Teens in grades 7 to 12 are invited to join the Teen Book Club for an engaging discussion on the novel "Uglies" by Scott Westerfeld. The group meets on Tuesday, July 30, from 3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Port Angeles Main Library, 2210 S. Peabody St.

Free copies of "Uglies" are available for teens to pick up and keep, while supplies last at the front desk of the Port Angeles Main Library. Additional copies and formats of the book are also available for borrowing.

Selected for the book club by the Port Angeles Teen Advisory Board, "Uglies" takes readers into a world where turning sixteen means undergoing an operation to become stunningly attractive and entering a high-tech paradise. The protagonist, Tally, faces an unimaginable choice when her friend Shay runs away: find Shay and turn her in, or never turn pretty at all. The decision she makes will change her world forever.

About the Summer Reading Program

This event is part of the "Read, Renew, Repeat" Summer Reading Program, happening now through August 24. Sign up for the reading challenge, earn a T-shirt, win prizes and participate in free events.

For more information about the Summer Reading Program, visit nols.org/srp, call 360.417.8500 or email discover@nols.org. The Summer Reading Program is generously supported by Friends of the Library groups at all four NOLS branches.

Teens can pick up a free copy of “Uglies” at the Port Angeles Main Library ahead of the Teen Book Club on July 30.
