MEMORIAL SERVICES

In Memory of the Bennington's Dead Held at the Opera House Sunday.

Memorial services in memory of the dead in the recent disaster to the Bennington were held in the opera house Sunday afternoon. An unusually large attendance of the officers and men of the war ships at anchor in the bay were present, and the large hall was filled to overflowing, many being unable to find seats. On the platform with the speaker were seated the clergy of the city, officers of the fleet with their wives, and representatives of the city government.

The decorations were elaborate. Numbers of great flags and an abundance of beautiful flowers made up a scene of beauty not soon to be forgotten. Flags were crossed at every convenient place about the hall. Ribbons of black and white crepe encircled the platform to a shield above, and the words, painted in large letters, "In Memory of the Bennington's Dead, Peace to their Ashes," was suspended above the speaker's desk, reminding every one present of the solemnity of the occasion. Several flags formed a beautiful shield at the rear of the platform, and a pen picture of the ill-fated Bennington adorned the front of the speaker's desk, which was also draped with the stars and stripes.

The music was by the congregation. Rev. David Reid gave the invocation; Rev. W. C. Drahn read the gospel lesson; Mrs. C.E. Cushing sang "The Savior's Command" very sweetly and very pathetically; accompanist, Mrs. C. P. Brown; Rev. Horace Williston offered prayer; Dr. F.A. Cooke very feelingly sang "'Twill Not Be Long."

Rev. W. H. Whelan of the First Baptist Church was the speaker. He took his text from Luke 22-28:29. His theme was, "Fidelity to Duty and Its Natural Reward," and his subject, "The officers and men of the United States Navy." His discourse showed much thought and research and was well received by the large audience present, many being affected to tears. In eloquent words the speaker portrayed the character and achievements of the officers and men of the American navy from John Paul Jones' time down to the present day and told in burning words how the men behind the guns of the navy followed the line of fidelity to duty without fear and without fault. It was an eloquent address and Rev. Whelan added fresh laurels to his escutcheon as a public speaker. The Olympic-Leader would be pleased to publish the address in full. Want of space will permit only a short synopsis. The speaker said in part:

"Great sorrows and great joys test the capacity of the human heart for feeling, and hold us dumb in the presence. Out of the hand of destiny came this awful summons, and more than fifty gallant men sealed with their lives their full measure of devotion to God and country. The heart of this great nation is summoned again to sorrow, and eighty millions of free people look up to God and cry: 'Thy will be done!' Human logic is silent in the presence of this fearful mark of infinite power, and the clamorous yearnings of sorrowing hearts must center again at the dying McKinley's bedside to learn, through the alphabet of tears, the lesson of true resignation. Surrounded by hearts made rebellious through love, by the power of God he rose superior to human frailty, and bequeathed to the American people the greatest boon of the ages—the proof of the triumph of faith over weakness—and in the cry, 'It is God's way; it is God's way,' his ghostly presence today brings this answer to our rebellious questioning.

"No thunder of hostile guns, or crash of enemies shot graced their sudden sacrifice, yet these men died that the public good might be conserved, with a heroism just as grand as that of their shipmates who went to death on the gallant 'Cumberland' in 1861."

"Whether on the scaffold high
Or in the battle's van,
The noblest place for man to die
Is where he dies for man!"

The speaker then held up the text as the proof that God placed His seal of approval on the rewarding of those who were true to duty's call, citing the lives and services of the many heroes in naval history, and showing how a grateful people should value and reward the great duties and sacrifices made for them by the officers and men of the United States navy. In closing the speaker worked up to the grandest peroration ever heard here. A seaman himself, he was at home in talking on the subject of deeds of the officers and men of the navy.

The services closed with "America," by the congregation, and the benediction, by Rev. Reid.

SAME OLD LIE

Chuckanut People Still Claim They Have Contract.

In a column article Thursday the Seattle Times tells of the failure of the Angeles quarry people to fulfill their contract for stone to be used in the Federal Building, and says the Chuckanut quarries are at last able to furnish stone up to sample and are to be again given contract.

The facts are: The Angeles Stone Company still have the contract and propose to fill it. Mr. Barnett says they have promised to make the first shipment by the last of next week, and will do so. They have an immense body of fine stone opened up ready for working; the saws have been running continuously for weeks and the quarry yards are piled full of slabs. To-night an extra crew goes on and hereafter the saws run night and day. The contractors will have stone before the city adjusts its regrade difficulties, which alone have held up work on the building.

In the Arctic Regions.

Rev. W. H. Whelan will give his lecture on "A Trip to the Arctic Regions," in the Baptist church on Friday evening, Aug. 11th next, for the purpose of paying off a pressing debt now on the church. A synopsis of Arctic history will be given. Admission 25c. No reserved seats.

