In Operation of Light Plant Is Shown to Be Possible, as Has Been Contended.

At regular session of Council Tuesday evening Mayor Appleton and all Councilmen were present.

Street committee rendered its report on matters referred to it, recommending the expenditure of $50 on Front St., between Race and White Creek bridge; $25 on Race between 1st and 8th, and $50 on street from foot of Tumwater Hill to the Filion mill; but not recommending repairs to steps on E street, nor to crossing at foot of Tumwater hill, which is in the nature of a private crossing. The steps, they found, are no worse than other more used walks.

Copy of instructions from General to Seattle Land Office, directing that patent for park land be issued to City upon application and proper proof of incorporation, was referred to city attorney for action.

Claim of Angeles Water Co. for $25 was objected to by Mr. Polhamus for reason that council had no knowledge as to pressure of water during the month, insisting that company should test one or more hydrants each month and report results to council; claim laid over a week.

Bids for operation of electric light plant were laid over for consideration by council, meeting in committee of whole, on this, Friday, evening.

C. A. Engesser made the council three propositions, and stated that he had had twelve years experience in charge of electric light plants for the U. S. Gov't, would furnish reference if required, and give bonds for faithful performance of duty. 1st, he would "take charge of city plant and lines, make my own repairs, employ my help, and give the public faithful service" for $160 per month, all night, or $100 to 1:00 a. m. 2nd, "To take charge of plant only, employ my own help and do necessary repairs and give to the public faithful service," for $100 per month, or until 1:00 a. m. for $80. 3rd, "To take charge of the engine room only, do all the repair work that can be done without the aid of machine shop, and devote my whole time to reducing the expense of running the engine room," for $75 per month.

E. A. Snyder would agree to run the plant for $110 a month, cash.

Albert Rogers would run plant the eight months commencing March 1st, for $130 per month, or $75 till 1:00 o'clock; the four succeeding months for $145 per month, or $75 till 1:00 o'clock.

T. T. Aldwell came before the council, stating that as agreement had been reached between the County of Clallam and E. H. Avery in matter of settlement of their respective interests in the Judgment confessed by the City on street grade warrants in amount of $30,239, asked that warrants be issued for amounts as stipulated.

Councilman Hallahan asked that demand of parties be presented in writing, with full statement of case and nature of stipulation.

Judge McClinton then prepared and read statement in matter, which was referred to mayor and city attorney. The request is that warrants be issued to E. H. Avery in the sum of $25,000, interest at 7 per cent since date of judgment, December 17, 1897, and to Clallam County warrants for $5,239, same interest.

Matter of co-operation of City with other occupants of lots in blocks reserved by Government for public uses was called up and discussed by Dr. Lewis and others in behalf of private occupants and members of the council. Resolution offered by Councilman Brumfield in matter was withdrawn and further consideration of proposition was deferred until meeting of council as committee of the whole on Friday, 10th.

Geist is termed, commenced this week making repairs and changes preparatory to increasing the capacity of their lumber mill to 20,000 feet per day, and building a new shingle and planing mill. WILL REPAIR WHARF

Work Commences Monday on that at Salmon Cannery

L. H. Mitchell has delivered on the beach at First and Valley one hundred and fifty piles, on contract with the Manhattan Packing Company, to be used in repairing the cannery wharf, or rather practically rebuilding it, for the original wharf contained but two hundred and eighty piles. The Gate City people expect to finish at the Craig Products Co. and get at the cannery contract early in the week. The Manhattan Co. are expecting a big season's business this year and propose to get in shape for the work early in the season.

POPULATION INCREASED BY 33

Advance Guard From Oklahoma Captured Tumwater Hill.

There arrived in Angeles this week the advance of a large colony of people who will locate in this community from Oklahoma, and if the ones here are a sample of the others, we say let them come ten thousand strong, as all appear well and prosperous.

The arrivals are: G. W. Critchfield and family, Geo. Germaine and family, and Capt. Gatchell and family, making over twenty-five persons. We understand they expect to buy ranches and engage in dairying.

Prof. VonHolderbeke to Be Here on the 25th.

Prof. A. VonHolderbeke has written Judge Smith that he will be on hand to address the Horticultural Society on the last Saturday of this month, March 25th. Other interesting proceedings will be had, and a large attendance is desired.

The Council, as committee of the whole, decided to recommend advertising for new bids, Mr. Engesser's having been withdrawn, and Mr. Snyder's not being complete and in proper form.

WILL BUILD THE BRIDGES

Civic Club Has Decided to Undertake a Gigantic Task and Will Succeed.

The ladies of the Civic Club, at their meeting last Tuesday, held mainly for the consideration of the coming year's work, committed themselves to the gigantic undertaking of building bridges across the deep ravines on either side of Pine Hill, thus uniting the three residence portions of town and making practically unnecessary the use of the precipitous roadway on Tumwater Hill.

The magnitude of the affair can be understood from the fact that a rough estimate by E. A. FitzHenry, C. E., places the cost of the two structures at fifteen thousand dollars. Others have placed the cost somewhat lower, but the actual figure will not be known until plans are drawn.

The subject created a great deal of discussion at the meeting, particularly regarding its possibility under present conditions, but the business men of the town have so persistently urged the ladies to go ahead with it that they felt 'twas the only thing to be done. And doubtless, like all other great undertakings, which appear large when viewed butt end first, as the work of raising funds progresses it will be found to have shrunk to "most nothing at all" —at least we so hope.

Speaking of the great need of the business interests for such bridges, the Filion Mill and Lumber Co. will make their first contribution twenty thousand feet of lumber, or about $200. Mr. G. M. Lauridsen will head the list with $100, and certainly a number of others will contribute like sums. A good many have voluntarily pledged $25 to $50, Messrs. McKee & LaFlower being among the first to pledge the latter sum. A number of teamsters and others have volunteered two or three weeks' work each, which will amount to as much as the individual subscriptions.

The following ladies were selected as the committee on these special bridges: Mesdames H. H. LaFlower, J. E. Cochran, F. P. Fisher, Jno. Trumbull, F. S. Lewis, and C. A. Cushing.

The Club is also considering something in the way of a park, or park improvements. The City Park is thought to be rather too far out at present, yet no other grounds have so far been suggested that will be quite satisfactory.

The next meeting will be held on the first Tuesday in April, the 4th, when Mrs. Carrigan will address the Club on "Practical Thoughts on Child Culture" and Mrs. Brumfield on "Municipal Improvement."

It is intended to pay considerable attention to hygienic cooking, especially with reference to children, and a specialist may be engaged for a few lectures on that subject.

ALL BUT DROWNED

Inspector Fisher's Little Son Rescued from Drowning by Wm. McIvor.

