Re: Paws to Read at the Port Angeles Main Library

On Saturday, February 11 at 2pm, the North Olympic Library System's Port Angeles Library will offer Paws to Read for families. Through the Library's partnership with Olympic Gentle Paws, the club's four-legged members will be on hand so children can practice their reading skills by reading to therapy dogs. The dogs are trained to listen and be attentive as children read or simply talk to them. All dogs and trainers are members of the Olympic Gentle Paws therapy dog group.

Children of all ages are welcome to stop by anytime between 2pm and 3pm. Pre-registration is not required. Paws to Read is a regular program occurring on the second Saturday of each month.

The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody Street. For information on this or other programs for youth, check out the North Olympic Library's website at www.nols.org, contact the Library at (360) 417-8502 or email youth@nols.org.
