Kennedy party having fine time 'camping'

PORT ANGELES, Wash. (AP) — Ethel Kennedy fell in a creek and the park superintendent was thrown from a horse but otherwise everyone was having a fine time Friday at the Kennedy-Douglas luxury camp in Olympic National Park.

Vacationing Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy and U. S. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas and their party were "roughing it" in a setup so elaborate that one packer called it "the Olympic Hilton."

12½ MILES

Kennedy, Douglas, their wives and party including four Kennedy children went in 11½ miles Thursday with a 24-horse expedition.

They camped at Elkhorn, on the Elwha River, in the Olympic Park area often called "The Last Frontier." The camp included such civilized details as a 40-foot mess tent, warming stoves in individual tents and portable lavatories with moulded seats.

The start from the road end at Whiskey Bend was marred when John Doerr, Olympic Park superintendent, fell from a horse and broke his collar bone.

KEPT SECRET

The camp site had been kept secret to give the party privacy. The travelers were amazed to find two Seattle Times newsmen waiting at a footbridge at the Lillian Creek shelter, 4½ miles in from Whiskey Bend.

Disdaining a wide footbridge, most of the group tried to cross the swift creek on a broken, slippery log. That was where Kennedy's wife, Ethel, fell in. She was soaked but smiling.

Kennedy and Douglas, who hiked into Elkhorn while most of the party rode, took the safe footbridge route.

SOME EMBELLISHMENTS

At Elkhorn camp beside the Elwha there normally is only a small rustic shelter for campers. Today, the Times reported, these embellishments were included:

A 40-foot mess tent with stoves, benches and tables.

For fishermen, a choice of wading boots.

Facilities for badminton, baseball, chess and card games.

Portable, prefabricated lavatories set up in a meadow.

The menu last night was turkey, tonight roast beef, tomorrow night steak. That is, unless there's a good catch of fish.

Judge stirs up court matters

There was a flurry of activity in superior court Wednesday as Judge Max Church interrupted his vacation to help clear up a few matters.

Two men were sentenced, two more were bound over from justice court and two groups of young men pled guilty to burglary charges at their arraignments.

James D. Hobucket, La Push, received a 1½ year deferred sentence after being convicted of burglary in the second degree. Hobucket was convicted of the Feb. 22 burglary of Art's Tavern, Forks. He broke into the storeroom there and stole several cases of beer.

RONALD J. GAGNON, Neah Bay, was given a one year deferred sentence after being convicted of indecent exposure. He committed the act before two women in the laundromat at Neah Bay, Feb. 3.

Robert C. Bates Jr., Forks, and Kenneth E. Harris were both bound over from justice court after hearings there. Bates is accused of assault in the second degree. Harris is accused of abandonment and non-support.

James D. Banks, McCleary, and Fredric R. Priest, Sequim, pled guilty at their arraignment for second degree burglary Wednesday.

They were arrested in LaPush Tuesday on suspicion of breaking into a car Monday and taking some clothing and a rifle. They admitted the crime, and are being held in city jail awaiting the completion of a pre-sentence investigation.

RICHARD ROBERTS, Raymond Davis and Vern Burton Jr. also pled guilty to burglary in the second degree at their arraignment. They admitted the July 22 burglary of Bailey's Grocery, 518 W. 8th.

Roberts and Davis were released to the commander of their ship and Burton is out on bail awaiting the completion of presentence investgiation. Roberts and Davis are both in the Navy.

Prosecuting Attorney Howard V. Doherty also filed a charge of grand larceny yesterday in superior court against Basil A. Decker. Decker, who is out on bail, was arrested by city police Tuesday on suspicion of the theft Monday of $150 worth of scrap copper wire from Peninsula Iron and Metal.

Doerr hurt

ONP Superintendent John E. Doerr is resting in Olympic Memorial Hospital with a broken collarbone and rib, after a horse fell with him yesterday.

Doerr said he and Bob Hurworth were about to start up the trail after the Kennedy party, when Hurworth decided to adjust the bridle on his mouth. As he swung his horse around to wait for Hurworth Doerr said, the horse stepped in a boggy area beside the trail and fell.

When the horse started to roll over Doerr said he rolled clear and had the wind knocked out of him. He was rushed to the hospital, where x-rays disclosed the extent of his injuries.

"I'm gald it happened to me instead of one of our guests," he said.

Railroads plan to cut working force

CHICAGO (AP)—Federal Judge Joseph Sam Perry granted today a temporary injunction to operating railroad unions. The ruling bars introduction of new management economy rules pending appeal.

The U.S. District Court order could delay application of the expense-slashing program, which eventually would knock out 65,000 jobs. The carriers had planned to put the new rules in effect next Thursday.

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's railroads plan to cut their work force by about 10 per cent in an effort to reduce operating costs.

James E. Wolfe, spokesman for the railroads, told a U.S. District Court hearing Thursday that the economy drive eventually would eliminate some 65,000 jobs.

The court battle in which five operating unions, representing 210,000 workers, are attempting to block the proposed dismissals continues today. The unions are seeking a temporary court order to preserve present railroad work rules until the job issue can be settled by a higher court.

WORK RULES

The carriers want an immediate reclassification of work rules that would make obsolete the jobs of some 40,000 firemen who presently ride in the cabs of diesel locomotives.

But Wolfe said this is just the first step in the over-all economy effort.

Unnecessary labor expenses, Wolfe testified, cost the nation's railroads $592,062,000 annually.

The reclassification, in line with the recommendations of a presidential fact-finding commission, would result in the immediate dismissal of 13,000 firemen, those with less than 10 years seniority. The 40,000-job reduction would be accomplished gradually by retirement, transfer and normal job turnover.

25,000 OTHERS

In addition, Wolfe testified, the carriers hope to eliminate 25,000 additional operating workers in accordance with the work rules proposed by the presidential commission.

The unions say they will strike rather than allow the new work rules to go into effect.

White House action probably would block such a move—at least for 60 days. President Kennedy, under the Railway Labor Act, can preserve the status quo by the appointment of an emergency fact-finding board. Its recommendations presumably would form the basis for renewed negotiations between management and the railroad unions which would put off a showdown still further.

DUTIES PRESENTED

The duties and responsibilities of a railroad fireman were presented at Thursday's hearing by wolfe and Samuel C. Phillips of Cleveland, assistant president of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen.

Any man hired at random, said Wolfe and Samuel C. Phillips of a fireman well enough after a single train run to halt a train in case of an emergency.

Phillips said examinations are required of firemen after their first, second and third years on the job to test their capabilities. He said firemen have exacting job responsibilities.

The five operating unions involved in the long dispute represent engineers, trainmen, firemen, conductors and switchmen. Working conditions of all are affected by the proposed rules changes.

New bill aids families living on mining claims

By JOHN KAMPS

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill designed to help thousands of families avoid eviction from homes on mining claims in the west is due for early consideration by the House.

The House Interior commitee has approved a bill sponsored by Rep. Harold T. Johnson, D-Calif., to permit full-time occupants to buy land on which they have built homes and made other improvements.

FIVE ACRES

The occupants, facing eviction in a crackdown against fake mining claims, would be allowed to buy up to five acres each at fair market prices. Mineral rights would be retained by the government.

Going along with arguments by Johnson and federal officials, the Interior commitee held:

Many of the occupants staked legal claims in good faith, hoping to find minerals in the federal lands. They build homes and made other valuable improvements and took up permanent residence on the claims.

No minerals were found in many cases, and for various reasons some occupants were unable to acquire patents to the land.

START CRACKDOWN

Park and Forest Service officials started to crack down last year against squatters illegally occupying federal land.

The committee was told there may have been some persons who, under the guise of staking claims, were primarily interested in establishing residence on public lands not available for occupancy or sale under federal laws. But these, the committee held, were greatly outnumbered by persons acting in good faith, in accordance with law.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior John A. Carver Jr., said the California mother lode area has the biggest number of problem cases.

But hundreds exist in Colorado, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, Montana and South Dakota, he added.

UGN board meets, sets goal

The UGN board will meet Tuesday night to set the 1963 drive goal.