Frank Fisher's little son had a narrow escape from drowning in the water hole at the corner of First and Lincoln streets. The pond has accumulated at the intersection of the two streets and looks innocent enough, but it is near eight feet deep and the little fellow, who was boating on a raft, had small chance upon falling in. The timely arrival of Wm. McIvor on the scene undoutedly saved the boy's life, as he was in the water face downwards and completely helpless when rescued.

The pond is not only a death trap, but a public nuisance, as its complete stagnation is a menance to the general health of the community, and being in a prominent place, is also an eyesore to all strangers who have to climb to the temple of justice. It should be attended to at once.

"Keep Off the Grass."

The truth of the fact that the ordinary appears ridiculous when out of place is well illustrated by that sign so familiar to city dwellers, when they meet with it nailed to a huge tree in the dense forests of western Clallam. Unless, indeed, they may compare those forests to the grass that waves over the prairies of the Dakotas.

Two Japanese Squadrons Sighted South of Hong Kong.

The correspondent, cabling last night, states that the German steamer Nubia, which arrived Sunday afternoon, passed two Japanese squadrons 100 miles south of Hongkong steaming southeast. The first was a squadron of nine battleships and armored cruisers, and the second consisted of thirteen armored and protected cruisers, accompanied by a flotilla of destroyers.

From this it is believed that the Japanese fleet, having been docked and scraped after its long Port Arthur campaign, has been put in condition to carry the battle to the Baltic fleet, which has taken refuge in the Indian ocean.

VETOED BY TOOLE.

Montana Governor Not Satisfied With Railway Commission Bill.

Helena, Mont., March 7.—Governor Toole has deposited with the secretary of state the railway commission bill without his approval. The governor objects to the bill because it names the commissioners, holding that power is lodged with the executive; because it extends the terms of the commissioners beyond two general elections, holding they should be elected at the first opportunity; because it does not provide for the summary removal of a commissioner by the governor in case of abuse of trust, and because there is no limit set to the indebtedness the commission may create.

The governor also returned without his signature the bill designed to prevent the fusion of political parties.

PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

ROOSEVELT AND FAIRBANKS TAKE OATH OF OFFICE.

Washington, March 4.—The most brilliant and imposing inauguration which the citizens of Washington have ever prepared has passed into the history of the republic. For a week the District of Columbia has been the host of the Union. Term after presidential term her citizens, without regard to party, unite with enthusiasm in preparing an inauguration that shall fittingly show forth the national respect for the executive office. For the unparalleled demonstration of today the sole credit is due to these citizens, the officials of the war and navy department and officers of the army and navy.

South Sends Representatives.

It was the first national inauguration since the Civil war. The South sent up its warriors and its state officials. Men who fought each other for years under different flags; men who fought together in the war with Spain under one flag; executive officers of the states who upheld the stars and bars, and those who stood for the flag of the Union, marched together in review before their common president, a soldier of the republic.

Fully 200,000 visitors gazed with wonder and enthusiasm at the district's handiwork for honoring its president.

The whole city was a garden blossoming with flags. For a week great waves of color have been sweeping through all its streets. Not only was the line of march artistically decorated to a degree never before attained, but no street in the city was without the national colors. At a suggestion from the inaugural committee the board of education had requested its 50,000 school children to see that each one of their homes dispalyed the flag. It was a request responded to by an army of children. The apotheosis of the colors was one of the most striking elements of a gigantic scheme for expressing the national respect for the chief executive.

Decorations Are Elaborate.

Committees on street decorations, street illuminations and parks and reviewing stands, worked together with artistic taste and transformed two miles and a half of the city's noted avenue into a fitting highway for the nation's countless bodies to march as an escort to its president. Every square yard that was not black with people banked high above the pavement, crowding all windows and roofs, was brilliant with the national colors. The light and airy stands, conforming everywhere to elementary architectural rules as to construction, painting and decorations, supplanted the huge and unsightly piles of lumber which were formerly tolerated as outlooks for the crowds. The scene by day was magnificent, by night, under the committee's scheme of illumination, the tremendous crowds wandered in fairy land.

The president's reviewing stand, in front of the White House, was the center of the court of history, which extended two long blocks from Fifteenth street. Along each side of the avenue were noted historical figures in great numbers from the St. Louis exposition. This triumphal pathway, along which the kings of the earth might have deemed it an honor to be conducted, was cleared and closed to cars and vehicles at an early hour. The police management was perfect. It was a royal highway upon which the president early entered and proceeded to the capitol.

The President's Escort.

The Grand Army of the Republic, as is its habit, insisted on acting as the president's escort, and the president's rate of progress to the capitol was reduced to the pathetic pace of men who were fast approaching the scriptural limit of life. But the delay had its compensations. Many thousands had an opportunity to see and greet the president as his cortege slowly passed along the miles from the White House to Capitol hill, where congress was concluding its labors.

After the arrival of the presidential party the five minutes remaining before the close of the session were given to inaugurating the vice president, to who whom the oath of office was administered by the president pro tem of the senate, after which the march at once began to the immense platform where the president was to deliver his inaugural address and take the oath of office, which was administered by Chief Justice Fuller of the supreme court of the nation.

The inaugural ball in the evening was a very brilliant affair, a spectacular closing for a most spectacular day.

KANSAS LIKES IT NOT.

Sunflower Senate Denounces Garfield Beef Trust Report.

Topeka, Kan., March 8.—The Kansas senate has adopted a resolution denouncing the report of Commissioner Garfield in the beef trust investigation and requesting the president to "reject this report and appoint some man with experiennce, independence and nerve that shall qualify him for the task of investigating this gang of commercial highwaymen known as the beef trust, to the end that the public may be fully informed as to the sources of their enormous profits and the foundations of their colossal fortunes, and the means and agreements by which for a generration they have robbed both the producer and the consumer, to the end that legislation protecting both may be intelligently devised, and that the light of publicity, that light that is destructive of all trusts and combinations, may be thrown upon this vicious and iniquitous conspiracy."

Railroad Clearing House.

Seattle, March 4.—Local railroad officials have received word regarding the proposed national railroad clearing house, which will handle all shippers' claims and interchange of cars.

FOUGHT FOR WORK CHECKS.

Incipient Riot in New York Over Chance to Shovel Snow.

New York, March 6.—A newspaper advertisement, offering a day's work to fifty snow shovelers. brought such a crowd of applicants to a point in Fifth street that the police reserves were called out to check an incipient scramble for work checks.

More than 300 men who came in answer to the advertisement were in waiting before daylight, when the man with the fifty checks, each of which would entitle the holder to a day's work, appeared on the scene. The sight of the checks was the signal for a rush in which everyone of the 300 joined.

