ADDED $100 TO THEIR FUND

The first of the three entertainment course to be given by the public schools this winter, was given Friday evening at the opera house and called forth a splendid attendance. The first number on the program was a selection by the orchestra under the leadership of Miss Irene Marsh. A pretty song and drill by a dozen little girls from the primary grade, under the supervision of Miss Powell, was very well done and called forth hearty applause. The amusing farce of "The Maidens All Forlorn" was given in a most pleasing and sprightly manner and thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Miss Angeline Ritchie, Miss Nell Marsh, and Miss Gertrude Willson carried out the parts of the forlorn maidens to perfection, while Beatrice Allen as the maiden aunt and Leola Foster as the Irish servant girl called forth hearty peals of laughter. A splendid exhibition in Indian club drill was given by Mr. Peterson and a number of high school boys. Ten young girls in appropriate costumes sang a chit out of the Daisy Song and the Yama Man, both being very enjoyable features of the program. The entertainment reflected much credit upon those who had it in charge and added about $100 to the school fund.

It is estimated 4,000 acres of land in the Umpqua valley, Oregon, will be planted to fruit this season.

The Belgian government has hinted to Germany that it will not participate in any international conference on Congo affairs.

The Western Pacific railroad, the new Gould road from Salt Lake City to San Francisco, has been opened for freight traffic.

The annual meeting of the Western Retail Lumbers Dealers' Association will be held at Portland February 14, 15, 16.

The Rev. Dr. John L. Scudder has resigned from the pulpit of the First Congregational church of Jersey City after a pastorage of 23 years, the resignation to take effect next July.

The Queensland legislature has voted 50,000 pounds to establish the new Queensland University, and an annual subsidy of 10,000 pounds will be provided.

From further details of the imperial budget for 1910 it is considered probable that a loan of $125,000,000 will be required to cover the proposed expenditure.

Federal Judge Taylor, acting as arbiter in the famous Cleveland street railway dispute, has decided in favor of a 3-cent fare, with a 1-cent transfer.

The bonded debt of New York City has reached a total amounting to a cold billion dollars, according to a report just issued by the comptroller. This amount, however, includes more than $200,000,000 which is held by the city sinking funds.

The fiftieth anniversary of the Queens Own Rifles of Canada is to be celebrated next year by the visit to England of 600 officers and men of this crack regiment as guests of the commanding officer, Sir Henry M. Pellatt, who will bear all the expenses.

The New Jersey State Grange has declared for local option on the license question. Another resolution adopted declared for legislation giving rural school boards power to employ teachers capable of teaching primary work in agriculture.

The treasury department has decided to recommend an appropriation of $1,500,000 for a new public building at Portland, exclusively for postoffice uses. The present building will be devoted to court and other federal purposes if the appropriation goes through.

Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of J. P. Morgan, is a recent applicant for membership in the Woman's Trade Union League, New York, and when her name has been passed upon she will become a regular member. This is the league to which the striking shirtwaist makers belong.

Complaining that the verdict in his case was "repungant" because a number of the counts against him were based on the same transaction, the Chicago banker, John R. Walsh, has filed in the supreme court of the United States his petition for a writ of certiorari, which, if granted, would bring the case to the supreme court for general review.

America's Big Coffee Bill.

Washington, Dec. 19.—America, in ten months, has used $64,000,000 worth of coffee, or $45,000,000 pounds. Eight-ninths of it came from South America. Coffee is only an indication of the proportions which the trade between the United States and South America has assumed this year. All previous records for South American importation will be passed, according to calculations of the bureau of statistics. The total value of all imports will be more than $260,000,000. In return our exports to South America probably will equal, if they do not exceed, the high mark in 1907, when they touched $86,000,000.

Special Train for Christmas Gifts.

Chicago, Dec. 18.—Few persons in the territory west of Chicago will be disappointed over not receiving their Christmas present this year if the managers of the railroads carry out their present intention of running special trains to carry the enormous tonnage of express packages, which will flood the railroads during the week before Christmas.

Grays Harbor Canal Project.

Aberdeen, Dec. 18.—Reports brought to Aberdeen are to the effect that the plan for an inside canal between Grays harbor and the Columbia river is being received and that surveyors have been busy for several weeks on the route. Seattle and Portland capitalists are said to be behind the scheme, who have recently been here looking the ground over. A chain of lakes between South bay and Willapa harbor will be utilized and the southern terminal will be near Oneida.

The State board of control has rejected the bid of J. M. Yeaman, of Spokane, for installing the Marshall rock quarry and Lance & Peters, of Seattle, for installing the Deception Pass quarry, and decided to go ahead with the original plans to complete the installation of the Deception Pass quarry with convict labor secured from the penitentiary.

MANY STUDENTS WORKING WAY THROUGH UNIVERSITY.

Seattle, Dec. 18.—Nine hundred and thirty-eight students of the University of Washington of the 1,670 enrolled are earning their way wholly or in part through college, according to figures furnished by Registrar H. T. Condon. Of these 369 are making their way through college by their efforts alone, and 569 are partially earning their way through college.

Of the students now at the university 974 are taking the course in liberal arts. The law department comes next with 171 students, and civil engineering third with an enrollment of 126 students.

Washington Leads in Grangers.

Husum, Dec. 18.—C. B. Kegley, master of the Washington State Grange, in a recent address at a session of the Pomona Grange, in the central part of the county, stated that for three successive years Washington had led all States in percentage of increase of membership and that the granges in this State now have 14,000 members. He said the Society of Patrons of Husbandry dates from 1867, and its original spirit conforms closely to the present rural uplift movement.

BALLINGER-PINCHOT HEARING ORDERED

Washington, Dec. 21.—President Taft yesterday yielded to the demands of both Secretary Ballinger and his critics for a public investigation of the whole subject matter underlying the so-called Ballinger-Pinchot controversy.

Mr. Ballinger yesterday afternoon served upon the president virtually an ultimatum to the effect that such an investigation was indeed the price of his remaining in the cabinet. He made it clear that he was no longer willing to sit silent and wait for the thing "to blow over."

Mr. Taft, it is said, reluctantly admitted the disappointment of his hope that the country at large would accept as final his own vindication of Mr. Ballinger in his dismissal of the charges brought against the secretary of the interior by L. R. Glavis, former special agent of the land office, and his conclusion that the investigation demanded by both sides was inevitable.

Party Leaders Indorse Plan.

Mr. Ballinger's attitude in this matter has the support of the leading Republicans in both branches of congress—senators and representatives—who feel that, entirely apart from the merits of the controversy itself, a festering sore of this character must poison the whole system of the party in power, and that it is high time to resort to the lance.

These leaders, determined that a cleaning of this wound is necessary, have not hesitated to go to the White House and impress their views upon Mr. Taft. Conferences of a confidential character, in which members of the cabinet, party leaders in both houses of congress and the president himself have participated, have been held in the last few days. They culminated yesterday when Secretary Ballinger, Attorney General Wickersham and Postmaster General Hitchcock met in Mr. Wickersham's office and proceeded thence to the White House, where the matter was laid before the president.

Intolerable to Ballinger.

Mr. Ballinger told the president, it is said, that the situation had become intolerable to him and that though the constant charges against him had come from irresponsible persons, he would not longer sit supinely by, and in justice to himself he felt compelled to insist upon an investigation.

The president was given to understand that Mr. Ballinger's demand carried with it the indorsement of both Mr. Wickersham and Mr. Hitchcock. It is known tonight that he has the sympathy also of other members of the cabinet.

Today will be cabinet day. Without doubt the matter will be one of the important subjects of that meeting. Presumably this is one of the principal reasons why the investigation, backed by the administration, probably will not be broached in congress before its adjournment today for the holiday recess.

Precipitated by Hitchcock.

Several things have served to bring the matter to a head. The speech of Representative Hitchcock, a Democrat, of Nebraska, in the house a few days ago, demanding action upon his resolution providing for an investigation of the land office, was a factor. Mr. Ballinger, it is said, feared that this resolution might be laid upon the table by the Republican majority, and that such action would be construed by his enemies as an effort on the part of the administration to "whitewash" him.

