Re: NOLS hosts "Let Your Voice Be Heard" with League of Women Voters

The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) invites community members to attend "Let Your Voice Be Heard," a civic engagement presentation by the League of Women Voters of Clallam County. Attendees will learn how to effectively share their opinions, speak at public meetings, and contact elected officials by phone or in writing.

The free 90-minute program begins at 6 p.m. and will be offered at the following locations:

- Clallam Bay Branch Library, 16990 Hwy. 112, on Wednesday, July 23
- Port Angeles Main Library, 2210 S. Peabody St., on Thursday, July 24
- Forks Branch Library, 171 S. Forks Ave., on Monday, July 28

For more information about this and other library events, visit NOLS.org/events.

About the Presenter

The League of Women Voters is a national nonpartisan, nonprofit organization whose purpose is to promote the informed and active participation of citizens in government. Learn more about Clallam County's local league at lwwcla.org.

About the Summer Reading Program

This presentation is part of the “Level Up at Your Library” Summer Reading Program, happening now through August 23. Sign up for the all-ages reading challenge, earn a T-shirt or tote bag, enter to win prizes and participate in free events.

For more information about the Summer Reading Program, visit NOLS.org/srp, call 360-417-8500, or email discover@nols.org. The Summer Reading Program is generously supported by local Friends of the Library groups.
