents; for sealing and marking liquid and dry measures, if the same be a gallon or more, ten cents; if less than a gallon, five cents. They shall also be entitled to a reasonable compensation for making such weights and measures conform to the standards established by this act."

"Sec, 8. That any person in this state who shall, after thirty days subsequent to published notice from the county sealer of weights and measures, as provided in section four of the act, be found to be using any false or fraudulent beam, scale, weight or measure, and who shall fail or neglect, on written notice of the same from any person aggrieved, or in any way cognizant thereof, to have said imperfect beam, scale, weight or measure duly inspected, and by proper authority adjusted and sealed, or who shall use the same scale, weight or measure subsequent to said notice without correction or adjustment, as provided in this act, any person so offending shall be liable to a action in law and penalty of twenty-five dollars for each and every offense, to be paid into the county fund."

"Sec. 10. In the sale of fruits, vegetables and all other articles, sold by heaped measure, one thousand two hundred and eighty-two (1,282) cubic inches shall constitute a half bushel."

Sec. 11. The hundred-weight shall consist of one hundred pounds, and twenty such hundred-weights shall constitute a ton."

"Sec. 12. Whenever any of the following articles shall be contracted for or sold or delivered, and no special contract or agreement shall be made to the contrary, the weight per bushel shall be as follows to-wit: Wheat, sixty-six pounds; oats, thirty-six pounds; barley, forty-eight pounds; buckwheat, forty-two pounds; dried apples or peaches, twenty-eight pounds; potatoes, sixty pounds; green apples or pears forty-five pounds; flax, fifty-six pounds."

"Sec. 13. Whoever, in buying any of the articles mentioned in the preceding section shall take any greater number of pounds thereof to the bushel, or in selling any of said articles shall give any less number of pounds thereof to the bushel than is allowed by said section, with intent to gain advantage thereby, except when expressly authorized so to do by special contract or agreement to that effect, shall be liable to the party injured in double the amount of the property so wrongfully taken or not given, and ten dollars in addition thereto, to be recovered in any court or competent jurisdiction."

Now, therefore, I, B. John Baker, auditor of Clallam county, State of Washington, do hereby, in pursuance with the above act, give due notice that I am prepared to inspect and seal all weights and measures according to law, and would respectfully call the attention of all persons using weights and measures of the penalty [see section 8] for their non-compliance thereto.

Grindings of the Superior Court During the Week—New Cases—Probate Notes.

NEW CASES.

229. Joseph McKissick vs Ah Hang. Suit to recover on promissory note the sum of $100 with interest at 60 per cent. per annum and costs.

230. William H. Hobart and Lewis O. Maddux as Maddux, Hobart & Co. vs Samuel G. Morse. The plaintiffs allege that a bill of exchange was drawn on the Port Angeles Wholesale Liquor & Importing Co., who accepted the same, but did not pay it when due; that the same was duly protested; that subsequently the said Morse purchased the business of the said wholesale company and then agreed to pay the bill of exchange and did pay the sum of $200, but has not paid the remainder of the draft, therefore the plaintiffs demand judgment for $293.80 balance due and interest.

231 J. W. Yandle vs Joseph Morris, suit on foreclosure of mortgage on lots 31 and 32, block 4 Gay & Bickford's First addition to Port Angeles for $100, interest and costs.

SUPERIOR BRIEFS.

R. H. Weeks has obtained judgment against W. R. Gay and H. K. Bickford for the sum of $98 and cost taxed at $36.55.

Judge McClinton has had an order entered making the 3d Monday in February and the 4th Mondays in May and September of each year the date for examination of attorneys to be admitted to the bar.

The plaintiff's motion to make answer more definite and certain in the case of James B. Reed et al vs. Charles A. Wood, was granted.

Louis Williams has made application for admission to the bar as an attorney at law.

PROBATE NOTES.

Saturday, February 20th, was set as the date for the examination of the proceedings of Martha Merchant as administratix of the estate of I. F. Merchant, deceased, under order of sale of this court.

The sale of lot 1 block 19 N. R. Smith subdivision to R. A. Grimes by William Dodd, as guardian of Burt and Walter Tillman was set aside by the court Monday.

The final account of W. F. Babcock as administrator of the estate of Harry D. Babcock has been approved and administrator discharged.

C. E. Collins, of the Port Townsend firm of Fritz & Collins, jewelers, visited with his old friends P. J. Williams and E. E. Fisher Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. George Kline, who has the contract for surveying township 30 north, range 7 west, on the Elwha, has arrived in Port Angeles and work will start immediately.

LOCAL.

W. D. Stivers has opened the Olympian restaurant.

"Young America" is the name of Frank Meerwaldt's new stand where the Abby used to be.

There has been $23,700, raised for the hotel bonus. A few more dollars, a grand hotel.

Messrs. Garrison and Crockett have sold out their stock to Walter Burch. The transfer was made on the 9th.

The new hotel at Gettysburg, is now under roof and is rapidly nearing completion.

Miss Della Cosgrove, is organizing a class in taxidering. Instructions will be given in the public school building.