A few days ago he received pointed advice from a close personal friend, who has recently left the government service, who has himself been an investigator of the department of justice and who is an expert on land laws, urging just such an ultimatum as Mr. Ballinger carried to the White House yesterday. He impressed upon the secretary the conviction that the time had come when he must either demand an acquittal or retire to private life.

Four Features Involved.

Four important aspects of the situation are taken into consideration by party leaders.

First—The effect upon the future of the Republican party and of the Taft administration if attacks upon the integrity of a member of the president's official family may be made with impunity and allowed to pass unanswered, even unchallenged.

Second—The possibility of the controversy between adherents and opponents of Secretary Ballinger becoming so bitter as to endanger party legislation.

Third—The practical standstill of the whole policy of conservation of natural resources in the present conflict among those in whose hands lie the administration of that policy.

Fourth—The desire to do justice toward the cabinet officer whose personal and official integrity has been assailed.

So it has been decided to sift the entire matter to the bottom. It remains only to settle on the details of the programme. All parties understand that the investigation must be of such a character as to leave the public mind without the slightest doubt of its thoroughness and impartiality.

Mr. Ballinger Impatient.

Mr. Ballinger is impatient of delay, and is said to have urged that a resolution providing for a congressional investigation be presented in the senate today. It is understood that he has been overruled on that point, and that the exceedingly complex task of determining the form of inquiry will be threshed out between now and the reconvening of congress on January 4.

This whole subject gives promise of heated discussion among members of both houses of congress, and it is not unlikely that the investigation will at length be put in the hands of a joint special committee representing both. Ordinarily an investigation of this character would fall to the committee on public lands in one house or the other. These committees are made up, however, largely of men from Western states, who have in one way and another taken sides in the controversy and whose interests might be regarded as possibly interfering with an unbiased judgment.

One thing appears certain, the investigation—whoever makes it—must be relentless, and everybody seems agreed that it must be absolutely public; it is admitted that anything in the nature of "star chamber" proceedings would satisfy no one.

Entire Department Bared.

The entire department of the interior, so far as it concerns public lands and mineral and water rights, it is agreed, must be bared to the searchlight, from the time when Mr. Ballinger was commissioner general of the land office under the Roosevelt administration to the present moment.

The position of Mr. Ballinger and his friends goes beyond any question of personal controversy, and they and those who voice the attitude of the administration disavow any desire to "convict somebody else" as a means of vindicating the secretary of the interior. For instance, it is positively declared that the interests of the department of agriculture and its forest service, of which Gifford Pinchot is chief, will be recognized as having an important stake in this business, since much of this unhappy controversy has concerned matters in which the forest service was more or less directly involved.

CENTRAL AMERICAN STATES MAY FORM A FEDERATION.

Washington, Dec. 18. — Plans are afoot, it is believed, for the consummation of a confederation of the Central American republics. Proof of this is offered to the minds of Central American diplomats here in the sudden disappearance of Dr. Luis Anderson.

Dr. Anderson was here as special representative of Costa Rica and was the candidate of Mexico for president of the proposed "United States of Central America."

He left on receipt of a telegram, and it was learned today that his destination is Cartagina. Before going he held an interview with Senor Creel, former Mexican ambassador to the United States, and now here as a special envoy of Mexico in the existing troubles in Nicaragua.

Central American diplomats fear there may be a conflagration while now there is only a blaze. In such case the governments most interested in the various countries would interfere, with the result that chaos would ensue and a new organization would be necessary.

It is believed that Anderson hurried south in anticipation of such an eventuality. He has the indorsement of Mexico, the most powerful near neighbor of Central America, and holds the confidence of at least two other states on the isthmus. In the event that affairs reached a crisis demanding consolidation, he would be on the ground and ready to step into the breach.

Friends of Dr. Anderson insist that he has gone to San Jose merely to attend the meeting of the international society on sanitation and to visit his family. This, many declare, is a clever blind. They maintain that Dr. Anderson's plans were not changed until it was learned that Zelaya's abdication was inevitable. Then followed the hurried interview with Senor Creel and the journey.

Scheme of Mexico.

The Mexican government is committed to the amalgamation of the five fiery little republics on the isthmus. Senor Enrique Creel has declared that his government would like to see such a consolidation, though qualifying the declaration by saying that he did not believe the time ripe for such a transformation.

Although the United States has been deliberately and studiously shying at the subject it is understood that this government would not entertain any great enthusiasm over such a consolidation. It would mean that Mexico could exercise a far greater influence over such a group and that the United States would lose prestige. The close alliance of the Latin-American race would bring such a situation about.

The state department disclaims all knowledge of the movements of Dr. Anderson or of his object in going to Costa Rica.

National Bank for Mabton.

Washington, Dec. 18.—The comptroller of the currency today authorized the organization of the First National Bank of Mabton, with a capital of $25,000, by J. D. Farmer, C. B. Alexander, W. H. Wheler, W. H. Healey and others.

HILL TALKS ON CONSERVATION

DECLARES PINCHOT AND OTHERS SHOULD BE MORE PRACTICAL.

Private Enterprise Handicapped by Laws — People Need Coal, Says Railroad Man, and if Output Is Restricted They Will Be at Mercy of Operators.

James J. Hill, chairman of the board of directors of the Great Northern, in an interview granted The Seattle Daily Times, made several prointed observations anent the proposed federal supervision and control of coal mining enterprises by individuals and corporations which may, in the future, seek to develop coal properties on lands now belonging to the public domain. It was Mr. Hill's first public statement of his views on an issue which, owing to the persistent attacks of Chief Forester Gifford Pinchot and others on Secretary Ballinger, has become of national importance.

"People who so strongly urge conservation of our natural resources should be practical above all things," said Mr. Hill. "I hold Mr. Pinchot in high esteem. He is a very fine sort of a fellow. Yet, I am free to say that had some of the policies now urged in his name been in vogue and in effect through the federal statutes thirty years ago, the great West would not have developed as it has in that time.

Common Sense Needed.

"Of federal control of coal mining operations and of the proposed leasing of coal lands in Alaska and elsewhere, I hold that should the government enact laws that would handicap private enterpise and take away from the individual the expectancy and desire on his part to develop industries and resources for his own profit, then the coal properties now owned by corporations and others will become measurably more valuable.

"The people need coal. The nation should be wise in safeguarding its coal deposits. Yet there is need for practical common sense. If the output of coal is restricted by federal laws, then those who now mine coal will find their product enhanced in value and the people will be forced to pay more for their coal. This is inevitable.

"As to the corporate development of the coal fields, it is a well established fact that the initial cost of a coal mining plant is very large, and above the capacity of most individuals. In other words, considering the cheapness or high price of coal, it is certain that corporations can mine coal cheaper than the individual.

Laughs at Water Power Trust.

"What is needed is the practical application of the principle of conservation so as to prevent the waste of coal and of timber. This appeals to me more strongly than the extreme views of some who urge certain so-called Pinchot policies of our government."

Mr. Hill was asked: "Is there any danger from a water power trust?" Laughingly he answered:

"Why, there's plenty of water power for every one out there in the Northwest. I see no danger from any so-called water power trust. The development of hydro-electric plants is one of the features of the growth of this section of our country, and it will continue."

Mr. Hill, who was in company with President Howard Eliott, of the Northern Pacific, and Darius Miller, vice-president of the Burlington, talked freely of the future of Washington and of the eastern fruit growing districts reached by the two systems.

Great Immigration Predicted.

"Your State is growing wonderfully," he said. "Next yean we will bring a great lot of settlers to this State and particularly to Eastern Washington. I believe that the high tide of immigration to the Pacific Northwest will be reached within the next two years—that is, during the years 1910 and 1911 we will break all records in bringing home builders and producing settlers to this State."

Mr. Miller echoed this sentiment.

"The railroads are all doing a very good business in the Northwest," said Mr. Miller. "The Burlington's territory in the Middle West will send to Washington thousands of home seekers next year and for the years to come."

