The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) welcomes local artist Daria Hunt to lead Art from the Heart, an interactive workshop on Saturday, Dec. 16, 11am-12pm, at the Forks Branch Library. Adults and teens ages 14 and older are invited to participate and all materials will be provided.

Daria Hunt, who is a crafter, illustrator, and art teacher, will help participants approach drawing in a fun and carefree way, just like in childhood. Participants will discover ways to engage in self-reflection and express themselves and their emotions through artistic images.

“All hearts talk. All souls have music inside,” said Daria. “I will share how to hear it better and how to bring this song to the paper.”

For more information, visit nols.org/art-heart, call 360.417.8500, or email Discover@nols.org.
