The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) will host author Leslie Romer for the presentation “Lost Fire Lookouts of the Olympic Peninsula.” Romer will share insights into the Peninsula’s historical fire lookouts, including still-standing structures and former sites, and discuss their significance in the area’s past.

The free events begin at 6 p.m. at three NOLS locations:

- Monday, March 24, Port Angeles Main Library, 2210 S. Peabody St.
- Tuesday, March 25, Sequim Library Temporary Location, 609 W. Washington St.
- Wednesday, March 26, Clallam Bay Branch Library, 16990 Hwy. 112

Copies of Romer’s book, “Lost Fire Lookout Hikes and Histories: Olympic Peninsula and Willapa Hills,” will be available for purchase. A book signing will follow each presentation. Learn more about the author at leslieromer.com.

For more information, visit NOLS.org/events, call 360-417-8500, or email discover@nols.org. Programs are generously supported in part by local Friends of the Library groups.

Leslie Romer, author of “Lost Fire Lookout Hikes and Histories,” will present at libraries in Port Angeles, Sequim, and Clallam Bay. The book cover features a 2003 photograph of the Kloshe Nanitch replica cabin that stood above Lake Crescent until 2012.

Hurricane Hill Lookout cabin photo by Herb Crisler, 1940s, courtesy of Olympic National Park and featured in Romer’s book. The building was removed in 1960.
