The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) is providing a virtual community briefing regarding its commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusion, and current work with Ascending Leadership to review policies, practices, collections, programs, and resources at NOLS. The event will be held on Monday, April 26 at 6pm via Zoom.

Library Director Noah Glaude and Ascending Leadership consultants will discuss the project and next steps, including an upcoming survey seeking comprehensive community feedback. Direct links to the Zoom meeting are available at www.nols.org, or use bit.ly/nolsbriefing, or the call in feature at: 253-215-8782, Webinar ID: 990 2276 0044. Passcode: 804838.

This community briefing will be hosted as a Zoom Webinar to provide participant confidentiality during the streaming and recording of the program. Participants are encouraged to ask questions through the Q&A feature. Video and microphone capabilities are not available during this program.

Keep a look out for the community survey regarding equity, diversity, and inclusion at the Library, on the NOLS website as well as at your local branch.

For more information about this program, visit www.nols.org, email Discover@nols.org, or call 360.417.8500.

NOLS administration along with Ascending Leadership consultants present Community Briefing on inclusiveness.
