Re: Reading PALS to discuss Parrot & Olivier

Parrot & Olivier in America by Peter Carey will be discussed at 6:30pm, Wednesday July 27, at the Port Angeles Main Branch Library.

In his eleventh novel, two-time Booker Prize winner, Peter Carey, models his title character, Olivier, very loosely on Alexis de Tocqueville, gives him a feisty British sidekick, and parades him through America in the 1800s. This unlikely duo brings readers along for a romp through the wild early days of American democracy.

Print copies of this book are available at the library while supplies last.

Pre-registration for this program is not required. Drop-ins are always welcome.

The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody St., Port Angeles.
