Re: Fair Housing Rights trainings through the North Olympic Library System

The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) is hosting free interactive trainings with the Fair Housing Center of Washington. The one-hour program Fair Housing Rights Everyone Should Know will give participants a better understanding of their rights and responsibilities when seeking and enjoying housing.

Schedule

Thursday, Feb. 26, 6–7 p.m. on Zoom

Tuesday, March 17, 2–3 p.m. at Forks Branch Library, 171 S. Forks Ave.

Tuesday, March 17, 6–7 p.m. at Port Angeles Main Library, 2210 S. Peabody St.

Adria Buchanan, the Executive Director of the Fair Housing Center of Washington, will cover topics including who is protected under the law, the difference between fair housing and landlord tenant law, what housing discrimination can look like, how to advocate for yourself or someone you know, and when to seek additional support or file a complaint.

For information, visit NOLS.org/events, call 360-417-8500, or email discover@nols.org.
