The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) invites community members to participate in the Big Movie Watch, a nationwide digital film club offered through the Kanopy streaming service. With a free NOLS library card, participants can watch the 2007 film "Across the Universe" (rated PG-13) online from Feb. 9–23 with no waitlists or holds.

An original musical film, "Across the Universe" is a love story set against the backdrop of the 1960s, including anti-war protests, the struggle for free speech and civil rights, and the rise of rock 'n' roll. The film blends live action with animation and features music by The Beatles.

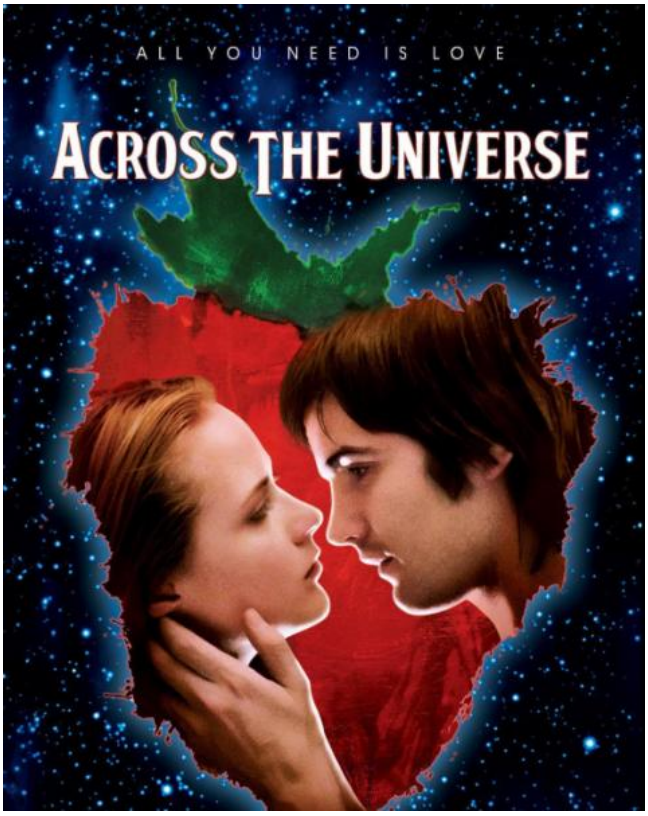
During the Big Movie Watch, NOLS library cardholders can borrow and instantly stream the film using the Kanopy app on smartphones, tablets and smart TVs, or by visiting Kanopy.com/NOLS in a web browser.

About Kanopy

NOLS began offering Kanopy in February 2025. Since its launch, NOLS patrons have logged more than 7,200 free checkouts.

Kanopy is a streaming platform that provides online access to a diverse collection of movies and TV shows. NOLS cardholders have free unlimited viewing access to more than 1,000 titles including British cinema and television, documentaries, diverse and independent films, comedies, classics and family-friendly programming.

For information, visit BigMovieWatch.com, call 360-417-8500, or email discover@nols.org.



Instantly stream "Across the Universe" (2007, rated PG-13) during Kanopy's Big Movie Watch, Feb. 9-23, through the North Olympic Library System.
