Re: Musicians Johnny Bregar and Tim Noah perform for Summer Reading 2011

Rock out with Johnny Bregar on Saturday, July 2 at 10:30 am at the Port Angeles Library. Johnny's songs are about everyday life as a child. He reaches across cultural and geographic boundaries with tunes that spark children's imaginations and are comfortable and familiar. His music has been glowingly reviewed by NPR's All Things Considered as well as ParentMap, Zoogobble.com, and Parenting Magazine. "Just try to sit still," writes ParentMap Magazine.

Join Emmy award-winning songwriter Tim Noah on Wednesday, July 6 at the Sequim Branch Library at 10:30 am (or, in the case of rain, at the Sequim Middle School Cafeteria at 301 W. Hendrickson) and the Port Angeles Library at 2:00 pm. Noah demonstrates the fine art of songwriting and shares his creative process. With songs, storytelling and his unique ability to engage his audience, he inspires, encourages, delights and invites participants to sing, dance, express, create and dream. Both programs are presented as part of One World, Many Stories, the North Olympic Library System's Summer Reading program for 2011. Visit the library from Monday, June 20 through Saturday, August 6 and sign up for Summer Reading! There are three programs, each designed for young people in different age groups. One for children ages 3-12; a young adult program for kids in grades 7 – 12; and a new program for babies and toddlers (0-35 months). Participants will be eligible for prizes, including a grand prize!