FRANCHISES GRANTED

Now Up to the Promoters to Make Good Their Promises to the City.

At a meeting of members of council and city attorney, sitting as a committee of the whole, and Messrs. Turner and Carrigan, held Monday afternoon, the railroad franchises were thoroly considered and made satisfactory to all parties concerned. The right was given to twenty-five feet down the center of Front street, from Lincoln to Valley, from which point the track will curve to First and Second, the main line passing up the bluff on a long grade to the west and then turn south at M, and a branch line running to head of bay. Many changes and additions of minor importance were made, so that the city will be amply protected if the road be built.

Councilman Brumfield presided at Tuesday's session in absence of mayor. Present: Brumfield, Brophy, Grubb, Thompson, Hallahan, Polhamus, city attorney and city clerk.

Report of committee of the whole, by W. T. Polhamus, chairman, recommending the adoption of railroad ordinances, was read.

Ordinances granting Port Angeles and Peninsular Ry. Co. trackage rights over certain streets, and those granting wharf frachises to Francis, Pine, Lincoln, Cherry, Liberty and Cedar streets were read second and third times and adopted unanmously.

Claims allowed: G. V. Smith, office rent, $5; Gutenberg Bros., supplies light plant, $8.05; F. Thompson, services at fire, 3; Al. Jensen, same, 3; Ang. Water Co., 4; D. O'Brien, wood, $69.75; C. Wise and men, streets, $24.30.

Bids for city printing received from Tribune-Times and Olympic-Leader read and referred to Finance Com. and city attorney for report.

Bid for wood supply submitted by D. O'Brien, proposing to furnish first and second growth fir in such quantities as required, at $2.25 per cord, was accepted, and contract authorized for year beginning Nov. 9, 1905.

Ladies' Guild Concert.

On Thursday evening the Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal Church, assisted by a number of musicians from the fleet in the harbor, gave a much appreciated entertainment in the opera house; the program, consisting of instrumental and vocal music, received hearty applause from the large audience. One of the principal features of the evening was the "Battle Royal," the winner being presented with a box of bonbons by Mrs. Capt. Niles. At the conclusion of the program a number of patriotic songs were sung by the audience.

Cake and ice cream was served by the ladies of the Guild. Dancing followed.

THE CIVIC CLUB

Resolutions Adopted Upon Resignation of President, Mrs. C. A. Cushing.

At the regular meeting of the Civic Club, on Tuesday, Aug. 1, the Secretary, Mrs. Annie D. Carusi, read a communication from Mrs. C. A. Cushing, in which Mrs. Cushing tendered her resignation as President of the club, stating as a reason for so doing, that she was about to leave Port Angeles to make her home in Seattle.

The resignation was accepted by the club with the amendment, "That it should not take effect until Mrs. Cushing left Port Angeles."

The vice-president then requested Mrs. Cushing to vacate the chair for a few minutes and upon her doing so, asked Mrs. F. A. Cooke to preside.

As soon as Mrs. Cooke was in the chair, Mrs. Trumbull presented the following motion: "I move that the chair appoint a committee to draw up a set of resolutions. That these resolutions shall express our acknowledgement and appreciation of Mrs C. A. Cushing's efficient services; both as president and Club member; also, of her love and loyalty to the Club. That they express our recognition of Mrs. Cushing as founder of the Club. That they express our love and respect for her, and our regret that the Club should lose her presence and her services. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Club; that a copy be sent to Mrs. C. A. Cushing, and a copy of the same be sent to each of the local newspapers."

The motion was unanimously carried by a standing vote, and Mrs. Cooke appointed Mrs. John Trumbull, Mrs. Annie D. Carusi, and Mrs. T. S. Brophy as a Committee on Resolutions.

Upon resuming the chair, Mrs. Cushing addressed the ladies of the Club in a few well chosen and beautiful words, thanking the ladies for their faithful cooperation, and assuring them of her continued love for, and interest in the Club and its work.

RESOLUTIONS.

Besolved: "That we, the members of the Civic Club of Port Angeles, do hereby express our hearty acknowledgment and appreciation of Mrs. C. A. Cushing's efficient services, both as president of our Club, and as a member thereof, since the time of its organization, June 16, 1903."

Resolved: "That we appreciate the love and loyalty she has shown, in her management of affairs, and in her personal contact with individual members."

Resolved: "That Mrs. C. A. Cushing be recognized as the founder of the organization known as the Port Angeles Civic Club."

Resolved: "That we hereby express sincere sorrow, and profound regret that she must leave us; and that we hold for her now, the love, the consideration, the respect that has been hers, from us, throughout our entire association with her."

Resolved: "That as founder of our Club, she be extended the full courtesy of the Club, and shall hold a perpetual membership thereof, whether a resident of Port Angeles or not, so long as the Civic Club of Port Angeles shall be an organized body."

