The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) invites all ages to preview the Port Angeles Community Players Children's Theatre summer show "Murder Most Fowl." The preview takes place on Saturday, Aug. 10, from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. at the Port Angeles Main Library, 2210 S. Peabody St.

Attendees will also learn about opportunities on stage and behind the scenes for theater-curious kids and teens.

"Murder Most Fowl" is a pun-riddled murder mystery following detective Barnard and Officer Robin DeBeak as they try to figure out who murdered Lord Bawkington.

The Port Angeles Community Players (PACP) have brought creative opportunities and entertainment to the area for over 70 years, staging musicals, comedies, dramas, and children's theater. Full performances of "Murder Most Fowl" are set for Aug. 23, 24 and 25 at the Port Angeles Community Playhouse, 1235 E. Lauridsen Blvd. Learn more at paccommunityplayers.org.

About the Summer Reading Program

This event is part of the “Read, Renew, Repeat” Summer Reading Program, happening now through August 24. Sign up for the reading challenge, earn a T-shirt, win prizes and participate in free events.

For more information about the Summer Reading Program, visit nols.org/srp, call 360-417-8500 or email discover@nols.org. The Summer Reading Program is generously supported by Friends of the Library groups at all four NOLS branches.

Isaac Wendel wears a costume from the Port Angeles Community Players Children’s Theatre show “Murder Most Fowl,” which can be previewed at the Port Angeles Main Library on Aug. 10.