The birthday of Abraham Lincoln will be commemorated at the Congregational church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The services will consist of recitations and readings. All invited to attend.

The dance given at McDonald's hall last Saturday night by Messrs. Henry Wechter and Henry Beal, was well attended by the representative gallantry and beauty of Angeles.

The Angeles Club will give a Masquerade Ball Monday evening, February 22nd. Tickets will be 50 cents each f r ladies and gentlemed.

The county treasurer has received a draft from the state for $1,757.40, costs allowed the county in the Wood murder case.

An Olympia dispatch in the P.-I. says that the state has decided to purchase the $10,000 Clallam county road bonds for the state school fund. The price is 99 cents on the dollar.

The canvas for subscriptions to the Y. M. C. A. has been conducted to a successful termination. The sum of $700 in annual subscriptions has been raised Those interested will have a meeting at 4:30 o'clock.

Owing to the fact that there were some necessary repairs needed to be made upon that part of the machinery of the Electric Light company which supplies the arc lights, the city has been deprived of its light. Being moonlight nights this absence has caused no inconvenience. By sunday the repairs will have been completed, and the arc lights will shine once more.

The steamer Garland made the Hermosa's trip to the cape last Wednesday, while the latter is on the dry dock for repairs. The Hermosa will be returned to the run next week. It was reported on the streets that the Hermosa would not again be put on the route from Seattle to the cape, but Purser Guy informed a DEMOCRAT representative that there was no truth in the report.

Mrs. Elsie Ackles, and Miss M. M. Souther have opened dressmaking parlors in the Nelson building and will pay particular attention to ladies' tailoring and childrens clothes. No lady now need go up Sound to have a dress made, as this firm will guarantee perfect fits.

G. W. Meagher and William Ritchie went to Dungeness Wednesday to arrange for the appearance of the Gate City Minstrels at that place next Friday.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The Board Transact General Business—The Middle Division Accepted.

The county commissioners met February 1st in regular session, there not being a quorum present they adjourned until Tuesday.

On Tuesday the board appointed the grand and petit jurymen to serve for the ensuing year.

Wednesday February 3d the board went over the middle division of the county road to examine and inspect the work done on it.

On Thursday this portion of the county road was accepted, on motion of Davis, and the Auditor directed to issue warrants in payment of the same.

The petition of N. P. Andrews et al and Thomas Reed et al for county roads in the Quillayute country were approved and the overseers of the road district instructed to take due notice of the establishment of them.

Several petitions for new road districts were laid over, as the board has decided to redistrict the county at their next meeting.

The petition of J. W. Hooker et al for assistance in building a bridge across the Dungeness river was referred to William Ward, the overseer of the district in which said bridge is to be built.

Petition of Mary J. Hooker for a reduction of taxes was rejected.

The resignation of James A. McFarland as overseer of road district No. 19 and also of Robert Travers of district No 14 were accepted.

Bid of the Clallam County Abstract & Trust company of 90 per cent. for the $10,000 unsold road bonds was rejected.

Gordon's motion to reduce the liquor license from $500 per annum to $300 per annum, was lost, Davis and Gray voting no and Gordon yes.

The Auditor was instructed to open negotiations with the state officers relative to selling the $10,000 road bonds at 99 cents on the dollar.

The license of Joseph McKissick to sell liquor in the Bay View hotel at Dungeness was transferred to J. O. Curtis & Company.

Petition of J. C. Murphy et al for a voting precinct laid over.

The surveyor was instructed to remove the jam from the Elwha above the new bridge.

The supervisor of district No. 22 was allowed the sum of $142.65 out of the bridge fund for assistance in constructing the bridge across the Dungeness river in that district.

A voting precinct was created at Shuwah, to be known as Shuwah precinct.

Numerous claims against the county were allowed. The janitor was allowed an increase of $5.00 per month on his salary.

The board adjourned subject to the chairman's call.

A Grand Success.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church gave a very pleasant entertainment at their church on the 8th, which was largely attended. A very interesting programme was arranged, comprising songs, readings and recitations, and concluded with an essay upon James Russell Lowell by Mr. Chase, pastor of the church. The programme was as follows:

Mrs. Carusi sang "In Old Madrid," then a reading by Mrs. J. L. Worthley, "Her Letter." A lullaby by Miss Ethel Ferguson. "The Bridal Feast" was recited by Miss Belle Shearer, who once displayed considerable histrionic talent in the role of Patty Blossom. Mr. Keller sang a tenor solo.

Coffee and cakes were served and the remainder of the evening was passed in social intercourse. The ladies of this congregation are certainly acquainted with the art of giving pleasant entertainments.

The Firemen's Ball.

Great preparations have been made by the Gate City Fire Department for their ball, to be given this evening at the Opera House. A large number of tickets have been sold and a good time is anticipated. The music will be good and the floor is in prime condition.

The fire department deserves all the patronage it will receive, even if the whole town is there. The fire laddies have shown skill, energy, perserverence in establishing as good a fire department as any city of our size in the state. They do good and effective work when called upon.