Executive Secretary Claudia Fields said the board will also decide whether or not to include the Diversified Industries, Inc. Agency in the UGN participants. The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. at the Elks committee room.

Prospects dim for any tax cut, signs indicate

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy consulted his top economic advisers today on the question of a tax cut—a prospect now apparently dimming—and there were signs he might go before the people on television.

The White House promised a statement which press secretary Pierre Salinger said would have some general relationship to the President's meeting with tax and economic experts from within and without the government.

Asked whether the White House has asked for radio and television time Monday night, Salinger told reports: "I couldn't say anything about that now."

Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges said that most of the important economic indicators for July were brought into the White House conference. It took a rush job to get some of them ready, he said.

It was these for which Kennedy was waiting before reaching a final decision on whether to ask for a quick tax cut.

Some of these indicators edged upward, lending weight to the idea that the President would hold off a recommendation for a tax cut at this time.

Several members of the Cabinet, the presidential Council of Economic Advisers, the budget director, and others took part in the round table economic talks.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg, as did Hodges, took some new economic figures to the meeting.

The session lasted a little more than an hour. Some of the participants stayed behind at the White House to talk with staff members afterward.

Along with Hodges and Goldberg, those called to the White House for the meeting included Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, Budget Director David E. Bell and the three members of the Council of Economic Advisers headed by Walter Heller.

Russia again rejects plan

By LOYAL GOULD

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet Union rejected today an American proposal for zonal inspection to supervise world disarmament.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin, on Thursday rejected a Western compromise proposal for a nuclear test band. He refused then even to talk about international inspections on Soviet soil.

THREE STAGES

Today's Western proposal contained in America's three-stage disarmament program was designed to meet some objections against unlimited inspections of Soviet territory.

The Western formula was outlined by U.S. Ambassador Arthur H. Dean before the 68th plenary session of the 17-nation disarmament talks.

Dean suggested the big powers' territories be divided into nine zones. In the first part of disarmament, international inspectors would be entitled to enter the first zone, but would not be allowed to make any investigation whatever in the other eight zones. As disarmament progresses, Dean said, the inspectors would be allowed to enter additional zones. Dean compared this to the sampling technique used for production checks in industry.

SPY MOVE

Zorin repeated the Soviet argument that the Western plan was merely a method to slip espionage agents into the Soviet Union.

Originally, Western plans called for an entire nation to be open to disarmament inspectors for verification of forces and armaments.

The Western nuclear compromise plan was spurned Thursday by Zorin even before Dean had a chance to outline it. It called for fewer control posts to detect illegal nuclear blasts and fewer on-site inspections of suspicious events.

One Canadian group backs off on lumber

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — A British Columbia lumbering group has dissassociated itself from a statement that restrictions on Canadian softwood imports to the United States are unjustified.

B. M. Hoffmeister, president of the Council of Forest Industries, said Thursday his group is remaining silent on the situation arising from the statement by the Canadian Lumber Association Wednesday.

The association contended there was no supporting evidence to justify restrictions on softwood imports. At the same time, it called for a cooling off period in a lumber dispute between Canada and the U.S.

The dispute is over complaints by Pacific Northwest lumbering states that Canadian imports are taking over too much of the American market.

Billie Sol handed new indictment

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department announced today the indictment of Texas financier Billie Sol Estes on new charges of misrepresenting his financial condition in statements made to the Commodity Credit Corporation.

Deputy Atty. Gen. Nicholas deB. Kazenbach said the charges were contained in an indictment returned this morning by a federal grand jury in Dallas, Tex.

Katzenbach said the jury also indicted Robert Earl Clements, 67, of Amarillo, Tex., on five counts of transporting fraudulently obtained securities in interstate commerce.

The Estes indictment, Katzenbach said, charged him with understating his liabilities in reporting to the CCC in connection with his storage of grain for the government.

Estes was accused of stating in a report submitted last March 8, that his liabilities totaled $8,852,430, whereas the liabilities actually exceeded $11 million, the jury said.

A statement submitted April 3, 1961, listed Estes' liabilities as $6,352,461, but the jury said that they actually exceeded $10.4 million at that time.

An Oct. 9, 1961 statement gave Estes' liabilities as $7,916,740 instead of the actual total of more than $12 million, the jury charged.

Retail sales show increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — Retail sales increased by two per cent in July—a significant advance—following a two-month decline, the Commerce Department reported today.

Preliminary figures placed July sales at $19,451,000,000—up from the June total of $19,096,000,000. The July level was $19 million higher than the figure for May but fell short of the April peak of $19.6 billion.

The advance report on retail sales was one of the economic indicators awaited by President Kennedy as he moved toward a decision on whether to ask Congress for a 1962 tax cut. Many economists also had been anticipating the July report as a measure of consumer confidence.

The figures announced today were adjusted to take account of normal seasonal swings and differences in trading days. The report was based on a survey of 2,000 firms operating 39,000 stores.

July sales of durable goods were up about five per cent from $6 billion to $6.3 billion. The key to this advance was brisk sales of new autos.

Deliveries by stores specializing in soft goods increased by $69 million to more than $13.1 billion.

Ike sees queen, visiting ailing Churchill

LONDON (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower had lunch at Buckingham Palace with Queen Elizabeth II today and then called on his old friend, Sir Winston Churchill.

Eisenhower drove to London's Middlesex Hospital in midafternoon in an American Embassy car escorted by two motorcycle police.

Sir Winston, 87, recovering in the hospital since June 29 from a broken hip, was reported to be out of bed and sitting up in a chair. His wife, Lady Churchill, visited him a short time before Eisenhower arrived and said Sir Winstron "seems a lot better and is happy."

Eisenhower was greeted by loud cheers from a crowd of 200 as he entered the hospital. He responded by giving the crowd his familiar two-handed wave and smiled to hospital employes and office workers nearby who were learning from windows.

Deadline near for Soblen

By DENNIS NEELD

LONDON (AP) — Britain's second midnight deadline for EL AL Airline to ship Dr. Robert A. Soblen to the United States neared today and an aviation source reported a strong possibility the fugitive spy would be aboard the Israeli airline's night flight for New York.

There was no confirmation from El Al, however, and no indication that it would modify its refusal to take Soblen to America.

In Tel Aviv, passengers for today's El Al flight 265, due to depart at 3 p.m. for an 8 p.m. stopover in London were told it would not take off before 5 p.m., for "technical reasons." That would set back the time pattern in London to just two hours before the midnight deadline.

The Israeli government instructed the airline previously that if Soblen was put aboard a New York flight, the other passengers should be removed and Soblen taken to Israel.

NO BOOKING

"We have no booking for Dr. Soblen, but there are a few seats remaining," an El Al spokesman said.

"This is an extremely delicate matter involving three governments," a qualified aviation source said. "I am not at liberty to divulge anything definite."

But he advised newsmen to be at London Airport for the plane's 8 p.m. (3 p.m. Eastern Standard Time) departure time.

"There is a strong possibility that Dr. Soblen will be on it," he said.

SET DEADLINE

Britain's Home Office set Wednesday midnight as the deadline for El Al to fly Soblen to New York but extended it until tonight when the Israeli government refused to deliver the fugitive to America.

The Home Office gave El Al the option of designating another airline to act as its agent in transporting Soblen. Pan American offered to take him, but El Al said it had no intention of asking another airline to take the convicted spy to America.

The flight of the psychiatrist sentenced to life imprisonment for wartime spying for the Soviets has embroiled the United States, Britain and Israeli in a legal wrangle.

No evidence controceptive drug harmful, AMA concludes

CHICAGO (AP)—There is no evidence that the use of the oral contraceptive pills cause blood cloting, says the American Medical Association and the president of the drug firm which manufactures the pill Enovid.

The AM A statement Thursday followed a report of thrombophlebitis cases affecting women who had taken the pill Envoid. Dr. F. J. L. Blasingame, executive vice president, said the AMA had made a careful scientific review of oral contraceptives.

NO EVIDENCE

The study, he said, "has found absolutely no evidence that the use of the oral contraceptive caused the reported cases of thrombophlebitis (bloodclotting)."

