Re: NOLS to host "Cuts" film screenings during Heritage Days

The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) will host two screenings of the documentary "Cuts," which offers a glimpse into the lives of local sawmill workers, as a part of Hickory Shirt Heritage Days. After the documentary, attendees will have the opportunity to interact and participate in a discussion.

SCHEDULE

Clallam Bay Branch Library, 16990 Hwy. 112, Wednesday, Oct. 1, at 6 p.m.

Fork Branch Library, 171 S. Forks Ave., Monday, Oct. 6, at 6 p.m.

Documentary Synopsis

Filmed at the twilight of timber's dominance in the Northwest, Charles Gustafson's 1981 documentary "Cuts" delivers a gripping observation of the hardscrabble individuals who dedicated their lives to well-compensated yet perilous jobs in the region's sawmills.

For information about the event and other free library programs, visit NOLS.org/events, call 360-374-6402, or email discover@nols.org. This program is generously supported in part by local Friends of the Library groups.
