Re: Tabletop role-playing game events at Sequim and Port Angeles libraries

Tabletop role-playing game (TTRPG) events are offered monthly at the Port Angeles and Sequim branches of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS). Drop in and adventure to other worlds. Bring your own group or make new friends at the free events. Most of the provided games are recommended for ages 8 and up; children under the age of 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

TTRPG SCHEDULE

- Sequim Branch Library, 630 N. Sequim Ave.
Third Saturday of each month: Oct. 17, Nov. 21, and Dec. 19,
from 3 to 5 p.m.
- Port Angeles Main Library, 2210 S. Peabody St.
Third Wednesdays of each month: Oct. 21, Nov. 18, and Dec. 16,
from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

For event details, visit NOLS.org/events, email discover@NOLS.org or call 360-683-1161.

This program is made possible by the Institute of Museum and Library Services through the Library Services and Technology Act, with funding administered by the Washington State Library, a division of the Office of the Secretary of State. It is also supported in part by the Friends of Sequim Library and Port Angeles Friends of the Library.

About Tabletop Role-Playing Games

Tabletop role-playing games (TTRPGs) are interactive, collective storytelling games that allow players to immerse themselves into different worlds, characters and scenarios. These games allow for creative problem-solving, social engagement, and other lifelong skills like reading, math and community building.
