Become a Teen Leader at the Library

Gain valuable leadership and event planning skills this summer while working toward your volunteer letter! This year, the Port Angeles Main Library is accepting a limited number of Teen Leaders. Teen Leaders will assist with special event development, help other volunteers, plan trainings and develop displays for the library. Each Teen Leader will be required to work on an agreed upon individual or group project throughout the summer, and will have the opportunity to earn up to 30 service learning hours towards their high school letter. Students who have volunteered at NOLS in the past are preferred, but previous experience is not required. All Teen Leader applicants must be attending high school or the Running Start program in the fall of 2017 (9th-12th grade).

Orientation & Trainings: Required unless noted

Wednesday, June 7, 5-8pm Teen Leadership Training

Meet other teen leader volunteers, discuss volunteer expectations, learn about project management, form small groups and task assignment. Pizza provided.

Saturday, June 10, 10am-1pm, Teen Leadership Training & Work Party
