The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) invites all ages to “Hula Hoops and Popsicles,” a series of free parties across Clallam County featuring acclaimed hula hoop artist Hillia Hula. Events begin on Wednesday, Aug. 13, at 10 a.m. at Concerned Citizens of Forks, 945 S. Forks Ave., followed by a 3:30 p.m. party at the Port Angeles Main Library, 2210 S. Peabody St. The fun continues Thursday, Aug. 14, at 10:30 a.m. at Olympic Peninsula Academy, 400 N. 2nd Ave. in Sequim.

Attendees can enjoy Hillia Hula’s energetic hula hoop performance and join a hands-on workshop. The program includes beginner-friendly hoop moves taught through interactive games and activities. This colorful event promises fun for everyone.

Frozen treats will be provided to celebrate the end of the NOLS Summer Reading Program and all of the reading milestones community members reached this summer.

About the Presenter

Hillia the Hula Hoop Extraordinaire is a dynamic hoop artist with over 11 years of experience. Her family-friendly performances combine dazzling visuals, LED props and fun audience interaction. She's performed nationwide, including appearances with Martha Stewart, Snoop Dogg, and brands like Google, Starbucks and Marriott.

About the Summer Reading Program

These events are part of the "Level Up at Your Library" Summer Reading Program, happening through Aug. 23. For information about the Summer Reading Program, visit NOLS.org/srp, call 360-417-8500, or email discover@nols.org. The Summer Reading Program is generously supported by local Friends of the Library groups.

NOLS offers free parties in Forks, Port Angeles and Sequim with hula hoop artist Hillia Hula.

Hillia Hula performs and leads workshops at events to celebrate the NOLS Summer Reading Program.