The men were tossed right and left in the scramble to reach the holder of the checks, and within a minute every one of the bits of pasteboard had been given out. This did not stop the trouble, however, and when the police reserves, who had been summoned at the first rush, appeared, more than a score of individual couples were fighting hand-to-hand for the right to shovel all day for $2.

RUSSIANS IN FLIGHT

DEFEAT OF KUROPATKIN IS NOW ADMITTED.

The Only Question Now Is as to the Ability of the Japanese to Prevent the Withdrawal of the Defeated Army to the North. Kuropatkin to Be Deposed.

St. Petersburg, March 9.—The battle of Mukden has resulted in a Russian defeat.

Field Marshal Oyama has once more proved himself one of the greatest masters of offensive strategy since Napoleon, while Gen. Kuropatkin is now engaged in endeavoring to defend his title as a master of successful retreats and bring off his army, with its immense train, safely to Tie pass, where a position was long ago prepared with this contingency in view.

The problem before the Russian commander-in-chief is much more difficult than the one he met successfully at Liaoyang, since now he is threatened on both flanks, his left wing being entangled in a mountainous reigon far from the railroad. Nevertheless, Russian military men here express a fair degree of confidence in Gen. Kuropatkin's ability once more to extricate his army and avoid a Russian Sedan.

Besides his skill in rear guard action, they base their hopes on the physical condition of the Japanese soldiers, who, though they are conceded to be the greatest marchers in the world, are wellnigh exhausted by their strenuous endeavors for the last fortnight.

First Report Japanese.

Only to the initiated is the news of the reverse positively known at this time. Last evening a newspaper contained a vague report of doubtful origin, credited to Chinese sources, but the first positive statement was derived from the Associated Press dispatch from Gen. Kuroki's headquarters, the contents of which were quickly telegraphed to many liberals from friends abroad. The report probably will not be printed in this morning's papers, the government, true to its policy of breaking the news gently, only preparing the way by authoriizng the publication of a few premonitory telegrams. The news, however, is only what was expected, ultimate retirement having been discounted from the moment Oyama inaugurated his brilliant move westward.

From informattion in the possession of the Associated Press, it is known that Gen. Kuropatkin contemplated retirement before the beginning of the battle, and that he had hoped to accomplish it without serious combat. The Japanese, however, forced him to accept battle. The double turning movement compelled him to send the major part of his reserves to the fighting line and rendered an effective counter stroke out of the question, and the decision to retire was immediately taken on March 6. Withdrawal was actually begun during the night.

The great question now, and the one over which the general staff burned its lights far into the night, is whether Field Marshal Oyama has entangled the Russians in his strategic net sufficiently to prevent a successful retreat to Tie pass.

Kuropatkin to Fall.

After this action Gen. Kuropatkin's deposition may be regarded as certain. War Minister Sakharoff is picked as his probable successor, though Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch, of the board of strategy, may be intrusted with the direction of affairs.

CHADWICK TRIAL BEGINS.

Famous Woman "financier" Is Arraigned at Cleverand.

Cleveland, March 6.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, the famous woman "financier," was arraigned for trial this morning before Judge R. W. Tayler, of the United States district court on the charge of violating the national banking laws and entering into a conspiracy with President Beckwith and Cashier Spear, of the Citizen's National Bank of Oberlin, whereby she obtained money on worthless checks.

There are sixteen counts in the indictment, involving eight checks amounting to $65,000. The transaction occurred last October. There are seven federal indictments against Mrs. Chadwick.

Andrew Carnegie's name is connected with the operations of Mrs. Chadwick and he is now in Cleveland for the purpose of testifying the case.

FOR DESTROYING RECORDS.

Another Indictment Found Against Congressman Binger Hermann.

Washington, March 6.—Binger Hermann, member of congress from Oregon and former commissioner of the general land office, has been indicted by the federal grandjury on the charge of destroying public records. The indictment was found on the testimony of certain general land office employes and of the sescretary of the interior.

The substance of the charge is that Mr. Hermann, just previous to his resignation as commissioner of the general land office in February, 1903, destroyed thirty-five letter press copy books containing copies of official communications written by him as commissioner of the general land office and relating to the business of that bureau.

Mr. Hermann's attorney appeared in court immediately after the indictment had been found and on behalf of his client waived the exemption due a member of congress and asked that bail be fixed. This was done, the amount being placed at $2,500.

RAILROAD SOLD.

Columbia River & Northern Changes Owners.

Portland, Or., March 6.—The Oregonian says:

The Columbia River & Northern railway has been sold for approximately $1,000,000, ostensibly to Eastern capitalists, though in reality, it is thought, to the Northern Pacific, and in a few days the formal transfer of the stock will be made.

The road runs from Lyle, on the northern bank of the Columbia, to Goldendale, a distance of 46 miles. The company also owns the Regulator ilne of steamers, consisting of four vessels.

The Columbia River & Northern is headed toward the northwest through the Yakima country to a junction with the present line of the Northern Pacific. It would furnish a link and a district of rich revenue, which it is thought the Northern Pacific has not overlooked and of which it will take advantage in the near future.

NEW PRIMARY LAW.

House Passes Bill and Senate Will Consider It.

Olympia, March 7.—Representative Strobridge's direct primary election bill passed the house last night in the face of fierce opposition offered by Kellogg, of Stevens, and Lambert, of Whatcom. The vote was 52 for and 29 against, only four votes more than the measure needed. Several of the thirteen not voting left before the measure came up on special order, for the avowed purpose of dodging the vote.

The senate now has a similar measure on its calendar.

WRECKED ON SCHOOL QUESTION.

Laurier Government Said to Be Tottering to Its Fall.

Montreal, March 13.—The Laurier government is tottering to its fall over the Northwest separate school question. Only a surrender by the premier of the position he has taken can save the administration from complete overthrow.

A tide of protests flowing into Ottawa from all quarters of Canada, outside of the province of Quebec, is swelling with each succeeding day, and has already reached such volume that a majority of Laurier 's ministerial colleagues are on the point of giving up their portfolios.

Hon. W. S. Fielding, minister of finance, and Sir William Mulock, postmaster general, it is said, has already resigned, but the premier defers action on them. Hon. Clifford Sifton, minister of the interior, is already out, and every member from the West supports him in the stand he has taken Only a complete retreat on the part of Laurier will satisfy the men from Manitoba and the two provinces, Alberta and Saskatchewan, which are about to be admitted into the confederation.

Sydney Fisher, minister of agriculture, is silent, but is evidently only waiting for the next step of Fielding and Mulock. The only ministers who remain loyal to the premier are Charles Fitzpatrick, minister of justice, and R. W. Scott, secretary of state, both of whom are Roman Catholics. They and the premier drafted the objectionable educational clause in the autonomy bills.

