Re: 9/11 film and discussion at Sequim Library

The Sequim Branch Library, 630 N. Sequim Ave, will screen a short film highlighting first-person accounts of the attacks on 9/11 and their aftermath, followed by a discussion. This free event begins at 1 p.m. on Friday, September 11.

Featured in the film are Richard Eichen who helped his colleague evacuate from the 90th floor of the North Tower; Terri Tobin, an NYPD lieutenant who continued rescue efforts after surviving the collapse of the South Tower; and the adult children of 9/11 victims FDNY Lieutenant Kevin Dowdell, PAPD Officer Donald McIntyre and Cantor Fitzgerald employee Anthony Perez.

The film is available from the National September 11 Memorial and Museum in partnership with the New York Life Foundation. Additional resources including books and documentaries about 9/11 are available through the North Olympic Library System catalog.

This program is generously supported in part by the Friends of Sequim Library. For additional information on programs at your library, visit NOLS.org/events, email discover@nols.org, or call 360-683-1161.