Resolved: "That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Club; that a copy be sent to Mrs. C. A. Cushing, and that a copy of the same be sent to each of the local newspapers for publication."

Townsend now has a Boosters Club, organized at the Merchant's Picnic, held Thursday of last week. L. B. Hastings was selected president and an executive committee of twenty-five, with Attorney H. Ballinger as chairman, was appointed. Their slogan has not been selected as yet, but out of some fifty suggestions, "Sun's Shining at Townsend," appears to be most favored.

The county commissioners of Clallam county, says the Townsend Call, made a wise move when they appropriated money to assist in telling their advantages to the world. G. L. Caldwell, Agt. M.K. and T.R,R. Checotah, Ind. Ter., writes, April 18, 1903: "I was sick for over two years with enlargement of the spleen. The doctors did me no good, and I had given up all hope of being cured, when my druggist advised me to use Herbine. It has made me sound and well." 50c. Sold by C. E. Nailor & Co.

A CAPTAIN OF INDUSTRY.

But Is Unable to Arrange for $5,000 Bonds.

Sheriff Hopkins, with John Church as deputy, returned from Seattle Wednesday, having in custody W. W. Rowen, charged with larceny by embezzlement.

For some years past Charley Sherer has been the owner of a shingle mill located at Blyn. During 1904 Rowen and Fullerton leased and operated the mill, and acquired some property interests in the way of timber rights and shingle bolts. In February last, Rowen & Fullerton formed a corporation with Sherer, they to put their property interests and Sherer his mill and certain timber rights.

The property was then mortgaged for $1,000 to secure money to carry on the business, and Rowen proceeded to Seattle where he secured the money. Rowen & Fullerton used $500.00 in discharging their own obligations and put the balance in the bank to the corporation's credit. Rowen returned to Blyn and in his capacity of general manager proceeded to Seattle with the shingles then cut and disposed of them for $425.00. He then proceeded to Townsend and drew the $500.00 balance of the mortgage. He then arranged for the secret removal of his family from Blyn to Seattle.

By these transactions Rowen was in $1,000 and the corporation was bankrupt and unsophisticated Charley Sherer was broke.

When these things came out in the trial before Judge Hatch, an account of which was given last week, he promptly called in the prosecuting attorney and ordered an information filed against Rowen, and his arrest followed. It is probable that if Rowen would "blow-back" the $1,000.00 his prosecution would cease.

His daughter arrived from Seattle and is making an effort to bring about his release.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old-fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipiency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by W. J. Mathewson.

"WE AIM TO PLEASE"

Progressive Whist Party

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Brophy entertained a number of friends with progressive whist in honor of their guest Miss Alice True of Tacoma. The beautiful decorations of flowers, ferns, and dainty trailing vines testified to the well-known artistic ability of the hostess. The front porch was walled by shades upon which were fastened, from floor to ceiling, graceful sprays of ferns. The ceiling of the room thus improvised was festooned with vines and hung with bright-colored Japanese lanterns; the floor was covered with soft rugs, easy chairs occupied every available space, and it needed but the wave of perfume that floated out of the flower-decked room within to give the whole an air of orientalism. The highest ladies' score was made by Mrs. Frank Carlysle of Boston and was rewarded by a dainty hand-painted china card box. The highest gentlemen's score was made by Mr. Wm. Delabarre who received a handsome burnt leather tobacco pouch.

Mrs. Carlysle, who is most charming, has visited Angeles before. She has just returned from making an extended European trip in company with Mr. Carlysle and their son, and had many interesting things to relate. Among their out-of-town guests present were Lieut. and Mrs. Leohy of U. S. S. Boston, Mrs. Palmer and mother, of U. S. S. Marblehead, Miss Etta MacLachlan of Seattle, Miss Alice True of Tacoma, and Mr. Allan Trumbull.

The score cards were unique, trimmed with ribbons and natural flowers, and the refreshments, which were delicious, carried out the general color scheme, pink, white and green. Before leaving, Dr. Cooke favored the company with one of his beautiful songs and as usual scored a success.

May Success Be Theirs

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cushing returned this week from their Seattle visit, Mr. Cushing feeling better than in a long time as a result of the change of scene. Realizing from this that something in the line of business would probably go farther towards restoring Mr. Cushing to his former health than anything else, they leased the new 40-room hotel near the Carnegie Library, or on Madison, between 6th and 7th. The building is just completed and will be elegantly furnished and ready for occupancy by September 1st. They have named it the Hawthorne.

Port Angeles can ill afford to lose this estimable family. Mr. and Mrs. Cushing are among our most public spirited and enterprising citizens, in a business way as well as in church and society circles, and they will be sadly missed by a host of friends who will earnestly look forward to the day—which will surely come—when they will again take up their residence among us.
