Re: Celebration of the Arts at Forks Library

The Forks Branch of the North Olympic Library System will join the Forks community in celebrating the arts on Saturday, April 26 with activities scheduled for all ages.

From 10:30am to 1pm, local spinners will be on hand to demonstrate methods for spinning wool into yarn. Spinning wheels, drop spindles, a variety of fiber types and completed projects will be on display.

At 1pm, multi-talented Dennis McGregor, the featured artist of the 2014 Fabric of the Forest Quilt Show, will read, sing and share samples of his quilt inspired artwork. McGregor's work is featured on this year's Fabric of the Forest Quilt Show promotional poster. He is also the author and illustrator of Dream Again, a children's book featuring a brave young Oregon Trail pioneer and her treasured quilt. After his presentation, Dennis will be available to sign copies of his book and artwork.

Other activities at the library will include make-and-take crafts for all ages, book displays and more!

This celebration is free and open to the public. The Forks Library is at 171 South Forks Avenue in Forks.
