CLALLAM BAY, Wash. – The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) invites community members to create no-sew fabric artwork at free Kinusaiga crafting events this autumn. Kinusaiga is a beginner-friendly Japanese art form that uses small pieces of fabric pushed into grooves to form a pattern that resembles a mosaic.

Craft and Connect: Kinusaiga will take place on Friday, Nov. 27, from 1:30 p.m. until 4:30 p.m., at the Clallam Bay Branch Library in the Clallam Bay Community Meeting Room. This is a drop-in program. Participants are welcome to join at any time.

Limited supplies will be provided to create a 4x6 inch Kinusaiga piece, with two patterns to choose from. Attendees can bring their own fabric scraps, or use fabric provided by the library. Observers seeking to learn are welcome.

For more information, visit NOLS.org/events, call 360-374-6402, or email discover@NOLS.org. These programs are generously supported in part by local Friends of the Library groups.

Make a free no-sew Kinusaiga fabric artwork at Clallam Bay Branch Library on Nov. 27.
