Re: No Pressure Book Club starts March 13 at Forks Branch Library and on Zoom

The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) is excited to announce the No Pressure Book Club, a new opportunity for individuals to come together to talk about whatever they are reading. Beginning on Monday, March 13, adults and teens are invited to meet on the second Monday of each month from 6-7pm in person at the Forks Branch Library or on Zoom. Visit nols.org/no-pressure for the Zoom link.

NOLS staff will facilitate an interactive experience discussing books without any of the pressure. There is no pressure to read the same book, no pressure to read the newest and hottest titles, and no pressure to even come into the building! Readers can discuss something they are currently reading and share highlights, likes, dislikes, and give general impressions about the material.

Each month there will be a genre theme to help expand reading horizons. Participants can read within the theme or read beyond it. Everyone is encouraged to highlight their reading adventures, fiction or nonfiction.

Genre Theme:
March 13 – Audio Books
April 10 – Poetry
May 8 – Romance

June 12 – Graphic Novels
July 10 – Sci-Fi and Fantasy
August 14 – Young Adult
September 11 – Translated Works
October 9 – Horror and Thriller
November 13 – Novels
December 11 – Biography and Memoir
