PORT ANGELES AND COUNTY

Agriculture, Though at Present but Started, is Bound to Take the Lead.

To the farmer of the Middle West, accustomed to the handling of a large acreage of the richest black soil on earth, and being engaged in progressive diversified farming, dairying and stock raising, the statement made by Puget Sound people that twenty acres, or thereabouts, is amply sufficient for the needs of a family in this country is received with incredulity. He fails, because it is entirely outside his line of experience, to grasp the facts that agricultural products of all kinds bring far higher prices here than in the East, and that expenses in the way of caring for stock are far less than in a rigorous climate; he overlooks these points and is incredulous because he cannot conceive soil exists so rich that twenty acres would be equivalent to several times that number in a prairie land.

Out of any given acreage in the East, at least half must be reserved for pasturage, and for hay, grain and corn to carry his stock through the six or seven months of winter. Here, the small rancher fences his clearing to keep his cattle out; there, he fences his pastures to keep them in. Here, the young stock gets along very nicely with a little hay during two or three months of winter and comes out in perfect condition in the spring; there, stock must be well fed, not only as a matter of sustenance, but as a protection against the cold.

Here, hay land yields, with fair farming, three and four tons of clover to the acre, or two and a half tons of timothy, worth from $10 to $15 per ton. Corn is not grown; for corn requires boiling hot days and very warm nights or the crop is a failure. Oats run from twenty-five to forty bushels to the acre; wheat, used for poultry principally, from thirty-five to forty, and roots—stock beets, rutabagas, carrots and turnips — which furnish the cheap food for stock, from twenty-five to fifty tons per acre. Practical dairymen say the gross receipts per cow the year around will range from $6 to $9 per month. Cattle are not annoyed by flies in summer as in the East. Hog cholera is unknown.

Sheep do well, the average fleece, according to U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, weighng 8½ lbs., or 2½ lbs. more than the eastern fleece. Wool brings 20 to 25 cts. and mutton from 3 to 4 cts., with a practically unlimited market. Angora goats are also being introduced in large numbers throughout Western Washington.

Poultry is very profitable where one raises his own wheat for feed; the fowls run out the entire year and clover is always fresh and green. Eggs are never less than 15 cents and only that low for a few weeks in spring; the regular fall and winter price is 25 to 60 cents per dozen. Dressed chickens bring 15 cents and up per pound, ducks 15, turkeys from 20 to 30 cents, being quoted at 27 cents at the present time.

Bees store up an abundant supply of honey from clover and wild flowers which is worth wholesale from 8 to 15 cents, or from $5 to $6 per hive, the estimate for a hive being sixty pounds per year.

In potatoes, its poor farming that secures a yield of but 100 to 125 bushels per acre; the average result of thorough culture is from 300 to 400 bushels, and when grown as a first crop on cleared land they run as high as 700 bushels. The price varies from ½ to 2 cents per pound, or from 75 cents to $1.50 per sack, the average standard price being $1.

More Sound Steamer Gossip.

The Port Townsend Call says that the Victoria Times gives credit to a rumor that the new twin steamer Dolphin which has been on the Alaska run for several seasons, will be taken off and placed on the Seattle-Townsend-Victoria route. If this is done and the new steamer Indianapolis is placed on the Seattle-Townsend-Angeles route, and the Port Angeles and Olympic railroad opens their ferry service between Port Angeles and Victoria, everything will be lovely and the service most excellent, taken in conjunction with the other steamers plying between these points.

Read Something Good.

A distinct Christmas flavor found in Lippincott's Magazine for December adds to the general interest which is never lacking. This is a season of happiness and Lippincott's is happy too. Jolliness, humor, and pathos are there, but the deeper tragedies of life have no place in this issue.

The opening novelette, "Of the Lion's Breed," is by Grace McGowan Cooke in collaboration with Vond Reed; and it is good enough to indicate the quality of the seven shorter stories which follow. It is a picturesque romance of the coal fields, strongly dramatic, yet treated with the utmost simplicity.

"Josian Allen's Wife" calls her amusing contribution "The Last Straw." E. Aryton is the author of "Don Cupid" a sweet child sketch with grown-up interest. "Victory With Honor," an automobile racing story, abounds in humorous situations and lively dialogue. "A Studio Mouse," is a clever tale of artistic life among the "cliff dwellers." "How Condy Dhu Raised the Devil" makes a superlatively funny story. Ella Middleton Tybout's story, "A Moment of Confidence," shows two very real human pictures of the fireside. Marion Harland describes the Christmas ceremonies in the church of Bethlehem of Judea in a very interesting way.

"Walnuts and Wine" have caught the prevailing happiness and reflect its spirit in joke and verselet.

THE HOLIDAY SEASON.

