Re: Movies to be shown for Teens at the Sequim Branch Library

On Friday, January 27, at 5:30pm at the Sequim Branch of the North Olympic Library System, teens ages 13 and up can sit back and relax at the first in a new monthly series of Teen Friday Movies. Movies selected by the Young Adult Advisory Group and appropriate for teens aged 13 and up will be shown on the last Friday of each month.

The movie selections are all based upon novels and audience members are encouraged to read the novels before coming to the movie. The January movie will be based upon the novel I am Legend by Richard Matheson. February will feature the movie based upon the popular Ian Fleming novel Casino Royale. In March teens can see the exciting movie based upon the true event detailed in Bringing Down the House by Ben Mizrich.

The goal of this new program is to provide a safe and free entertainment option for teens on Friday nights. This program was suggested by the newly-formed Young Adult Advisory Group. Teens want the Library to be a place to not only for learning, but also a community gathering place where they can be with their friends. All movies are shown under the terms of a licensing agreement through which the North Olympic Library System can hold public showings of selected titles. On movie nights only the meeting room and lobby of the Sequim Library will be open. Staff will supervise the event and movie-type refreshments will be provided.

For movie titles and more information about the Teen Friday Movies and other activities for young adults at the Sequim Library and the North Olympic Library System, go to www.nols.org,