Public concern over the reported cases led to a ban on the sale of the drug in Norway.

John G. Searle, president of the G. D. Searle & Co., manufacturers of Enovid, said in a letter to the company's more than 16,000 stockholders that intensive research was made into the possibility of adverse side effects after the company was told in December 1961 that two women who died in Los Angeles of pulmonary embolism as a result of blood clotting had been taking Enovid.

APRIL CONFERENCE

As a part of the research he said, a conference was held in Philadelphia last April at which leading medical and drug authorities took part.

"The conferees concluded that no causal relationship between Enovid and thrombophlebitis had been demonstrated and that the taking of Enovid involved no more risk of thrombophlebitis than would be incurred in early normal pregnancy," Searle said.

28 CASES

Searle said that since Enovid was first marketed in 1957, the firm's medical staff has received reports of 28 cases of thrombophlebitis involving women who were taking Enovid.

"In 10 of the 28 cases, pulmonary embolism occurred and five of these proved to be fatal."

He added that an estimated one million women have used Enovid in the past five years.

The firm has advised some 350,000 physicians to give particular attention to the lack of positive information when considering prescribing the drug for patients with thrombolic disease or a history of thrombophlebitis.

Grange meets, hears reports

The Sequim Prairie Grange met August 8 with Robert Thomsen, grange master, conducting the meeting.

Einer Thomsen, agricultural chairman, stressed the importance for members to vote against Initiative 211. He stated that if the state was redistricted according to this plan, the rural areas would lose their representation in the legislature.

Harry LeGear discussed the still possible extension of highway 9A under "mission 66" to connect Neah Bay and Lapush. LeGear also stated that a floodlight type signal would be installed at the Carlsborg railroad crossing.

Max Schmuck reported on electrical power and Einer Thomsen gave the Fair Board report. Discussion of plans for the grange booth were also included in the business.

Mrs. Albert Teterud has called a meeting on the evening of August 20 to clean grain to be used in the booth.

After Mrs. Clyde Vail discussed the blood bank situation, the members voted to hold a blood drawing in the near future.

Earl Livingston, Pomona master, announced the next Pomona meeting to be held August 19 at the Quillayute Valley Grange at 11 a.m. The fifth degree will be exemplified by the Pomona officers.

Mrs. Max Schmuck announced the next auxiliary meeting to be held August 17 at the home of Mrs. Harold Byers.

Names drawn to serve on the next lunch committee were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Literal, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmuck, James and Larry Thomsen, Ernest Schmuck and Gebhardt Zwicker.

SHUFFLES CABINET

OTTAWA (AP)—Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker shuffled his cabinet Thursday, moving Donald Fleming out of the finance ministry he headed during perennially unbalanced budgets and the devaluation of the Canadian dollar.

George Clyde Nowlan, 63, minister of national revenue, became finance minister in Diefenbaker's first major cabinet revamping since October 1960. Fleming, 57, was made justice minister and attorney general.

Diefenbaker gave new jobs to six ministers and brought three new men into his cabinet, largely as a result of the defeat of five ministers in the June 18 general elections.

Pearsons sell store interest

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pearson have sold their interest in their supermarket to Robert Wagner and W. H. Emery of Bremerton. Pearson will continue working there until the coming grand opening.

Wagner will manage the store and plans to enlarge the meat department. He has had 15 years experience in meat and grocery business, mostly in Bremerton. His family will move to Sequim when their home in Bremerton is sold. The Wagners have four children: Craig, 9, Doug, 8, Holly, 6, and Kurt, 2.

Pearson began his business in 1940 in the Smith Building now occupied by Brown's. He later purchased the Dawley Grocery across the street and moved to his present location in 1959. The Pearsons plan to stay in Sequim.

Brown-Hartshorn vows said by candlelight

Baskets of lavender and white gladiola decorated the chancel and lavender satin bows marked the pews of the United Presbyterian Church Friday evening when Miss Leanne Hartshorn and F. Lyle Brown exchanged their wedding vows by candlelight.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Marggret M. Hartshorn of Sequim and Roy J. Hartshorn of Rainier, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. William Brown are the parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. William Wartes read the double ring ceremony at 7 p.m. in the presence of approximately 125 guests.

Mrs. Kenneth Eldridge, organist, accompanied Robin Martirossian who sang "Wedding Prayer", "The Lord's Prayer" and "Always."

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional wedding gown of white organza, with embroidered bodice and front panel. The hooped skirt had a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was held by a tiara of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a bridal bouquet of lavender roses and stephanotis tied with lavender satin ribbon. Her crystal star necklace was gift from the bridegroom.

MISS CAROL MILLER was maid of honor and Misses Jenny Jo Roberson and Nancy Lindeman were bridesmaids. They wore lavender and orchid flowered taffeta with matching headpieces. The maid of honor wore a white chiffon overskirt and carried lavendar sweetpeas. The bridesmaids bouquets were of white sweetpeas tied with lavender ribbon.

F. Lloyd Brown, twin brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. The ushers were Eugene Forest, John Wyman, Mac Campbell, and Allen Brown of Port Angeles.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding, Mrs. Hartshorn wore a blue lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses and carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore stone blue brocade satin with matching hat and white accessories. Her corsage was also of white roses and carnations. Baskets of lavender and white flowers decorated the church hall for a wedding reception following the ceremony. An arrangement of white cala lillies and lavender pom pom dahlias centered the tea table where Mrs. Joseph Lindeman and Mrs. Henry Witte poured. Mrs. Earl Miller served the wedding cake. The tiered cake, in the shape of a Maltese cross, was decorated with lavender and topped with white satin bells.

MISS BETTY Robbins and Earl Raymond served punch. Mrs. John Phillips and Mrs. John Wyman had charge of the gift table, and Susan Bilow passed the guest book.

For a wedding trip to Victoria, the new Mrs. Brown wore brown linen with beige accessories. The young couple are now at home at 115 W. 8th St. in Port Angeles.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Victor Cantu, Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lindeman, Mrs. Lee MacArthur and Mrs. Leah Rodway of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hartshorn of Longview; and Mrs. Grace Herbert also of Seattle.

Also from out of town were Mrs. George Galbraith of Medford, Ore. and Mrs. S. G. Price of Long Beach, Calif.; from Port Angeles were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilliland and daughter Grace, Mrs. Edward Gilliland, Mrs. K. L. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Nichols, Janice and Richard Nichols, and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Rayment.

WAS LEGAL

NEW YORK (AP) — A patrolman's ticketing of five automobiles assembled for a funeral may have been regrettable, says Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy, but it was correct and legal.

Murphy issued the statement Thursday concerning the action of Patrolman Kenneth Mickas, who tagged four funeral autos and a private car Wednesday outside the American Orthodox Greek Catholic Church.

The funeral director and the church's minister protested the $15 tickets.

Dungeness Club Plans for fall

The Dungeness Community Club met August 6 at the Dungeness school house with Frank Evans presiding.

Plans are being made for a series of programs called "Women's Day" to be held the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. The programs are scheduled to begin September 25.

The fall tea to be given September 12 was also discussed.

The program was provided by Dr. Leon Jones who showed colored slides taken in Hawaii.

Refreshments were served by Mmes. Robert Clawson, Earl Miller, and Leonard Leach.

Flowers brought by club women decorated the nearly completed club room which has been repaired and painted by the club members during their spare time.

Because of the holiday in September, the next meeting will be held on September 10.

Luncheon given for Laura Spath

Mrs. Firn Boggs with Mrs. C. E. Blake Sr. assisting, gave a dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Blake last week honoring Mrs. Laura Spath.

Those attending were Mmes. C. E. Fortman, Edward Blake, H. A. Peterson, George Eberle, Robert Hannah, Claud Bell, Arthur Bromeling, Charles Blake Jr., Fred Schmuck, H. R. McCrorie, W. C. Rhodefer, H. L. Klingler, and Harold Evans.

Mrs. Spath was presented a leather stationery case filled with air mail stationery and postage stamps. An addressed envelope from each of the guests was also included.

Mrs. Spath left Monday for Alaska where she will be employed at the government hospital at Kotzebue, north of the Artic Circle.