Chief Merritt deserves great credit for the able and skillful manner in which he has drilled the boys. The latter have proven themselves to be apt pupils. Everyone who can should attend the ball to-night, or, at least buy a ticket.

The Gate City Minstrels.

This interesting company will give an entertainment at Dungeness, Friday evening, February 19th.

This means a carload of fun for the people of Dungeness and vicinity. The Gate City Minstrels have earned a reputation for ability and fun making, that is justly merited.

Everyone who can enjoy a good laugh should hear them—a guaranteed cure for the blues.

The Angeles Club.

On account of the Fireman's Ball the Angeles Club will omit their Friday evening hop to-night. This club will give a Masquerade Ball Monday evening February 22d.

The Angeles Whist Club.

This club will have an important meeting Saturday evening at 7:30, at the office of Dr. I. R. Herrick. All members and those desiring to become such are requested to be present.

Sorrowful Taxpayers.

The mass meeting of taxpayers held last Monday in the council chamber, to protest against the exhorbitant rate of taxation, and the unjust discrimination in valuing property adjacent to the city of Port Angeles and vicinity, was largely attended by the property owners of the city and vicinity.

Mr. Malony was called to the chair and Mr. Louis Williams acted as secretary. Mr. Malony announced the object of the meeting, which was substantially given as above, and called for such remarks from those present as would suggest a plan of action whereby a redress of grievance could be obtained, and a repetition might be prevented this year. After addresses had been made by several gentlemen, it was decided that no action could be taken to remedy the levy imposed last year and the suggestion that a committee of three be appointed to watch the rate of taxation to be levied and make a report to the meeting next August, took the form of a motion and was carried after an amendment, which raised the members of the committee to fifteen.

The chair was then, upon motion, instructed to select fifteen prominent taxpayers who were business men, to act as a committee with the above object in view.

The committee appointed are as follows: J. F. Meagher, Frank Chambers, H. Westphall, Donald McInnes, Louis Williams, Lewis Levy, J. M. Grant, Frank McGill, J. W. Weir, George Gale, Robert Shields, D. W. Morse, Thomas Malony, Fred Thompson and Charles Peters.

The motion to adjourn the meeting as relating to taxation and to resolve it into another with the advancement of the Hotel Angeles as its object, was made, seconded and carried. The house went into extra session and some stirring remarks were made by Messrs. Louis Williams, James Meagher and N. R. Smith.

Mr. Williams in answer to the question of "How much money had been raised for the bonus?" replied that $20,000 had been subscribed, but that more was needed to place the enterprise within the pale of possibilities. Upon motion made by Mr. Williams every man present constituted himself a committee of one to work for, and in every way aid the promotion of the Hotel Angeles enterprise.

The meeting then adjourned.

A WORK OF ART.

A Masterpiece Graces the Front of One of Our Business Houses.

To every observing stranger who may visit a city, the signs which adorn or mar the front of business houses, play a very important part in the formation of his opinion of its merchants and business men. Port Angeles can boast of one, which, as a production of high art, would not mar the wall of a gallery where only the finest works were displayed.

The sign of Johnson & Bork belongs to the grotesque, style and at a glance suggests some of the old legends of the castles of Spain and Italy, and its completeness is gratifying to the sight of all who have seen it. containing no harsh blending of colors, and establishes the fact that it was produced by first-class artists.

ANGELES' INTERESTS.

Looked out for by Colonel J. S. Coolican. His eyes are open.

Vice-President J. S. Coolican, of the Port Angeles Real Estate and Trust Company, 105 Third street, has been in correspondence for some time with Lieutenant-Governor Laughton and W. T. Clark, general manager of the Washington State Board of Trade, relative to establishing a permanent exhibit of Washington produce in Portland.

The following letter will show that the exhibit is now an assured thing:

EX. DEPT., STATE OF WASHINGTON,
LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,
OLYMPIA, Dec. 26, 1891

Mr. J. S. Coolican, Portland, Or. —Dear sir: I have your valued favor of the 17th inst. upon my return from an extended absence from the capital, and while the information contained in some is entirely new to me yet. I agree with you that the successful carrying out of yor suggestions would prove of immense benefit to the whole state of Washington, and if I can assist in any way in its consumation I beg you to command me. I shall be glad to hear from you again relative to the propositions contained in your letter. I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant

CHARLES E. LAUGHTON.

OFFICERS OF THE
WASHINGTON STATE BOARD TRADE
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BLDG.,
SEATTLE, WASH., FEB. 1, 1892.

Mr. J. S. Coolican, Portland Or. —Dear Sir: Your favor has been received, and will receive prompt attention. We shall commence a vigorous correspondence with all counties and have them make a double collection, as they have promised this board a display of their produce. We will let you hear at as early a date as possible. Yours very truly,

W. T. CLARK, GEN. MANG.

The Port Angeles Real Estate and Trust Company will provide the premises, heat, light, janitor, etc., at their expense for one year, and Mr. Coolican promises an exhibit of which the state will feel proud.—Portland Telegram.
