The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) invites all ages to a Jump Roping Extravaganza featuring jump rope world champion Rene Bibaud and 12 athletes from the Rain City Ropeworks jump rope team.

SCHEDULE

- Wednesday, Aug. 12, 10 to 11 a.m., Tillicum Park, Tillicum Ln., Forks
- Wednesday, Aug. 12, 3 to 4 p.m., Port Angeles Main Library, 2210 S. Peabody St.
- Thursday, Aug. 13, 10:30 to 11:30 a.m., Sequim Branch Library, 630 N. Sequim Ave.

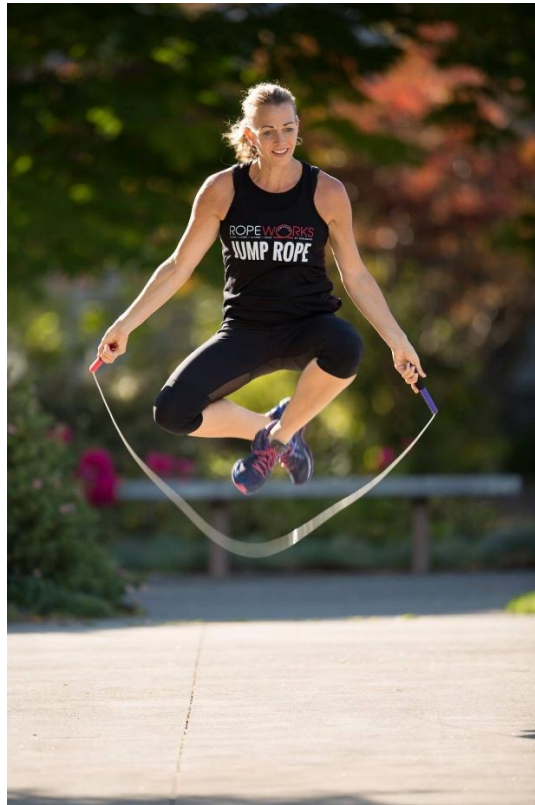

Attendees can enjoy a jump rope show centered on the power of a growth mindset that combines performance, story and audience participation. After the presentation, attendees can test their skills with and try out jump rope tricks. All events will take place outdoors.

Frozen treats will be provided to celebrate the end of the NOLS Summer Reading Program and all of the reading milestones community members reached this summer.

Find more information about free library programs at NOLS.org/events, call 360-417-8500 or email discover@nols.org. The Summer Reading Program is generously supported by local Friends of the Library groups.

About the Presenter

Rene Bibaud failed to make her elementary school's jump rope team as a 10-year-old. Decades later, Bibaud has won world championships, toured the world as a coach and as a featured performer for Cirque du Soleil, appeared on television, in feature films and on a thousand stages, and provided commentary for ESPN. Bibaud created her own business with a focus on youth motivation and growth mindset. She is the head coach of Rain City Ropeworks jump rope team based out of West Seattle.

NOLS offers free parties in Forks, Port Angeles and Sequim with jump rope world champion Rene Bibaud and her team of jump rope athletes.

Rene Bibaud and Rain City Ropeworks will perform and lead jump rope workshops to celebrate the end of NOLS Summer Reading Program.