Sequim briefs

Sequim ROTARY heard Harry Brenn speak on the foreign aid program. Visitors were Wes Spicher of Lancaster, Calif., Robert Wells of Columbia, Mo., Chaplain Benn Willets of Ward, Wis., Al Palo and Mike Schmidt of Port Angeles, Ricky Hertzog, Richard Granum, and Gene Teesdale.

The PRISCILLA CIRCLE met August 7 at the home of Mrs. Robert Hannah with 16 members present. Mmes. Carl Howard and Ben Nelson gave the program on Bible and mission study. Mrs. Walter Fishel will be hostess for the meeting in September.

THE MARY MARTHA CIRCLE met August 8 at the home of Mrs. L. W. Leach with nine members and two guests, Mmes. Francis Ward and Carl Howard, present. Mrs. Howard and Mrs. A. Boyd gave the program on Bible and mission study. Mrs. Wallace White will hostess the September meeting.

TOUR LEADERS — Mr. and Mrs. H. Price Webb (right) and Mrs. Gwen Franklin of San Jose, Calif. ready to board chartered bus after luncheon at Dungeness. With a party of 31 they are on a "Vagabond Tour" sponsored by the adult education department of San Jose school district.

"Vagabonds" from San Jose, Calif. on tour of Fair and peninsula

Among visitors to Sequim last week were 34 members of the adult education classes of San Jose, Calif. school district on a tour by chartered bus.

Educational tours are sponsored each year by the adult education department, with several short trips and one major tour included.

Their "Vagabond Tour" this year featured the Seattle Fair, Olympic Peninsula, Victoria and Vancouver.

H. Price Webb, director of the adult education department and tour leader, and Mrs. Webb were on a bus trip to Mexico City two years ago with Mrs. R. L. Keeting. Saturday the Keetings joined the tour group for lunch at the Three Crabs at Dungeness.

Following a trip through the Dungeness Valley, the "Vagabonds" visited the Crown Z mill and continued on to Lake Crescent Lodge for overnight. After staying two nights in Port Angeles and sightseeing in the Olympic National Park and a trip to Neah Bay, they left Monday morning for Victoria.

LOSING BATTLE

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) —The Buffalo Area Chamber of Commerce is fighting a losing battle in its attempt to erase the city's image as the snow capital of the nation.

In recent developments:

1. The Street Department in midsummer erected snow street signs.

2. Meetings have been held this summer at City Hall on snow removal.

MOON PICTURE — This picture of the moon was taken by Roger West with home made camera and telescope.

YOUNG ASTRONOMER — Roger West with the telescope he built. Through it he says it is possible to see surface detail on most of the planets of our solar system.

Roger West takes motion pictures with home made equipment

Roger West, 18, who makes his home with the Peter Granums at Dungeness, has built an outdoor telescope in a nearby field, and with a homemade camera takes pictures of the moon.

Roger is the grandson of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph West, former Sequim resident. He graduated from Sequim High School this year and plans to attend the University of Washington and major in physics.

His interest in astronomy began seven years ago when he saw pictures in an astronomy book belonging to his brother.

ASKED TO describe the telescope, Roger gave the following information: "It is a reflecting telescope employing a mirror instead of a lens. The mirrors is twelve and a half inches in diameter with a hundred inch focus and valued at over $250. The awkward appearance of the mount is characteristic of all telescopes used for tracking stars.

The highest practical power is X600, but because the atmosphere is usually unsteady and the wind vibrates the tube (due to small mount and the telscope not being housed) I don't use over X200. It is possible to see surface detail on almost every planet in the solar system.

THE MIRROR took two and a half months to grind and polish. The telescope was completed about a year ago taking one year to make. The tube is nine feet long and is made of fiberglass. The mount is made out of pipe fittings with welded on bronze bushings for bearing.

A homemade camera is used for taking pictures of the moon. "On a good night more detail can be seen on the moon than in many of the best photographs taken by the large observatories."

Roger plans to improve the telescope and camera when he moves it to his uncle's home in Seattle. Meanwhile, anyone interested in astronomy is welcome to come out and look through it.

ROTARY SPEAKERS — Wednesday's Rotary meeting featured Lt. Lee Levy, pilot of the helicopter patrolling the Gold Cup race in Seattle, and Richard Ford, executive secretary of Washington Ports Association.

Just can't pass a red light

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—A police car roared up to the scene of a grocery store holdup Thursday night. Two men had just herded 18 customers to the rear of the store, shot up its plate glass window and fled with $737.

"There they are!" shouted the crowd.

There in front of the store, officers said, sat the two men in their car—waiting for a red light to change.

Overtaken down the street and arrested were Jimmy L. Coleman, 39, and Ted Maynard Drew, 25, both of Chattanooga. Both were charged with armed robbery and carrying a pistol.

INJURIES FATAL

COULEE DAM (AP)—Matthew Scrimpp, 25, of Keller, Ferry County, died Thursday of injuries received in an auto crash which killed his uncle, Albert F. Scrimpp, Tuesday night.

Letters to the Editor

FERRY TRAFFIC

Editor, P.A. Evening News:

I read with interest the article on the front page of your Aug. 1 issue captioned "Tourists Spend Millions in Area," and while I definitely go along with Jim Robinson's report there are one or two figures I would like to correct.

He states that he estimates 850 to 1,000 cars per day cross the strait on the Coho and CPR. I only wish this were true. Actually, the CPR has a capacity of 100 cars per day and we have a capacity of approximately 1,000. However, in July we ran an average of 560 cars per day and I believe the CPR handled about 90, or a total of approximately 650 cars per day.

Another interesting item which was not covered but which I am sure would be of interest to you is that during the month of June we put 3,000 more cars into Port Angeles than we took out of Port Angeles, and during July we put 4,000 more cars into Port Angeles than we took out of Port Angeles.

Last year during the month of July we averaged 215 cars per day from Port Angeles to Victoria; this year we averaged 216 cars per day. In other words, the World's Fair and our efforts have not particularly helped the Coho this summer from P.A. During this same month last year we handled from Victoria to Port Angeles an average of 240 cars per day, this year our average was 348 cars per day.

Another interesting item is that the ratio of passengers to vehicles (including, of course, foot passengers) last year was 3.5 passengers per vehicle. This year the average is 4.7 passengers.

At the end of the season we will give you much more information. However, we cannot help but comment on the fact that we have two full-time representatives covering California, Oregon, Washington and British Columbia, areas which generate somewhere between 85 and 90 per cent of all traffic on the Coho, and we have distributed over a million copies of our own literature plus that which has been furnished in Port Angeles and Victoria, and I think the cost of doing this job will run in the neighborhood of $25,000.

Apparently it is paying off for Port Angeles and the Olympic Peninsula in that we are bringing many more people into the area than we are taking out.

FALL ELECTIONS

Editor, P.A. Evening News:

Having detected the thought, from high places, that conflict, decisions and victory are unthinkable, and that we should show our moral superiority by casting aside our weapons and other advantages, we can but wonder if this will be done in the fall election campaigns.

Have not modern elections become so horrible and complex, what with TV ads, etc., that there can be no victors? Are we not in a long twilight era (what follows that?) wherein the best we can hope for is just to keep on talking and never hope to count the ballots? Would we not be better off to court world opinion, and save someone the sadness of coming out second best?

Could not this moral superiority be demonstrated by encouraging government employees to tell what is wrong in their area, and how payrolls could be cut? Certainly the use of national figures in local elections would have to be eliminated, as would criticism of the opposition; after all, we can't hurt their feelings.

Instead of Fulbright criticizing Goldwater's and, why does not Fulbright insist on taking Goldwater into a coalition government?

The coexistence campaign would indeed add new dimensions to political history, also known as the Battle of Hustings. Probably the chief difficulty would be in the ranks of the incumbents, most of whom seem to believe that it is fine to import products from behind the Iron Curtain, that are produced by slave labor and are thusly cheaper, so can compete with American standard of living products, and export our workers' jobs.

Even they find a renegade in their ranks once in awhile, who doesn't believe that. And how can they run on their past record without a united front?

