Re: Murder Mystery Party for Teens

Port Angeles, Wash. – The Port Angeles Main Library, 2210 S. Peabody St., invites teens to put their detective skills to the test at a free Murder Mystery Party on Friday, Nov. 13, from 6 to 8 p.m. Held after-hours in the Raymond Carver Room, this interactive event offers teens an evening of mystery, pizza, and an opportunity to make new friends.

Set at a prestigious magic school, the murder mystery invites participants to take on the role of an intriguing character… who is also a suspect. Teens work together to uncover clues, question fellow suspects, and attempt to solve the mystery. Character roles will be assigned at the event. Costumes are encouraged but not required.

The event is designed for teens, and all story content is rated for teen audiences. Scripts include references to magic, witches, wizards, and demons.

For more information, visit NOLS.org/events, call 360-417-8500, or email discover@nols.org. This program was planned by the Port Angeles Teen Advisory Board and is made possible with support from the Port Angeles Friends of the Library.