The ever recurring holiday season is the salt of human existence to the great majority of mankind. The sweating, grinding and groaning under the weary every day life and its trying problems wear out the normal supply of good nature, and just as the average man comes to the point of giving up to discouragement, the crisis of suffering is passed and we have all the heart beauties of the holiday season.

In Port Angeles we are especially blessed with a cosmopolitan order of holiday cheer. From the frozen Northland, the uttermost American possessions, east and west of the continental divide, and coming from all United States and Canadian centers, we have representatives of all lands where Christianity is known, and where men and women believe in God and look to Him for help. Though poverty presses hard upon some of our people, and though others have not all the blessings of life, yet the great heart of all our people is warm with sympathy for neighbors, and the Thanksgiving of them has a real foundation in a lively sense of gratitude for blessings received.

The darkest hour is before the dawn, and so we are now at the nadir of our dark days, and the wheel of time is constantly turning our eyes toward the prosperous zenith of our near future. It is in the air, and the people are preparing to meet the good times half way and welcome the men and measures which bring them. At least, our local possibilities are counted as good investments and capital is coming our way, by natural gravitation, and by reason of certain success for investments. Before the new year shall have passed, the "hoot" of whistle and clanging of locomotive bells will wake the air all about us, and the tramp of scores of workingmen on their way to and from daily labor will repay in gladness the hearts that have been constant and loyal to Port Angeles so long. Opportunity is coming; let us be up and ready to meet and use its blessings, and in the busy arrangements for what is morally certain to be, forget the past depressing days and so enter into the blessed holiday season with joy and thanksgiving, both for what we have, and for what we are sure to reap in the near future.

Thanksgiving Services.

A good audience gathered at the Congregational Church Thursday morning to attend Union Thanksgiving services conducted by the pastors of the Congregational, Baptist and Methodist churches. The platform of the church was tastily decorated with chrysanthemums—the Thanksgiving flower—and sword ferns; the organ, speaker's desk and S. S. library cabinet being banked with the long, stately ferns, while vases with yellow, white and red chrysanthemums were grouped about the platform. The special music was by the choir of the Congregational church. It was grand, inspiring, and suited to the occasion. Rev. Whelan of the Baptist Church read President Roosevelt's Thanksgiving proclamation with much emphasis and fervor. Rev. Graham of the Methodist Church preached a thoughtful, elevating and entertaining sermon, taking as his text the One Hundredth Psalm, and pointing out many of the Christian, social, political, and God-given blessings which are distinctly ours and for which we as a people and a nation should be duly thankful.

On last Monday and Tuesday, when the Olympic peninsula was having a mild touch of old winter, the thremometer registering four below the freezing point here at Port Angeles, a cold wave accompanied by a gale and heavy fall of snow extended over the middle west, reaching as far south as Kansas and west as Northern California. At Havre, Mont., it was 24 below zero on Wednesday morning, and railroad traffic was everywhere delayed because of snow. Many lives were lost and great damage to shipping resulted in the terrible gale that swept the Great Lakes.

Again we want to call attention to D. W. Higgins' new book, the "Passing of a Race." It seems appropriate that this book should come out at this time—on the eve of Christmas. Treating as it does of the Pacific Northwest and more especially of the Sound country, it would make a most appropriate Christmas present for an Eastern friend. Get it at the book stores, read its interesting pages and send it to a friend.

CLAUD W. SILVEY.

A sad and unfortunate accident occurred in D. A. Robinson's logging camp at Clallam Wednesday morning, Nov. 22, resulting in the death of Claud W. Silvey, son of Postmaster Silvey of that place.

Claud was assisting the men in getting a large log from the hillside, standing, as he supposed, at a safe distance from the track of the log. The log started down the declivity at a high rate of speed, sheered to his direction, striking another small sapling or skid which fell with crushing force on the unfortunate boys head, fracturing the skull on the side of the head and at the base of the brain.

Dr. Hartt of Port Angeles was summoned by telegraph and arrived in a few hours on a special tug boat, but pronounced the case hopeless and the young man died at 10 p. m.

Claud West Silvey was born in Wayne county, Illinois, Sept. 30, 1882. He came to this state and county in 1902 and commenced work at Port Crescent. After being employed there about a year he entered the employ of D. A. Robinson at Clallam and has remained here ever since, being one of his best and most trustworthy men. He was also assistant postmaster at the time of his death.

Claud was a noble and exemplary young man, with bright prospects for the future. He was of a kind and cheerful disposition and made friends of all with whom he became acquainted, and had absolutely no enemies.

He leaves a father, mother, six younger brothers and four sisters to mourn the untimely death of an obedient son and a loving brother.

The remains were interred in the Port Angeles cemetery under the auspices of the M. W. A., of which order he was a beneficiary member, carrying a policy of $2,000 in favor of his mother.

FRANCIS ROTCH, Supt.