It is stated here on the best authority that Laurier will hand in his resignation to the governor general as the most expedient way out of the dilemma, but will wait until the bills come up on second reading in a week or ten days.

Every Protestant religious body in Canada has met and adopted resolutions against the premier's policy.

Party lines are obliterated by the agitation, and the whole country is stirred as it has not been in many years.

Vetoed by Gov. Mead.

Olympia, March 14—Gov. Mead has vetoed house bill No. 41, the J. B. Lindsley bill providing for the payment of loal improvement assessments in delinqueny tax forelosures. He believes cities should do their own tax collecting.

May Still Fight in California.

NO REST FOR THE RUSSIANS

Oyama Makes Them Move ON From Tie Pass, Which the Japanese Have Occupied.

Tokyo, March 16.—The Japanese occupied Tie pass Wednesday midnight.

London, March 16.—The Post's Shanghai correspondent cables a report that the Japanese already occupy Tieling, the aggressiveness of the Japanese being too much for the battle-worn Russians, who were unable to make the stand that was expected of them there.

Many of the defeated Russians are trying to escape to Kiri. The Japanese since the retreat from Mukden was begun, have been using the guns that brought about the fall of Port Arthur, and the artillery fire has caused enormous losses to the Russians.

St. Petersburg, March 16.—Flanking tactics by the Japanese apparently are in progress again, the Associated Press correspondent who remains at Tie pass telegraphing that Gen. Mistchenke on March 14 engaged a Japanese force on the Russian right. It is possible the Japanese force was a Japanese column which disappeared from observation during the battle of Mukden.

The Associated Press correspondent, though saying nothing regarding the commissariat arrangements for the troops, declared that the newspaper correspondents have practically been starved out of Tie pass. This may be an indication of the amount of the food available for the army, immense quantities of which were destroyed at Mukden, where practically the entire reserve commissariat had been accumulated.

According to the Chinese reports the governor of Mukden gave a banquet in honor of the Japanese generals after the triumphal entry into the city, and a Russian journalist wires that with the occupation of Mukden by the Japanese, Russia's prestige with the Chinese has been utterly destroyed.

Tokyo, March 11.—Field Marshal Oyama telegraphs as follows under date of yesterday:

"We occupied Mukden at 10 o'clock this morning.

"Our surrounding movement, in which we have been engaged for some days past, has now completely succeeded.

"The fiercest fighting continues in several places in the vicinity of Mukden.

"We captured a great number of prisoners, enormous quantities of arms, ammunition, provisions and other war supplies. There is at present no time to investigate the number of these.

"Fushun was occupied by the Japanese last night.

"The fighting continues on the heights north of Fushun."

Washington, March 11.—The state department has received through official sources confirmation of the occupation of Mukden by the Japanese.

Paris, March 11.—The Russian embassy officials explain Gen. Kuropatkin's retreat as being part of a settled plan. They say the real struggle will occur at Harbin, where the Russians will concentrate large reinforcements.

Paris, March 11.—The Japanese occupation of Mukden is generally considered here as definitely showing that the Japanese have won a victory and that Gen. Kuropatkin's reverse may soon reach the magnitude of a disaster. The French military critics say the Japanese capture of Tieta practically cuts off Kuropatkin from retreating northward. They also attach much importance to the capture of Mukden, the capital of Manchuria.

OYAMA REPORTS HIS SPOILS AND LOSSES.

Tokyo, March 13.—The following report has been received from Field Marshal Oyama:

The number of prisoners, spoils and the enemy's estimated casualties against all our forces in the direction of the Shahke follow, but the number of prisoners, guns and spoils are increasing momentarily.

"Prisoners, over 40,000, including Gen. Nakhimoff.

Killed or wounded, estimated at 90,000.

Enemy dead, left on field, 26,500.

Flags, two, Guns, about sixty.

Rifles, 60,000.

Ammunition wagons, 159.

Shells, 200,000.

Small arms ammunition, 25,000,000 rounds.

Cereals, 15,000 koku (about 75,000 bushels)

Fodder, 55,000 koku.

Light railway outfit, 45 miles.

Horses, 2,000.

Maps, 23 cartloads.

Clothing and accoutrements, 1,000 cartloads.

Bread, 1,000,000 rations.

Fuel, 70,000 tons.

Hay, sixty tons, besides tools, tents, bullocks, telegraph wire and poles, timber, beds, stoves and numerous other property.

No reports have been received from our forces in the direction of Singking.

Think It Is the End.

London, March 16.—No further news has been received of the fighting on the Fan river, and little importance is attached to this isolated repulse of the Japanese. The London papers continue in the belief that to all intents and purposes the campaign is closed; that it will be next to impossible for Russia to put a new army into the field, and that the talk of doing so is mere bluff, intended to influence the inevitable negotiation of peace terms.

LAST OF KUROPATKIN.

Russian Commander Asks to Be Relieved.

St. Petersburg, Marh 13.—Gen. Kuropatkin has telegraphed to Emperor Nicholas, assuming himself al lthe responsibility for his defeat, making no excuses except that the strength of the Japanese was miscalculated, and refusing to place any of the blame upon the council of generals, upon whose advice he determined to give battle. This manly course and the general's personal exertions in directing the retreat will, however, hardly save him. His reputation as an offensive strategist is gone, and though the czar's military advisers know not where to look for a better general, his resignation will be accepted.

HEARINGS ON RAILWAY RATES

Senate Committee to Begin Investigation on April 16.

Washington, March 15.—Chairman Elkins, of the senate committee on interstate commerce, announces that the committee will begin hearings on the subject of railway rates on Monday, April 17.

It is the intention of the committee to first take up the constitutional questions regarding the right of congress to delegate power to fix rates, and the effect of equalizations and differentials practiced by railroads under present conditions.

It is expected that attention will be particularly directed to the Esch-Townsend bill which passed the house at the last session, as well as to some other measures which have been introduced in the senate. It is also the intention of the committee to conduct the hearings with all possible expedition.

TO SUCCEED JARVIS.

President Appoints Clarence L. Hobart Collector for Alaska.

Washington, March 16.—The president has sent to the senate the nomination of Clarence L. Hobart to be collector of customs for the district of Alaska, to succeed Capt. Jarvis, resigned.

The appointment was first credited to the state ofW ashington, but on objection of Senators Ankeny and Piles, neither of whom had recommended Mr. Hobart, it was changed and accredited to Alaska. Mr. Hobart has been deputy collector under Capt. Jarvis.

TOGO OFF SINGAPORE.

Fleet of Japanese Warships and Cruisers Sighted.

London, March 16.—A dispatch from Singapore to the Daily Express, dated Marcn 15, says:

The Japanese fleet departed this afternoon.

