Re: Port Angeles Art Blast and Art in the Library Events and Exhibits for November-December

The November Art Blast brings Tanga's high energy rhythms into the heart of the Port Angeles library on Friday, November 4 from 7 to 9pm. Tanga plays a wide variety of jazz music, including Latin Jazz (incorporating Caribbean and Brazilian rhythms), Swing, Funk, Blues, and Rock. The core members of Tanga have been together for about ten years and, in one form or another, have frequently delighted audiences at the Juan de Fuca Festival, Lavender Festival, Crab Festival, Concerts on the Pier, Peninsula College, and many other local venues. Members of the band include Ed Donohue on trumpet and flugelhorn; Jim Rosand on keyboards and keyboard bass; Tom Svornich on drums; and Kevin MacCartney on sax, flute, conga drums (5), and EWI (electric wind instrument). The bi-monthly Art Blast at the Port Angeles Library celebrates the talents of local performance artists.

Tanga's performance will be preceded at 6:30pm by the opening reception for the November-December Art in the Library visual arts exhibit; this is a time to meet the featured artists and enjoy refreshments.

The late-autumn Art in the Library exhibit will feature the work of local artists Janet Beers, Leroy Beers, Diana Miller, Diana Kohler, Dona Cloud, and Sandra Howard. Their work will be on display in the library November 1, 2011 - January 6, 2012.

Art in the Library programs are free, and everyone is welcome to 'have a blast with art' in the heart of the library. Limited library services will be available during this after-hours event.

Art in the Library is a collaborative library/community art project which celebrates the talents of local artists through a series of rotating visual art exhibits and fun, free Art Blast events. The Art in the Library program at the Port Angeles Main Library is generously supported by the Port Angeles Friends of the Library. For
