Re: Learn how to get your first job at “Adulting 101” at Forks Library, June 30

Forks, WA – The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) invites teens to Adulting 101, a free program designed to help young people learn more about starting their careers and pathways to success, on Tuesday, June 30, at 10 a.m. at the Forks Branch Library, 171 S. Forks Ave.

This one-hour event will feature an interactive Q&A panel where attendees can ask local managers questions about topics such as job qualifications, work ethic, interview tips, workplace expectations and how to gain experience even if it’s your first time applying for a job. Local managers from several organizations will participate in the panel, including representatives from Quileute Enterprises, NOLS Human Resources and Forks Outfitters.

While this is not a hiring event, it is an opportunity to better understand the hiring process and network with professionals in the community in a supportive setting. Teens are encouraged to come prepared with questions.