WAGE OFFER

SEATTLE (AP) — The Boeing Co. proposes basic wage rate increases ranging from 16 to 26 cents an hour, over three years, in a reply to International Association of Machinists demands. The present hourly scale is $1.98½ to $3.26½.

The union, representing 46,000 production workers at operations here, Wichita, Kan., and Cape Canaveral, Fla., asked a cost-of-living allowance, plus a 3 per cent wage boost before negotiation talks recessed at Wichita July 16. The present contract expires Sept. 15.

A union request for a union or agency shop clause was turned down.

DRY RUN — Members of the Port Angeles Jaycees get practice in installing seat belts in their own cars before embarking on their Seat Belt Clinic scheduled here Aug. 17-18-19. They plan to sell the belts and install them free during the three-day event. Installation teams will set up shop on Laurel St. between 1st and Front from 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Friday, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday and from noon to 10 p.m. on Sunday. Working in the car is Micky Ranta, left, and Darold Davidson. Under the vehicle is Bill Bork. Overseeing the operation is Jaycee President Gerald Johnson, left and Don Baar, clinic chair man.

DIPLOMAT — Philip D. Sprouse, a career foreign service officer, has been named by the President to be ambassador to Cambodia. He's a native of Greenbrier, Tenn.

Plan shelter for forest building here

OLYMPIA (AP) — A 15-man basement fallout shelter will be built into the new $88,691 district headquarters building of the State Department of Natural Resources at Port Angeles.

State Land Commissioner Bert Cole, as department executive officer, disclosed the project Wednesday. He said the shelter will include civil defense equipment, as well as provide extra work space.

Some, but not all, of the new district headquarters to be built in the future will also have such shelters, Cole said. They will be ones in key areas.

Under the state's civil defense act, the department's field staff is responsible for fire suppression in event of a nuclear attack.

GIFT CARGO

ALGIERS (AP)—Soviet Charge d-Affaires Sergei Gaverin formally handed over to Algerian authorities today 6,500 tons of wheat. It was brought to Algiers in the grain ship Ugleuralsk, first Soviet vessel to dock in Algeria since the nation became independent.

There was a small mystery about the cargo of the Ugleuralsk, a ship of 11,800-ton displacement.

She was lying as low as possible in the water and clearly carrying full capacity cargo of 8,000 metric tons. But the captain said he carried no cargo other than the gift of 6,500 tons of wheat.

Hoover's library dedicated

WEST BRANCH, Iowa (AP)—Back in 1957, when he helped dedicate the Harry Truman Library in Independence, Mo., a gushing matron asked Herbert Hoover what ex-presidents of the United States do with all their time.

"Madam," he said wryly, "we spend our time taking pills and dedicating libraries."

Today, on his 88th birthday, Herbert Clark Hoover, was not noticeably spending much time on pills. But he was dedicating still another library — his own this time.

NOT ON PILLS

Today, the 30th and 32nd presidents of the United States, were in Iowa in reverse roles. This time Hoover starred and Truman played a supporting role a a kind of a eciprocation among friendly, library-dedicating ex-preidents.

The Hoover Library, a handsome stone-faced building, stands on a 28-acre park near the two-room cottage where he was born in 1874, near the muddy creek he swam in and the hill where he rode sleds as a boy.

ORPHANED AT 10

It was here too, that Hoover was orphaned at the age of 10 and from here was moved by relatives to Oregon with a total wealth of 20 cents in cash and a wardrobe limited to the suit he wore.

The library now tells much of the long, remarkable career that followed. There are mementoes of Hoover's worldwide travels as a mining engineer. There is one room full of empty flour sacks. The flour had been sent to Europe when Hoover was food relief administrator during the first world war.

The sacks now in the library were ornately embroidered and sent back to Hoover by grateful Europeans.

"POLITICS 1962"

"POLITICS 1962," a vital story that can affect the life of every American, is being told in daily dispatches to this newspaper by the experienced political writers of The Associated Press.

These dispatches are being filed from the nation's political nerve center in Washington, from state capitals, and from the campaign trails as they wind through the nation's big cities and way stops. They are carrying all sides of campaign debates to American voters, told fairly and clearly in the tradition of the world's greatest news service.

"Politics 1962" will rise in tempo. It will reach its climax Election Day, Nov. 6, when 38 U. S. Senators, 435 members of the U. S. House of Representatives, 35 state governors and many other officials will be chosen.

And as the millions of ballots are counted, AP's famous election returns system will gather results accurately and swiftly.

Watch for these stories of the political campaigns and the election results in

Dear Abby....

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our 12-year-old boy was born with a harelip (cleft palate) and a club foot, too. It cost us up in the thousands to make him normal and, in our eyes, he is normal. He has a nice personality. He joined a Little League baseball club and was thrilled when he made the first team.

The other boys made so much fun of him it broke my heart, so I made him quit the team and returned the suit. Did I do wrong?

UPSET MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Yes. If there are traces of your son's handicaps he must learn to live with them. Protecting him from unpleasant situations is not helping him to adjust. You meant well, but you should have let him slug it out.

DEAR ABBY: Never did I think that a syndicated columnist would put me in second place with my boy friend. He had the nerve to tell me not to fog up his glasses until he finished reading DEAR ABBY.

MISS BY A MILE

DEAR MISS: You're being framed! And HE needs contacts.

DEAR ABBY: Will you please warn kind-hearted truck drivers and other drivers NOT to pick up elderly people unless they know the hitch-hiker is in full command of his mind? My father is almost 80 and walks with a cane. Once, on his way to the grocery store (which is half a mile down the road), he hitched a ride with a truck driver who drove him 200 miles. It took us five days to locate him. Another time he hitched a ride with a man who took him to Chicago. We had the police looking for him for two weeks. Old folks are sometimes forgetful. It is better to let them walk.

LOOKING FOR DAD AGAIN

CONFIDENTIAL TO IRMA: You are mistaken (and so was I until Dr. Raper straightened me out!)—dentures, no matter how expertly fitted, do not come close to doing the job as well as one's natural teeth. So do yourself a favor and take good care of the teeth you have.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have a Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

How's the world treating you? For a personal unpublished reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, care of this paper.

Joyce news

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Johnson and children Brian and Neda of Seattle were weekend visitors at her father's home, Harold Brewer. Other recent visitors at the Brewer home were his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert McMullen of Billings, Mont., and a brother, Alvin Brewer of Post Falls, Ida. Mr. and Mrs. Mullen spent several days at the fair and visited other relatives and places of interest in Washington while he visited his brother before they returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Quenn Hodgdon and children spent the past week vacationing at their summer cottage on the lake. They also visited in Victoria for a couple of days. Mrs. Gerald Thompson helped at the Joyce store during their absence.

Father Michael Schmitt was a visitor at the Francis Schmitt home on Thursday of last week. Father Schmitt is chaplain at Northern State Hospital at Sedro Woolley and a nephew of Schmitt's.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Schweitzer and family of Portland Oregon were recent visitors at the Francis J. Schmitt home.

Recent houseguests at the home of Mrs. C. Seldomridge was her grandson Ted and a friend of his from Los Angeles. While here they attended the fair. They like the Olympic Peninsula so well they plan on coming back. Other guests of Mrs. Seldomridge were Leone Harrel and Emmie Kellogg of Los Angeles. They also saw the fair.

TRASH COLLECTING — In 4-H work each club must have a community project. The Shamrocks elected to pick all trash and bottles on one mile of highway in the Agnew area. The picture below shows Jeffrey Baar, Lawrence Percival and Steve Percival with a small portion of the nine bushel socks of trash they collected in one afternoon. Members of the club not pictured are: Richard Baar, William Baar, Edward Conner and Ralph Priest.

Home from long trip

Home after a summer of travel and sight seeing are Mr. and Mrs. Gus Strange of Clallam Bay.

The Stranges left Seattle by train June 22 for Richmond, Ind. to take delivery of a new 40 passenger school bus for cape Flattery district 401.

In Richmond Guy Warfield, of the Warfield Service Center where the final check is given to all school busses put out by the Wayne plant, gave them a tour of the bus plant.

