Featuring works from over 40 local artists, the "Farm to Table" Art in the Library exhibition will be displayed June 12 to Aug. 15 at the Port Angeles Main Library, 2210 S. Peabody St. The show opens with a free public reception on Friday, June 12, from 6:30 to 8 p.m., with beginner-friendly line dancing lessons for all ages taught by Bailey Bee.

Artworks include paintings, drawings, photography, fiber art, poetry, and mixed-media creations inspired by agriculture and food. The exhibition is part of the "Plant a Seed, Read" Summer Reading Program.

For more information, visit NOLS.org/events, call 360-417-8500 or email discover@nols.org. Support for Art in the Library comes from the Port Angeles Friends of the Library.

“Life of Garlic” by Rachel Herring Shyles depicts the garlic life cycle and beneficial soil microbes.

“Aisles” by Mikayla DeBerry highlights both the connection and contrast between rows of crops and rows of products in the grocery store.

Bailey Bee will lead free, beginner-friendly line dancing lessons for all ages at the “Farm to Table” opening reception on June 12. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.
