North Olympic Library System (NOLS) patrons can join readers from 16,000 public libraries and colleges across the United States enjoying this year's Together We Read digital book club selection. From March 1 to 15, booklovers can access an eBook or eAudiobook of the spellbinding psychological thriller, "River Woman, River Demon," with no waitlists or holds. Visit anytime.overdrive.com or download the Libby app to borrow the book by award-winning Mexican-American and Indigenous author Jennifer Givhan. Join an online discussion about the book at togetherwewread.com/us. The free program only requires a NOLS library card to get started.

"River Woman, River Demon" tells the story of Eva Santos Moon, a burgeoning Chicana artist who practices the ancient, spiritual ways of brujería and curanderisma. She's at one of her lowest points—suffering from disorienting blackouts, creative stagnation, and a feeling of disconnect from her magickal roots. When her husband is taken into custody for the shocking murder of their friend, Eva doesn't know whom to trust—least of all, herself.

She soon falls under suspicion as a potential suspect, and her past rises to the surface, dredging up the truth about an eerily similar death from her childhood. Struggling with fragmented memories and self-doubt, an increasingly terrified Eva fears that she might have been involved in both murders. As she fights to keep her family out of danger, Eva realizes she must use her magick as a bruja to protect herself and her loved ones, while confronting her own dark history.