President Elliott announced last night that so far as his railway is concerned the switchmen's strike is at an end. He said further that at present 80 per cent of the freight in the hands of the railroad is on the move, and that all traces of the strike will be obliterated within the next forty-eight hours.

Pinchot Still Holds Job.

Washington, Dec. 18.—Gifford Pinchot, chief forester of the United States, to whom it was said an offer had been made to become president of the University of Michigan, returned to Washington from Chicago and declared he did not intend to give up his governmental position.

New Presidential Postoffices.

Washington, Dec. 18.—The following Washington fourth-class postoffices will become presidential offices on January 1 and the salaries of the postmasters fixed as stated: Almira, $1,000; Granite Falls, $1,100; Kettle Falls, $1,100; Oroville, $1,100; Woodland, $1,000.

FOREST FIRE LOSS DECREASES

LESS HARMFUL IN WASHINGTON THE PAST YEAR THAN PREVIOUSLY

Reason for Great Decrease Found in Efficient Patrols Maintained in Timbered Tracts—Lumbermen Themselves Have Also Had Patrols—Oregon Likely to Follow This State.

Washington, according to a report prepared jointly by the state fire warden and F. P. Simons of the Washington State Fire Association, suffered much less loss from forest fires this year than ever before. While no accurate report has ever been compiled before, still it is thought that a decrease of at least one-third will be the result of the year's fight against fires, says the Oregon Journal.

The reason for the large decrease is the fact that efficient patrols are being stationed on all the forests; that these patrolmen find the fires before they get a chance to destroy much property; that efficient fire fighting tools are now to be had, and, too, that these patrolmen have been taught the proper methods of fighting such fires. The year 1909 was the driest year in 40 years, yet the fire destruction was less and the number of fires fewer.

According to the report turned in to the national forest service, 62,676 acres were destroyed in the state of Washington during the year, which closed December 1. Of this amount 27,027 acres were merchantable timber, 9,961 were covered by unmerchantable timber, while 25,245 acres were of cut over lands. A total of 139,189,000 board feet of timber were destroyed. Their value was $2 per 1,000. Besides this, $43,379 worth of livestock and improvements were destroyed. These figures are all lower than the last year's estimate.

In so materially cutting down the forest fire losses an expense of $50,013.76 was incurred by the state, county, individuals and the forest service.

The Washington lumbermen themselves have taken a hand in watching fires this year and as a result of their vigilance in the 3,000,000 acres owned individually in Washington last year but 1,600 acres, or one-twentieth of 1 per cent. of the total, were destroyed. This is in land owned by the Washington lumbermen.

As a result of the great saving which the Washington men have made this year it is thought likely that a meeting of Oregon lumbermen will be held soon after the first of the year at which the matter of forming a state association and fighting against fires will probably be taken up. The matter has already been agitated by a number of prominent lumbermen and under their guidance will probably be taken up soon.

EASTERN TRAINMEN VOTE TO DEMAND MORE MONEY

Pittsburg, Dec. 19.—The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen tomorrow will serve notice on seventy-five railroad companies east of the Mississippi river that an increase in wages will be demanded, the increase to be from 5 per cent to 40 per cent.

W. G. Lee, national president of the brotherhood, tonight refused to intimate what action would be taken in case the demand is refused.

About 75,000 members of the brotherhood are employed on the railroads affected.

Roads Preparing.

New York, Dec. 19.—Knowing that the referendum vote was being taken, railroad heads are preparing to meet the demand for better pay and several conferences have been held in the last two weeks.

PREDICTS POPULATION OF 1,100,000 IN NEXT CENSUS

Tacoma, Dec. 21.—Guy E. Kelley, census supervisor for the Second congressional district of Washington, forecasts Washington will have at least five and probably six congressmen following the coming census, instead of three as it now has. He declares that the census will show the state to have about 1,100,000 people, or a little over twice its population of ten years ago, when there were 518,103 in the state. The apportionment was then one congressman for every 194,182 people. Figuring on an apportionment of one congressman to every 215,000 people, Washington, Mr. Kelley claims, will have its five congressmen at least. As to how the state will be redistricted Mr. Kelley is at sea. He believes, however, the census will make a showing that will render the division of the Southwestern Washington district imperative.

The navy department's proposed building program of two battleships and one repair ship makes a total of $12,844,122 additional required for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911.

STRAW BALLOT RETURNS

THIRTEEN THOUSAND VOTES IN RESPONSE TO REQUEST OF MAGAZINE

Result Indicates Loyalty to Taft, but Aldrich and Cannon are Repudiated by Large Majorities—Votes on Coast by Large Majorities—Comments of Magazine on the Result—Votes on Coast Members of Congress.

New York, Dec. 18.—Apparently indicating that the country, while still loyal to Taft, is supporting the so-called insurgent movement the results of a sensational straw ballot will appear next Tuesday in the January number of Success.

Particular interest is attached to this ballot because a similar poll in 1908 enabled Success to predict practically the exact division of the electoral vote in the presidential election.

On November 9 Success mailed to its 22,500 life subscribers a list of 10 questions, designed to sound the attitude of the public. To these questions 13,102 replies were received. Of those who answered 8,360 were Republicans, 3,213 Democrats and 1,529 Independents, Prohibitionists and members of other parties. Practically every state in the union was represented among the replies.

In a letter that accompanied the questions, the recent tour of the president was recalled and his position concerning both past and pending legislation explained. The attitude of the several prominent legislators who have been explaining the tariff for the last few months was also outlined.

After reviewing these explanations, the voters were asked to indicate their opinions. The tabulated questions and answers show their views.

Aldrich and Cannon Condemned.

The first question was: "Do you believe your vote for the presidential candidate last November was wisely cast?"

Of the Republicans answering 5,728 said "Yes," and 540 voted "No." Of the Democrats 2,323 voted "Yes" and 206 "No."

The second question was: "Are you satisfied with the first nine months of Taft's administration?"

Of the Republicans answering 3,092 voted "Yes" and 2,490 voted "No"; 2,778 declined to vote. Of the Democrats answering 500 voted "Yes" and 2,053 voted "No."

The third question was: "Do you approve of the position of Senator Aldrich in the recent tariff legislation?"

Of the Republicans, 517 voted "Yes" and 6,312 voted "No." Forty Democrats indorsed Aldrich, while 2,447 voted "No."

The fourth question was: "Do you approve of the position of Speaker Cannon in the recent tariff legislation?"

In reply to this only 400 Republicans said "Yes" and only 40 Democrats voted likewise. In the disapproval of Cannon's attitude were 6,485 Republicans and 2,447 Democrats.

Insurgents Everywhere.

In commenting upon the replies to the third and fourth questions Success says:

"The condemnation of Aldrich and Cannon was almost as pronounced in the Atlantic and Pacific coast states as in the central west, and there is every evidence that Cannonism and Aldrichism are national, general issues, and do not represent merely local insurgency."

The fifth question was: "Do you approve of the position of President Taft in the recent tariff legislation?"

To this 2,102 Republicans voted "Yes" and 3,580 voted "No." Of the Democrats 244 approved and 2,361 disapproved.

The sixth question read: "Is it your desire that President Taft support and co-operate with Aldrich and Cannon in the general public policies which they represent?" In answer 6,293 Republicans voted "No," while 629 replied "Yes." To a supplementary question reading, "Do you desire him to oppose them?" 6,219 Republicans replied "Yes" and 461 "No."

Opinions on Congressmen.

Of the independent votes 201 approved the administration to date and 994 disapproved of it. Nine hundred and thirty indorsed the position of the administration in regard to the tariff, while 1,088 condemned it. Only 45 desired the president to co-operate with Aldrich and Cannon, while 1,364 did not.

Three additional questions were designed to obtain sentiment regarding congress. These questions were separated and sent out in relation to the various districts in which the subscribers live. They were as follows:

"Do you approve of the position of your representative in congress in the speakership contest last spring?"

"Is it your desire that he support the policies of Speaker Cannon or would you prefer him to oppose them?"

"Would you vote for him if there should be another election this month, and provided he were opposed by a reputable man of the opposite party?"

Coast Congressmen Denounced.