A dispatch to Lloyds, dated Singapore, Wednesday, 6 p. m., says the British steamer Hongwan I reports having passed 22 Japanese warships off Horsburgh, twenty miles east of Singapore, at the entrance of the Straits of Malacca. The Japanese cruisers Kasagi and Chitose and the auxiliary cruisers Yawata and America are among the fleet.

The appearance of Vice Admiral Togo's fleet in the track that would be used in any attempt by Vice Admiral Rojestvensky to make for Vladivostok is one of the most interesting events of the day. It is not known whether Vice Admiral Togo himself is with the fleet. According to the Daily Mail's correspondent at Singapore, who visited the fleet before its departure, the officers were unusually reticent. Two Japanese officers landed and conferred with the Japanese consul.

The presumption is that Rojestvensky's squadron is still off the coast of Madagascar, but as the ice in the harbor of Vladivostok is probably beginning to give way the Russian admiral must soon make a decision whether to dash for Vladivostok or return to Russia.

Naval experts here believe that Togo will not come much further in quest of the Baltic squadron, on the ground that he cannot afford to run unnecessary risks.

CANNON EXCOMMUNICATED.

Mormon Hierarchy Refuses to Allow Him to Prove Charges.

Salt Lake, Utah, March 15.—The controversy of former United States Senator Frank J. Cannon, editor of the Salt Lake Tribune, with the authorities of the Mormon church, an incident of which was the withdrawal of fellowship from Mr. Cannon by the bishop's court at Ogden, has resulted in a formal order from the high council of tne Weber stake of Zion in Utah, sitting in Ogden, excommunicating Mr. Cannon from the church. The action was based on editorials written by Editor Cannon assailing the policy of the high authorities of the church.

Mr. Cannon, protesting against the jurisdiction of the tribunal which tried him under charges of apostacy and disloyalty to the church, admitted the authorship of the editorials complained of, and insisted that he should be permitted to prove the assertions he had made. This point the ecclesiastical court refused to concede and the orders of disfellowship and excommunication followed.

Coincident with the excommunication of Editor Canon was the filing of charges against Charles A. Smurthwaite, a merchant of Ogden and a Mormon of influence, summoning him before the bishop's court to answer for alleged rebellious utterances against the authorities of the church, and particularly against Preseident Joseph F. Smith.

Mr. Smurthwaite, basing his action upon the Cannon case, has addressed to his bishop an appeal for free speech, demanding also that the church retire from political domination of the state and from commercialism, demanding an accounting at the next general conference in April for all the church moneys, demanding an accounting of the property of President Smith, since he became president, and demanding also that members of the church obey the laws of the land.

PROBABLY ACCIDENTAL.

Latest Theory as to Cause of Death of Mrs. Stanford.

Honolulu, March 13.—The theory has been suggested here that Mrs. Stanford's death was accidental. An overdose of strychnine might, it is pointed out, have been taken intentionally as a tonic. The slight amount of strychnine inidcated in the bicarbonate of soda has suggested this theory. A local chemist has estimated that the strychnine in half a teaspoonful of the bicarbonate of soda was less than one-hundredth of a grain, judging by the analysis of the rest of the bottle. The contents of the capsules which were prescribed for Miss Berner probably contain more strychnine than wou d be safe for a person of Mrs. Stanford's years. The chemist above referred to says that if Mrs. Stanford took two of these capsules for their tonic effect a fatal result cwas not impossible.

REBELLIOUS PEASANTS.

They Plunder Estates of Czar and Grand Dukes.

Berlin, March 15.—A Moscow dispatch states that rebellious peasants have plundered the estates of the czar, Grand Dukes Vladimir, Nicholas and Alexander in the provinces of Oral and Tobernigov. They burned the czar's country residence in the vicinity of Niejen. The aggregate amount of damage done is estimated at a million dollars.

New Hotel at Olympia.

Olympia, March 14.—The McKenny block, a four story brick structure, the largest in the city, has been sold to W. H. Kneeland of Shelton and associates. It is the intention of the purchasers to convert the building into a big fireproof hotel, ample to accommodate the legislative crowd and affording large lobby room. The big rooms on the ground floor now occupied by stores will be used for offices and lobbies, and the three upper stories will be remodeled with a view of adapting them for hotel purposes.

MUST MAKE CHOICE

COLORADO SUPREME COURT GIVES ITS OPINION.

Legislature Must Decide Contest as Between Peabody and Adams. Has No Aethority to Throw Them Both Out and Seat Lieutenant Governor.

Denver, March 14.—The Colorado supreme court at a late hour yesterday afternoon ruled that the joint convention of the legislature cannot adopt the report of Senator Alexander, of the gubernatorial contest committee, declaring that neither Gov. Alva Adams nor former Gov. Peabody was elected governor at the November election.

It is the decisiosn of the supreme court that the assembly must decide the contest between the contestor and contestee, and cannot consider seating Lieut. Gov. McDonald as governor.

Was Majority Report.

The opinion was a majority report, Justice Robert W. Steele holding that the assembly should itself rule upon the motion to adopt the Alexander report.

Nineteen of the twenty-two Republican members of the legislature who favored seating Lieut. Gov. McDonald as governor, and thus disposing of the contest over the seat between Alva Adams and James H. Peabody, met in caucus last night and renewed their pledge to stand together in voting on the reports from the contest committee

Several of those present spoke for the sincerity of the three absent members, who, they asserted, were unavoidably detained elsewhere. From unimpeachable sources it is learned that the twenty-two members referred to signed an agreement which, in effect, was to work for the seating of McDonald, and to prevent, if possible, the seating of Peabody.

Will Vote as Unit.

The persons who are authority for the above statement also say that these so-called anti-Peabody Republicans will vote as a unit against every report from the contest committee, which, if done, will not only defeat Peabody, but will allow Adams to retain the governorship he now holds.

After voting down the reports a motion to adjourn the joint assembly sine die, it is said, will be made and supported by the McDonald men and the Democrats. This will perhaps end the contest. However, the Peabody men smile when the plan above is unfolded to them, and confidently declare that the agreement will be broken at the critical moment and enough and more McDonald men will swing round to seat their man. They had thirty-nine in caucus last night, with two others absent but accounted for, and resolved to use every endeavor to force the issue and test the McDonald men.

It is probable that the whole matter will be disposed of in the next forty-eight hours.

SPECIAL AGENTS OUT.

Department Admits Inquiry Into Washington Land Frauds.

Washington, March 13.—"Well, we are not asleep," said Secretary Hitchcock. His remark was in reply to a question as to extending the land fraud investigation into certain parts of the state of Washington. Heretofore the principal part of the investigation has been in Oregon, and the secretary gave out the statement of arrests, indictments and convictions which the government has obtained.

