Re: Al Harris Trio – Music, culture and more

The Al Harris Trio will present a musical program for families at the North Olympic Library System's Port Angeles Library on Saturday March 31 at 2pm. The trio, made up of Craig Buhler, Al Harris, and Chuck Easton will demonstrate how instruments have been used throughout history and how musical styles and clothing styles are influenced by the culture of the day. Understanding the evolution of wind instruments, keyboards, and rhythm sections, and their correlation to the fashion trends of the times can enhance your appreciation of the music itself. From a snippet of Mozart's Clarinet Concerto to the theme songs from The Pink Panther and The Flintstones; music, musical instruments, and musicians will provide an educational and entertaining afternoon of family fun.

For information on this and other programs for families, contact the Port Angeles Main Library at (360) 417-8502, check on the website at www.nols.org, or email youth@nols.org. The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody Street in Port Angeles. This program is generously supported by the Port Angeles Friends of the Library.