In discussing the answers to those questions, Success says:

"The Republican insurgents against Cannonism were to a man enthusiastically supported by their neighbors, except in a few cases where the original insurgency had been modified by later indecision.'

Some of the results were as follows:

In Washington, Representative Poindexter, an insurgent, was indorsed by 102 to 3, while Representative Humphrey, a regular, was condemned by a vote of 49 to 6.

In California the regular Republicans were condemned by a vote of 188 to 56, while Representative Hayes, an insurgent, was indorsed by 20 to 7.

In Oregon, 42 out of 62 Republicans voted against Representative Hawley and 25 out of 35 voted against Ellis, both of them being regular Republican congressmen.

DAIRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION COMPLETES ANNUAL SESSION

Monroe, Wash., Dec. 18.—The state dairymen's convention in session here, completed its work and adjourned. The following officers were elected: W. J. Langdon, Sumner, president; David F. Sexton, Snohomish, vice president; Ira D. Whitney, Pullman State college, secretary and treasurer; directors, C. Sorenson, Grays river; D. F. Troy, Chinacum; A. E. Smith, Orillia, Otto Tamm, Enumclaw.

The selection of the place in which to hold the next annual convention, while usually left to the discretion of the board of directors, was taken up on a vote. The association had been tendered an invitation for the next convention from Lynden, Whatcom county, and from Nort Yakima. The vote showed 18 in favor of Lynden and 25 in favor of North Yakima.

Interesting Papers Read.

The following papers were read during the three days' session of the convention:

President's address, by President E. J. Ross, of Bothell; "The Score Card in Dairy Inspection," Ernst Kelly, deputy dairy inspector, Seattle; "Tuberculosis," Prof. S. B. Nelson, state college; "Dairying as an Industry in the Pacific Northwest," E. T. Judd, ex-president, Oregon State Dairy Association, Salem, Or.; "The Work of the Dairy and Food Commission," L. Davies, Davenport; "The Special Purpose Cow," J. E. Wrage, Arlington; "Country Dairy Associations as a Factor in Dairy Development," C. Sorensen, Grays River; discussion, led by Ira P. Whitney, state college, Pullman; "Practical Dairy Feeding," W. J. Langdon, Sumner; discussion, led by Cecil Bennett, Monroe; address, Prof. C. L. Mitchell, western representative dairy division, United States department of Agriculture, San Francisco; "Green Feeding," A. E. Smith, Orillia; address, Hon. R. W. Hodson, live stock commissioner, British Columbia, Victoria, B. C.; "Poultry as an Adjunct to Dairy Farming," H. L. Blanchard, Puyallup; "The Hundred Dollar Cow," E. T. Judd, Salem, Or.; "Practical Breeding Problems," W. T. McDonald, animal husbandman, state college, Pullman.

GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION AT ABERDEEN IN JANUARY

Aberdeen, Dec. 21.—At the meeting of the Washington State Good Roads Association, in this city January 20 and 21 next, the two main features to be discussed will be the distribution of the state road fund, now amounting to $1,500,000, and the question of the granting of franchises for the construction of interurban electric lines on county roads.

L. Frank Brown, of Seattle, secretary of the association, has been in the city during the past week, making preliminary arrangements for the meeting. At least 500 delegates are expected to be in attendance at the meeting, which will be held in the Grand theatre. Samuel Hill, president of the association, and R. H. Thomson, city engineer, both of Seattle, will be present and take a prominent part in the meeting. S. C. Lancaster, government good roads expert, is also on the program. Scenes of good roads from photographs taken during a recent trip through Europe, taken by Mr. Thomson and Mr. Lancaster for the purpose, will be shown, and are said to be very fine.

To Classify and Systematize Soil Data

Berkeley, Cal., Dec. 20.—Dr. R. H. Loughridge, professor emeritus of the University of California department of soils, has been appointed to a committee of 15 to reclassify and systematize data on the soils of the United States and Canada. The work is of great importance and the savants will be occupied three years on their task. The first meeting of the board was in Omaha, December 7 and 8.

Three Million Matches a Minute.

Washiongton, Dec. 20.—By the end of the brief minute taken to read these paragraphs the nations of the civilized world will have struck 3,000,000 matches. This is the average for every minute of the 24 hours of the day. Seven billion is the enormous number for the entire year, and those living under the American flag are said to be responsible for the consumption of one-half of this amount.

Minister Chang at Washington.

Washington, Dec. 18.—The new Chinese minister, Chang Yin Tong, with his daughter and a suite of fifty Chinese, including a dozen students, arrived in Washington today and was met at the station by Minister Wu and the full legation staff.

GENERAL ZELAYA RESIGNS

ACTION DEFERRED UNTIL THERE WAS NO OTHER COURSE FOR HIM.

People of Republic Were Aroused and Guns of the Revolutionists Threatened—Ruled Sixteen Years With Strong Hand—Central American Federation May Follow.

Managua, Dec. 18.—Jose Santos Zelaya has resigned from the presidency of Nicaragua.

Apparently there was no other course to take. The people were aroused at last. The guns of the revolutionists threatened. The warships of the United States lay in Nicaraguan ports.

Managua has been seething for days. The spirit of revolt has spread even to the gates of the palace. Zelaya has surrounded himself with an armed guard. Unchecked, the populace has marched through the streets, crying for the end of the old and proclaiming the new regime.

Ruled Sternly Sixteen Years.

Jose Santos Zelaya has been in command of the republic of Nicaragua for sixteen years. He ruled with a strong hand, and has been called the stormy petrel of Central America. He was always noted for his cunning and bravery, and was remarkable, too, for his ability to surround himself with those who were ready to do his bidding. As a consequence, Zelaya, in later years, was an absolute dictator. He amassed wealth by taking large percentages of the profits from concessions and by forming a group of men who aided him in exacting millions from the people.

Zelaya belongs to aristocracy of his country. He received his education in Paris, but his success was due more to the sword than to the peaceful methods of civilization. Zelaya is 51 years old, and as he is the most hated man in South or Central America, the wonder is that he managed to live so long. Innumerable attempts have been made against his life, and in these emergencies his bravery has stood him in good stead.

When comparatively young Zelaya began an agitation against the government and was expelled. He went to Guatemala, then ruled by Barrios. He obtained service in Barrios' army, and after fighting for several years reappeared in his own country at the head of a band of insurgents. He gathered strength as he went, and battled his way to the presidency.

Zelaya's wealth is said to be enormous. He owns coffee plantations, and collects on exclusive rights on many industries. The present revolt in Nicaragua began early last month and came as a climax of a series of persecutions inaugurated by Zelaya, in which the execution of the Americans, Cannon and Groce, was the most serious feature.

ONLY ONE OASIS IN 1,500 SQUARE MILES

Spokane, Dec. 18.—Kiona, an unincorporated town in Benton county, Washington, southwest of Spokane, has the only saloon in a territory embracing 1,500 square miles. Ten saloons thrived in the district before the local option law became effective a short time ago. It is given out that the county commissioners will not renew the license, thus making the territory between Granger and Kennewick, 75 miles, the largest "dry" district in Washington. Scores of towns in Spokane, Stevens, Whitman, Lincoln, Kittitas, Yakima, Adams, Grant and Garfield counties voted "dry" at the recent election. The town of Granger was granted a license as an inducement to secure a first-class hotel. There are many in eastern Washington who believe that the time is not far distant when practically every town in the state of Washington will be in the "dry" column, and that eventually the cities will join with them. The liquor interests are not sparing themselves in an effort to retain their hold on the cities, and it cannot be said they left anything undone at the last town elections.

New Harriman Branch.

Oylmpia, Dec. 18.—A Harriman corporation, under the name of Union Flat Railroad Company, has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, with a capital of $250,000, and its chief place of business at Tacoma. The announced objects are to build and operate a railroad from a point on the O. R. & N. near Willow Creek crossing, easterly via Willow creek and Alakil flat to near Wilcox, Union Flat, and then southeasterly, following the valley of Union flat, to near Uniontown, a distance of forty-eight miles.

Strike Causes Drastic Legislation.