It has recently become known that the inquiry was being extended to Washington, but no information was obtainable as to the details of the investigation, or as to the facts or allegations which started it.

Secretary Hitchcock and other officials of the interior department have now admitted that an extensive inquiry is being made as to the timber land transactions in Washington, but it is said the matter has not proceeded far enough to justify them in making any statement about the investigation, which is in its early stages, and there is no assurance as yet that the developments will be anywhere near as sensational as those in Oregon.

Special agents have been sent out and abstracts of titles from the patentee to the present owners are being obtained in the case of many timber lands in Chehalis, Cowlitz, Clallam and Jefferson counties.

READY FOR PEACE

JAPAN WILLING TO NAME HER TERMS.

But She Must in Advance Receive Trustworthy Assurance That They Will Receive Serious Consideration—Previous Experience Makes Her Cautious.

St. Petersburg, March 14.—Emperor Nicholas has summoned a war council for today, at which the whole situation will be considered.

Washington, March 14.—When the czar convenes his war council this afternoon he will be able to inform the members that Japan will welcome peace on reasonable terms and will promptly name her conditions providing she receives trustworthy assurance that they will be seriously considered.

Japan's Terms.

This the emperor has learned from friendly chancellories in Europe, as well as the general terms acceptable to Japan. These, it is said, include the retention by Japan of Port Arthur, a Japanese protectorate over Korea, and an indemnity.

From a high official the Associated Press hears that Russia has recalled her second Pacific squadron.

An attache of a Russian embassy in Europe is quoted, expressing the belief theat Kuropatkin's recent defeat will force Russia to ask for peace.

Briefly these were the reports current in the diplomatic corps yesterday, and as a result of this important information official Washington believes that Russia and Japan are on the verge of peace. If it be true that the second Pacific squadron has been recalled, even the most optimistic of Russia's friends admit that this is a strong indication that Oyama's mighty blow has made for peace.

Cassini Skeptical.

Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, is the most notable exception in the group of foreign envoys here.

"However generous the terms which Japan might offer," the ambassador said last night, "Russia's prestige is not among them. That is the one thing for which the war will be fought to the end. Victory for the Russian arms will alone make for peace. If not Tie pass, then at Harbin, Russia will assemble another army mightier than before, and with that army she will settle the issue. It may be six months, a year, or perhaps two years. Time will be no consideration."

At the Japanese legation it is declared that St. Petersburg and not Tokyo is the capital from which the world must hope for peace proposals. Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister, said in the most emphatic manner that Japan had not directly proposed peace. He did not deny that neutral powers, through their envoys, from time to time had sounded Japan as to terms on which she would accept peace, but these, he said, necessarily changed with the progress of hostilities, the intimation being that Russia could have obtained better terms after the fall of Port Arthur than after the capture of Mukden.

Japan to Be Cautious.

If the Japanese government were assured that peace proposals would be considered by Russia there is authority for the statement that Japan would respond immediately. But she will insist that these assurances shall be of the most positive character. Japan's experience in the negotiations preceding the war, it is said, will make her exceedingly cautious in the future. She will insist that such assurances shall come from the Russian government and not from this or that party or this or that friend of the emperor.

Officials here think by this time St. Petersburg has fully comprehended the extent of Oyama's victory, and that after the war council will make known its decision regarding the continuance of the war.

ROAD LAW SUSTAINED.

Supreme Court Holds None of Contentions Against It Are Valid.

Olympia, March 13.—The constitutionality of the road law passed by the 1903 legislature has been upheld by the state supreme court in a test case from Adams county. The statute was attacked as a delegation of legislative authority; for creating an office and providing for appointment instead of election; for granting special privileges and being in conflict with section 12, article 1, of the state constitution. None of the contentions are found to be of merit.

WHITSON FOR JUDGE.

President Names Yakima Man for Eastern District.

Washington, March 13.—The president has sent to the senate the nomination of Edward Whitson to be judge of the new Easetrn Washington judicial district. There will be no opposition to confirmation.

Jarvis, collector of customs for the district of Alaska, is to be general manager of the properties formerly owned by the Pacific Packing and Navigation company and recently combined under the name of the Northwestern Pacific Fisheries Company. Capt. Jarvis is now on his way from Washington to this city, and on arrival here will assume his new duties.

"Well, suh, it ain't taxin' mah physical powahs beyond de limits of enduhrance to keep up wif it, no suh," replied the bootblack, officiously shaking down the stove grate and shoveling in more coal. "Same tahm, Ah en't complainin'."

EDISON'S FIRST CHECK.

The "Wizard" Hardly Knew How to Cash a Check for $40,000.

Thomas A. Edison not long ago told a friend the story of his first acquaintance with any big sum of money. It was when he was struggling with his earlier inventions, and he had about as clear an idea of the value of a bank check as the man in the moon. He had finally sold his patent on the gold and stock indicator to the Western Union Telegraph Company and had called at its office to close the deal. After a few preliminaries he was given a check for forty thousand dollars. He eyed it curiously and appeared to be puzzled what to do with it. Observing his perplexity, General Lefferts, then president of the Western Union, told him that, if he would go to the Bank of America in Wall street he would get the cash on his check.

"So I started," said Edison, "after carefully folding up the check, and went toward Wall street. So uncertain was I in regard to that way of doing business that I thought, while on the way, that, if any man should come up to me and offer me two crisp thousand-dollar bills for that piece of paper, I would give him the check very quickly."

On his arrival at the Bank of America, he half-tremblingly shoved his check out to the cashier. The latter scrutinized it closely, gave him a piercing glance, and said something which Edison, being hard of hearing, failed to understand. That was enough. He was fully convinced that his check was not worth forty thousand dollars, and again thought, as he rushed out of the bank, that any man who would give him two thousand dollars for it could have it. He hurried back to the office of the Western Union and said he could not get any money. A clerk was sent to the bank with him to identify him.

"This man," said the clerk, "is Mr. Thomas A. Edison, to whose order the check is drawn."

"Why, certainly, Mr. Edison," said the cashier; "how would you like your money—in what shape?"

"Oh, any way to suit the bank; it doesn't make any difference to me so long as I get the money."

Edison was given forty thousand dollars in large bills. After dividing the roll into two wads of twenty thousand dollars each, he stuffed one into each trousers' pocket, and made all speed out of Wall street. The next day he began work on his first laboratory in New York."—Success.

Problem of Courtship.

When does courtship begin? At the moment when a man first meets his affinity? At the time when he realizes that "the only girl in the world" is his affinity? Or at the time when he determines to let her guess his views on the subject?

