Personal Storytelling Workshop with Out Loud Story Slam

As part of the Summer Reading Program, the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) is partnering with Out Loud Story Slam to offer an introductory Personal Storytelling Workshop. Join teacher and story slam host Nessa Goldman to learn how to brainstorm the most story-worthy moments of your life.

The workshop will explore what makes a solid story arc and define recurring themes. Participants will enhance storytelling skills by using voice, body, emotions, and intelligence, and will leave feeling more confident to share their stories.

Personal Storytelling Workshop Schedule

- Tuesday, July 11, 5-7pm, Olympic Theatre Arts Center, Sequim.
- Tuesday, July 18, 5-7pm, Forks Branch Library.
- Tuesday, July 25, 5-7pm, Port Angeles Main Library.

Space is limited to 20 participants. Registration is required for the Sequim and Port Angeles workshops at nols.org/storytelling.