Sydney, N. S. W., Dec. 18.—Business has been so demoralized by the coal strike that the legislature has taken the drastic step of passing a bill rendering both strike leaders and employers who instigate or aid a strike or lockout liable to a year's imprisonment.

A DEPARTMENT FOR WOMEN

Homemaking Requires Study.

Many women make the mistake of thinking that the calling of homemaking needs no preparation, and the result is disappointment on both sides.

Every girl should be taught plain cooking and sewing and have some knowledge of every branch of domestic work; it will prove a valuable asset in whatever line of business she may engage, and should she marry, the duties of keeping house will not be nearly so difficult.

Some do not marry, many late in life; others still are left widows, often with dependent families, and for such a practical education is desirable; but each one should select the work that she thinks she would like to do, and not for the reason that others have succeeded in it.

A grammar school education, at least, is necessary for any one who would enter an office. A high school education is desirable, and even one year of this latter is of great advantage as a general preparation.

I agree with one of your correspondents that stenography is a good business for a bright girl; it does not require as long a time as some other branches for study and brings quicker returns than almost any other. I speak from experience, as the widowed mother of two daughters, both stenographers, who took care of themselves, assisted the family and always had a snug account to their credit in the bank.

Girls, whatever you do, do with all your might, and you will be sure to "make good."

Woman Judge in Denmark.

A woman has lately been made a judge in Denmark, and the Danish women are reported to be much excited, as they think it is the first and only case of the kind in the world. To say nothing of Mrs. Esther Morris of Wyoming, Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch of Illinois, and Mrs. Mary Cooper of Kansas, do not our Danish sisters read their Bibles? Have they forgotten Deborah, the wife of Lapidoth, who judged Israel for forty years, sitting under a palm tree, and led out the forces of the chosen people to battle because the general refused to march without her? Mr. Blackwell was very fond of quoting Deborah to those who claimed that the Bible teaches the subjection of women, and he emphasized the fact that Deborah was a married woman.—Woman's Journal.

Passing of the Puff.

This beauty's masses of hair were wound tightly around her head and held in place by huge jade-headed pins, and long jade earrings dropped from her ears. The effect was startling, but undoubtedly picturesque. Another new and unusual fashion, which will be of interest to girls, is that of tying a kerchief around the head. A three-cornered silk or satin scarf is tied around the head, the bows coming at one side just above the ear. These are worn in London even with evening gowns. To some girls they are extremely becoming, especially if a few curly locks escape around the edges of the kerchief.

Fads and Fancies in Dress

The jet button craze already shows signs of waning.

Rough homespun is intended for motor coat and for outing wear.

Bullet-shaped buttons are more in use now than lozenge shapes.

The toque still reigns supreme for walking in Paris and is seen in wide variation.

Kimono silks that have large watered silk blotches of blurred tints are fashionable.

Fur is to be generously used on many of the afternoon as well as undress tailor-mades.

Smart tailored suits are being made of the new diagonals, which are very rich in coloring.

Pretty semi-evening gowns, which the French call casino gowns, are being worn with but slight decolletage and transparent guimpes of tulle or mousseline.

The newest fur muffs are finished with dangling heads and tails that almost sweep the ground.

The roll that has been removed from the pompadour allows hats to sit more firmly and they will be worn low on the head.

The lovely meteor crepes and liberty satins will still be worn, but will probably come second to the rough materials this winter.

Dancing slippers, whether patent leather or velvet, have several straps over the insteps, each decorated in some manner with beads or tinsel.

Skirts, while cut on broader lines, still retain more or less the sheath effect. The silhouette is almost exactly the same as it was last winter.

Staining Floors.

When carpets become worn and must be renewed, it is a good time to change to a bare floor and a few rugs. The finishing of the floor is a very simple matter. It may be painted, stained, oiled or waxed. In any case it should be cleaned thoroughly, all stains removed and given a coat of filler. If the floor was made for a carpet there will probably be cracks which will need filling. Putty colored like the wood is very satisfactory for this. If the boards are knotty, they should be painted. Otherwise a transparent finish may be used. Stains made by paint or varnish are easily removed with ammonia, but it should be put on with a brush. The whole floor may be cleaned in this way. The ammonia darkens the wood somewhat. Merely oiling with a crude oil, linseed or kerosene gives a good finish, provided a very small quantity is used and that it is thoroughly rubbed in and no superfluous oil is left on the floor.

Snap Shots at Women

The Princess Stephanie, daughter of King Leopold, has taken out a patent for a new kind of gas stove.

A 10-year-old girl named Minna Weisbein has astonished the United States immigration authorities by her ability to speak and read Russian, Polish, French, German, Italian, Spanish and English.

Two hundred women employed by a firm of hatters at South Norwalk, Conn., went on strike because their employers wanted to know their ages in order to promote the three oldest to the positions of inspector.

There is at Kaiser Wilhelm's Berlin palace at Oberhofmeisterin a lady who has been described as a court chamberlain in petticoats, who has to make personal acquaintance with every lady before she attends a court.

Blouse for the Tailored Suit.

The problem of what sort of a blouse to wear with the tailored suit is a serious one this year. Many will not have to face this question, having chosen a three-piece suit at the start. But the woman who decided in favor of a simple tailored coat and skirt will don a simple tailored shirtwaist of white linen for morning wear, varying this by selecting for afternoons a chiffon, satin or soft silk blouse just the shade of her suit. The above model of satin followed this plan, just matching a cloth suit of "raisin," the popular bluish purple shade. The waist proper was of soft satin, plaited at the shoulders and top of sleeves, the chiffon yoke was of corresponding shade, ending in embroidered velvet reveres. Soutache embroidery embellished the bodice below the yoke, also the collar and cuffs of the full-length sleeves.

Stained Table Cloths.

Table cloths, as every housekeeper knows, have a disagreeable habit of getting something spilled on them, particularly after the table has been set. The best way to treat such refractory cloths is to place a bowl under the spot and pour boiling water upon it. Then place a dry napkin over the spot and iron it dry.

ATTRACTIVE COSTUMES FOR YOUNG GIRLS.

The figure on the right shows a street costume of King's blue wide wale cheviot with narrow skirt and long coat fastened with large buttons covered with the material and braided buttonholes. There is one rever similarly trimmed with smaller buttons. The turban is of panne velvet in King's blue and the furs are lynx. The figure on the left shows a gown of amethyst satin finished cloth elaborately trimmed with cross-stitch embroidery in amethyst and silver. The square yoke and lower sleeves are of net. The hat is of black moire, trimmed with an immense wired bow of white Chantilly lace. The turban at top is of black Ottoman silk, banded with panne velvet and trimmed with a gold quill and a twist of cloth of gold. The figure at the bottom shows a graceful house gown of silk cashmere in apricot yellow, with an overskirt effect, bordered with band of embroidery. The bodice is collarless, with a yoke of chiffon cloth run with designs in silk floss. The sleeves are loose and are in one piece with the bodice, with an under sleeve of chiffon cloth. Bands of embroidery also trim the bodice.

FRIDAY, DEC. 24 1909

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

All over this broad land of ours Christmas will be celebrated on the morrow. There will be happy family reunions; there will be messages of love and remembrance to widely separated loved ones; there will be the hearty hand-clasp accompanied by the gladsome "Merry Christmas," the radiantly happy expression of the children with their joyous laughter, and a general rejoicing throughout the land.

It is well that in this busy world there is one season of the year when business and the pursuit of wealth and fame are subordinated and the people are imbued with the spirit of "peace, good will to men," and thought and care for kindred and friends and our unfortunate and less favored brethren. Christmas stands for a festival of remembrance and kindness to fellow men. These are essential elements of the Christmas anniversary, and they have a stronger hold on the human race as the years go on.

It is this spirit of Christmas that makes us more gentle, courteous, humane men and women, following more closely the precepts of the Great Teacher, the anniversary of whose birth is thus noted and remembered. It is appropriate to observe that anniversary by doing something that will bring happiness to others, as Christ himself brought peace and comfort to human hearts.

