Re: Creative Writing Workshop at the Clallam Bay Library

Young people will enjoy creative writing as part of a program for kids at the Clallam Bay Branch of the North Olympic Library System. This class begins on Monday, January 23, for grades 6-8. It continues on Wednesday, January 25 for grades 1-5. Both workshops begin at 3:15 pm.

Have you ever wondered how writers come up with story ideas? Find out the answer to this and other intriguing questions, while enjoying a fun and informative creative writing workshop. Program participants will develop creative stories based upon thoughtful self-expression. Discover the power of the written word through effective and fun writing exercises!

This program is part of an ongoing partnership between the North Olympic Library System and Cape Flattery School District's COAST (Creating Opportunities for After School Thinking) program. Funded by a Department of Education 21st Century Learning Grant, COAST's mission is to provide after-school enrichment activities for children. For more information about the COAST program, contact the Clallam Bay School at (360) 963-2324.