Enroute home they made a stop over at Cresco, Iowa where Mrs. Strange was born. They visited relatives they had not seen for over 50 years.

The Stranges then headed west through the Bad Lands of South Dakota, visited the national monument at Mt. Rushmore and saw Old Faithful, among other beautiful sights in Yellowstone Park.

Back in Seattle they spent several days at the World's Fair. While her husband brought the new bus the rest of the way, Mrs. Strange stayed in Seattle to he care for a new granddaughter born July 10 to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson.

Mrs. Strange attended a family reunion at Juanita Beach on Lake Washington July 29 and returned home, bringing her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rausal, daughter Nikki and son Andy from Victoria, Texas.

The Rausals were here to attend the reunion and visit the world's fair. They will return to Texas Tuesday.

CAPETOWN, South Africa (AP) —The Methodist Church of South Africa has disclosed its plans to set up a "racially inclusive church" in a major city in this country of apartheid (strict racial separation). The new congregation is expected to be set up in Capetown.

Miscellaneous shower honors Kay Butler

The home of Mrs. Phil White was the scene of a miscellaneous shower Monday evening honoring Miss Kay Butler whose marriage to Darrell Seed will take place at the First United Presbyterian Church Saturday.

Pink roses and white gladioli centered the lace covered dining table. The colors of pink and white were carried out in the white cake with pink strawberry topping, pink and white napkins and pink punch ladled by Miss Elaine Butler. Pouring were Mrs. Virgil Butler and Mrs. L. K. Lindelien.

In a paper game "furnishing the bride's house" Mrs. Merrill Oakes was the winner, and Mrs. Ernest Harding took top honors in a quiz game.

Guests included Mrs. Carl Konopaski, Mrs. George Endicott, Mrs. Peter Wasnock, Mrs. Vera Brown, Mrs. Ellen Stanard, Mrs. Vernon Helwick, Mrs. Felton Shriner, Mrs. Joe Wolfe, and Mrs. L. K. Lindelien.

Also attending were Mrs. Merrill Oakes, Mrs. Jeanne Albright Hurt, Mrs. Guy Albright, Mrs. Wilfred J. Wilcox, Mrs. Ernest Harding, Mrs. Virgil Butler and the Misses Kay Butler, Elaine Butler and Cherry Helwick.

Other guests were Mrs. Lloyd Bennett, Mrs. D. J. Lewis, Mrs. Thomas Hawkins, Mrs. Lawrence Seed, Mrs. Gertrude Wood, Miss Kathy Lindelien Mrs. Fred Van Scoyoc.

Hostesses were Mrs. White, Mrs. J. A. Montgomery, Mrs. Frank Archer and Mrs. Boyd Turner.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Lawrence of Snowflake, Arizona are visitng this week with her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Dellmere Peterson, and his parents Mr. and Mrs. George E. Lawrence. The elder Lawrence was hurt recently in a fal lat Neah Bay.

Bob Harvey AEC, Mrs. Harvey and three sons are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Frisbee, 1036 E. 9th. After being stationed at Anette Is., Alaska for nearly four years, they are now enroute to St. Petersburg, Fla. to take up new duties there with the United States Coast Guard.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones saw Mr. and Mrs. David Langdon briefly here yesterday. Langdon was formerly a teacher at Roosevelt Junior High. He is now a boys' counselor at a junior high in Montery, Calif. With the Langdons were their four daughters, Robin, Debra, Clair and Barbara, and also Mrs. Langdons parents. The Langdons were on their way to Aberdeen where her parents live.

Miss Gretchen Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hanify, returned Tuesday from a month's vacation in New Mexico. She stayed with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Broadbent at Carlsbad Cavarens.

Miss Miller enjoyed side trips to El Paso, Texas and Juarez, Mexico. She also spent a few days in Santa Fe, New Mexico with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams.

The Williams and Broadbents are former Port Angeles residents having been stationed with the Olympic National Park.

Supt. and Mrs. John E. Doerr have Mrs. Doerr's sister Dorothy from Hollins College, Va. as a houseguest for the next two weeks. She arrived Aug. 1 by way of Lake Louise, Banff and Victoria. Mrs. Dorr and her sister took a three day trip to Mt. Rainer and then down to Portland to visit friends.

Dennis M. Jensen, Rt. 3, was among 196 entering freshman at the University of Washington awarded scholarships. Scholarship applications totaled 1,100 this year, reports James F. Bemis, director of the financial aid program at the university. Grades, test scores, faculty recommendations and participation in school and community activities were criteria for the scholarship recipients. Jensen's awarded was the Peter G. Schmidt Memorial Scholarship.

Gunnar O. Fagerlund, principal naturalist from Washington the D. C. office of Natural Resource, will be visiting here until Aug. 12. Fagerland was chief nauralist of Olympic National Park while a resident of Port Angeles. He and his wife are houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Samuelson.

4-H garden gets top mention

Eighty Clallam County 4-H boys and girls are participating in the 4-H garden project this year.

The Percival boys (pictured above) produced one of the outstanding 4-H gardens in Clallam County according to Elden Andrews, county agent. The 4-H garden project teaches boys and girls how to prepare the soil, order the garden. Those boys and girls with outstanding gardens are invited to the Sears Luncheon honoring the top gardeners in the county. If you are driving around Clallam County and see a productive, weed-free garden along the road, quite possibly a 4-H garden club member lives there.

Unseasonal fog hampers salt water fishermen

By HARRY COVENTON

Fishing pressure has been light off Ediz Hook the past three days due to the heavy morning fog laying over the straits.

Wednesday nine fish were weighed in at the Thunderbird Boat House. Thursday only four fish had been weighed in up until 5 P.M. and only a few boats were on the water at that time.

Word comes from Neah Bay of a 58 pound chinook brought in there. Charter boats are taking limits of silvers regularly, but are fishing outside of Tatoosh Island for best results. Sekiu had two kings over 50 pounds weighed in so far this week, and although fishing is not "hot" quite a number of big kings are being brought in there each day.

Pillar Point has been real slow all week with only an odd fish being brought in there. Freshwater-Crescent Beach area also slowed the past few days although an occasional big king is being checked in.

Fred Germeaux weighed in a 36-pounder and Charles Shephard a 30-4 fish, the latter on display at Coventon's Tackle Wednesday.

Trout fishing slowed down during the week but water conditions still remain near perfect and more activity should show over the coming weekend. One good report comes from Lake Aldwell where several good catches were reported the past couple of days.

Top swimmers to meet

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

CUYAHOGA FALLS, Ohio (AP) —The greatest field of international aquatic aces since the 1960 Olympics opened competition today in the three-day men's National AAU outdoor swimming championships.

George Haines, coach of the crack Santa Clara (Calif.) S.C., said if the 50-meter Water Works pool was fast, world records would fall in wholesale lots because of the high caliber field from Japan, West Germany, Australia, Canada and the United States.

Five of the 14 titles were at stake in the opening day's program, the 200-meter backstroke, 100-meter butterfly, 400-meter free style, 100-meter breaststroke, and 400-meter individual medley.

The freestyle featured a return battle among Roy Saari, 17-year-old whiz from El Segundo, Calif., who whipped Australia's Olympic king, Murray Rose, and world record holder Jon Konrads in completing a triple sweep in the National Indoors last April.

The medley finally brought world record holder and defending champion Ted Stickles of the Indianapolis A.C. and West Germany's record buster, Gerhard Hetz, face to face. Stickles, 19, set the world standard of 4:55.6 last year and he and Hetz have taken turns lowering it. The Intime of 4:51.0 to the 2-year-old German's 4:53.5.

Fibreboard wins Babe Ruth crown

By FRANK DENNY

Fibreboard took claim to the title 'Babe Ruth Champs of 62' in a game that was tied two-all up to the sixth when the YMCA using three pitchers let in four runs on seven walks. The final score was 9 to 2.

Mike Clayton, pitching for Fibreboard to Art Girt, performed like a veteran as he walked only two men and kept the five hits against him well scattered.

The fielding of both teams was exceptional with only one fumble in the third.