Port Angeles will celebrate the occasion, as usual, in a befitting manner. Nowhere in the land have the people more cause to enjoy the day to its fullest capacity than in the State of Washington, and right here in Angeles. The past year has brought forth unexcelled blessings, possibly some of them disguised, but nevertheless blessings in their truer sense. In the churches and in the homes this blessed anniversary will be observed according to the merits of the occasion, and the merits are many and manifold.

That Washington will be allowed five congressmen in the reapportionment following the taking of the census of 1910, is the prediction made by Guy E. Kelly, of Tacoma, census enumerator for the Second Washington district.

The political rearrangement which will ensue will be of particular importance to Southwestern Washington, as well as to the Northwest, both being at present in the Second district, which has shown a high rate of increase for the decade. Mr. Kelly estimates that Pierce county, including the city of Tacoma, and Thurston county, in which Olympia is located, together with one other of the adjacent counties, either Mason, out of the present Second district, or Kitsap, out of the present First district, will be sufficiently populous to be entitled to one congressman.

It is considered possible that Chehalis, Clallam, Island, Jefferson, Kitsap, Mason, and San Juan counties will be made a district by themselves. The interests of these counties are practically identical and such a division would make an ideal congressional district.

THE OAK STREET FRANCHISE

In passing the Oak street wharf franchise, giving a ten year lease to one of the most important streets for wharfage purposes in the city, without any restrictions as to when the wharf shall be completed, the saloon dominated council has again demonstrated to what lengths it will go in the interest of private parties as against the interest of the people of the city. There isn't the least doubt, we take it, but that Mr. Filion and Mr. Miller applied for the franchise in good faith, and that the gentlemen who are behind the venture, reputed to be Messrs. Filion Miller, Grubb and others, intend to build the wharf this winter or in the early spring. Nor is there any doubt but that the business of the town makes the wharf a public necessity. Yet the fact remains that a franchise has been granted for a term of ten years without any requirements that the wharf shall be built at any time during that period. Not only that, but the rental of $1 a year for the first five years and $10 a year for each year thereafter, does not begin to run till the wharf is completed. Could the most sanguine speculator ask for more? As business men the applicants could have had no objection to a time limit for completion of the wharf. A time limit was specified in their former franchise. Similar requirements have been made in every franchise ever granted by the city. Without such requirements the council could not have repealed the recent water franchise, without such requirements the Port Angeles Eastern would still retain its rights to the major portion of the water front; without such requirements in the past city affairs would long since have gotten into a most deplorable condition. Had not the saloon ring been in control of the city council a wharf franchise without a time limit for construction would never have been asked for, much less granted.

Action has been commenced by H. L. Mitchell and D. A. Christopher to have the Superior Court review the action of the County Commissioners recently in laying out and contracting for the establishment and building of a certain road from Port Crescent to Lake Crescent, a distance of about six miles, at a cost of approximately $17,000. The plaintiffs or relators allege that the Board has "irregularly, and without authority or jurisdiction in the premises, proceeded to establish and contract for the construction of a certain wagon road in said county, running over the lands of the said relators, without having jurisdiction either of the persons of said relators, or of the subject matter . . . and contrary to and in contravention of the statute laws of the state of Washington." January 11th is specified as the time for hearing.

Dispatches tell us that the Middle West is shivering from the coldest weather of the winter, the thermometer registering from 10 to 35 below in Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota and Montana. Of course people living in the soft climate of the Puget Sound country, where the mornings are seldom frosty enough to quicken circulation, will get no pleasure out of the discomfort of other ; at the same time they are not unmindful of the blessings and comforts which nature showers upon them. The people of the East hardly get over the extreme heat of the summer until they are plunged into frigid winter again. To people living in Western Washington where a gentle breeze from the Pacific fans away the hurt of the hot sun and the warm Japan current tempers the cold in the winter, it is a wonder why people will continue to live elsewhere.

Christmas season has come to be recognized as a reliable business barometer, and this year shows a great improvement in conditions as compared with other seasons. Our merchants, express offices and post office all report largely increased business over that of former years, showing that our people more generally than before had the ability and spirit to make larger remembrances to friends and kindred, in more numerous presents and of a better quality and larger cost. Not only present conditions but confidence in the future is a factor in Christmas shopping, and there never was a time when the people of Angeles had more confidence in the future, than now, based on reliable indications and promise.

If the editor of the Tribune-Times would scrape the festooned moss from his eyebrows, quit playing with his toes and pondering on such ancient and infantile subjects as "Why is a hen?"— in short, if he would wake up to the living present, he would realize that the day has gone past when anyone but an imbecile can claim that a democrat is an anti-prohibitionist. With the Solid South and everyone of the so-called doubtful states either absolutely dry or dry with the exception of certain cities and extremely limited areas, a man must be either a knave or a fool who would expect people to believe that a democrat is a man who believes in saloons.

WON OUT IN SULLIVAN CASE

John Trumbull, Esq., attorney for James A. Murray, holder of $68,000 mortgage against the Sullivan building, Seattle, won his case for his client before the Supreme Court last week. This case has become famous through eight years of litigation.

When James A. Howe and his associates in the Mercantile Investment company of Seattle were attempting to freeze out the other heirs to the Sullivan estate, tenders were made of the amount due on the mortgage. These tenders, however, were conditional upon the turning over of the mortgage interest to Howe. The tenders were declined. Murray nor his agent or attorney would not become a party to the effort of the Seattle people to eliminate the Irish heirs. The tenders, in gold coin, was made to Mr. Trumbull personally. The coin was brought into his office in Seattle in bags by tellers from a local bank and deposited upon the floor, when Mr. Howe's attorney made the tender, which Mr. Trumbull refused to accept.

The Mercantile Investment company thereupon brought suit to set aside the mortgage on the ground that tenders had been made for its payment and declined. The King county superior court decided in favor of the Investment company, declaring the mortgage invalid. The supreme court sets aside this decree of the lower court, which attempts to absolutely wipe out of existance a $68,000 mortgage, holding that justice demands that no court of equity can deliberately destroy this amount of property. The order gives the administrator the privilege of paying the claim without further legal procedure.

Mr. Trumbull is naturally somewhat elated over the outcome. To win so important a case before the supreme court means something for his ability as a legal advisor.

Nice frosty mornings, the frost disappearing as the day advances, with a clear sky and warm sunshine, is what dame nature is giving the people of this section for the coming Christmas tide.

Notice and Summons by Publication.

In the Superior Court of the State of Washington, for Clallam County.
No. 625.

Susie D. Harvey plaintiff, vs. R. R. Love, and all persons unknown, if any, having or claiming to have an interest in and to the real property hereinafter described, defendants.

The State of Washington to R. R. Love and all persons unknown, if any, having or claiming to have an interest in and to the real property hereinafter described:

You and each of you are hereby notified that Susie D. Harvey is the holder of Certificate of Delinquency numbered 2475 issued on the 1st day of October, 1907, by the County of Clallam, State of Washington, for the amount of One and 42-100 Dollars, the same being the amount then due and delinquent for taxes for the years 1904, 1905 and 1906, together with penalty, interest and costs thereon, upon real property assessed to you and of which you are the owner or reputed owner, situated in said county, and particularly bounded and described as follows, to-wit: Lots numbered three (3) and four (4) in block numbered four (4) in McGill's Addition to Port Angeles, and upon which she has paid taxes assessed against said property as follows:

Year's Tax	Date Paid	Amount
1907	July 1, 1908	25 cents
1908	Aug. 29, 1909	35 cents

Total amount of taxes paid since date of certificate of delinquency 60 cents.

All of said amounts bearing interest at the rate of fifteen per cent. per annum; and you are further notified that she will apply to the Superior Court of the State of Washington, in and for said county, for a judgment foreclosing her lien against the property hereinbefore mentioned, and you are hereby summoned to appear within sixty days after the date of first publication of this summons, exclusive of the day of said first publication, and defend this action or pay the amount due, together with costs; and in case of your failure to do so, judgment will be rendered foreclosing the lien for said certificate of delinquency, taxes, penalty, interest and costs, against the lands and premises hereinbefore mentioned. Date of first publication December 10, 1909.

Any pleading or process may be served upon the undersigned at the address hereafter mentioned.