This delicate question was raised in the English Probate and Divorce Court. The president, Sir Francis Jeune, was compelled to admit that the solution was beyond him.

The point was raised in this way: A young man named George Whitehead was asking the court to declare that the Scotch marriage between his parents was valid.

His mother, Mrs. Whitehead, was called as a witness in support of his case, and gave evidence about her courtship, which began, she said, in the gardens that flank Princes street in Edinburgh.

"How long had your husband been courting you when he proposed to you?" asked counsel.

Mrs. Whitehead hesitated, finding the query hard to answer, and the president came to her rescue.

"Can anyone say that?" he remarked. "I doubt if a man knows himself when he first begins to court a girl."—Chicago Tribune.

He Found It.

"I meant to have told you of that hole," said the kindly host to his friend, who had suddenly disappeared, in the course of a stroll through the grounds, into a pit full of water. The friend climbed out and shook himself. "It doesn't matter," he said cheerily, "I found it."—London Globe.

SOCIAL, CLUB & LODGE NOTES

WHIST AND SURPRISE PARTIES, ENTERTAINMENTS AND SOCIALS

Dr. and Mrs. McGillivray Entertain at Whist.

On Wednesday evening Dr. and Mrs. D. E. McGillivray gave the first of a series of card parties in honor of Mrs. T. S. Brophy and Mrs. McDougal.

Twelve tables were artistically placed throughout the parlor, dining room and library, which were decorated in green and lavender, in honor of the patron saint of Ireland.

Not the least interesting part of the evening's entertainment, was the search for partners. The tables were not numbered as is usually done, but each score card was accompanied by a portion of a picture, by means of which not only one's partner but the whole four who were to play together were to be found. The favors and score cards were tied together with green and lavender ribbons, thereby corresponding with the dainty little invitations on sellsen ribbons enclosed in a walnut shell which had been sent to each guest.

The same color scheme was carried out in the refreshments, which were most delicious and were served in a manner reflecting great credit upon the executive ability of the hostess.

The first ladies' prize was a handsome hand mirror set in a green frame and was won by Mrs. Bayton. The first gentleman's prize a gold stick pin with a shamrock set with a pearl for the head, was won by John Trumbull.

The guests present: Messrs. and Mesdames H. E. Lutz, E. E. Fisher, Farmer, H.Maurice Fisher, Craig, Ovington, A. A. Smith, Mathewson, Day, C. E. Cushing, W. Moore, T. T. Aldwell, John Trumbull, Jensen, J. Gutenberg, Hamilton, Lauridsen, FitzHenry, Judge and Mrs. McClinton, Dr. and Mrs. Hartt, Mesdames Wm. Church, Thos. Bayton, W. Reed, Foster, Miss Bayton, Mr. J. Lloyd Aldwell, Mr. Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Brophy and Mrs. McDougal.

The guests bade good night, or rather good morning, to the genial Doctor and his charming wife at 2:00 a. m. Thursday, and wended their way homeward, feeling that they had spent a most delightful evening.

Dr. and Mrs. McGillivray will entertain a large number of guests again on next Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. McDougall. The invitations sent out are very dainty, as well as well as unique, consisting of heart shaped pieces of chamois with the wording burned on and dainty bows of ribbon tied on each.

Celebrated 39th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ambey McClinton came down from Seattle Tuesday morning to spend the day with Judge and Mrs. J. G. McClinton, that being the thirty-ninth anniversary of their wedding day. Roy McClinton had preceded them, arriving on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Willson entertained the united family at a six o'clock family dinner, and while the Judge and his bride no doubt greatly missed and longed for their absent children, we dare say this proved one of the most pleasant March fourteenths they have ever spent.

The boys and Mrs. Ambey returned to Seattle Wednesday.

Happily Surprised Mrs. Geist

Wednesday evening last the Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist Church surprised Mrs. E. E. Geist, at her home on Eighth street, and thronged her rooms with people who were all intent on wishing her God speed on her departure for her eastern home, and a speedy and safe return. The Society presented to Mrs. Geist a fine copper-nickle tea kettle as a mark of its high regard for her and in appreciation of her unselfish and helpful worth.

Mrs. Geist, with her husband, W. C., and children leave tomorrow for Cleveland to pack and bring their household goods to Angeles.

Boys and Girls Brigade

The boys and girls of the Baptist Sunday School have been drilling under Mr. C. E. Engesser in the "setting up" drill and marching exercises, and have attained some proficiency. The study of the Sunday School lesson for the next Sunday is a part of the work and it has given excellent results. Basket ball teams will be organized among the boys and girls for competitive games through the summer. The drill in military evolutions will soon be taken up.

The Saturday Club

Mrs. W. F. Delabarre was hostess for the Saturday Readinp Club last week and the afternoon was spent in the study of Japan. The ladies also decided to hold a social evening sometime in the near future.

Breakfast without a good cup of Coffee is like home without a mother. Moral — Buy "Gold Shield" Coffee of Seevers.

lady friends with whist at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. W. Hartt. There were twenty-four ladies present.

The score cards were really works of art, each one being decorated with a beautiful little picture done in water colors — designed and painted by Mrs. Dr. Hartt.

The highest score was made by Mrs. William Church, who thereby won a Haviland China spoon tray.

The ladies invited were: Mesdames Craig, Brophy, Ovington, Delabarre, Metcalf, H. E. Lutz, John Trumbull, Jensen, Farmer, Morris Fisher, Day, Ritchie, McDougal, McGillivray, Hatch, Hamilton, Gutenberg, Church, Reed, A. A. Smith, Moore, Wm. Smith, Wiggins, Foster, T. T. Aldwell, Miller, Hartt, Cosser, and Miss Jensen.

At the close of a very interesting game the ladies sat down to a most delightful and well served repast, to which ample justice was done, the ladies all feeling that whether or not the hostess held trumps at the card table, when it came to serving the luncheon, she not only represented the highest kind of trumps but the best possible suit as well.

The Baptist Entertainment

The concert and lecture given at the Baptist church Friday drew a crowded house, even the aisles being filled with chairs. The audience opened the evening's program with that old sweet song, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," this being followed with an organ solo by Miss Mitchell, which was much enjoyed.

Mesdames Silverwood and Engesser charmingly sang, "What Are the Wild Waves Saying;" Mrs. Trumbull recited "Christmas Gale" and responded to an encore with an original piece; Mrs. Cushing sang "Swanee River" and responded to an encore by the delighted audience with "Nancy Lee."

After singing of "America" by the audience, Rev. W. H. Whelan delivered his lecture, "A Trip to China," describing a voyage made in 1881 on steamship City of Tokio. It proved very entertaining thruout, as well as being instructive, and the audience were loth to have him bring it to a close.