Cards of Thanks.

We wish to offer our heartfelt thanks to the Christian people of the City of Port Angeles in general and particularly the members of the M. W. A. and ladies for their floral offerings and other kind nesses shown us in the burial of our dear, noble, bereaved son Claud.

I. ROSS and SARAH SILVEY.

In behalf of Quillayute Camp, No. 11311, Modern Woodmen of America, we desire to express our sincere thanks to the Neighbors of Port Angeles Camp No. 6043 for their assistance and courtesy shown to us in the burial of our well beloved Neighbor, Claud W. Silvey.

A Certain Cure for Croup.

When a child shows symptoms of croup there is no time to experiment with new remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended. There is one preparation that can always be depended upon. It has been in use for many years and has never been known o fail, viz: Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. M. F. Compton, of Market, Texas, says of it. "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in severe cases of croup with my children, and can truthfully say it always gives prompt relief." For sale by W. J. Mathewson.

A Handsome Prize

I see at The Times Clothing Mart they are giving a very Grand Prize for New Years' Day—it is the handsomest piece of jewelry works I ever saw, for its value, $25.00. It is 24 karat gold-plated, with very strong Magnifying Bull's Eye Glasses—Back and Front—showing the works, Waltham movement. You get a bill with each purchase and when it amounts to one dollar, you get a ticket which entitles you to a draw for this very Grand and Valuable Prize which would make a very Fine Wedding Present, especially a Golden Wedding.

When in town call on Baker, the Second Hand Man.

As the Call Sees It.

The statement of President Elliott of the Northern Pacific that the projected railroad between Port Angeles and Olympia will not interfere with the completion of the Port Townsend Southern, would show that the former line is a distinct enterprise. But this is to be expected, as in the end all transcontinental roads will reach the west side. First, for the reason that all such new roads will reach the Puget Sound basin on the South, and can be built to the west side as easily as on the east side, with much superior harbors here to do business on. The Northern Pacific and Great Northern are already building down the north bank of the Columbia for the purpose of reducing grades and securing outlets on one or more of the great harbors on the Olympic peninsula. The railroad map of Puget Sound is on the eve of the greatest change in the history of railroad construction, and that change will benefit the whole west side.

Nothing will cure indigestion that that dosen't digest the food, itself, and give the stomach rest. You can't expect that a weak stomach will regain its strength and get well when it is compelled to do the full work that a sound stomach should do. You wouldn't expect a sick horse to get well when it is compelled to do a full day's work every day in the week. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant and digests the food regardless of the condition of your stomach. Relieves Indigestion, Belching, Sour Stomach, and all stomach disorders. Sold by C. E. Nailor & Co.

Will Have New Light Plant

Townsend's city council has granted an electric light franchise to local parties, headed by John Siebenbaum, who propose to put in a new system. They have an option on the land at Point Hudson, at the end of Water street, where the saw mill now stands, and propose putting in a new mill in connection with the lighting plant. The city shall pay not to exceed $9.00 a month for street lights and $2.50 for incandescents. At any time during the life of the franchise, 25 years, the city may purchase the plant at a figure to be agreed upon by a commission of three parties, one chosen by the city, one by the company and the third by the first two—a common sense proposition which should be injected into any proposed water works franchise for this city.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of Indigestion inflames the mucous membranes lining the stomach and exposes the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucin instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

The Key that Unlocks the Door to Old Age.

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund well fed, but thin, spare men who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age, will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his liver and bowels. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to old age. For sale by W. J. Mathewson.

Alum baking powders are detrimental to health.

Many manufacturers use alum baking powders in perfect ignorance. They are induced to do so by the cry of cheapness, and the lies and fraudulent advertisements in the newspapers. Important Announcement

Having acquired a good healthful honorable age—born June 8, 1843—I desire to change my vocation to a lighter one; therefore would sell 160 acres timber land ten miles from Port Angeles. A good county road runs along the south 80 to Lake Sutherland, 4 miles to outlet and about 6 to Lake Crescent. Neighbors on every side. The people are fast advancing above their primitive shanties, discarding their log shacks and shake barns for better barns and up-to-date modern houses.

Here is a golden opportunity for a good, live, wide-awake mill man who can properly take care of machinery and run it. I have a good dam with 9 feet head, saw mill, shingle mill, small planer and matcher, good turning lathe. Lumber saw 62 inch spolden tooth. An emery gummer — automatically gums big saw on its arbor. Same gummer gums shingle saw. A turbine water wheel drives all the heavy machinery; a small overshot wheel drives the upper gummer, lower gummer, two grind stones, turning lathe and two conveyors. Have a fitting room in lower part: emery gummer for filing. 9 planer bitts, gumming saws, etc.; a grindstone for planer, bits; blast forge and blacksmith outfit.

