Re: Free improv workshop for tweens at Port Angeles Main Library, July 30

Port Angeles, WA – Tweens in grades 4-6 are invited to a free improv workshop for beginners from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. on Thursday, July 30, at the Port Angeles Main Library, 2210 S. Peabody St. Participants will explore improv techniques focusing on imaginative play, active listening, quick thinking and collaborative storytelling.

About the Teacher

Born and raised in Port Angeles, Rose Fredson-Ellis holds a BFA in Performing Arts from the University of Idaho and brings extensive international teaching experience to her classroom work. She has taught drama in Indonesia, Zimbabwe, and Lithuania, worked as a teaching artist and project manager at Zachary Scott Theatre in Austin, TX, and served as a lead facilitator for a disability arts theatre company in the UK. She is currently developing drama and movement programming at Clallam Mosaic, working with learners of all ages and abilities.

The library is offering this workshop in partnership with Peninsula Performs!, which brings professional artists into K-12 classrooms in Port Angeles and Sequim during the school year.

About the Summer Reading Program

The workshop is part of the “Plant a Seed, Read” Summer Reading Program, running through Aug. 22. Sign up for the reading challenge, earn a T-shirt or tote bag, enter to win prizes and participate in free events.

For more information about the Summer Reading Program, visit NOLS.org/srp, call 360-417-8500, or email Discover@NOLS.org. The Summer Reading Program is generously supported by local Friends of the Library groups.
