The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) is celebrating National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo) in November with a series of “Come Write In” sessions to help writers build community, make progress on a novel, or write for fun. People of all ages and all writing levels are welcome to participate—whether you are taking the 50,000 words in 30 days NaNoWriMo writing challenge or are just getting started!

Each library branch will host an in person write-in where you can write and share inspiration or commiserate with other community members. Additionally, there will be two Saturday write-ins on Zoom, where you can chat with your fellow writers, and participate in writing challenges to get some words on the page.

Learn more and get the Zoom information at nols.org/NaNoWriMo.

“Come Write In” Schedule

- Saturday, November 5 and Saturday, November 19, 1-2pm on Zoom.
- Wednesday, November 9, 5:30-6:30pm at Port Angeles Main Library.
- Tuesday, November 15, 2-3pm at Clallam Bay Branch Library.

- Tuesday, November 15, 5:30-6:30pm at Sequim Branch Library.
- Wednesday, November 16, 5:30-6:30pm at Forks Branch Library.

About National Novel Writing Month

National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo.org) is a nonprofit organization that provides tools, structure, community, and encouragement to help people find their voices, achieve creative goals, and build new worlds—on and off the page. The annual challenge started in 1999 and draws hundreds of thousands of participants from around the world. Several bestselling novel drafts have been penned during this challenge, including The Night Circus by Erin Morgenstern, Water for Elephants by Sara Gruen, and The Lunar Chronicles (Cinder) series by Marissa Meyer.
