Re: NOLS to host monthly Tabletop Role-Playing Game Night
Attached: NOLS-TTRPG-Night.jpg

Tabletop Role-Playing Game Night will be held monthly at the Port Angeles and Forks branches of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS). Drop in and adventure to other worlds. Bring your own group or make new friends at the event. Most of the provided games are recommended for ages 8 and up; children under the age of 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

SCHEDULE

- Port Angeles Main Library, 2210 S. Peabody St.
Third Wednesday of each month beginning Sept. 17, from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.
- Forks Branch Library, 171 S. Forks Ave.
Third Thursday of each month beginning Sept. 18, from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

For event details, visit NOLS.org/events, email discover@nols.org or call 360-417-8500.

This program is made possible by the Institute of Museum and Library Services through the Library Services and Technology Act, with funding administered by the Washington State Library, a division of the Office of the Secretary of State. It is also supported in part by local Friends of the Library groups.

About Tabletop Role-Playing Games

Tabletop role-playing games (TTRPGs) are interactive, collective storytelling games that allow players to immerse themselves into different worlds, characters and scenarios. These games allow for creative problem-solving, social engagement, and other lifelong skills like reading, math and community building.