New England Supper

The New England Supper given by the ladies of the Episcopal Guild at the Delabarre home was a grand success, both socially and financially. The tables were daintily set and decorated with flowers and the supper was all that could be desired by the most fastidious. The ladies are certainly to be congratulated and their friends hope to see them giving another good supper very soon. Twenty dollars was the receipts of the evening's entertainment, which will be added to the church fund.

Woman's Literary Club

The Woman's Literary Club met with Mrs. Mollie Phelps on Friday last. It was mostly a business meeting, as the ladies are planning to give another entertainment for the benefit of the "bridge fund," but they were entertained with some fine music by Mrs. McGill, Mrs. Campbell and Miss Phelps.

Hard Times Social

The Grand Army boys and Women's Relief Corps will hold forth with a hard times social, at which refreshments will be served, at Masonic Hall on Friday, 31st. Admission ten cents.

were in play. Mr. Payne and Mr. Chenery were elected members of the club. The score was: Trumbull & Cooke vs. Chenery & Moore, 113 to 105; Ovington & Payne vs. Appleton & Sawyer, 109 to 101; Brophy & Aldwell vs. Lewis & Mathewson, 106 to 102. Next week the club will meet with Dr. Lewis.

Mrs. Jas. G. McClinton and Mrs. A. J. Cosser will be at home to a large party of their lady friends at the former's residence on Tuesday, the 21st.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. Raymond next Wednesday and serve the usual ten cent tea.

The Parliamentary Club met with Mrs. Hopkins last Saturday on account of the illness in Mrs. Hansen's family.

Rev. C. E. Fulmer has just finished the first of a number of bromide enlargements he is making for members of Pacific Post, G. A. R. The work is really a splendid specimen of the photographer's art, and has involved no small amount of work. It was first necessary to make cabinet photos of each of the forty-three members included in the large picture, and, if we except two reproductions, one from an old picture and one from a crayon, every picture is perfect. Mr. Fulmer states that in practically all cases, but one sitting was necessary to get a satisfactory likeness.

Mr. Cook "Called Home."

Word was received Tuesday, by mail, Mr. Delabarre not wishing it to be wired at the time, of the death, at Conway, Mass., of the aged father of Mrs. Delabarre and Miss Helen Cook. Mr. Cook had not been well, but was improving and no thought of his dying was entertained. Mr. Delabarre was at the old home, and there are several other children there to comfort their mother, who it is hoped will come to Port Angeles later in the summer for a long visit.

Happily Married

The studio of Rev. C. E. Fulmer was the scene of a very pretty wedding ceremony last Tuesday, the contracting parties being Miss Annie Carter and Mr. Jacob S. Sweet, of Seguim, Rev. Fulmer officiating. The happy pair are very popular in the east end of the county and their many friends join the Olympic in best wishes and prosperity to the couple so auspiciously launched on the sea of matrimony.

King's Daughters

A chapter of King's Daughters was organized among the girls of the Baptist Church on Thursday evening last by C. E. Engesser, who will direct them in their studies. The officers are: President, Maud Secor; Vice-Pres., Mindie Linn; Sec. and Treas., Tessie Menary.

Pastor Attends Dedication

Rev. C. E. Fulmer will preach at M. E. church next Sunday morning. The pastor, Rev. H. Williston, is in Tacoma attending the dedication of St. Paul M. E. church, of which he was pastor for five years.

A CLOSE CALL

...nie McNamara Joined in Holy Wedlock.

Mr. J. E. Beam and Miss R. Adeline McNamara were quietly married at the Episcopal church last Sunday evening, March 12, by the pastor, Rev. Cheal.

The only witnesses to the pretty and impressive ceremony were Mrs. Turkington, Mrs. Ed. B. Webster and Mr. Beam's youngest daughter Miss Alice. After the church services the wedding party adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Webster, where Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Trumbull were in waiting with a dainty luncheon in readiness as a little surprise for the bride and groom and all set down to eat and drink their good health and happiness.

Mrs. Beam has been a resident of Port Angeles for the past four years, where she has been engaged most of the time in teaching in the public schools and is highly respected and esteemed by all who know her.

Mr. Beam is the efficient bookkeeper and salesman at the Filion mill, which position of trust he has held for a number of years and only words of praise for his exceptional stirling qualities and high ideals can be heard from any one. The Olympic extends to the happy couple congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy life.

Mrs. M. A. Mackay slipped on a wet board this week, receiving a severe strain in consequence; Rev. and Mrs. Baldridge are caring for her. Mrs. Lila Peterson, whom Mrs. McKay was taking care of, as nurse, is now at the new hospital in Mrs. Turkington's care.

Where is my wandering boy tonight? You will probably find him in the pantry hunting those good Sweet Pickles you bought of Seevers.

New Establishment.

As long as we are subject to disease and accident we must have doctors, and as long as we have doctors they must have appliances to work with, and the better the appliances the better results we will get.

In view of these facts the enterprise of Dr. T. J. Appleton and Mr. Geo. H. Turkington and wife in establishing a hospital here will commend itself to the community. These good people have taken over the Babcock cottage on the north side of First street near Chase, and are rapidly getting it in shape to take care of the afflicted in the most up-to-date manner.

All the latest appliances for hospital use are being installed and the comfort and convenience of the patients is to be the prime consideration. For the present the capacity of the hospital is limited to four private patients, but the plans now under consideration contemplate very material additions.

The patients will be under the care and supervision of Mrs. Turkington, who has a large experience in the care of the sick, being a graduate trained nurse.

The management and business affairs of the hospital will be in the care of Mr. Turkington, who has had a considerable experience along those lines.

As long as we cannot escape the clutches of the doctors, we certainly want the best they have, so success to the new enterprise.

Favorite Recipes Used By Port Angeles' Cooks

MRS. J. G. McCLINTON'S CHICKEN SALAD.

Put your chicken in a tightly covered vessel. Place this vessel in a kettle of boiling water and steam until tender. Remove all fat, skin, gristle and bones. Cut in small pieces but do not mince. Put in it twice and a half the weight in celery cut in small pieces. Set in a cool place to cool. Then skim off all the fat from the jelly the chicken was cooked in and add to the salad. Add salt, pepper and a dash (only) of cayenne. Prepare a Mayonnaise dressing and add just before serving. Garnish with celery tips or hard boiled eggs. Crisp cabbage is a good substitute for celery, when celery is not to be had; use celery salt or celery vinegar.

MRS. McCLINTON'S TOMATO SALAD

Peal and slice twelve good, sound, fresh tomatoes. Slice about a quarter of an inch thick and set in a cool place while you make the dressing, which should be either a "Mayonnaise" or a "Cream dressing." Serve on a lettuce leaf in individual dishes.
