The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) is offering “Friends + Giving: Swap and Share,” an evening of activities along with a book and puzzle swap for people ages 20-35 at the Port Angeles Main Library on Friday, Nov. 17, 5:30-7pm. This Friendsgiving-inspired gathering is a chance for locals and new-to-town people to meet.

Activities will include crafting hand turkeys and decorating recipe cards, coloring, and platonic speed dating for participants to get to know one another. Attendees can enjoy festive snacks and bring gently used books and puzzles to swap. Any remaining materials will go through NOLS donation process and benefit the Library.

For more information, visit www.nols.org/friendsgiving, call 360.417.8500, or email discover@nols.org. This program is generously funded in part by the Port Angeles Friends of the Library.

“Friends + Giving” at the Port Angeles Main Library offers people ages 20-35 a chance to meet, and swap books and puzzles.