Steve Bennet of the 'Y' got the first score of the game after singling and coming in from second on George Rice's single. Rob Sorenson, singling in the third, scored on Ed Bedfords sacrifice fly to left field.

Fibreboard's Bob Bond who singled and Jim Bond on a free pass, were forced home on walks in the third.

The fourth was zero for Fibreboard as the Y's Tom Gagnon and Steve Bennett completed a double play.

Again in the fifth a double play, Gagnon to Bennett to Gardiner who fell but kept his foot on 1st, kept Fibreboard from paydirt. Dave Overstreet was left on third after slashing out a triple.

The sixth was the beginning of the end for the 'Y'. Bob Severs, Art Girt, Mike Caldwell and Robin Allen came in on Walls after the boys loaded up.

Mark Pesola, singling in the seventh for Fibreboard, brought Caldwell and Allen, both walking, in for scores. Bob Bond singled to score Bob Severs who had walked.

Sensing a victory, Allen made a sensational fall down catch in right field to give YMCA their 2nd out in the 7th. Rob Sorenson hit a hard-to-get popup foul, but Art Girt for Fibreboard, ran toward the dugout, caught the ball on the tip of the mitt and the victory was complete.

Wise-Heckman team wins in women's golf

"Two-Ball Foursome" was the tournament chosen for the annual picnic and field day by the Peninsula Golf Club women.

In first place were Cec Wise-Harriette Heckman with net 33. Tied for second place with net 37's were Olive Russell-Verna Titus, Evelyn Wilmot-Bea Maloney and Paula Hurt-Isabelle Phillips.

Florence Johnson-Evelyn Clark were "closest to pin" on No. 6 with 31 inches. High gross was awarded to two teams, Christy Robinson-Betty Sevens and Edna Pane-Lorna Munson.

Prizes for "closest to the pin" and high gross were donated by the club pro, Dick Munson.

Other teams playing were Vera Window-Paty McGillivray, Wanda Gray-Eleanor Phillips, Myrtle Ingraham-Phillis Thorpe and Pauline Palo-Betty Browne.

Joining the women for picnic lunch were Jane Lawrence of Snowflake, Ariz., guest of Eileen Sherman and Mrs. C. C. McGranahan of Ellensburg, guest of Isabelle Phillips.

The annual "Husband and Wife" tournament will be held on Sunday.

NAMED CAPTAIN

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Chuck Allen, one of the University of Washington's Rose Bowl stalwarts, will be defensive captain for the San Diego Chargers this 1962 season.

Allen, of Cle Elum, Wash., who has been playing the middle linebacker spot, was picked for the post by the Western Division champions of the American Football League Wednesday.

Allen broke his leg last fall after a brilliant start and was out much of the season.

Beavers' Giggie hangs shutout on Padres; Rainiers win 8-1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The front-running San Diego Padres have a washed out look on their faces today, courtesy of Bob Giggie and the Portland Beavers.

The Pads got the whitewash slapped all over them Thursday night as Giggie hurled a three-hitter in blanking the Pacific Coast League leaders 4-0.

Meanwhile Salt Lake City traded blows with Vancouver in a doubleheader that shaved the San Diego lead to six games.

TWILIGHT CONTEST

Vancouver swept to an 8-5 victory in the twilight contest, but the Bees zipped back with a stunning 13-2 barrage in the nightcap.

Seattle buried Spokane a little deeper in the cellar with an 8-1 win and Hawaii bumped Tacoma 9-4.

Giggie allowed only six San Diego runners on the bags as he hurled his sixth win of the season. He just rejoined the Bevos after a brief journey to Kansas City and the major leagues.

HOME RUN BLASTS

Home runs were all over the place in Vancouver's victory. Joe Christian smashed three and Chuck Weatherspoon belted two more in the Mountie attack. The Canadians unleashed 18 hits in the opener, but had to take cover in the second game.

The Bees hurtled 18 hits of their own back in the nightcap. Hal Jones and Max Alvis powered a pair of homers to pace the victory. Jay Ward walloped one for the losers.

FIVE-HITTER

Recent Army release Bill Thom pitched the Rainier victory. It was a five-hit affair as Seattle whipped to its fifth straight win. The game also was the third in a row over the Indians and gave Seattle the series 3-0.

Lefty Dick Egan added another game to his win string with a seven-hitter over Tacoma. It was the 14th victory for the Hawaii hurler, the league's winningest moundsman.

PLANS FIGHT

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Boxers Phil Moyer of Portland and Florentino Fernandez of Cuba meet in a 10-round middleweight bout tonight.

Fernandez knocked out Moyer two years ago in a nationally televised bout in New York.

Moyer recently defeated former middleweight champ Sugar Ray Robinson and is on the comeback trail after a short retirement.

Twins' Rollins, Allen proving tough pair

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Now, let's see. What's the top one-two punch in the American League today? Maris and Mantle? Cash and Colavito? Rollins and Allen?

Rich Rollins and Bernie Allen of the Minnesota Twins don't threaten Norm Cash and Rocky Colavito of the Detroit Tigers or Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris of the New Yrok Yankees in home runs. Not by any means.

BUT THE CONTRIBUTIONS of Rollins, 24, a third baseman, and Allen, 23, a second baseman, compare favorably with those of the M-M and C-C boys in all other hitting departments, including their combined bating average.

Here is how they stand: Maris-Mantle .271 average, Cash-Colavito .260, and Rollins-Allen .290.

Rollins and Allen each drove in four runs as the Twins outlasted Kansas City 12-10 Thursday and regained a share of second place, five games back of New York.

Chicago's Eddie Fisher threw a sparkling three-hitter in a 6-0 triumph over the Los Angeles Angels, Boston and Bill Monbouquette blanked Cleveland 4-0 and Detroit handed Washington its sixth straight loss, 8-5. Baltimore at New York was postponed by rain.

IN THE NATIONAL League, first-place Los Angeles Dodgers beat Philadelphia 8-3, second-place San Francisco belted the New York Mets (7-1), Cincinnati defeated Houston 7-3 and Milwaukee shut out Chicago's Cubs 1-0. St. Louis and Pittsburgh were not scheduled.

Allen produced three singles and a double and raised his average to a season high of .27 in the Twins tri7mph over the A's. Rollins, who is now hitting .305, got maximum mileage out of a couple of singles. His four RBI give him 79, tied for the No. 2 spot in the league.

Fans get chance to see pro battle of 'Macs'

By JACK HEWINS

SEATTLE (AP) — Fans will learn Saturday that you can tell a McIlhenny from a McElhenny by the color of, and the number on, the uniform.

The Minnesota Vikings will tangle with the San Francisco 49ers in the University of Washington stadium at 2 p.m. launching their pro football pre-season exhibition schedule.

Hugh McElhenny, former Washington All America, will play left half on offense for the Vikings.

SMU STAR

Don McIlhenny, once a star at Southern Methodist, will play left halfback on offense for the 49ers. Both names are pronounced Mac ill-haney, so the announcer won't help. But the McI will wear No. 35 on a white jersey and the McE will carry No. 39 on purple.

Hugh (McE) will not be the only ex-Northwest collegian in Saturday's fracas. The 49ers will have defensive end Joe Kominsky, former all-Evergreen Conference ace at Central Washington, and Aaron Thomas, offensive end who played for Oregon State.

HEAVILY STOCKED

The Vikings are heavily stocked with products of the Northwest—even to the bosses. Coach Norm Van Brocklin played for Oregon.

General manager Bert Rose and publicity director John Thompson both trained for their jobs as University of Washington publicists.

Quarterback George Shaw and halfback Jack Morris are Oregon products and halfback Dean Derby is another Washington contribution to the Viking alley. Tackle Jim Prestel, who weighs a solid 250, attended the University of Idaho. Quarterback Lee Grosscup played frosh football at Washington before switching to Utah.

The Vikings head for Portland next for their Aug. 18 date with the Los Angeles Rams..

NEEDS CAPITAL

OLYMPIA (AP) — A Yakima Valley group, whose articles of incorporation for a new bank at Toppenish have won state approval, has until Oct. 30 to raise $390,000 paid-up capital to qualify for a state charter.

