Re: Name that country at the Forks Library

How well do you know your geography? On Wednesday, August 3 at 2pm at the Forks Library, kids ages 8 and up are invited to play a life-size geography game that will test their skills.

This event is part of the North Olympic Library System's summer reading program, One world, many stories. This annual program encourages kids to continue reading during summer when school is out by offering free events and prizes. Children throughout Clallam County are invited to sign up for the program, which ends on August 6, at any of the four North Olympic Libraries: Port Angeles, Clallam Bay, Forks, and Sequim.

The program is free and open to the public. The Forks Library is at 171 South Forks Avenue. For more information about this program or other activities for young people, please contact the Forks Library at 374.6402, or Forks@nols.org ; or go to www.nols.org.
