Re: Contribute to a Community Quilt at the Port Angeles Main Library

The Port Angeles Main Library, 2210 S. Peabody St., invites the public to celebrate America's 250th by being a part of the creation of a Port Angeles Community Quilt.

A Kick-Off Event will take place from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 19, where attendees can learn more about the quilt project and watch the movie "How to Make an American Quilt" (1999, PG-13). A limited number of free quilt kits will be available to take home.

Event attendance is not necessary to contribute to the Port Angeles Community Quilt, and contributors are welcome to use their own supplies. Completed squares can be dropped off at the Port Angeles Main Library during open hours March 23 through May 1. Quilt squares must meet the following requirements for a chance to be included:

- 8 x 8 inches (finished).
- Allow a 1/4 inch to 1/2 inch on each side for trimming/sewing.
- Use only 100% cotton fabric.
- Keep the quilt square flat, no fabric or embellishments should be three-dimensional or hanging off of the square.
- Iron the quilt square before submitting.

Only one square may be submitted per person. Depending upon participation, the Library may be unable to include all squares or may choose to assemble more than one quilt.

The finished quilt will be displayed at the 2026 Clallam County Fair, and then added to the North Olympic History Center's collection.