State Banking Supervisor Joseph C. McMurray approved incorporation papers Wednesday for the Central Valley Bank.

It will be the 72nd in the state if it gets a charter, and the third one chartered this year. Nine such charters have been granted the past four years.

Family picnic

The annual 248th Coast Artillery Association picnic will be held at Fort Worden on Sunday. All former members of the 248th are invited to attend. The 41st Division Band will be there for a parade at 12:00 noon. This is a family affair, and each family is to provide their own picnic dinner. After the parade a tour of the old gun emplacements is planned.

Minor alarms

City firemen were called to two minor fires within 20 minutes of each other yesterday.

At 6:22 p.m. they were called to the Owen Safford residence at 1228 Columbia where there was a fire under the dashboard of a car. A department spokesman said the fire was started by a short circuit in the wiring and was extinguished with water.

At 6:40 p.m. they were called to the Anna L. Metcalf residence at 109 E. 6th where there was a flooded oil stove. The fire was confined to the stove and there was no damage, the spokesman said.

GOP winds up for big convention at Yakima

By LEROY HITTLE

YAKIMA (AP) — Delegates to the Republican state convention mingled with GOP candidates for public office Friday as they registered for their biennial conclave opening in the YMCA here Saturday morning.

Gov. John A. Volpe of Massachusetts was slated to make the keynote address.

Members of the platform and resolutions committee started building the party's platform Thursday and said they planned to spend most of Friday nailing final planks into the policy structure.

CRITICAL PLANKS

If past practices are followed, some of the planks and resolutions are likely to be critical of the Democratic administrations on both the state and national level.

This will be the first Republican state convention since President Kennedy defeated former Vice President Richard Nixon.

It will be the Republicans first opportunity since the 1961 legislature to collectively appraise Gov. Rosellini's administration.

PLATFORM COMMITTEE

State Sen. Marshal A. Neill, Pullman, was named chairman of the GOP platform committee, and State Sen. Charles P. Moriarity Jr., Seattle, was selected to head the subcommittee on resolutions.

At their convention two years ago, the Republicans opposed a state income tax; insisted government must live within its means, and pledged themselves to operate state government on a "pay-as-we-go" basis. They were expected to reaffirm that position Saturday.

617 DELEGATES

A total of 617 delegates were eligible to attend the convention.

More than a third were from heavily-populated King County, but it was not clear whether they would make a move to put the convention on record in favor of Initiative 211, the measure to redistrict and reapportion the legislature.

Initiative 211 touched off a lively debate at the Democratic state convention in Bellingham last June, but the King County delegation failed in its attempt to win convention support for the measure.

Mort Frayn, Republican state chairman, said the party's convention here will pay special attention to GOP candidates for public office.

A "Candidates' Night" banquet was scheduled for Friday night with State Sen. Perry B. Woodall, Toppenish, as principal speaker.

Frayn said candidates at the convention for county, legislative, congressional and senatorial seats will be introduced and honored.

Marine-Air News

Local fishermen apparently don't have much faith in the weather, Ron Little said today. Fishing off Ediz Hook was very light considering the weather this morning, he said.

There were only three fish checked in yesterday by about the only two fishermen to brave the fog he said. Bill Blakey checked in 21 and 17½ pounders, and Alex Barnes had a 12½ pounder.

The submarine USS Razorback will be at the port dock Saturday and Sunday, Dr. R. S. Dubigk said today. He said the Razorback will take naval reserves on cruises this weekend and will return Aug. 24, Aug. 25 and Aug. 26.

Port Manager Jack Hogan said today the Sanyo Maru will be at the dock about eight days loading logs for Japan. She will load about 1.5 million bf in addition to the two million bf she took on in Everett.

Seven die in train, car crash

SHALLOWATER, Tex. (AP) — Seven teen-agers en route to a church picnic were killed Thursday night when a Santa Fe passenger train hit their stalled automobile.

One youth scrambled from the auto seconds before it was crushed.

Engineer Norman Bickers of Slaton, Tex., said the train—moving 79 miles per hour—fused the auto to the cow-catcher and pushed it a mile down the track. Bodies were strewn along a 105-yard path.

Killed were Barbara Fancher, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Fancher; Diane Smith, 16, daughter of Mrs. Cleo Smith; Carolyn Carson, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carson Jr.; Sharon Miller, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Miller; James Loveless, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Loveless, all of Olton, Tex.; Bill Shirey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shirey of the Sunnyside community north of Olton, and Everett Baldwin, 18, son of The Rev. and Mrs. M. B. Baldwin of Springlake, Tex.

Jimmy Lawson, 18, of Olton, told police the car was stopped on the track when he saw the "train bearing down on us."

"I jumped out and ran," he said. He added that he tried to get some of the others out of the automobile, but they apparently "froze with fear."

The accident occurred just off a farm road about 10 miles northwest of Lubbock.

Lawson, barely able to talk, couldn't explain why the car stalled. He was hospitalized.

RETURN TO JOBS

PASCO, Wash. (AP) — About 200 union pipefitters, who walked off a job involved with a new $188 million reactor at the Hanford Atomic Works, returned to work Thursday.

There was no explanation for the walkout, which began Tuesday.

Obituaries

FLOYD E. OAKES

Floyd E. Okes, 66, died here last evening after a brief illness. Rev. Lloyd Holloway will conduct funeral services at 1 p.m. Saturday in the McDonald Funeral Home.

Mr. Oakes was born Aug. 19, 1895 in Necedah, Wis. to Mr. and Mrs. William Oakes. The family came west to Ballard in 1900 and moved here in 1906.

After attending Lincoln Heights School Mr. Oakes became a carpenter and shingle weaver.

In 1927 he married Ingaborg Peterson who died in 1951. A son, Glen Oakes lives in Seattle.

Mr. Oakes was a past president of the Carpenters Union Local 1303 and member of the Central Labor Council. He was also active in the Shingle Weavers Union until his retirement in 1960.

He was past Noble Grand of the IOOF and a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are his son Glen; brothers, James and Merrill Oakes, and a sister Mrs. Harold Thompson, all of Port Angeles. His brother Percy lives in Astoria, Ore.

MRS. CARL LONSDALE

Helen Jane Lonsdale, 55, died yesterday after an extended illness.

Rev. James McDowell will conduct funeral services tomorrow at the Harper Funeral Home at 11 a.m.

Born Helen Jane Burdick, Sept. 9, 1906, in Munich, N. D. Mrs. Lonsdale came to Port Angeles with her parents when she was very young.

She attended school here and lived here most of her life. in 1926 she married Lt. Carl Lonsdale at Astoria, Ore. They traveled a great deal when he was in the Coast Guard.

After living several years in Astoria the Lonsdales moved to Nome, Alaska where they stayed for three years. When he retired they came here and retired to their farm on Mt. Angeles Road.

Mrs. Lonsdale loved the farm, the outdoors, her flowers and wild life. She remained on the farm until her death.

Surviving are a daughter Mrs. Charles Hassel and a son Lt. Cmdr. Adrian Lonsdale of Kensington, Md., USCG.

Brothers still living are Melvin and James Burdick here, Gene at Sequim, Don Burdick at Seattle and George Burdick at Puyallup.

Surviving sisters are Mmes. William Duncan of Joyce, Joseph Holtcamp of Seattle, Wallace Schoeman of Seattle, Lewis Isbell of So. Prairie, Wash.; Carl Wood of Citrus Heights, Calif., Roy Work of Longview and Don Goodwin of Ketchikan.

TOO ILL

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Eddie Cantor's family says the comedian is too ill to attend private funeral services today for his wife, Ida.

Cantor, 70, collapsed in a state of shock when told his wife of 48 years, also 70, died of a heart attack Wednesday in their home. Cantor, also suffering from a heart ailment, was given a sedative and put to bed.

NO IMPROVEMENT

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—A heart condition which forced Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., to take a rest from his duties in Washington has shown no improvement, says an aide.

Anderson, 66, underwent a cardiographic test at Lovelace Clinic here Thursday. A spokesman said the senator would rest another two weeks and then take another test.