You and each of you are hereby notified that James L. Harvey is the holder of Certificate of Delinquency numbered 2473 and 2474, issued on the 1st day of October, 1907, by the County of Clallam, State of Washington, for the amount of $2.28 for Certificate No. 2473, and $1.42 for Certificate No. 2474, the same being the amounts then due and delinquent for taxes for the years 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905 and 1906 on Certificate No. 2473 and $1.42 due and delinquent for taxes for years 1904, 1905, and 1906 on Certificate No. 2474, together with penalty, interest and costs thereon, upon real property assessed to you and of which you are the owner or reputed owner, situated in said county, and particularly described as follows, to wit:

Lots numbered eight (8) and nine (9) in Block No. four (4) in McGill's Addition to Port Angeles, embraced in Certificate No. 2473 and Lots numbered ten (10) and eleven (11) in Block No. four (4) in McGill's Addition to Port Angeles, and upon which he has paid taxes assessed against said property as follows:

	Year's Tax	Date Paid	Amt.
On Cert. No. 2473	1907	July 1, 1908	25 cts
" "	1908	Aug. 29, 1909	35 cts
On Cert. No. 2474	1907	July 1, 1908	25 cts
" "	1908	Aug 29, 1909	35 cts

Total amount of taxes paid since date of Certificate of Delinquency, $1.20.

All of said amounts bearing interest at the rate of fifteen per cent. per annum; and you are further notified that he will apply to the Superior Court of the State of Washington, in and for said county, for a judgment foreclosing his lien against the property hereinbefore mentioned, and you are hereby summoned to appear within sixty days after the date o the first publication of this summons, exclusive of the day of said first publication, and defend this action or pay the amount due, together with costs; and in case of your failure to do so, judgment will be rendered foreclosing the lien for said certificates of delinquency, taxes, penalty, interest and costs, against the lands and premises hereinbefore mentioned. Date of first publication December 10, 1909.

Any pleading or process may be served upon the undersigned at the address hereafter mentioned.

Short Suggestions.

To keep the white of eggs from falling after being whipped try adding while whipping a pinch of cream of tartar.

A vanilla bean kept in the sugar box will impart a delicious flavor to the sugar. This is a bit of advice from a French chef.

Discolored cups and dishes used for baking can be made as new by rubbing the brown stains with a flannel dipped into whiting.

Celery may be kept for several days if it is placed in a glass jar, sealed and kept in a cool place. When wanted, it should be soaked in ice water.

When frying mush, dip the slices first in the white of an egg. This makes it crisp.

It is said that prunes are greatly improved if a little cider is added to the water in which they are cooked.

Milk may be kept from scorching, says a good cook, if the pan in which it is to be cooked is rinsed in cold water before the milk is poured in.

Leave no canned goods in a can that has been opened; remove at once. This may rob the vegetables of some food value, but it is safest and best to do so.

For Old People.

After reaching the age of forty the human system gradually declines. The accumulated poisons in the blood cause rheumatic pains in the joints, muscles and back. These warnings should be promptly relieved and serious illness avoided by using the following prescription which shows wonderful results even after the first few doses and it will eventually restore physical vigor:

"One ounce compound syrup of Sarsaparilla; one ounce Toris compound; half pint of high grade whiskey. This to be mixed and used in tablespoonful doses before each meal and at bedtime. The bottle to be well shaken each time." Any druggist has these ingredients or he will get them from his wholesale house.

Queen Cream Biscuits.

Two cupfuls of sifted flour, half a cupful of cream, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one of sugar and a half saltspoonful of salt. Mix the flour, sugar, salt and baking powder together, then add the cream and one well-beaten egg, mixing all together with a silver knife. Handle the dough as little as possible while making it into small round cakes. Bake in a hot oven for about ten minutes. This quantity will make a dozen biscuits.

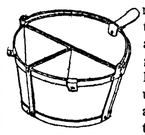
Handy Cooking Utensil.

Time, money and space are saved by the cooking utensil designed by an Ohio man, and all housekeepers will readily understand the merits of this article by merely glancing at the illustration. This utensil consists of a stewpan with three separate compartments in which three vegetables may be cooked at once over one lid of a stove or one flame of a gas range. The pan comprises a skeleton frame of bottom and top hoops and side bars and three receptacles, one taking up half of the capacity and the others being quarters. Each of these receptacles has a clip which fits over the rim of the frame and by which it may be lifted into place or out aagin. As each of these vessels is separate it is not necessarily that the vegetables to be cooked in them require the same length of time. As one is done the partition can be lifted out. Such a utensil, when used on a gas stove, uses up only one-third as much gas as under ordinary conditions.



SAVES TIME.

He Knew His Worth.

Self-confidence is one of the most valuable qualities to one who would rise quickly. No doubt the youngster who figures in this story from the London Daily Mail is already well on the way up.

A gentleman calling on a member of Parliament one day, while waiting in the reception room, was attracted by the manner of the small attendant, and started a random conversation.

"And how much do you earn a week, my boy?" he inquired.

"Ten pounds," said the youngster, with avidity.

Being shown into the member's private office just then, the visitor's surprise found vent in words.

"Mighty bright youth you have, to be getting ten pounds a week," he remarked.

"Why," said the member of parliament, "he gets only twenty-two shillings."

"But he told me just now you were giving him ten pounds a week," persisted the gentleman.

"Nonsense!" said the members of Parliament, and he touched the bell.

"Billy," he said, "did you tell this gentleman I was paying you ten pounds a week?"

"No, sir."

"You didn't? Well, what did you say?"

"I said I earned it," was the prompt and stout repoinder.

The Greatest Mistakes of Life.

According to a famous English judge, the fourteen great mistakes of life are:

To attempt to set up our own standard of right and wrong and expect everybody to conform to it.

To try to measure the enjoyment of others by our own.

To expect uniformity of opinion in this world.

To look for judgment and experience in youth.

To endeavor to mould all dispositions alike.

Not to yield in unimportant trifles.

To look for perfection in our own actions.

To worry ourselves and others about what cannot be remedied.

Not to alleviate if we can all that needs alleviation.

Not to make allowances for the weaknesses of others.

To consider anything impossible that we cannot ourselves perform.

To believe only what our finite minds can grasp.

To live as if the moment, the time, the day were so important that it would live forever.

To estimate people by some outside quality, for it is that within which makes the man.

Many a man passes for wise because he asks questions which cannot be answered even by himself.

A Mistake.

"Oh, doctor, he growled so savagely I was sure he was mad even before he went on in such a biting way.

"I beg your pardon, madam, but is it your large dog or your small pet one you are speaking of?"

"Law, doctor, it isn't my dog I am talking about; it's my husband."—Baltimore American.

A woman can put no greater confidence in another woman than when she confides to her that she has found a bedbug.

When a woman sets a good example she never knows what it will hatch out.

Headache

"My father has been a sufferer from sick headache for the last twenty-five years and never found any relief until he began taking your Cascarets. Since he has begun taking Cascarets he has never had the headache. They have entirely cured him. Cascarets do what you recommend them to do. I will give you the privilege of using his name."—E. M. THE NEWS FROM THE COUNTY

DUNGENESS

Squire Roberson, father of Lewis Roberson, is visiting in Dungeness.

A. E. Withers, master mechanic 13th light house district, was at the station estimating expense of repairs required by reason of the recent storm.

F. Ward, son of J. Ward, is home for the holidays.

Dr. Warner, optician, of Blyn, was in town Sunday.

Mr. Meyers attended the local teachers institute held in the high scho l room at Sequim Saturday.

Mr. Seal was in Seattle Saturday. His daughter Caroline, who has been to school in Portland, returned with him for the holidays.

Miss DeVoigne will spend the holidays with her parents in Ellensburg. School will open again Monday, January 3rd.

Mrs. McAlmond went to Seattle Monday.

The clam chowder supper was quite a success. The Ladies Aid are now planniug for a New Years' dinner.

Christmas exercises, with a Christmas tree, will be held at the church Friday evening. Everyone invited.

Miss Rachel Martin is home for the winter.

