Re: Book discussion of The Help by Kathryn Stockett
at the Sequim Branch Library

The Help by Kathryn Stockett will be discussed at 3pm on Saturday, May 10, at the Sequim Branch of the North Olympic Library System.

The Deep South of the 1960s is the volatile setting for this thought-provoking novel about two black maids in Jackson, Mississippi, and the white women who employ them. As the lives of these remarkable women intertwine, they build a compelling story whose heartbeat is injustice, indignation and cultural change. Stockett's pitch-perfect depiction of a country's gradual path toward integration doubles as a portrait of a country struggling with racial issues.

Copies of the book are available at the Sequim Branch Library in various formats, including large print, audiobook on CD, and downloadable e-book or audio. They can be requested online through the Library catalog at www.nols.org. Pre-registration for this program is not required, and drop-ins are always welcome.

The Sequim Branch Library is located at 630 North Sequim Avenue. For more information on this and other programs for readers and book lovers, go to www.nols.org and click on "Events" and "Sequim," or contact the Sequim Branch Library at 360.683.1161 or Sequim@nols.org.