Have a wire cable with heavy blocks. Hooks and lines, cant-hook, 2 peavies, logging chains, 2 set chained dogs. Barleg machine and set augers, set ship augers, set hand augers, 3 hand saws, 2 rip saws, brace and bits, level, framing chisels, mallets and numerous other useful articles.

Small two roomed house, good shingled roof, double boarded all around, double floor, shingled all around outside. A firstclass bachelor outfit, cookstove, heating stove, writing desk and secretary combined, stone churn and several other small and large jars.

I will say to the right man, here is a golden opportunity to secure a self-supporting home for a good live enterprising man who can take proper care of machinery and run it. The mill is so constructed one man can run every one of the departments alone, or more men as desired. A man who wants such a property will not regret time to come and see it.

There is a secret value in this property; I will not disclose only to the lucky buyer. Will take part cash, time for balance on security.

I will not state price as I shall be constantly improving and adding machinery. I will not answer a doubtful communication. A man who wants this home evidently should come and look it over. My address,

E. B. GRIFFIN,

Elwha Post Office, Clallam county, Washington.

My mill is rated Indian Valley Mill.

PROPOUNDS HARD QUESTION

We Can't Answer; We Don't Know of Anyone Who Can—and Will.

GETTYSBURG, WASH., Nov. 29,'05.

Editor Olympic-Leader:—Your paper is a welcome visitor in my home. As I have settled here to grow up with the country any news about Clallam county is greatly appreciated. I think you would do a favor to many hopeful settlers in this part of the county if you could throw some light on the proposed State road. For instance; why did the surveyors quit work? Is it the intention to open up the Olympic reserve and build a road through many miles of syndicate timber lands? Such a road would, in my opinion, be a hardship on the people, as well as an unnecessary drain on the road fund at the present time. Would it not be far better to open roads through agricultural districts and help out the settlers who are paying the taxes for roads when they have no roads?

Along the coast are the logged-off lands—good farming lands—that can be bought at from $2.50 to $10 an acre. But the settlers who are opening up the farms in this district have no roads on which to take their produce to market; if they want to go to the county seat they must either go by steamer or walk. It is not always convenient to go by steamer, and it is tiresome to walk. Especially is this true where produce must be packed from the farm to the wharf, and, should the farmer be fortunate enough after paying the exhorbitant freight rates charged by the transportation company to have any money left with which to purchase a few of the necessities of life, he must pack them from the steamer to his home—there are no roads on which to transport them.

Meantime we are not allowed to work out our road taxes but must pay them in cash, and our roads have been abandoned for over two years in so far as county money goes.

Under the old road law the logging companies destroyed the roads, now the logging interests have control of new roads and here and there we see a once ambitious home-builder selling out his belongings; he has been beaten. his money and his time has been wasted. Is there no remedy?

But for all this, here is the soil and climate for sheep and cattle raising and for profitable dairying.

Yours for a County Seat Road,
OSCAR NELSON.

A Few Pointers

What to do to boost the town,
I will now ask a question.
Here I am again, don't frown,
Offering a few suggestions.

First, protect home industry;
Next, be kind to strangers,
'Twon't hurt to show mere courtesy
To agents. What! They dangerous?

What about these people here.
Of course I won't tattle,
That take their money twice a year,
And go shopping to Seattle.

What about those that send away
For things back to Chicago,
Forgetting about their own stores here,
Paying taxes on their cargo.

Why can't we all co-operate
And get some factories started,
With our timber, stone. and mineral
Our town should soon be noted.

We ought to trim our Front street up.
And paint our stores, you know,
With gravel in street, not mud.
It might help the town to grow!

Grip QuicKly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of la grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Egleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip." These tablets promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by W. J. Mathewson.

BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP

PERMANENTLY CURES
CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS
ASTHMA, SORE THROAT, HOARSENESS
WHOOPING COUGH AND CROUP
DO NOT DELAY
Until the drain on your system produces permanent disability. The human breathing machinery is a wonderful system of tubes and cells. To have good health it must be kept in good order. A COLD is considered of no importance, yet if it was known by its proper name of "throat inflammation," or "congestion of the lungs," its dangerous character would be appreciated. When a cold makes its appearance use at once Ballard's Horehound Syrup which will speedily overcome it.
WHOOPING COUGH and CROUP Require Prompt Action. SNOW LINIMENT applied to the throat and chest gives wonderful relief, while Ballard's Horehound Syrup will rapidly stop the violent paroxysms of coughing. IT IS THE ONLY COUGH REMEDY THAT WILL POSITIVELY CURE WHOOPING COUGH AND CROUP.
BEST FOR CHILDREN
Mrs. Maud Adams, Goldthwaite, Tex., writes:—"I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup and find it the BEST medicine for croup, coughs and colds. My children use it and it is pleasant to take and quickly cures."