The young people passed a pleasant evening at the parsonage Tuesday stringing pop corn and making decorations for the Chrismas tree.

Mrs. McLaughlin returned home from Port Angeles with her daughter, who has been under the doctor's care.

Mrs. Jones, of Twin River, mother of Mrs. McLaughlin, is visiting here, together with Mrs. Flora McLaughlin.

BLUE MOUNTAIN

Fred Sutter and Fred Neuenschwander have made a new piece of road in front of Mr. Sutter's place.

Mr and Mrs. Dan Jackson have spent a few days with her sister in Port Angeles.

Miss Lottie Emory is staying with her sister in Port Angeles and attending high school.

Mrs. Butler will remain in Angeles until after the holidays.

Mr. Hale and Mr. Lewis are working on a piece of road where forty rods of punchenn was washed away with that heavy rain we had a few weeks ago.

We have learned that Mr. Machenheimer is getting along very nicely.

The Blue Mountain school property is still being improved. A large new wood shed has been built the last two weeks.

MOUNT PLEASANT

We're having as fine winter weather as any man could ask for.

We understand that D. H. Bodily has just purchased the Ballou 40-acre tract from A. G. Draper, also 20 acres joining it on the north side and will make his home there. Welcome to Hank among us. There is still a lot of first class land here for homes; come and see us.

We have been reading the news items of "Dikie" in the T.-T., and while they are good there are others in Mount Pleasant, for this is a community of rivalry. "God save the King." There, throw this in the waste basket, and I won't come back. CINDY.

FORKS.

Eli Collings is putting the last touches on the Henrie building, topping it with a concrete chimney, and putting in a platform and steps in front.

Dan Pullen is finishing the inside carpentery work on Henry Morgenthaler's new residence. Dan is an A 1 workman in that line.

Miss McMillan went to Clallam the first of the week.

John Iverson is turning out a good deal of lumber at his mill but does not catch up with the demand.

The Government weather observer here reports forty inches of precipation during the thirty days ending Dec. 12th. But the week following has brought us nearly a week of glorious sunshine.

Henry Marshall is making good progress on the new bridge across Colby Creek. His road crew are now grading down the approaches, and the timbers will soon span the stream.

WILL OCCUPY ALDWELL BUILDING ON FRONT ST.

There is not a busier man in town these days than R. A. Muskett of the Times Clothing Mart. Few business men in Angeles have built up a larger trade than has Mr. Muskett. The Times Clothing Mart is known from one end of the county to the other, and it is a safe guess that a business visitor from either end of the county could not think of making a trip to the county seat to trade with our merchants without a call at the Times Mart. The visit would not be complete without it.

Mr. Muskett carries a large stock of clothing and gents furnishings, rain coats and rubber goods, dry goods, shoes, blankets, notions, and in fact about everything usually found in a well regulated establishment of this kind. He is courteous, good natured and always obliging, a liberal user of printers' ink—and that means a liberal dealer—and the searcher for bargains knows where to find both Muskett and the bargains.

Just now Mr. Muskett is more than busy selling a large line of toys and other holiday goods to Christmas buyers and preparing for a Removal Sale, which is now on, to the new Aldwell building on Front St., which he expects to occupy with his store after February 1st, next.

Mr. Muskett tells us that he proposes this sale shall be his greatest effort along this line since he has been in business in Angeles. That he proposes to greatly reduce his present large stock if bed-rock prices and fair dealing count for anything. He says that he thinks that it will be cheaper to move the cash than the goods, and wants all his friends and everyone interested to call and get some of the bargains offered.

The new location, the Aldwell building, one of the finest store rooms in town, will give Mr. Muskett a much better opportunity to display his goods—but we we will refer to this later, this great removal sale is what we want to think of at present. Remember the sale is now on and that you are entitled to some of the bargains offered if you do not delay too long. Holiday goods are included in this sale—everything goes and at the lowest possible price.

The Oak street wharf franchise, asked for by Messrs. Filion and Miller, was granted Tuesday night, the provision being added, upon the suggestion of City Attorney Smith who stated that he did not wish the ordinance passed as read without his protest being of record, that the wharf company keep in repair the extension and approach, north of Front street. Councilman Fitzgerald took a decided stand in the interest of the City by insisting that there should be some requirement as to when work should be commenced or the wharf completed. He demanded that some time be set, say three, five or six months, stating it to be his opinion that the council was setting a bad precedent.

Christmas won't be complete without a visit to Fisher's Bazaar where presents for old and young at prices to suit any purse.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Trumbull, Miss Helen Trumbull and Mr. Allan Trumbull will spend the joyous Christmas season in the city, guests of Annette Trumbull. Messrs. Sawyer, Mrs. Trumbull's brothers, are also expected from Walla Walla.

Two interesting events occurred at the Methodist parsonage on Wednesday. The day marked the 70th anniversary of Mrs. Angie D. Monk, Mrs. Hartsell's mother. The weekly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the church was also appointed for that date at this pleasant home. Good cheer abounded, and that kindly elderly lady, Mrs. Monk, was the recipient of numerous tokens of love and friendship. Light refreshments were served.

Order.

In the Superior Court of King County, State of Washington.
In the Matter of the Estate of Manassee Swank deceased.

Upon reading and filing the petition of Lincoln W. Swank, the duly appointed administrator of the estate of Manassee Swank, deceased, praying for an Order to sell certain real estate to pay the debts of the deceased and the costs of administration; and it appearing from said Petition that there is not any personal estate in the hands of the administrator to pay the debts outstanding against the deceased and the expenses of administration, and that it is necessary to sell the whole of the real estate of the deceased to provide funds for the payment of such debts, It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said real estate be and appear at the Superior Court of King County, Probate Department, in the Court House, at the City of Seattle, on the 17th day of January, 1910, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. and show cause, if any there be, why an Order should not be granted to the Administrator to sell the real estate of the deceased, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to pay the charges and debts. Said Order shall be published for four successive weeks in the "Olympic-Leader," a newspaper published and printed in City of Port Angeles, Clallam County, Washington, where said real estate is situated.

ROBERT H. LINDSAY,
Court Commissioner.
Filed and Entered Dec. 10th, 1909.

Notice to Creditors

In the Superior Court of the State of Washington, for Clallam County.
In the matter of the Estate of John P. Hawkes, deceased.

Notice is hereby given by the undersigned J. E. Beam, administrator of the estate of John P. Hawkes deceased, to the creditors of said John P. Hawkes, deceased, and to all persons having claims against the said estate, to exhibit them, with the necessary vouchers, within twelve months after the first publication of this notice, to-wit: within twelve days after the 17th day of December, 1909, to said administrator at his office at The Filion Mill and Lumber Company, Port Angeles, Washington, or at the office of J. E. Cochran, attorney, rooms 18, 19 and 20, Aldwe l Building, Port Angeles, Washington, the same being the places of the transaction of the business of said estate in the County of Clallam, State of Washington.

Dated this the 14th day of December, 1909.
J. E. BEAM.
Administrator.

Impounding Notice

Notice is hereby given that I have picked up running at large one little bay mare of about 900 lbs., believed to be the property of Indians on the Elwha, whose names are wholly unknown to me. Said animal has been running at large for some months past and during the recent snow was left to care for itself. All persons interested are hereby notified that unless said animal is called for and redeemed before such date, it will be sold at auction to the highest bidder on Monday, December 27th at Chambers' barn, at 10 o'clock a. m. and the proceeds applied to the care and expenses of said animal and sale.

A. J. COSSER, Sheriff.
Dated this 16th day of December, 1909.

We could make clothes

expressly for you here at home, but a local tailor shop today is impractical and unprofitable.

It has no labor market from which to secure desirable cutters and tailors —

It cannot afford to install a modern plant designed to reduce cost of production —

It doesn't do sufficient business to enable it to buy woolens direct from the mills —

It cannot keep abreast of metropolitan styles and workmanship.

Therefore, we send our orders for fine made-to-measure clothes to Ed. V. Price & Co., of Chicago.

We can take your measure the same way we would if running shops here, and furnish you your clothes, made as you want them, at 50% less than we could make them locally. Won't you call today?
