Re: Fashion Show Planning and Design Session, Jan. 11

In preparation for the inaugural Forks February Fashion Show, community members are invited to a planning and design session on Saturday, Jan. 11, from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Forks Library, 171 S. Forks Ave. At this session, you can learn how to bring your upcycled fashion ideas to life and receive design assistance from Mendful. Participants will be able to use Mendful's Maker Space at Ginger's Closet leading up to the fashion show.

Then on Saturday, Feb. 8, strut down the runway in your upcycled fashion creations. Forks February Fashion Show begins at 5:30 p.m. at the Forks Library. Flaunt your designs or attend to enjoy the creativity. Refreshments will be provided at this free public event.

For more information, visit NOLS.org/events, call 360-374-6402, or email discover@nols.org. This program is generously supported in part by Friends of Forks Library.

About Mendful

Mendful is a not-for-profit initiative of Ginger's Closet and Forks Disaster Relief, focused on reducing textile waste and creating sustainable solutions for our planet. Mendful's mission is to provide sustainable options for textile waste reduction, while also creating skills and reducing the environmental impact of the fashion industry.
